

Local Briefs

Fred Jesse of Roy was in town Friday.

Henry Johnson was a county seat visitor Tuesday.

Fred Haase of near Firdale school was in the county seat Friday.

A. H. Wolford of Banks was a Hillsboro business visitor Monday.

Thomas Connell, who has been ill for several weeks, was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital Tuesday.

Emil Menke of south of Huber was in the city on business Monday.

Rudolph Meyer of near Blooming was in the city on business Tuesday.

James Tobin of near Hazeldale was in Hillsboro on business Monday.

Arthur Vuylsteke of the Banks district was a Hillsboro caller Saturday.

Charles Huntley of Fossil is visiting here with his sister, Mrs. F. M. Riechel.

Mrs. Finley Elliott of Shady Brook was a Hillsboro business visitor Friday.

W. J. Head of near Orenco was a county seat business caller the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Heaton and Mr. and Mrs. Newton Johnston motored to Camas Sunday.

Mrs. Josephine Johnston spent the past week at the home of her son, Newton G. Johnston.

Mrs. J. M. Goar was a guest Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Schmeier of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Johnson of south of town, on the river road, were in Hillsboro Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Dinsmore and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Kramien spent the week-end at Mount Hood.

D. R. Patterson and F. L. Gustin of the Rex community, were in Hillsboro Tuesday transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stewart of Seaside were here for the funeral of Mr. Stewart's father, J. B. Stewart.

The ladies of the All Saints Episcopal church will hold a sale Saturday at Powers' Grocery Saturday, at 10 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. George Morris of Garibaldi have purchased a farm near Dilley and will move the latter part of May.

Mrs. J. B. Stewart left this morning with her daughter, Mrs. Ida Crawford, for Spokane, Wash., for a five weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Covington left Saturday for Lewiston, Idaho, for a two weeks' visit with Mr. Covington's parents.

G. H. Wolf left Monday night for Compton, Cal., for an indefinite stay. He sold his possession here at public sale Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Foster of La-Grande are guests of their daughter, Miss Ruth Foster, of Hillsboro, for a few days this week.

The Misses Helen and Phyllis Weik, and Bruce, Herb and Jack Weik, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Weik of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Galan Swanson of Portland were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Frank. Mr. Swanson is a brother of Mrs. Frank.

C. F. Smith and daughter, Miss Pearl, and son, Frank, arrived here Sunday from Glendale, Cal., for an indefinite stay at the J. T. Young home.

Mrs. Mary Hansen has sold her farm at Sewell station and moved recently to Forest Grove where her daughter, Miss Eleanor, is attending Pacific university.

Theodore Vandehy and son, Edward, and Bernard Kemper of Verboort, were Hillsboro visitors Monday. Mr. Vandehy says the crops are looking mighty good.

Mrs. Mollie Fleck of Portland, who is the state president of the Relief Corps, and Mrs. Orpha Carlile, state treasurer, attended the meeting of the corps here last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Russell and daughter, Winona Jenn, and Mr. and Mrs. Len Fishback and children, Rosemary and Vernon, spent the weekend at the McAlear cabin at Meacham.

D. B. Reasner, former Washington county judge, and Mark Roe, editor of the Vernonia Eagle, were in Hillsboro Friday for the removing of the cornerstone on the old section of the court house.

Mrs. Edith Tozier Weathered is a guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Weathered. She will speak Thursday evening at the Kansas City school house on the early history of Washington county.

Mrs. Jessie Gibbons and son, Gene, left Tuesday for Hitch Ketchy, near Oakland, Cal., for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Stull. Mrs. Stull was formerly Miss Frances Soper, and finished high school here last year.

H. T. Jost, of Lawrence, Kansas, was a guest over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Alexander. Mr. Jost is president of the company which is installing the pipe organ in the new Jewish synagogue in Portland. Mr. Jost, who has visited here a number of times, is a cousin of Mrs. Alexander.

Mrs. Glenn Neidigh, organist at the Venetian, returned Saturday from Myrtle Point, where she was called by the death of her grandparents, Amzi A. Leach, 80, and Sarah Margaret Leach, 75. Mrs. Neidigh left immediately after receiving word of their serious illness, but the aged couple died shortly after her arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stuart visited in McMinnville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilcox of Cornelius were transacting business in Hillsboro Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wood returned Wednesday morning from a vacation trip to California.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Neff of Portland were Hillsboro visitors Sunday.

Lester Ashbarh was operated on for hernia at St. Vincent's hospital Friday.

J. H. McLeod of near Beaverton was a business caller in Hillsboro Wednesday.

Mrs. William Gembella of the Scholls community was operated on at the Smith hospital Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mulloy of Portland visited the home folks at Laurel last Sunday.

Miss Helen Bagnell of near Hillsboro was operated on for hernia at the Smith hospital Tuesday.

Mrs. Harry Ashbarh of Corvallis visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kroeger Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gilbertson of Portland were Hillsboro callers Sunday.

John Osterman of Verboort conducted business in Hillsboro Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hare and Mrs. C. E. Wells spent the week-end at Pacific City.

A number of ladies of the Home Missionary society of the Methodist church will attend the Salem district convention at Albany Friday.

Mrs. Grace Wood returned from Portland the last of the week where she visited several days with relatives.

A marriage license was granted in Vancouver Monday to Charles E. Vanderzanden, Banks, and Mrs. Gladys S. Layton, Forest Grove.

County Judge J. T. Atkinson of The Dalles was a guest of the county court Saturday. He inspected the court house construction and the county hospital.

Miss Carol Inderbitzen of Portland entertained Mrs. William Brogden and Virginia Brogden, Edwin Ingles and Herbert McNutt at her Cannon Beach cottage last week-end.

Mrs. Mesdames W. F. Lormor, L. F. Brown, W. O. Morley, James Peppard, Edwin Bowman, Fred Ennis, H. H. Stannard, Ray Thomas, Victor Batchelar, and W. E. Ogilbee visited at the home of Mrs. J. C. Weirich in Portland Wednesday.

Mrs. J. F. Jarvis, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Brogden, returned this week to Sacramento. Mr. Jarvis, who has been connected with the Dairy division of Oregon State college, has a position with the state department of agriculture, division of dairy control.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Hathorn and family and Mrs. Rosella Hathorn, attended the wedding of Miss Kathryn Long to Mr. Charles Frederick Johnson, last Saturday evening, at the Piedmont Presbyterian church, Portland. Mrs. Johnson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Long, well known here and at Leisysville a few years ago.

Mrs. J. P. Rhea entertained Sunday with a birthday dinner party, honoring her oldest and youngest sons, Walter and Frank Gray. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gray, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gray, Robert Harper and Mrs. Frank Curry, Portland; Mrs. Will Gray, McMinnville, and Mr. and Mrs. Rhea.

About fifty attended the silver tea given by the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. E. B. Lockhart. Musical numbers were furnished by Mrs. Daniels, Miss Drake and Miss Fanny Konig, and readings and recitations by Miss May Cook, Miss Grace Gifford and little Miss Ellingson.

A play, "A Southern Cinderella," was presented Tuesday evening at St. Matthew's hall by the sophomore class of St. Mary's academy of Beaverton, under the direction of Miss De la Fontaine. Music was furnished by the girls' chorus and solos by Miss Dorothy Chapman and Lillian Garrow. The cast includes Hazel Bernier, Caroline Peschka, two Hillsboro girls, and Irene Frank, Geraldine Cawood, Beverly Luck, Dorothy Chapman and Lillian Garrow.

Thirteen tables of "500" were played at the card party at St. Mathews' hall Wednesday evening. Ladies' first prize was won by Miss Ida Dolman, and second by Mrs. Ivan Freeman. Gentlemen's first prize went to Raymond Spiering and second to William Cop. The committee in charge was composed of Mrs. Art Miltenberger, Mrs. C. F. McFadden and Miss Adelaide Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Newgard arrived Wednesday evening from Devils Lake, North Dakota, and will spend a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Grear. Mr. Newgard is a railroad man and has been transferred to Klamath Falls. Mrs. Newgard is a niece of Mr. Grear.

Rollin Deck was home from Corvallis over the week-end. William Keager of Portland and Herbert Burlington of Clatskanie, students at Oregon State college, were also guests at the H. A. Deck home.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. O'Donnell and twin children of Portland visited at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Crittenden Wednesday and Thursday.

Rev. E. W. Hillis arrived Wednesday morning from Hot Springs, Montana, for a visit with his family.

The quarantine for smallpox was lifted the first of the week from the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Chantler.

Mrs. Vesta Combs returned the first of the week from a short visit with her mother, Mrs. George Taylor, at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Brown visited in Portland Sunday at the home of Mrs. Brown's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Casper moved to Portland Monday from their farm east of town.

Mrs. J. J. Stangel and daughter, Catherine, visited in Portland Wednesday.

L. B. Haley of Bethany transacted business in Hillsboro Wednesday.

James Sewell of near Hillsboro is ill at his home with heart trouble.

The estate of Mrs. Jennie McGill has been admitted to probate.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wiley visited friends in Portland Sunday.

R. Hornecker and H. I. Patton attended Grange at Tigard Thursday.

Mrs. McKinney III

Mrs. E. C. McKinney, associate editor of the Argus, has been confined to her home on account of illness since Friday. Her condition was regarded as serious at first, but she is now convalescing.

Play Seventeen Tables
Seventeen tables were played at the Legion Auxiliary card party Thursday evening. The winners at bridge were Mrs. Harley Smith and Harry Morgan, firsts, and Charles Roe and Mrs. L. Busch of Forest Grove, consolation. Five hundred prize winners were as follows: Mrs. Fred Ennis and H. L. Hickox, first, and W. E. Ogilbee and Miss Marie Stranahan, consolation.

Daughter Given Party
The attention of a number of people was attracted by a large flock of white swans on the lake south of town Saturday and Sunday. The swans had apparently delayed their flight north long enough to feed at the lake, for they disappeared Monday morning, going northward. It was estimated there were more than 50 in the flock.

Former Missionary to Talk
Miss Edna Holder of Salem, returned missionary from India, will address the Women's Foreign Missionary society at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday. Souvenirs of India will be shown. An invitation is extended to the public.

Girl Reserves Meet
A short business meeting was held by the Hilli Girl Reserves on Monday. Committee reports were given, and a list of dates to remember was read. Arlene Kamna read the ring requirements.

Coffee Club to Present Play Some Time in May
The dramatic department of the Coffee club is rehearsing, "When a Fellow Needs a Friend," a three-act play under the direction of Mrs. Maude Stannard. The cast of ten is composed entirely of ladies, the masculine parts also being taken by them. The play will be presented about the middle of May at the Venetian.

Graves Cannery Sued
C. L. Herheim has filed two suits against the Graves Cannery company et al, for sums alleged due on promissory notes. The amounts are for $19,000 and $5,000.

Fined for Game Law Violation
Archie Jesse of Roy was fined $25 for shooting a swan by Judge Henry Kuratli Wednesday. He was

City Market and Grocery
All Kinds of Fresh Groceries and Vegetables
MRS. STRACHAN, Proprietor
Telephone 691 1162 Third St.

If You Want a ROOM for a Week or a Month -the- Hotel Washington Hillsboro, Oregon Has Just What You Want -Also- Apartments
More for your money than any other place in the city—and at prices to suit you.

also fined $25 on a charge of shooting from a public highway.

Births
Smith—To Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith of Hillsboro, April 22, a girl.
Patterson—To Mr. and Mrs. Paul Patterson, Hillsboro, a girl, April 17, at Emanuel hospital, Portland.
Lorence—To Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lorence, of Cornelius, April 23, a girl.
Frank—To Mr. and Mrs. John Frank of Beedville, April 17, a boy.
Lepschat—To Mr. and Mrs. William Lepschat of Banks, a boy, April 19.

Marriage Licenses
Oscar Douthart Cearley and Vida V. Messinger, both of Buxton, April 21.

Divorce Suits Filed
Kennedy—L. A. Kennedy vs. Mona Kennedy. Married Liverpool, England, January 19, 1919.
Robinson—Marvin J. Robinson vs. Vada Lee Robinson. Married December 14, 1923.
Lessard—Clarence A. Lessard vs. Lydia M. Lessard. Married Battle Creek, Mich., June 7, 1894.

Three Link Card Party
Three Link card party at I. O. O. F. hall, Thursday night, May 3. Admission 25 cents. Public invited. 9

For Sale—Have a few settings of our fine R. I. R. hatching eggs left; for sale cheap.—C. M. Bryant, 612 Seventh street, Hillsboro, telephone 1621-Y. 9-4f

Busy Bees Dance
The Grange Busy Bees will give a dance at the M. W. A. hall Saturday night, May 5. Everybody invited. Gents, 50 cents; ladies, 25 cents. 9-10

Dancing
At the Greyhound, Cornelius, Saturday, April 28. Music starts at 8:30. First eight couples in the hall get free passes; balance at regular price. Get busy. 9

Princess Beauty Shop, 1311 Main street. Hair cutting, marcelling, shampooing, hot oil treatments, etc.—Mrs. Garrett, telephone 2191Z for appointments. 5-1f

There will be a dance at the Laurel Community hall Saturday night, April 28. Everybody invited. 8-9

Dr. Luxader, eyesight specialist, at the Hillsboro Pharmacy every Saturday for over five years. First Quality Glasses only. Have your eyes examined. 35-4f

Better let Andy fix your watch. He knows how.—J. L. Anderson, Jeweler, 1211 Main street. 16-1f

BIG Carnival Dance
—at the—
New Rippling Waters Dance Hall
Saturday — April 28
Ashworth Serenaders
Admission—$1.00

ANNOUNCEMENT

HAVING confidence that the people of Hillsboro will support the local laundry, we have taken over the controlling stock and entire management of

MUNGER'S LAUNDRY

It will be our aim to give the highest quality work, and best and quickest service at all times, so that we may merit your good will and patronage.

CHARLES PUGH,
B. L. ADAMS.

REMODELING TIME

Spring is here—The time of year that we want something new.

Why Not Make a New Home Out of the Old One?
A little skillful remodeling will transform your home into a modern home. The remodeling wave is sweeping the country today. People are appreciating, as never before, the value of an old home. It has attractive grounds, trees, and shrubs. All it needs is a little changing.

Here are a few suggestions—A coat of Fuller's Paint, a new roof, fix up the attic, a new front door or French doors, lattice fence, lawn furniture, rose trellis, lattice work on plain surfaces of the house. "Wood—Use It, Nature Renews It"

Pool-Gardner Lumber Company
Building Material Merchants
Telephone 2691 Baseline Street at S. P. Tracks

SILVER is the Gift for Brides

Nothing so delights a young bride as to entertain for the first time in her own right. Will there be a gift of silver from you to add to the joy of the hostess on that occasion? Among our new showing are many pieces, in sterling, from $5. Charming coffee and tea sets, plated, from $15. Table services in luxurious patterns, $25 and up.

J. L. ANDERSON JEWELER
1211 Main Street Telephone 991-Y

Glasses - - Comfort

If you fail to see everything clearly—do not neglect giving attention to your eyes. Proper care and treatment now will save you much discomfort in later years.

DR. E. M. RIORDEN
EYE SIGHT SPECIALIST
First National Bank Building Forest Grove

Two Car Loads
of Cars have just arrived!
Among them the World's Champion Studebaker Commander

—some—
Studebaker Dictators
—and several—
All American Erskines

You are invited to come in and see these wonderful cars. Drive them! Ride in them! It will not obligate you to buy.

C. W. White Motor Company
Studebaker-Erskine Dealer
TELEPHONE 1411
Next to Fire Hall

WANTED — Every person who has never had a bank account, to have one with this institution.

— THE —

YOU need not have a large amount—ONE DOLLAR will start you off.

— BANK —

JUST step into the bank any time and make known that you wish to open an account, and we will do the rest—that's all there is to it!

— FOR —

THE thousands and thousands of dollars that have been saved, accumulated through a bank account.

— YOU —

WE will be glad to have you begin your banking with us.

Commercial National Bank
Member Federal Reserve System
Resources More Than $1,000,000
HILLSBORO, OREGON