

Many Programs to Be Given at Rock Creek This Week

Rock Creek, Dec. 22.—The Methodist church is giving its Christmas program Saturday evening, the Phillips Reformed church Sunday night, and Helvetia on Saturday evening.

A new store has been started by Mr. Church at Rock Creek.

Miss May Pucy is visiting at the home of her parents over the Christmas holidays.

Tony Gutschmidt of Washington is home for Christmas.

Mr. Dornier and sons of Portland visited at the home of M. Waefer, Sr., Sunday, where Mrs. Dornier is convalescing from a severe illness.

School was closed one day this week on account of Mrs. Heitzenreter's illness.

Philip Pezoldt of southern Oregon is spending the holidays at home.

Lydia Scheidt spent a few days in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Koner and son visited at the home of Mrs. Koner's parents, Sunday.

Mrs. E. Kaufman of Portland visited old friends in Phillips Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Alwen are now living on the Kaufman place.

The following attended the play, "Love 'Em and Leave 'Em" at Hillsboro Thursday evening: Lon Pezoldt, Ed Scheidt, Henry Berger, Gottlieb and Emma Schneider, Fern Waefer and Henry Tschabald. They all enjoyed the play immensely and said that Mr. Miltenberger, mail carrier on route 1, played his part excellently.

MRS. MARY STALEY

Mrs. Mary Staley, 81, died Sunday at Vernonia. Funeral services were held Tuesday from the Glenn F. Bell mortuary, with the Rev. E. B. Lockhart officiating. Interment was in the local cemetery.

Mrs. Staley was born in Mansville, Ohio, July 22, 1846, and had lived at Timber two years. Before moving to Timber she lived at Witz Hazel.

Vaugh's Grocery
First Quality Groceries
Prices Reasonable
WE DELIVER — PHONE 61

Kinton Community Christmas Dinner At Church Sunday

Kinton, Dec. 22.—The community dinner at the church this Christmas Sunday will be served at near noon as possible. Session of the bible school at 11 o'clock. There will also be an election of the officers of the church and school during the day. It is desired there be a large attendance of the people in the community as possible, as it is for the interest of the community at large. Christmas sermon by the pastor, the Rev. W. L. Strange, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Everybody invited to attend these services during the day.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Murhard of Portland were guests Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Ward, Pleasant Valley road. Mrs. Murhard is a sister of Mr. Ward.

Solicitors have been making the rounds during the past week for funds to buy the eats for the Christmas tree and entertainment to be given at the grange hall this Friday evening, and it is hoped that all in the community will be present. Those who did the soliciting were J. C. Snider, Harold Cutting and Charles Kulbe.

There was a very good attendance of members at the regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid society at the church last Thursday afternoon. A good start was made on quilting, and more work will be taken in during the winter. Any one having work to be done in the sewing line would do well to consult the president of the society, Mrs. Harry Richards, or any of the members.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Hoover made a business trip to Portland last Thursday.

Noah Perry of Portland was calling on his old friends and neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Schulte, Cooper Mountain, last Friday.

E. H. Steinmetz of Chitwood was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. VanKleek the first of the week.

Two of our popular young men will serve as committeemen in the coming Washington county agricultural outlook conference, which is to be held a little later on. They are Wayne VanKleek, poultry, and William Wenzel, horticulture.

James Walkenshaw of The Dalles arrived Friday at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. W. Young, Tile Flat road, and will remain during the holiday season.

Joseph Wenzel, who is attending state normal school at Monmouth, is home for the holiday recess with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Wenzel, Cooper Mountain.

Mrs. L. S. Bierly and daughter, Mrs. Ethel McCormick, who are spending the winter in Hillsboro, were at their home here Thursday, and attended the meeting of the Ladies' Aid society, of which they are members.

Harry A. Richards, who has been employed in Taft for the past few months as a carpenter, has returned to his home in this town, where he will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Thomas of Portland were guests last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bierly and family spent the day Saturday in Portland. Floyd Bierly was also a Portland visitor Saturday.

A goodly number of out-of-town people were present at the bazaar given at the grange hall Saturday evening from Beaverton, Tigard, Hiteon, Greenburg, Scholls, Lake Grove, and Reedville.

Mrs. Pearl Tozier, principal of the school, was quite ill the last of the week. Mrs. Harriet Ford taught her grades during her illness.

Mrs. Harry Richards returned home Saturday from a few days' stay with relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Snider are the proud grandparents of a nice baby boy born recently to their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Snider, Jr., who reside in Ione.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvyn Vandermost of Farmington were calling Sunday at the home of Mr. Vandermost's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Vandermost. The many friends of Mr. Vandermost will be interested to learn that he is attending Columbia university in Portland.

Miss Lenore Schulte of Portland was a guest Saturday of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Schulte, Cooper Mountain.

J. C. Snider had the misfortune to be bitten on his right hand by a dog belonging to R. Teufel one day last week. So far no bad effects have resulted and Mr. Snider is getting along nicely.

William Wenzel made business trips to Scappoose and Rainier during the past week. While in Rainier he was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Kurt W. Braune. He returned home Monday.

Everett Snider, Mrs. Fred West and Miss Lucile Snider, all of Portland, have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Snider, during the past week.

Don't forget to come to the community Christmas tree at the grange hall this Friday evening. There is to be a nice program and a good time for all who attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wright and son were Beaverton callers Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Cox were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. C. Vandermost. Miss Margaret Vandermost also observed it as her birthday. A nice birthday cake, which was cut by Miss Margaret, graced the center of the table.

The bazaar given under the auspices of the local grange Saturday evening was quite a success and largely attended. The "fish pond" was the leading attraction and many kinds of fish were caught. The candy table was a very sweet place and was well patronized. There were many nice and useful articles for sale, and after the program these were auctioned off. The following short program was enjoyed: Readings by Mrs. Louise VanKleek, and a one-act play entitled, "Uncertain Silas." Leland Flint took the part of Silas Sorghum; Susan Sweet, by Miss Effie VanKleek; Ysobel LeClair, Miss Gertrude Richter; Ma Sweet, Mrs. Kirk Hoover. After a social time lunch was served in the dining room. A nice little sum was realized from the affair and will be added to the grange treasury.

William VanLoh and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cox spent Tuesday afternoon and evening in Portland. Messrs. VanLoh and Cox attended the regular meeting of Canton Portland No. 1, I. O. O. F., in the evening.

Schefflin

Laurel, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Heinrich, is ill with the measles.

Lorain Cawse has been ill with an attack of tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Parent of Fort Klamath were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Russell.

The following were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Delplanche: Mr. and Mrs. John Bernards and family; Henry Narup, George Spiering, Roy; Eugene Delplanche, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hertel and family, and Miss Lena Crop of near Banks.

Little Miss Helen Gram of Portland is visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Huber of Vernonia have recently moved to make their home in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Smith were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Vanderzanden of Roy.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Russell were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Sahrnow and family.

Frank Horberger of Portland was a Schefflin business visitor Monday.

Grange Leaders Speak Over the O. A. C. Radio

Corvallis, Dec. 22.—Local grange leaders and Mrs. Minnie E. Bond, state lecturer, are appearing regularly on the Wednesday night grange hour over the college radio station, KOAC. College speakers, including Dr. Milton N. Nelson, head of the economics department, add to the programs with discussions of current political and economic questions. In a series of talks of farm relief plans, Dr. Nelson scheduled an address on the grange debenture plan for December 21 at 8 o'clock.

For Sale—Old newspapers at the Argus office; 10c per bundle. tf

Orengo Youth Is Fatally Injured In An Explosion

Orengo, Dec. 22.—Mrs. William Busby received word Sunday morning that her son, Robert, had been killed in an explosion at Garibaldi, where he was employed at a sawmill as a mechanic in the repair shop. The accident occurred Saturday afternoon, and Mrs. Busby's uncle, who resides at Tillamook, was the messenger to bring the news to the mother. Mrs. Busby and daughter, Rosa, left at once with the uncle for the scene of the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Quintance and granddaughter, Lucile, returned last Friday from San Jose, California, where Fred was employed as an engineer for a large irrigation company.

The Christian Endeavor society gave an entertainment Monday evening in the school auditorium consisting of a piano duet, vocal solo, piano solo, violin solo, two readings, medley of Christmas hymns, instrumental music by clarinet, banjo and accordion. The young folks put on a play, "Keeping Him Home," that was well carried out.

Mrs. Spencer Jones, who had a goiter removed, is now recuperating at the Portland medical hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Coffin of Portland were calling on Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hair Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. H. F. Elford, who was sick for a week, has recovered and was able to accompany the family to Newberg Sunday to visit Mr. Elford's parents.

Rev. George T. Pratt was confined to his room a few days last week, and was not able to fill his pulpit Sunday evening.

Mrs. M. C. Finley of Salem spent a day here last week as the guest of her brother, John B. Hair, and wife. She was accompanied by a son who is attending medical school in Portland.

The school bell was out of commission Thursday afternoon and Friday, caused by the breaking of the large bolt holding it in place. It was placed in position again Monday morning, and its welcome sound again called the pupils to their lessons.

Miss Florence Kidd is clerking afternoons in Albert Lindgren's store.

Practical Gift Suggestions for Christmas

Bathrobes
Handkerchiefs
Slippers

Mufflers
Ties
Umbrellas

Shirts
Men's Hosiery
Purses

Ladies' Hosiery

W. W. BOSCOW

Main Street Hillsboro, Oregon

Smokes For Him! Candies For Her!

There's no question of the appropriateness of Good Cigars, Cigarettes, or a Pipe as a Yuletide Gift for him. We know what he smokes. Let us help you select the present that will suit him best! We've yet to see the girl or woman who doesn't welcome a gift of Candy! We can help you select the very box she wants! Let us serve you.

THE MALIBU

Fountain Lunch Served at All Hours

LOANS

On real estate. Low interest cost. Repayment privileges

WASHINGTON SAVINGS & LOAN ASSOCIATION
Shute Bank Bldg. Hillsboro

A Good Connection to Start The New Year

Join your financial matters with a bank that is always ready to be of counsel and help to you when you need it. Make it a resolution to come in here and get acquainted. We have much in common.

The Season's Greetings

SHUTE SAVINGS BANK

"The Oldest Bank in Washington County"

IF YOU REALLY WANT A GOOD HOME

LET US FURNISH THE BUILDING MATERIAL
We carry everything for your needs from the Basement to the Roof, in first-class material.
GIVE US A CALL

J. W. COPELAND YARDS
Second and Washington Streets
Telephone 301 L. P. Stranahan, Mgr.

Low Round Trip

Christmas Holiday Fares

—VIA—
Oregon Electric Railway
$1.00, Portland and Return

Tickets on sale Dec. 16, 17, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 1927
Return limit, January 5, 1928

Round Trip Fares
Albany*	$ 3.65
Astoria	5.60
Baker	19.50
Boise	27.60
Corvallis*	4.10
Eugene*	5.75
LaGrande	$16.70
Salem*	2.65
Seattle	10.90
Spokane	21.25
Tacoma	8.85
Walla Walla	14.10

* Also on sale Dec. 26, 30, 31, Jan. 1 and 2

Proportional Reductions between other points
Baggage checked to all stations

O. E. Ry. Trains leave HILLSBORO for Portland at 12:38 a. m., 6:40 a. m., 10:38 a. m., 12:33 p. m., 4:17 p. m., 9:03 p. m., and for Eugene at 6:40 a. m., 10:38 a. m., 12:33 p. m., 4:17 p. m.

All trains run through the business district of Portland

L. F. Knowlton, PHONE 1701Y L. Sherman, Trav. Pass. Agt. Agent

Oregon Electric Railway

Drain Tile

Drain that land NOW! With Concrete Drain Tile!
We have all sizes, from 3 inch to 16 inch
Start at Once!!

Dealers in
Sand, Gravel, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Steel Sash,
Culvert Pipe, Reinforcing Iron

Hillsboro Concrete Brick & Tile Co.
Washington and North Range Street Telephone 1341

FLOWERS -- The Gift of Gifts

We have all the Seasonable Flowers for the Holidays, featured by Poinsettias, Cyclamen and Potted Plants. Our prices have not been raised to meet the occasion!
YOU CAN GET REAL QUALITY HERE
WE GUARANTEE SATISFACTION

Newsham Floral Company

Just East of Park and North of Tualatin Highway

for Economical Transportation

CHEVROLET

USED CARS

"with an OK that counts"

This Car has been carefully checked and reconditioned where necessary

- ✓ Motor
- ✓ Radiator
- ✓ Rear Axle
- ✓ Transmission
- ✓ Starting
- ✓ Lighting
- ✓ Ignition
- ✓ Battery
- ✓ Tires
- ✓ Upholstery
- ✓ Top
- ✓ Fenders
- ✓ Finish

OK by

Reconditioned Chevrolets!

We have a number of used Chevrolets that have been completely reconditioned by expert mechanics—using genuine Chevrolet parts for all replacements. They are capable of thousands of miles of good service.

If you are in the market for a used car, you will find in these reconditioned Chevrolets a dollar-for-dollar value that will amaze you. Come to our salesroom. We have a car you will like at a price that will please you.

R. J. Higdon Motor Co.

Hillsboro Oregon

QUALITY AT LOW COST