

Kinton Ladies' Aid Entertainment and Supper Success; Rev. Strange Returns; School Closes Monday With Big Picnic

Kinton, May 17. — The oyster supper and entertainment given by the Ladies' Aid society at the Grange hall Saturday evening was very well patronized and as a result a neat sum will be added to the treasury. The funds will be used for repairs on the church a little later. Prof. O. B. Kraus and his high school band from Tualatin were quite a drawing card. James Shillito and his entertainers from Portland put on an act. Following is the program as rendered: Selection, Tualatin school band; play, "The Census Taker," by the young people; recitations, by three county contestants of upper grades; vocal solo, "When God Gave Me You," Mrs. Wright; comedy act, "Stick to Your Horn," Al Davies (blackface) and Grace Wilson; two Irish tenor songs, "Mother Machree" and "A Little Bit of Heaven," James Shillito; play, "Betsy Ross and the First Flag," primary grades; recitations by two county contestants, primary grades; selection, band; play, "On Account of the Lobster," young people; selection, band.
