

Esther Berger Is Winner in Contest Of Oregon Farmer

Helvetia, Dec. 22.—Esther Berger won the drawing prize offered by the Oregon Farmer last week. Her cousin, Thelma Berger, of Valle Vista, was a successful competitor this summer. Both girls attend the Rock Creek school.

Saturday evening the Sunday school and church will give a program and Christmas tree.

The school will have their program and Christmas tree Friday afternoon.

Mason Hill school will entertain with a program and basket social Friday night. The ladies are asked to bring baskets or lunch. The roads are in good shape and a big crowd is expected.

Adolph Myers is ill.

Freda Korn left for San Francisco last week to fill a position as stenographer for the Southern Pacific railroad company. Her sister Minnie works in the same office.

Mike Vrlicak lost several head of sheep last week, when dogs got into the herd and killed them.

Mrs. C. E. Kern is suffering from inflammation of the bronchial tubes. She went to Portland Monday to consult a doctor.

The Myers family went to Portland Saturday to do Christmas shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Pavn of Portland were visiting the Feuerstein family Sunday. They report that their brother-in-law, Paul Dane, is not improving.

Mrs. Smith's daughter, Mrs. Carrie Litzel, was operated on for a tumor last week. She is still in the hospital at Portland. She will stay with her sister, Mrs. Jennings, as soon as she can leave Portland.

Hot cross buns are cut from spiced dough rolled one-half inch thick. After rising they are brushed with beaten egg. Upon removal from the oven, a cross is made on top with confectioner's frosting.

Surprise Thatcher Couple on Sunday

Thatcher, Dec. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sears were surprised Sunday when their relatives walked in with well filled baskets to help them celebrate their 20th wedding anniversary. They presented them with an electric iron. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kern of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sears and daughter, Norma, of Forest Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Bailey and daughters, Elinor and Marie, of David's Hill and the honored guests.

Mrs. Robert Mott went to Portland last Wednesday to be with her sister, Mrs. Lawrence Bamford, who was operated on at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kitson and Mrs. Ben Bennett and sons, Charles and Francis, motored to Portland last Tuesday.

William Heesacker of Gaston was calling on Fred Haney Sunday.

Mrs. Oscar Love was calling on Mrs. Leon Sills Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Goff and son, Arnold, took dinner with Mrs. Goff's mother, Mrs. I. Hazlitt, in Forest Grove Wednesday.

Little Betty McCann of Manning spent last week with her grandmother, Mrs. Lucy LaSalle.

James Wright and son, Harold, of Forest Grove, spent Sunday with Mr. Wright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Wright.

Herbert Redetzek motored to Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Loynes went to Portland Saturday to see their daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Bamford, who is in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Eslinger and son of David's Hill spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Haney.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Raymond and son were guests Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Buckley.

Wise-Swisher readers a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

The snow on the mountain has disappeared.

WISE—SWISHER

Mr. H. A. Wise of Ferguson Flats, Alberta, and Miss Thelma Mabel Swisher were married December 7, at the Seventh Day Adventist church in Hillsboro, at 8 o'clock in the evening, Rev. George Belleau officiating.

The wedding march was played by Miss Newcombe and a violin solo by Prof. Hickman. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Pomeroy were matron of honor and best man.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Swisher of west of Hillsboro.

The bride and groom will reside here until spring, when they will go to Ferguson Flats, Alberta, to make their home.

Richter Takes Over the Oakland-Pontiac Agency

Another change in automobile row took place last week when the V. Richter company changed from the Buick line to the Oakland-Pontiac agency.

OELRICH NURSERY COMPANY

Hillsboro, Route Four

We carry a full line of Fruit, Shrubbery, Filbert and Nut Trees Located one mile north of Reedville, at the corner of Market and Baseline Road

VENETIAN THEATER

LAST MINUTE SHOPPERS

We are prepared to furnish Electrical Gifts for selection from a more complete stock than you can imagine. Get practical gift suggestions from our windows.

Open Evenings Until Christmas Eve

PORTLAND ELECTRIC POWER CO.

Greetings

For a Merry Christmas and thanking you for your past patronage

Friday and Saturday

We will give a 25 Per Cent Discount on all Christmas goods

A Useful Gift With Every Purchase!

Percy Long's Hardware

Telephone 371Z

1222 Second Street

Your Thrift Store wishes you a very Merry Christmas, and offers for your table the finest foods the market affords at prices to save you money

Raids of Sheriff Result in Arrests

Charles F. Barron and W. F. Reed, both of Cooper Mountain, were arrested Thursday, charged with liquor law violations. Officers said that both had liquor in their possession, as well as parts of a still, and expressed the opinion that the two were partners. Deputies William Hathorn and Oscar Duley made the arrests. Reed was up two years ago.

Fred Keller was placed in jail Thursday to serve his time because of failure to pay a fine. He was arrested last spring and officers reported the find of 700 gallons of wine.

Ray Delsman was taken into custody by Deputies Duley and Hathorn Saturday on a liquor charge.

Hayward Folk Visit Relatives in Utah

Hayward, Dec. 22.—James Penman and his niece, Isa Beveridge, left this week for Utah, where they will visit several relatives. They will be gone until some time in February.

L. Updike from Portland is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Herdson.

A. Dober is spending the holidays at home.

The Jesse boys visited several days last week with their sister, Mrs. D. Zwichert, of Portland. We wish the editor and all the

City Market and Grocery
All kinds of Fresh Groceries and Vegetables
MRS. STRACHAN, Proprietor
Telephone 691 1162 Third St.

Digs Up Prunes and Substitutes Walnuts

W. L. Peters and son, Francis, of Chealem Mountain, were Hillsboro visitors Thursday. Mr. Peters and son have won considerable recognition as potato growers and at the Sherwood show this year won the sweepstakes. They have started milking Shorthorns, having bought two from Frank Brown at Carlton. They also bought a New Hampshire sow and nine pigs from Idaho to raise some bacon. Mr. Peters says they are changing over from the Poland-China breed because of too much fat. Another change on the Peters' farm is from prunes to walnuts.

There Are Many "Your wife doesn't seem to make much of a success with her reducing."
"No, Margaret is one of those poor losers."—Boston Transcript.

Used Cars Sold

—from—
Dec. 1 to Dec. 17

1. J. C. Miller
2. Fred Sinay
3. Gill Stoller
4. Mike Grevis
5. John Harness
6. George West
7. A. L. Cutright
8. E. A. Bremer
9. Frank Fisher
10. William Coomes
11. W. L. Barrett
12. Edward Naughton
13. D. Prichart

We wish to thank the above customers, who helped us put over this sale.

R. J. Higdon
Motor Company

"Chevrolet Corner"
TELEPHONE 441
Third and Washington Streets

Champions of the World

Tunney - - - Man
Man o' War - - - Horse
Spirit of St. Louis - - - Aeroplane
Studebaker - - - Automobile

No machine made by man, bird of the air, or animal, ever traveled so fast, so long, so far—25,000 miles in less than 23,000 minutes!

Come In — Ride In It — Drive It!

Our Service Department

Competent men to repair and properly adjust champion cars
OILS, GREASE, TIRES and ACCESSORIES

Wishing you THE SEASON'S GREETINGS and assuring you of our keen appreciation of your good will and patronage.

C. W. White Motor Co.
Studebaker and Erskine Cars

Second and Washington Streets

Hillsboro, Oregon

Distribution Without Waste

A Merry Christmas

At this season of prevailing good will the Safeway Man voices the sincere sentiment of our vast organization when he wishes you "A Merry Christmas."

May every individual in this great West know the fullest measure of joy and gladness. We earnestly hope this will prove the finest Christmas our country has ever known.

Our stores are filled with all the good things you will need for your Christmas dinner. Prices are consistently low.

Take Advantage of These Savings

Friday and Saturday, December 23, 24

Butter Very Best Creamery per lb. 49c	Sugar C. and H. Cane 10 lbs. 59c
---	--

Oranges New Navels per doz. 35c	Bananas Large Ripe Fruit 3 lbs. 25c
---	---

Christmas Savings at the Safeway Market

Carsten's Quality Hams 18c a Pound Whole or Half A Real Saving!	Our Poultry We were very successful in supplying our customers with turkeys, ducks, geese and chickens of the finest quality for the preceding holiday. We made many new customer friends and gave satisfaction to our regular customers. Our Christmas poultry is to be of better quality and at a more economical price. We cannot quote our prices just now but we assure you they will be right. Our Ham feature for this week is worth notice, as it is a money saver for you.	High Quality Mince Meat Flavored with Brandy and Cherry Wine 2 Lbs. for 35c Enough for 2 large pies
Carsten's Quality Sliced Ham All Center Slices 38c a pound For Frying or Baking	Pork Roast All shoulder cuts 20c a Pound Young tender pork A very nice and economical Xmas dinner

We Handle Olympia Oysters

Store No. 47

Hillsboro

Phone 2171