

Scholls Woman's Club Will Meet With Mrs. Groner in Portland Wednesday; Several to Attend League Convention

Scholls, March 1.—Mrs. Ferd Groner, 195 Vista avenue, Portland, has invited the Scholls Woman's club to meet with her for lunch and its regular meeting next Wednesday. Mrs. Frank Miller has charge of the program.

J. E. Bennett has charge of the registration books and Mr. Bennett is anxious to have all voters registered early.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Larkin went to Woods, near Pacific City, last Sunday, where Mr. Larkin will take treatments at Brooten's springs.

Members of the I. O. O. F. and some neighbors trimmed and cleaned the Art Larkin blackcap berry patch. Mrs. Cliff Larkin served a lunch to the men at noon.

Several from Scholls are planning to attend the Epworth League convention at Sherwood next Saturday. The league has been studying the book "Christ of the Indian Road," which they finished last Sunday evening. Rev. Trefren will give an illustrated lecture at the church.

The last literary meeting will be held at the hall Friday evening. A trio from Laurel will sing.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. Cliff Larkin Friday afternoon. Plans will be completed for the big affair to take place in April.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wohlsehlegel attended the funeral of Lewis J. Ruhl in Portland Sunday. Mr. Ruhl had been a member of the office force longer than anyone else in the 17th lighthouse district of Portland.

Glen Miller spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ornduff, who live near Echo. Miss Annie Ornduff, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Ornduff, accompanied him. On his return Mrs. Ornduff and Miss Bernice Finnegan came with him to make a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Finnegan, of Chehalem Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Adams and family from southern Oregon have moved into one of the Ferd Groner houses. Mr. Adams is a nephew of C. R. Adams, well known resident of this community.

Mrs. H. T. Hesse drove to Mouth Thursday of last week and brought Miss Amelia Schmidt of Laurel and the Misses Cecil Jack, Irma Baker, and Evelyn Hesse home for the week-end.

Those taking part in the play and other members of the program for Friday night are busy practicing.

The Graph family have moved from North Scholls to the Midway district. They now reside in the D. A. Cole residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Karpstein.

Nick Welsh came after his family Sunday, who had been visiting at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett. The little home dance given at the hall last Saturday evening was well attended.
