Grand Jury In Report; Eight Are True Bills

McBride Paroled After Term of 20 Years Is Given

Restitution Was Made

Waive Grand Jury Counts to Save Court Time; Would Confiscate Cars

Eight true bills and two not true were reported in circuit court Tuesday by the grand jury, which was discharged until the regular meeting in July. One of the indictments reported was secret. As usual the booze indictments predominate and they include Lucille Arnold, Ralph Codby, C. C. Howard, May Mason and Lawrence Quamm. J. H. Wilson was indicted on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor and Ivan Dixon on a count charging fornication.

William McBride was sentenced to five years each in the state penitentiary on four different indictments of larceny by Judge George E. Bagley Saturday. In all it made 20 years to be served as the terms were to run in succession rather than concurrently.

In consideration of the defendant having made restitution to his victims the court extended a parole on condition that he report to the state parole board regularly. If any of the terms of the parole are violated McBride will have to serve time. When McBride was brought into court Saturday he withdrew his plea of not guilty. He was arrested a few months ago by Sheriff J. E. Reeves in Seattle after a long manhunt that extended up and down the coast. McBride was accused of having bilked a number of people out of their savings for fake operations.

More court time was saved by Pete Hansen, Jack Lenox, Dan Vandebey and Porter Welder waiving grand jury indictments and pleading guilty, three to liquor possession, and Lenox to contributing to.

Canyon Road Will Open, Maybe Yes, And Perhaps Not

A ray of hope was held out Friday by the Oregonian for the opening of the Canyon road by June 20, but cold water was promptly thrown on this announcement by the Telegram, which intimated that the Multnomah county roadmaster did not know "his onions" and that the announcement of the opening was premature.

The announcement said that the road would be opened to within three-quarters of a mile east of Sylvan where a connection has been made with the old road. Roadmaster Huck stressed the point that the route past the brickyard must be used until the ramp is reached. The new road from Sylvan to the Washington county line has been macadamized.

The new Canyon road has been widened to 38 feet to Sylvan and from there on is 30 feet wide. Officials anticipate that it will be two years before concrete paving can be laid on the new road.

Sherwood Defeated Hillsboro still remains in second place since Oswego swamped Sherwood 19 to 6. Two defeats for the lakersiders would put the two teams in a tie for the championship and a number of Oswego's games are away from home. Ray Dillon comes a long way from being downhearted.

The locals brought in five runs in the fifth, two in the seventh and one more in the eighth when Chuck Hoag slammed one over the left field fence. Turk started at the bat with three hits out of four trips to the plate, while Luke Stang counted for two out of three.

Dwyer will be on the mound again Sunday here when Hillsboro meets Davidson. Ivison has signed with the breadmen and will probably start for them.

Arrange Games The Fourth of July celebration games have been arranged by Manager Dillon. Hillsboro will play Verboort, runners-up in the Tualatin Valley league on the third and a non-league game between the old rivals, Hillsboro and Sherwood, will be the attraction for Independence (Continued on page ten)
