

Local Briefs

R. Frank Peters made a business trip to Toledo Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sutherland of Coquille are here for a week visiting at the S. E. Hyre home.

The young people of the All Saints' Mission will give a food sale at the Reynolds' store Saturday.

Miss Daphne Hughes of Roseburg, a student of U. of O., was a week-end guest of Miss Margaret Long.

Mrs. A. L. Yansky is in the Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, where she will soon have a major operation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pio of Vancouver, Wash., were guests of Mrs. Pio's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sewell.

Harry Sauer, Hans Neilson and Miss Helen Graham of Portland were guests of Miss Golda Sewell Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harland Mullin and daughter, Ruth, left last week for Haaswell, Colorado. They made the trip by auto.

Dr. Paul Edwards of Sunnyside church, Portland, delivered a sermon at the Methodist church here Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Saxton and family of near Corvallis were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Saxton.

Mrs. Frank Imbrie returned home Monday evening from a few weeks' visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Hay, in Seattle.

Ray Emmott of Vernonia and A. L. King of this city left Sunday morning for a few days' trip to Vale, in eastern Oregon.

George L. Poor, well known here, preached for his father, Rev. L. C. Poor, at the Lincoln Methodist church in Portland Sunday night.

Glenn Norton and John Taylor left this morning for Cordova, Alaska, to work as mechanics in a salmon cannery for five or six months.

Robert Jones, Howard Wells and William Joos were among the Oregon State college students to visit with home folks during last week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Grindle and the Misses Alice and Helen McPherson of Portland, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sewell.

Ed Bellis of the Zimmerman district, north of North Plains, left Tuesday for Minarcts, California, where he will be employed in forestry service.

Mrs. Elmer Johnson, who has been ill for several weeks with smallpox, is able to be out and the quarantine has been lifted from the Johnson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. William Severance, and Mr. and Mrs. F. Schneider of Portland were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bronleewe.

Mrs. Roscoe Jones returned to her home in Baker Wednesday, after attending the funeral Tuesday of her brother, Herman Prahl, who was killed at Kerry last week.

Charles W. Olson and J. W. Buell of near Gales City were county seat callers Tuesday. Mr. Olson says the water is higher up there now than it has been for some time.

Mrs. Carl Boehl is the guest of honor at a birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bronleewe on March 19. The guests were Portland friends of Mrs. Boehl.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Paul and little son were week-end guests of Mrs. Paul's parents, Rev. and Mrs. S. McMinis. Mr. Paul is an instructor at Oregon State college.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scown and Werner Prahl of Vancouver were Hillsboro visitors the first of the week, being in attendance at the funeral of their brother, Herman Prahl.

Mrs. A. H. Morgan and children spent the latter part of the week at Gresham, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Deaville. Mr. Morgan was a guest at the Deaville home over Sunday and his family returned home with him.

Mrs. A. L. King was called to Seattle Saturday to attend the bedside of her daughter, Miss Jean King, who was injured Friday evening by being knocked down by an auto. Word has been received that Miss King's injuries are not serious.

Mrs. Ernest Helvot entertained with a birthday party Monday afternoon for her little son, Ernest Junior, who was three years old. The little guests present were Leora and Elmer Jesse, Charles and Marvin Tevs, Conn Williams, George and Orton Larson, Nancy McKenna, Harry Junior and Patricia Hoeffel, Helen Anderson and Kennard and Ernest Helvot Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Blasing attended a dinner at the Multnomah hotel in Portland Saturday night. Those present were members of Oregon's Writers' league. Following the dinner a reception was held for Mrs. Sheba Hargreaves of Portland, who recently wrote the novel, "The Cabin at the Trail's End."

William Hanley of eastern Oregon was present and gave a talk on the early days of range riding in Oregon.

Miss Margaret Long entertained with a buffet supper after the U. of O. dance Friday night. Those present were Misses Helen Connell, Margaret Tongue, Irene Connell, Eva Sorenson, all of Hillsboro; Misses Alberta Rives and Dorothy Compton of Portland, and Miss Daphne Hughes of Roseburg; Kenneth Linklater, Kenneth Hiron, Carleton Hande, John Rodahl of Forest Grove, Edward Bisell, Tom Pumphrey, Donald Whart and Francis McKenna of Portland.

Miss Shirle Smith was the guest of honor at a progressive party Saturday night, complimenting her on her birthday. Games and dancing were enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Garthofner, and supper was served at the home of Miss Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Smith. Those present were the Misses Shirle Smith, Anna May Wells, Lahoma Powell, Clara Reuf, Alma Varner, and Messrs. Wayne Emmott, Tom Tongue Jr., Reginald Reynolds, John Hare, and Robert Patterson.

Mrs. Charles Carver Jr., of Portland, made a very interesting and inspiring talk at All Saints' Mission Wednesday afternoon of last week. Her subject was "The Church Awake," and was replete with interesting thoughts for the church workers. Her address was followed by a tea and social time, a large crowd being in attendance.

Mrs. V. W. Gardner returned Tuesday from Morgan, where she had gone on Saturday to accompany her parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Harbison and Robert Harbison. Mr. and Mrs. Harbison have been in the Portland Sanitarium for several months, but have recovered sufficiently to be taken home.

T. H. Gremgard and son, Thurston, entertained the "Bachelors' club" Wednesday evening at the Gremgard home. Dinner was served at 6:30 and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing cards and in radioing. Those present were C. D. Poole, Jack Abel, George Johansen, Robert Cull and the hosts.

Mrs. Chester Wohler of west of Hillsboro entertained Friday in honor of the fourth birthday anniversary of her little daughter, Virginia. Games and refreshments were features of the afternoon. Those present were Virginia Wohler, Edna May Johnson, Jackie Johnson, and Frances Everest.

Clell Carstens of Banks was a Hillsboro visitor Tuesday. He had a close call last week when a line snapped while he was rustling rigging in the woods, and the cable struck him at the right side of the head. Dr. Kimes of Banks attended the injury.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McAlear and daughter, Kathleen, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Johnson near Camas, Washington. The McAlears and Johnsons were old acquaintances back in Missouri and had not met for 18 or 20 years.

Rev. E. B. Lockhart returned home Tuesday evening from McMinnville, where he attended the district meeting of the Methodist ministers. He reports an interesting meeting and a good attendance.

Miss Luella Finnell, who graduated last week from the State Normal school at Monmouth was a Hillsboro visitor Friday, enroute to the home of John Will, Sr., near Laurel for a short visit.

Dr. C. B. Brown and son, Dr. Hoyt Brown, of Portland, were Hillsboro visitors Wednesday, coming out to see John M. Brown, who is at the Smith hospital, recovering from an operation.

The April number of Woman's World contains one of Mrs. A. H. Blasing's poems, entitled "Nest Building," and is nicely illustrated with a little home surrounded by shrubbery.

Cecil Edwards of Salem was a Sunday visitor at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Lockhart. Young Edwards' father has been connected with the Salem Statesman for 27 years.

Judge and Mrs. E. J. Ward and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Goodin were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Cornelius at Astoria. The Indies are sisters.

Mrs. S. E. Gains and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, have gone to San Francisco, Cal., where Mr. and Mrs. Bennett will locate.

Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Glutseh of Salem were Hillsboro visitors Wednesday, the doctor looking after his patients and Mrs. Glutseh calling on friends.

Mrs. F. A. Everest and daughter, Miss Birdella, of Portland, were week-end guests of Mrs. Everest's daughter, Mrs. Chester Wohler, and family.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Spanish American War Veterans will give a card party at the Veterans' hall Thursday night, April 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Crandall were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Metzler in Beaverton. Mrs. Metzler is their daughter.

J. W. Stoller and sons, Edwin and Gilbert, of Bethany, were Hillsboro visitors Tuesday, paying taxes and transacting business.

T. R. Davis of Portland was greeting Hillsboro friends Wednesday. Mr. Davis has a ranch out north of Hillsboro.

A committee from the Women's Relief Corps is planning to give a play, "White Collars," the first week in May.

Mrs. F. C. Peck of Beaverton is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. R. L. Tucker, and family. Mrs. Earl Caughtry of above Mountaineale was calling on Hillsboro friends Saturday.

Theodore VanLoo of north of Forest Grove was a Hillsboro business visitor Friday.

Joe Vandomelon of near Roy was transacting business in Hillsboro on Saturday.

Miss Jean Craft of Portland was a week-end guest of Miss Gladys Rood.

John Olson of Cedar Mill was a Hillsboro business visitor Wednesday.

Adam Bella of Orenco was a Hillsboro visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Brugis are visiting relatives and friends in Seattle this week.

Mrs. S. E. Olsen is a guest this week of her son, Zenas Olsen, and family in Eugene.

Leo Aerts and Frank Herb of Banks were transacting business in Hillsboro Monday.

John Engeldinger of Portland was a Sunday guest of his son, Fred Engeldinger, and family.

H. R. Findley and R. R. Graves of near Cedar Mill were transacting business in Hillsboro Monday.

Miss Wilma Jacobsen, attending O. S. C. at Corvallis, was a guest of Hillsboro friends the last of the week.

Carl Tannock and Harry Zimmerman of above Shady Brook were transacting business in Hillsboro on Monday.

Walter Chowning of Aloha was operated upon Monday for hernia at the Smith hospital, Dr. E. H. Smith operating.

Andrew Shannon, who has been visiting here with his sister, Mrs. R. Crandall, has returned to Hysham, Mont.

Miss Marcella Richards and Miss Alice Nosler were Portland visitors last Thursday night, attending the opera, "Aida."

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bailey, who have been spending the winter in Los Angeles, returned Saturday to their home in Forest Grove.

Marriage license was granted in Vancouver, Wash., the last of the week to Dick W. Duaine of Portland and Rosa Brethauer of Hillsboro.

Harold Wisner returned Sunday to his studies at the University of Washington, Seattle, after a week's vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wisner.

John Krieger of Verboort and H. J. Smith of near Banks were Hillsboro visitors Thursday, listening in on the opening of bids for building the new court house.

Misses Gladys Rood and Eva McCormick, students at Normal school, spent last week's vacation with home folks here. They returned to Monmouth the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sewell entertained last Thursday evening with a dinner party, those present being Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brown, Mrs. Vesta Combs, host and hostess.

Mrs. C. Millet came out from Portland Monday and went out to North Plains for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Starkey and her son, Julius Millet, and family. She returned to Portland Wednesday.

Clifford Gabie, who has been taking treatments at the Doernbecker hospital in Portland for several weeks, was brought home the last of the week, and is improving steadily. He is a son of Mrs. Ruth Gabie.

Robert Cull was host at a dinner party Friday night for his fellow-workers at Well's Department store. T. H. Gremgard, C. D. Poole and George Johannsen, all bachelors for the time, and the guests say that Bob is a wonderful chef.

Mrs. Reynold Chapman and daughter, Patricia, accompanied Miss Valine Underwood to her home in Portland for a visit over the week-end. Mr. Chapman was a visitor at the Underwood home Sunday afternoon also.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Chase entertained Saturday night with two tables of cards, and served a lunch at the close of the evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barr, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Steinke, host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted J. McDonald of near Redville were transacting business in Hillsboro Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald formerly resided in Aberdeen, Wash., and just recently moved to their present home, having traded their Aberdeen property for the farm here.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bentley entertained the Neighborhood club Sunday evening, a pot-luck supper being served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shaylor, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Chase, Milton Hughes, host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Morley and Mr. Morley's mother, Mrs. L. G. Morley of Forest Grove, visited in Canby Sunday with G. F. Morley and family. From there they went to Salem and on to Dallas, where they visited with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Crothers and Mrs. Agnes Helgeson.

G. W. Baker of Son of Beaverton brought to this office the last of the week several beautiful varieties of spring flowers. The flowers were the Sir Watkins daffodils and Lord Koster Fragrant narcissus. Some of the narcissus have as many as ten blooms on a stalk. Baker & Son got the bulbs from Mr. Leach of Tillamook. The flowers were on display in the Argus window.

Mrs. J. J. Stangel, Mrs. Fred H. Caldwell, Mrs. B. A. Uppenkamp and daughter, Miss Josephine, attended the quarterly meeting of the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women held in Portland last Saturday. An interesting program was given, including an address by Archbishop Edward Howard.

Edwin Elliott, Mrs. Charles Harris and son, Charles, of Portland, were guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Davidson. Mr. Elliott and Mrs. Harris are uncle and aunt of Mr. Davidson. Charles Harris graduated last week from the University of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hodson of north of town were Argus callers Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Hodson and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Weaver arrived March 1 from Kansas, and will probably locate in this section. Mrs. Hodson is Floyd Barnett's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Elliott of Timber were Hillsboro visitors Saturday. Their daughter, Miss Florence, who teaches in the primary grade at Timber, accompanied them as far as Forest Grove, where she remained to visit friends.

Rev. E. W. Hillis of Hot Springs, Montana, is here for a few weeks' visit with his family. He found his family in quarantine and has been visiting with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Davidson.

Mrs. D. G. McDonald and children of Seattle visited in Hillsboro at the home of Mrs. McDonald's sister, Mrs. Glenn F. Bell, from Thursday to Saturday.

John M. Brown of above Manning was operated upon Tuesday at the Smith hospital for appendicitis. His appendix was found to be in a badly abscessed condition.

Alvin A. Robb of Dallas and Ruth E. Kossack of Banks were granted marriage license at Vancouver this week.

Miss Ellen Burns of Forest Grove was operated upon Monday at the Smith hospital, her trouble being gout.

Mrs. Seus, mother of Joe Seus and Mrs. Flora Peschke, is very ill at the home of her son, Joseph Seus, of this city.

C. W. Edwards of south of Corvallis, who has been ill since January, is convalescing.

Mrs. Fred Meyers of Shady Brook, who has been very ill, is reported as improving.

Jacob Faix, C. Vandermost and son, Melvin, were Hillsboro visitors Saturday.

Mrs. M. Eischen is very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Waibel.

A. T. Sohler of above North Plains was a Hillsboro business visitor Wednesday.

Felix Hellebuyck of Tobias was in the city on business Friday.

Mrs. L. McGahey of North Hillsboro is ill with pneumonia.

Morgan Has Car Stolen

Mrs. Henrietta Morgan and son, G. Russell Morgan, of Coquille, arrived Sunday night for a visit with relatives here. Russell returned to Coquille the first of the week, but Mr. Morgan will remain for some time at her home here. They expected to come to Hillsboro last week, but were detained by a wrecked auto. Mr. Morgan's Buick coupe was stolen on March 15 and driven out of Coquille about five miles on the Marshfield highway, where it was driven into a telephone pole, knocking down the pole and breaking a wheel of the car, besides damaging the car in other ways. After the driver of the car was taken to Marshfield by passers-by, an Indian blanket and pillow were stolen from the car. Officers say the description of the reckless driver tallies with that of Meek, the Klamath Falls murderer, who was thought to have been in that section at the time. The man claimed it was his father's car, and easily made his get-away when he arrived at Marshfield.

Girl Reserve Officers Installed

The installation of new Girl Reserve officers, and initiation of new members was held at the home of Ruth Gillmore on last Wednesday evening. Officers installed were Lahoma Powell, president; Winabeth McDowell, vice-president; Janette Cady, secretary; Clara Ruff, treasurer; Elizabeth Thompson, reporter; Anna Mae Wells, social chairman; Dorothy Gillmore, service chairman; Arline Kamra, ring chairman; Shirlee Smith, decoration chairman; Clara Ruff, program chairman; Pauline Lockhart, publicity chairman; Irene Heintz, financial chairman; and Winabeth McDowell, membership chairman. New members include Ida Lormor, Ione Godfrey, Elvora Phelps, and Francis Manning. Dorothy Tongue, Janette Cady and Lahoma Powell attended an inter-club council meeting at the Portland Y. W. C. A. on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Lormor Surprised

Mrs. W. F. Lormor was agreeably surprised Saturday evening when a party of friends arrived to help celebrate her birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in playing "500" and dancing. The visitors brought refreshments, which were served at a late hour. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ennis, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Frost, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. George Harms, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brock, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Davis, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Morley, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Batschelar, and Mr. and Mrs. Lormor.

Miss Haase Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haase of Firdale entertained Saturday night in honor of the 16th birthday of their daughter, Florence. The evening was spent in playing games and music, and a luncheon was served at a late hour. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haase, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Haase and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Goetze, Misses Florence Haase, Irene Sinay, Clara Mulhy, Hattie Church, Elizabeth Gnos, Messrs. Fred Sinay, George Goetze, Hans Thurnher, Carl Rustig, Laurence Gnos, John and Herman Cortes, George Dohr, and host and hostess.

Former Local Girl Wins Fame

A write-up in Tuesday night's Telegram tells of Mrs. Edna Christofferson of Portland winning fame as an X-ray operator and as a rifle expert. She has the distinction of being the only woman in the world who operates an X-ray laboratory without the assistance of a roentgenologist or physician. She also has the distinction of being the finest woman shot in the country.

Mrs. Christofferson was a Hillsboro woman before her marriage to the late Mr. Christofferson, and her friends here will be glad to hear of her achievements.

Birthday Observed

A birthday dinner was given for Mrs. Hugh Farnum at the Farnum home Sunday. Those present were Mrs. John Kassebaum and son, Ben, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kassebaum, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Phillips and son, Jimmy, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Meyers, North Plains, and Mr. and Mrs. Farnum.

Benefit Affair Success

A sum of $44.40 was taken in at the Rock Creek school piano benefit Saturday night, which was largely attended. Mrs. Fred Jessy acted as program chairman. Many vocal and instrumental numbers were rendered.

Auxiliary Meets Tuesday Evening

The Auxiliary to the American Legion will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Veterans' hall. Mrs. Fred Engeldinger, Mrs. C. E. Deichman and Mrs. Charles D. Jones will be the hostesses for the evening. Members are requested to bring needle and thimble.

Marriage Licenses

James A. Johnson and Olive M. Gullickson, both of Portland, March 21. Myron L. Sheelan, Forest Grove, and William Porter, Gaston, March 24. John R. Caldwell and Blanche Hiddink, Banks route 2, March 24.

Garden and Flower Seeds at Percy Long's Hardware. 2-tf

Dr. Luzader, eyesight specialist, at the Hillsboro Pharmacy every Saturday for over five years. First Quality Glasses only. Have your eyes examined. 35-tf

Fraternal

Mrs. Hare Entertains Portland Past Matrons

Mrs. William G. Hare entertained with a luncheon Saturday, the guests being past matrons of Portland. The ladies served as worthy matrons during the year 1924, when Mrs. Hare was worthy matron of the local Eastern Star chapter. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Robert Summers of Beaverton and Mrs. James Conger of Forest Grove. A

F. Abendroth (Formerly of Portland)

Diamonds Watches Jewelry Sheet Music Instruments Repairing

1313 Main Street Hillsboro Next to Irelands

GRUEN's Cortusche, white gold reinforced case, $40

New GRUEN Wristlets $35 - $40 - $55

For the Gift which must combine utility with beauty—a convenience which will live years—we suggest a fine Gruen Watch.

We will be glad to show you our very wide selection of delightful wristlets in reinforced solid gold cases from $35 to $50.

J. L. Anderson Jeweler 1211 Main Street

short program was given, consisting of a solo by Mrs. Marjorie Wells Simpson of Portland, a piano selection by Miss Georgiana Jones, and a reading by Miss Grace Gifford.

President of Rebekah Assembly to Visit Here

Mrs. Etta Sanderson of Freewater, president of the Rebekah Assembly, will make an official visit to the Hillsboro Rebekah lodge Friday night. A special meeting has been called to exemplify the work for the state visitor.

The Three-Link Social club will give a card party at the I. O. O. F. hall Thursday night, April 5. Bridge and "500" will be played. Hostesses for the evening are Mrs. Edwin Bowman, Mrs. L. I. Davis, Mrs. Fred Ennis, and Mrs. W. F. Lormor.

The Hillsboro Past Chiefs' club will give a card party at the K. P. hall Saturday night, April 7. Bridge and "500" will be played. The proceeds will be used to augment the fund for uniforms for the degree team. Everybody cordially invited. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Emma McKinney, Mrs. E. L. Moore, Mrs. L. F. Emmott, and Mrs. Vesta Combs.

A. W. Havens, grand prelate, and James Wood, member of the Pythian grand lodge finance committee, attended a convention of District No. 1 at the Pythian building in Portland last Thursday night. Several hundred were present. A chicken dinner was served by the Pythian Sisters.

Many from here will attend the 37th anniversary of Delphos lodge, Knights of Pythias, at Forest Grove tonight. Presentation of 25-year jewels will be a feature of the meeting.

Mrs. R. F. Peters entertained the Past Matrons' club of O. E. S. at her home Monday evening. Plans were made for an entertainment to be given by the club some time in May.

The Past Noble Grands' club of the Rebekahs will meet Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Barr. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Eva Bridges, Mrs. Edwin Bowman, and Mrs. A. L. Brock.

The Royal Neighbors are working on a musical comedy to be given April 20.

Why not prevent tomorrow's possible eye defects by caring for them wisely today. We prescribe the proper glasses at the lowest possible prices and yet guarantee complete satisfaction. Dr. Thompson may be consulted at Banks, Tuesday, April 10, and at the Washington hotel, in Hillsboro, Wednesday, April 11. 6

Why not prevent tomorrow's possible eye defects by caring for them wisely today. We prescribe the proper glasses at the lowest possible prices and yet guarantee complete satisfaction. Dr. Thompson may be consulted at Banks, Tuesday, April 10, and at the Washington hotel, in Hillsboro, Wednesday, April 11. 6

We Have Them! SALMON, HALIBUT, COD and SMELT

SPECIAL - Smoked Chinook, 30c per pound. Guaranteed Fresh

City Fish Market 1162 Third St. Phone 691

Easter Hats

Straws, Satins and Silks trimmed with every imaginable decoration to make them different and smart.

Head sizes small and large for Matron, Miss and the Younger Missy

A Price Range to Suit Every Purse HEMSTITCHING

ART NEEDLE WORK BABY BOUDOIR

Popular Millinery

Second Street Telephone 2156

Children Wanted

To Open Savings Accounts

Special service will be given the youngsters at our bank, and every effort made to encourage them in habits of thrift. They can be taught that saving is a fascinating sport—with worth-while prizes.

4 PER CENT INTEREST PAID ON DEPOSITS

Commercial National Bank

Member Federal Reserve System Hillsboro Oregon

Finest GAS and OILS

And Free Crank Case Service, conveniently located from all parts of the city

Give us a trial—and you will find our service to be the Best in town!

City Service Station

LES RIGGS, Proprietor Third and Washington

New GRUEN Wristlets $35 - $40 - $55

For the Gift which must combine utility with beauty—a convenience which will live years—we suggest a fine Gruen Watch.

We will be glad to show you our very wide selection of delightful wristlets in reinforced solid gold cases from $35 to $50.

J. L. Anderson Jeweler 1211 Main Street

