

At the Churches

Trinity Lutheran Church
Third and Walnut Streets
George Reule, Pastor
German service next Sunday at 10:30. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. You are also welcomed to the English service on Good Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The subject of our meditation and reflection will be "The Crucifixion."

Free Methodist Church
Corner Fifth and Oak Streets
J. N. Wood, Pastor
The conference Sunday school secretary of the Oregon conference, Virgil Howell of Gresham, will be at the Free Methodist church Sunday morning and will deliver an address to the Sunday school.

Sabbath school at 10 a. m., with preaching at 11 a. m., and at 7:30 p. m. Prayer meeting Thursday evening. All are welcome.

Full Gospel Tabernacle
1246 Lincoln Street

On March 31 (Saturday) there will be a 15-piece orchestra from Portland at the Tabernacle at 7:45 p. m. Come out and hear these young people play. You will enjoy it. Tell your friends. Everybody welcome.

Church of Christ
Corner Third and Baseline Streets
Len B. Fishback, Minister
"Two Hundred Three, this includes me," is the slogan for the Sunday school during our Easter campaign. At the 11 o'clock hour Evangelist Lemmon will speak on the subject, "Jesus Only." The C. E. society meets at 6:30. The blues are only nine points ahead in the contest. At 7:30 Evangelist Lemmon will speak on the subject, "The Parable of the Rocks." Mrs. Lemmon will lead the choir in a great song service. Special music. The home-like church invites you.

Methodist Episcopal Church
E. B. Lockhart, Minister
Dr. Canse Coming! The series of special Lenten services conducted by Rev. E. B. Lockhart will be interesting the coming week as Dr. Canse, president of Kimball School of Theology, is to be one of the speakers, the theologian and trainer of young ministers taking for his topic next Thursday night at the Methodist church, "The Upper Room," when the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed. Mr. Lockhart will preach next Sunday morning and evening and be assisted by various ministers the coming week. Dr. Walton Skipworth of Portland will preach again this evening, giving his discourse on "The Resurrection." His previous sermons this week have proved the former Hillsboro minister a profound student, and tonight another interested congregation will greet the speaker.

Christian Science Society
Regular Sunday services at 11 a. m. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Classes for the younger children at 11 a. m. Wednesday evening testimonial meeting at 8 o'clock.

First Baptist Church
S. McMinis, Pastor
The pre-Easter meetings in the Baptist church have opened with favorable indications for encouraging results. Captain Hall is a fine singer and a good speaker, and the people are rallying to his message. On Friday evening at 6:30 a church family supper will be held in the church basement. All members and friends of the church are invited.

vice at 11 o'clock. Christ's Ambassadors meet at 6:30 Sunday evening, followed by evangelistic sermon at 7:30. Cottage prayer meeting on Wednesday evening. Preaching services on Thursday and Saturday evenings. The public is invited.

Mothers, Friends Are Entertained By Helvetia Club

Helvetia, March 29.—The Stitch-in-Time club entertained their mothers and friends with an exhibition and a short program Saturday afternoon. The judges awarded prizes for the sewing project as follows: Elaine Yungen, first; Wilma Pieren, second, and Clara Tschabold, third. The demonstration contest was won by Gladys Pieren and Clara Tschabold, who will demonstrate at the county club leaders' meeting in Hillsboro Friday.

Miss Ellen Simonsen of Portland spent the week-end visiting Mrs. E. Guerber.

A birthday surprise party was held at the Badertscher home Thursday, in honor of Sam Badertscher's birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in playing games, singing and yodeling.

The last two weeks have been "fish days" for most families in this vicinity. Several families made trips to the Sandy for smelt, and then distributed what they could not make use of among their neighbors.

Mrs. C. E. Korn was in Portland this week for treatment. Mr. and Mrs. C. Floyd of Portland were guests at the Badertscher birthday party Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Davidson were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Herb Schram at Cove Orchard Friday.

Henry Christensen shipped a truck load of hogs to the Portland market Tuesday.

An Organization of Mutual Helpfulness

The spirit of mutual helpfulness, practiced among members of this organization, is one of the most important factors in the phenomenal growth—in number and popularity—of Safeway Stores. This willingness to help his fellows—and be helped by them—enables the Safeway Man to effect operating economies and accomplish tasks that, working alone or at cross-purposes, he could not hope to accomplish. You, as the consumer, profit by this co-operation among members of our organization through the greater values it permits us to give you.
