

YOUR HOME PAPER
This paper has the most thorough circulation in the county, making it the Best Advertising Medium

Hillsboro Argus

"The Leader in Its Field"

WATCH YOUR DATE
The date on the address of your paper gives time of expiration. Pay in advance.
$1.50 and Worth It!

VOLUME XXXV

HILLSBORO, OREGON, THURSDAY, MAY 24, 1928.

No. 13

Talbert Loses To Wilkes by Slight Margin

Vote In Primary Election Friday Is Light

John Connell Winner

Boley, Hiatt, Davis, Frost Given Call by Republicans of the County

Little more than 40 per cent of the registered voters of Washington county visited the polls Friday to pass judgment on the candidates for the republican and democratic nominations in the primary election. Those who did cast their vote in no uncertain terms and a number of upsets resulted.

Charles R. LaFollette, incumbent, and R. Frank Peters won decisive victories for the legislature. Dr. T. L. Perkins brought up the rear. Dr. J. R. Talbert of Beaverton and L. E. Wilkes of Hillsboro made a neck and neck race for the third representative nomination. L. E. Wilkes winning by 18 votes.

Mrs. Anna L. Wells for representative and Finis L. Brown were the only two local democrats in the race for local offices. They were unopposed. Miss Manche Langley of Forest Grove received a good vote for presidential elector.

The senatorial race resulted in Ed Schulerich, local banker, bringing home the honors over Loyal M. Graham, Forest Grove attorney. County Commissioner J. M. Hiatt won out over T. E. Cornelius of Reedville, M. E. Easterday and J. H. Wescott.

John Connell, former sheriff, won out by a large majority over Deputy Sheriff Virgil Weckert and J. A. Ferrell for the republican nomination for sheriff. E. B. Tongue for district attorney, Edward C. Luce

(Continued on page four)

Connell Wins

John W. Connell won the republican nomination for sheriff by a large majority.

Mrs. Emmott Is Selected Coffee Club President

Election of officers for the year and election of delegates to attend the Federation of Women's clubs meeting at Klamath Falls in June, was the main order of business at the Coffee club meeting Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. C. H. Emmott was elected president, and other officers elected were Mrs. R. Frank Peters, vice-president; Mrs. L. Shinaberger, secretary; Mrs. S. W. Bentley, financial secretary, and Mrs. T. C. Reynolds, treasurer.

Mrs. R. F. Peters, Mrs. W. G. Hare, and Mrs. Fred Sewell were elected as delegates to the Federation clubs meeting, with Mrs. W. Phillips, Mrs. Leonard Brown and Mrs. Fred Caldwell as alternates. Mrs. C. H. Emmott will attend as president.

Mrs. Glen Payne sang several solos, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Sewell. Reports of the County Federation, which met at Gales Creek, were given by Mrs. T. C. Reynolds, Mrs. L. Shinaberger, Mrs. C. H. Emmott, Mrs. Leonard Brown, and Mrs. S. W. Bentley.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mesdames Peters, Elder, and Hagle.

Rep. LaFollette Is Divorce Defendant

Mrs. Mary LaFollette Tuesday filed suit for divorce from Representative Charles R. LaFollette of Cornelius, who was on Friday selected as the republican nominee for representative from this county. She charges cruel and inhuman treatment, which has undermined her health. Mrs. LaFollette in the complaint charges her husband with having a violent temper and with being abusive to her.

They were married October 5, 1912, and there are five children. She asks for a half interest in the property, the custody of the children, $750 attorney's fees and $150 a month permanent alimony.

Banks Man Is Given a Seven Year Pen Term

Grand Jury Makes Report of Findings Saturday

Face Charge of Assault

Many Indicted for Larceny; Sentences Handed Out for Liquor Charges

John Kitterman of Banks was Monday sentenced by Judge George R. Bagley to serve seven years in the state prison at Salem on a statutory charge involving a minor. Three indictments were returned against Kitterman Saturday, and sentence was passed on the first when a plea of guilty was entered. Trial on the other two counts was postponed.

Many Indicted

The grand jury Saturday reported in 26 true bills and two not true. Four of the indictments were secret, and one was a joint indictment of four persons. Those indicted on booze counts include Harold W. Anderson, Ray Bennett, J. D. Blankenship, Edward J. Corcoran, Edward Greeley, George Howland, Ula G. Hanna, Caroline Johnson, John W. Paisley, Patrick O'Keefe, Peter Dietrich, Herman Killo and Richard Edgington. Kitterman was indicted on three counts, first and second on rape, and the third contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

William M. McBride has two counts of larceny against him and Kenneth Newell and Walter Segris were indicted for larceny. Petit larceny counts are faced by W. P. Monaghan and M. A. McKeeken. Two counts on burglary are faced by Otto George Ludwig Miller.

Klink Indicted

E. J. Klink, who is charged with striking Deputy W. N. Hathorn a few weeks ago, was indicted on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon.

A plea of guilty was entered by (Continued on page four)

Hillsboro Wins Points in Track

The Hillsboro track team won nine points in the Pacific university track meet Saturday in competition with the leading high schools of Oregon and southern Washington. Corvallis high took first honors with a total of 43 1/2 points, and Salem was second. Hillsboro boys won places as follows: Freeman, third in mile run; Thwaitte, fourth in 100-yard dash; Thwaitte, fourth in 220-yard dash; Emmott, second, and Hare, fourth in broad jump. Hillsboro won fourth in the half-mile relay. Other county students winning honors were: Welsh, Beaverton, first in mile; Moran, Forest Grove, fourth in 440-yard dash, and Whitcomb, Forest Grove, fourth in 880-yard dash.

Attendance Awards Made at West Union

Monday was the last day of school at West Union and awards for perfect attendance were given to ten pupils. Those receiving the awards were Virginia Croeni, Willis Croeni, Alida Henton, David Kent, Esther Erdman, Billy Kent, Laverle Leppen, Frank Daley, Myrtle Simost and Marian Simost. A picnic dinner and ice cream were enjoyed by the pupils and their parents under the maple trees on the school grounds.

Hillsboro Transfer Sells Freight Run

The freight run between Hillsboro and Portland has been purchased by Jacob Vannett from the Hillsboro Transfer & Fuel company, Earl Strong and E. A. Larrance, proprietors. The new concern will be known as the Hillsboro Transfer company, and the office will be in the same building.

Mr. Strong and Mr. Larrance will continue in the general trucking and fuel business under the firm name of Hillsboro Truck & Fuel company.

Clover Growers at Schefflin Session

Sixty-five clover growers attended the farm meeting at Schefflin Monday night. H. C. Atwell, commissioner of the state board of horticulture, told of the habits and destruction of clover nematodes. His talk was illustrated with slides. C. R. LaFollette, county fruit inspector, says that Joe Cawrse reported at the meeting that he had plowed up 32 acres of infected clover. Others, he said, also reported losses.

Hilhi Heads Are Chosen For Year; Chase Is Prexy

Lester Chase was elected president of the Hillsboro union high school student body at the student elections last week. Elizabeth Thompson was chosen for editor of the Hilhi, and James Vickers was selected as manager of the year-book.

Opal Betzer will be vice-president, Milton Johnston is treasurer, and Charles Blazer was elected as manager of athletics. Lahoma Powell is to be assistant editor and Thomas Tongue is assistant manager.

The Hilhi annual, printed by the Argus, was issued Friday. Patty Lomax was editor of the book this year, and Tom Sholes was business manager. The Hilhi was dedicated this year to the pioneer families, and the pioneer scheme was carried throughout the book.

Hillsboro Wins Over Estacada

Hillsboro defeated Estacada, 8 to 7, Sunday, in a 11-inning game, and jumped up to second place in the league standings.

Bill Zeigler, Paul Gross and Babe Deaville were the big factors in the scoring column, accounting for six runs. Zeigler was the hero of the day. In the eleventh frame with the score tied and the bases loaded, Bill stepped up to the plate and knocked a terrific drive to the shortstop, who was nearly shoved off his pins by the force of the blow. Bill crossed the bag ahead of the throw and the winning run came in.

Deaville singled with the bases loaded in the third, and Gross followed with one of his home-runs and five runs were counted. Gardner, former major leaguer's son, started on the mound for the locals, but did not fare so well. His wildness accounted for five runs in as many innings. Neunschwander took over the job, but Luke Stange was transferred from first base and won his second game as a relief hurler.

Well, anyway, it was a whale of a game, and all the fans got their (Continued on page ten)

Grove Cow Makes Enviable Record

Beauty's Polly, a purebred Jersey cow, in the herd of Thomas Williams of Forest Grove, Oregon, has completed an official 305-day test with a record of 696.69 pounds of butterfat and 11,364 pounds of milk. She was started on this test at the age of 3 years and 4 months. Polly was with calf 202 days while making this record and has been awarded both a gold and a silver medal by the American Jersey Cattle club, of New York. She maintained production at a very uniform rate throughout the test and her milk averaged 5.99 per cent butterfat for the entire period.

Beauty's Polly is by Captain Tristram's St. Maves, and out of Maida's Betty's Beauty, a cow which has a silver medal record of 675.25 pounds of butterfat and 12,339 pounds of milk made in senior 3-year-old form.

"Bosses" Banquet Thursday Night

The members of the Business and Professional Women's club planned at their meeting Monday evening to treat their employers to a banquet next Thursday evening at the Congregational church basement, at 7 o'clock. Each member will have as her guest her "boss," and it is expected that a large crowd will attend.

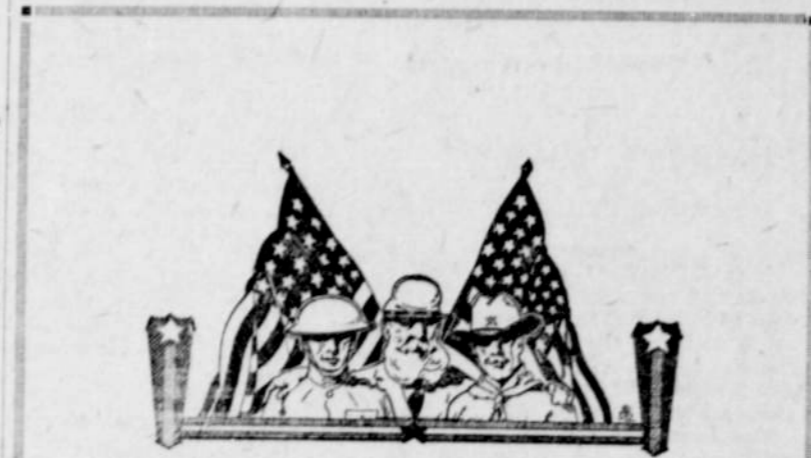

A program of music, songs and stunts will be given by the women, and short talks will be expected from the men. Miss Mildred McLeod, president of the club, will be toastmistress.

Interesting reports were given of the State Federation meeting of Business and Professional Women held at Roseburg last week. Those attending and giving reports were Mildred McLeod, Thelma Tallman, Fern Freeman, Florence Dodge, and Minnie Jones. They reported Roseburg members and townspeople as royal hosts.

The Hillsboro and Grants Pass clubs had the distinction of being the first clubs in Oregon to have their charters presented by a national president. Miss Lena Madsen Phillips of New York, national president, attended the meeting and presented the charters.

Saturday night was stant night at the convention, and members of the Hillsboro delegation received enthusiastic applause for a stunt advertising one of our industries, Carnation Milk products.

Miss Mozelle Hair, who was the principal speaker at a recent banquet here, was re-elected president for the next year. Next year's convention will be held in Eugene.

Americans Do Not Forget

Americans remember the brave hearts of those who have fought their wars—old wars and news wars—and on Memorial Day will reiterate the national boast that blood is not lost in vain and that the greatest sacrifice of mankind is not wanton.

Large Class to Complete Work

The commencement exercises for the 77 members of the senior class of the Hillsboro union high school will be held at the Shute park auditorium at 8 p. m., Friday. Dr. O. H. Holmes of Forest Grove will give the address and his subject is, "By This Sign 'S' We Conquer."

The program includes processional by high school orchestra, "America" by audience, invocation by the Rev. E. B. Lockhart, "Italia" by high school chorus, violin solo by Leonard Rea, awarding of honors by Principal B. M. Goodman, and presentation of diplomas by L. J. Merrill, chairman of the school board.

The Baptist church was packed Sunday night for the baccalaureate exercises. The Rev. S. McMinis took as his theme for the baccalaureate sermon, "Not as though I had already attained." He brought out the fact that a high school diploma was not the zenith in education and that there were other goals to be attained. The program included the following: Processional, played by Miss Velma Taylor; prayer by the Rev. Lockhart; song by high school girls' quartet, and invocation by the Rev. Len Fishback.

The graduating seniors gave as a last impression to the remaining classes in Hilhi their class day exercises Thursday afternoon. Their program, which follows, and especially the class prophecy, was considered one of the cleverest ever presented: Senior boys, song; Dorothy Tongue, salutatory; Patty Lomax, valedictory; Francis Robb, bequeathing of the senior cane; Margaret Tucker, Kitty Caldwell, Gladys Bentley, Dorothy Tongue and Patty Lomax, prophecy; Tom Sholes, bequeathing the care of George and Abe; Jack Connell, class will, and seniors, high school song.

Sherwood Farmer Dies of Injuries

Willis Meek, 68, a farmer residing near Sherwood, died at 10 a. m. today at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland as the result of an automobile accident. He was received at the hospital Tuesday, the first opportunity doctors had to move him from his home.

He was injured Monday when a woman automobile driver lost control of her machine and ran down Meek's team, drawing a harrow upon which he was riding.

Rob Store, Garage And Mail at Aloha

The Aloha Mercantile company, the Aloha postoffice, and the Garrow garage at Aloha were robbed early this morning. All the change was taken out of the store cash register, all postoffice money and some stamps are missing, and a dozen tires were the loot from the garage.

Sheriff J. E. Reeves and Deputies Duley and Hickox and postoffice inspectors are investigating this morning.

Coslett to Erect Service Station

O. Coslett has let the contract for a $15,000 automobile service station, confectionery and barbecue stand to be erected on the corner of Baseline and First streets. S. Fredrickson of Beaverton has the contract, and work was started this week. The building will be of hollow tile and stucco and will be 24x100 feet, built in an L-shape. It is to be ready for occupancy by July 1, and will be modern in every respect.

City to Honor Soldier Dead Wednesday

Will Dedicate Flag Pole at Veterans' Hall

Union Service Sunday

Patriotic Organizations of the City and Others Pay Respect to Dead of Land

The patriotic organizations of Hillsboro and their friends will Wednesday honor the memories of the heroic dead of American wars with appropriate exercises at the Veterans' hall and at the cemetery.

Will March

The dedication of the new flag pole at the Veterans' hall at 9:45 a. m. will be the first event on the day's program. Officers of the American Legion will be in charge. The patriotic organizations will march to the cemetery after the dedication ceremonies. The line of march will be as follows: Headquarters company, 162nd infantry; American Legion color bearers, the Grand Army of the Republic, Women's Relief Corps, Spanish War Veterans and auxiliary, American Legion and auxiliary, Girl Reserves and Boy Scouts. Transportation will be furnished by Civil war veterans and the women. Legionnaires are urged to be at the hall by 9:30 a. m.

The flag will be presented to the G. A. R., American Legion, W. R. C., and American Legion auxiliary, by Mrs. S. Hyre, W. Verne McKinney will accept for the organizations.

The program at the tomb to the unknown soldier dead of the Civil war at the cemetery will start not later than 10:30 a. m., and will include the Grand Army of the Republic ceremonial by American Legion officers, Women's Relief Corps ceremonial, American Legion ceremonial, Lincoln's Gettysburg address by Hugh Rogers, Spanish war veteran, duet by Mrs. S. Hyre and Mrs. Nellie Startzell of the W. R. C., "Salute to the Dead" by firing squad, taps and benediction.

Service at Venetian

The churches of the city will unite in a joint service at the Venetian theater at 11 a. m. Sunday in honor of the soldier dead, under the direction of the W. R. C. and G. A. R. Special sections will be reserved for the patriotic organizations. The Rev. E. B. Lockhart will deliver the sermon.

Contract Let To VanBruggen

The contract for the construction of the new Hillsboro union high school building was let Saturday by the board of directors to P. J. VanBruggen of Portland for $108,433. Work will be started within a few days.

The general plumbing contract was let to Sturgis & Sturgis for $9,317. The W. H. Emrich bid on wiring was $5,485.10. VanBruggen will build the gym for $15,685. Emrich will do the electrical work on the gymnasium for $412.75, and Sturgis & Sturgis the plumbing for $1,827.

Poppy Sale Starts Saturday Afternoon

The sale of poppies, the memorial flower, will start next Saturday afternoon, and will continue on Monday and Tuesday. Members of the Auxiliary to the American Legion will be on the streets and in business houses to conduct this sale, and everyone will be asked to buy and wear a flower in memory of the boys who lost their lives in the world war.

These poppies are made by the disabled war veterans of Hospital 77, and the proceeds are used for relief work for them and their families.

Help the boys by buying a poppy—only 10 cents per flower.

Hundreds of Rotary Folk Are Expected

Nearly 400 Rotarians and Rotary Anns are expected to be in attendance at the second annual inter-city meeting at the Shute park auditorium tonight. District Governor John Casper of Walla Walla and Hank Manny, former governor, of Seattle, will be present. The meeting is put on by the Hillsboro Rotary club.

The Boy Scout troop sponsored by the local club will be presented with neckerchiefs. William Buckner of Omaha, Neb., gave a short talk and demonstration of memory work at the club Thursday.