

Local Briefs

WHAT'S ON AT THE VENETIAN THEATER

Friday and Saturday
July 20 and 21
Lionel Barrymore and Jacquelin Gadsdon in "The 13th Hour"

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday
July 22—23—24
George O'Brien and Virginia Valli in "East Side—West Side"

Wednesday and Thursday
July 25 and 26
Gene Tyrone in "Hot Heels"

Mrs. Donald McInnis of Scholls was calling on Hillsboro friends Tuesday.

The St. Matthews Young People's society held a picnic Sunday at Lost Lake, near Heaverton.

Miss Dorothy Sanders made the trip to Astoria Sunday on the excursion boat, the Georgiana.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Parson of Los Angeles, Cal., were guests Friday of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. King.

John Person of the Washington Savings & Loan Association made a business trip to Vernonia Tuesday.

Miss Grace Gifford left Sunday for Wheeler, where she will visit at the home of her uncle, Tom Wann, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Uppenkamp and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wahner and some friends enjoyed a picnic Sunday at Estacada.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morgan are spending a two weeks' vacation at Meacham. Little Evelyn Bentley is their guest this week.

Mrs. Theodore Palmquist of Oakland, Nebraska, arrived Tuesday for an extended visit with her brother, Elmer L. Johnson, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loveall and little daughter of Newberg were guests Tuesday of Mrs. Loveall's brother, W. S. Alexander, and wife.

Miss Jane Beamish, who has been in the Smith hospital for several months with a broken hip, underwent an abdominal operation Friday.

Mrs. N. Nye of Spokane is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Person, being called here by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Person.

Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander and Mrs. Alexander's cousin, H. T. Jost, of Lawrence, Kansas, made a two days' trip to Newport, returning Monday.

Miss Esther Bechen, Miss Alice Swain and Mrs. Florence Schenke of San Francisco, are guests of Mrs. J. C. Bechen and family of near Orengo.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Johnson of North Powder arrived Friday evening for a two weeks' visit with Mr. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brown of above Manning were Hillsboro visitors Tuesday. Mrs. Emma Maynard, who had been visiting at their home, returned to Hillsboro with them.

Donald McFern of Portland, one of the officials of the Portland district Epworth League of the Methodist church, accompanied by his mother, visited Rev. E. B. Lockhart Monday.

Damon Greer, who has been in a Portland hospital for some time, was brought to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Greer, the last of the week, where he is convalescing.

Mr. and Mrs. DeGolyer of Hollywood, Cal., have purchased the Thomas Blyeu place in South Hillsboro and are remodeling the house and making other extensive improvements.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wirtz of west of Hillsboro have as their guests their grandchildren, Wilma Hollis, Alice Ann and Billie Wirtz, children of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wirtz of Salem.

Miss Charlotte Hiltz, who has been teaching at Vernonia, was a Hillsboro visitor Tuesday. Miss Hiltz has been visiting relatives near Roy, and was enroute to Portland, where she will spend the summer with her uncle and aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Brown and daughters, Georgiana and Hazel, and Miss Leah Turner, spent the week-end at Netarts. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Brown of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Couch and children of Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Garrett and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Kramien and daughter were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Boyce at Hood River. Mrs. Boyce is a sister of Mr. Garrett. While there the men of the party enjoyed a fishing trip to North Lake.

Miss Olive Meacham has been entertaining at her home on Second street for the past week Miss Frances Edwards of New York. Miss Edwards is one of the executive secretaries of the Episcopal church, and has been on a tour through the Pacific states, conducting a series of conferences on religious education. She has been helping at the vacation school being conducted by Miss Meacham at the All Saints Chapel.

Mrs. J. E. Reeves and her sister-in-law, Miss Grace Reeves, of Portland, returned Sunday from a few days' trip to Wilson river. While there the ladies gathered 40 pints of huckleberries. They were told that Miss Reeves was the first woman to drive a car over that road this year, and only the second one to ever make the drive. Miss Reeves left Wednesday for a trip to Yellowstone Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cornelius, Miss Hettie and Cal Jack made a Friday to Monday trip to Culver, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schneider and James Bettis, formerly of this city. From there they went to Redmond and returned by way of the McKenzie Pass. They report the crops very light around Culver, due to a hard frost on the 20th of June.

Mrs. N. E. Barker of Los Angeles is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Chambers on Baseline street. Mrs. Barker had the misfortune to lose a very valuable dog by death after arriving here. The dog was a granddaughter of Strongheart, of movie fame, and had appeared in movies herself.

Mrs. James Morgan of Portland spent Monday and Tuesday at the summer home of her son, Harry Morgan, at Meacham. Other guests of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brown on Sunday, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cull on Tuesday evening.

Miss Gladys Rood and Miss Jean Craft were hostesses at a luncheon at the Bohemian and a matinee at the Broadway in Portland Saturday, complimenting Miss Eleanor Chambers, bride-elect. Other guests from here were Miss Ruth McGrath and Miss Eva McCormick.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Sigler and children came out the last of the week for a visit with Mr. Sigler's mother, Mrs. James Sigler, and family. Mr. Sigler returned to Portland Monday morning, but the family remained for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. O'Rourke, who have been spending a few months at Mill Valley, California, are now located at their summer home above Mountandale, where they will remain for some months.

Mrs. Dora Nelson, and Mrs. Henry Johnson and daughter, Janet, of Portland, and Mrs. Reynold Chapman and daughter, Patricia, are spending the week at the Morgan cottage at Meacham.

Wilber Hoffman of Colville, Illinois, arrived Tuesday for a visit with the Winegardner families and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cook of west of Hillsboro. Mr. Hoffman is touring the west.

Frank A. Lindsay, of this city, Portland sales manager of the O'Joy puncture proof tire liner, made a business trip to Seattle last week.

L. J. Rushlow and son, Jack, and E. W. Beckett drove to Fort Stevens for a clamming expedition from Monday to Wednesday.

C. A. Hande, who formerly conducted the variety store here, is in Spring Valley, Minn., visiting his mother for a few weeks.

The vacation school at All Saints Mission continues to hold interest with an average attendance of about 50 children.

Mrs. C. E. Andrews of Oakland, Cal., is a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. N. G. Anderson, at Witch Hazel.

Mrs. Sarah Hoopengartner of Portland spent several days the last of the week with her sister, Mrs. Anne Sigler.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Deck spent the week-end with friends at Brightwood on the Mt. Hood loop.

Sheriff J. E. Reeves made a business trip to his mine at Riddle from Thursday to Sunday.

Mrs. A. Schoenbecher of near Farmington was in Hillsboro on business Friday.

Miss Irene Urfer of Portland was a week-end guest of Miss Ruth McGrath.

James Imbrie underwent a minor operation at the Smith hospital Sunday.

Ira T. Mills of near Manning was in town on business Friday.

Mrs. Paul Patterson entertained with a dinner party Friday evening as a surprise for her husband in honor of his birthday anniversary. After dinner, bridge was enjoyed. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Tongue, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hill and their house guest, Mrs. Mead, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Shumway, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Easter, and Mr. and Mrs. Patterson.

Mrs. George Zimmerman of above North Plains was a Hillsboro visitor Wednesday.

John Siegenthaler of Portland and John Werner of Bethany were Hillsboro visitors Saturday.

Chief of Police L. B. Jenkins of Portland will speak in the Methodist church Sunday night, July 29.

R. T. Morgan of Farmington left Sunday for Moro, where he will drive a combine during harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wood, Miss Viva Moore and Glade Follis made the Mt. Hood loop trip Sunday.

Harold Wismer has gone to Garibaldi for the summer, where he opened a fish and chip business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Heaton attended the I. O. O. F. picnic at Elsnor's grove Sunday.

Mrs. C. A. Hande and a party of friends from Portland were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Sanders Monday.

The ladies of the Methodist church will hold a cooked food sale at the Emmott's Market Saturday, beginning at 9 o'clock.

A card from Mrs. Otto Hartkamp says they are located at Hayward, Cal., and think they'll like it fine. The climate is very similar to this.

Miss Grace Cox of San Jose, Cal., and Mr. and Mrs. Epebeth of Oakland, Cal., former Iowa friends of Mrs. O. O. Freeman, called on her Tuesday.

Mrs. F. H. Bowly of South Tualatin and her sister-in-law, Mrs. F. C. Bohlsen of Nyssa, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Mitchell were dinner guests Friday of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Bowly, in honor of their house guest, Mrs. F. C. Bohlsen of Nyssa.

Miss Esther Benson of Beverly Hills, California, and Miss Margaret Benson of Raymond, Wash., were guests Friday of their sister, Mrs. Paul Patterson.

The Misses Frances and Helen Schultz, who have been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gheen, have returned to their home in Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Taylor and children of McMinnville were calling on Hillsboro friends Saturday. They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Davidson for a week-end visit.

Mrs. F. C. Bohlsen of Nyssa is visiting relatives and friends in South Tualatin and Hillsboro. Mrs. Bohlsen will be remembered as Miss Lois Bowly. Mr. Bohlsen will arrive the first of the week for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Eagon visited friends in Gaston Sunday.

Miss Mary Helm of Laurel was a Hillsboro visitor Saturday.

Miss Irene Winegardner will spend the week-end at Rockaway.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Webb of Cornelius were Hillsboro visitors Tuesday.

L. F. Francis, school clerk at Tualatin, was a Hillsboro visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sigler and children were picnickers at Scappoose Sunday.

Mrs. George Zimmerman of above North Plains was a Hillsboro visitor Wednesday.

John Siegenthaler of Portland and John Werner of Bethany were Hillsboro visitors Saturday.

Chief of Police L. B. Jenkins of Portland will speak in the Methodist church Sunday night, July 29.

R. T. Morgan of Farmington left Sunday for Moro, where he will drive a combine during harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wood, Miss Viva Moore and Glade Follis made the Mt. Hood loop trip Sunday.

Harold Wismer has gone to Garibaldi for the summer, where he opened a fish and chip business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Heaton attended the I. O. O. F. picnic at Elsnor's grove Sunday.

Mrs. C. A. Hande and a party of friends from Portland were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Sanders Monday.

The ladies of the Methodist church will hold a cooked food sale at the Emmott's Market Saturday, beginning at 9 o'clock.

A card from Mrs. Otto Hartkamp says they are located at Hayward, Cal., and think they'll like it fine. The climate is very similar to this.

Miss Grace Cox of San Jose, Cal., and Mr. and Mrs. Epebeth of Oakland, Cal., former Iowa friends of Mrs. O. O. Freeman, called on her Tuesday.

Mrs. F. H. Bowly of South Tualatin and her sister-in-law, Mrs. F. C. Bohlsen of Nyssa, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Mitchell were dinner guests Friday of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Bowly, in honor of their house guest, Mrs. F. C. Bohlsen of Nyssa.

Miss Esther Benson of Beverly Hills, California, and Miss Margaret Benson of Raymond, Wash., were guests Friday of their sister, Mrs. Paul Patterson.

The Misses Frances and Helen Schultz, who have been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gheen, have returned to their home in Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Taylor and children of McMinnville were calling on Hillsboro friends Saturday. They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Davidson for a week-end visit.

Mrs. F. C. Bohlsen of Nyssa is visiting relatives and friends in South Tualatin and Hillsboro. Mrs. Bohlsen will be remembered as Miss Lois Bowly. Mr. Bohlsen will arrive the first of the week for a short visit.

Rev. Harvey Miller and little son, Harvey, of Martinez, California; John Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller and Mrs. Earl Truman of Portland were here Saturday, calling on their relatives, the McKineys, and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Cornelius of Redville.

Rev. W. A. Spicker, M. E. pastor at Orofino, Idaho, and Mrs. Spicker, visited Rev. Spicker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Spicker, enroute to Los Angeles, Cal., where they went to attend the World's Sunday School convention and visit their daughter.

Mrs. Paul Patterson entertained with a dinner party Friday evening as a surprise for her husband in honor of his birthday anniversary. After dinner, bridge was enjoyed. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Tongue, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hill and their house guest, Mrs. Mead, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Shumway, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Easter, and Mr. and Mrs. Patterson.

Mrs. George Zimmerman of above North Plains was a Hillsboro visitor Wednesday.

John Siegenthaler of Portland and John Werner of Bethany were Hillsboro visitors Saturday.

Chief of Police L. B. Jenkins of Portland will speak in the Methodist church Sunday night, July 29.

R. T. Morgan of Farmington left Sunday for Moro, where he will drive a combine during harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wood, Miss Viva Moore and Glade Follis made the Mt. Hood loop trip Sunday.

Harold Wismer has gone to Garibaldi for the summer, where he opened a fish and chip business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Heaton attended the I. O. O. F. picnic at Elsnor's grove Sunday.

Mrs. C. A. Hande and a party of friends from Portland were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Sanders Monday.

The ladies of the Methodist church will hold a cooked food sale at the Emmott's Market Saturday, beginning at 9 o'clock.

A card from Mrs. Otto Hartkamp says they are located at Hayward, Cal., and think they'll like it fine. The climate is very similar to this.

Miss Grace Cox of San Jose, Cal., and Mr. and Mrs. Epebeth of Oakland, Cal., former Iowa friends of Mrs. O. O. Freeman, called on her Tuesday.

Mrs. F. H. Bowly of South Tualatin and her sister-in-law, Mrs. F. C. Bohlsen of Nyssa, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Mitchell were dinner guests Friday of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Bowly, in honor of their house guest, Mrs. F. C. Bohlsen of Nyssa.

Miss Esther Benson of Beverly Hills, California, and Miss Margaret Benson of Raymond, Wash., were guests Friday of their sister, Mrs. Paul Patterson.

The Misses Frances and Helen Schultz, who have been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gheen, have returned to their home in Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Taylor and children of McMinnville were calling on Hillsboro friends Saturday. They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Davidson for a week-end visit.

The Camp Fire girls enjoyed a picnic at Rippling Waters on Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Gordon, Miss Hoag and Mr. McAlear furnished transportation to and from the picnic. The time was spent in swimming, and later luncheon was served, including a wicker roast. Those attending were Misses Alice Nosler, Dolores Theda, Joan Parrott, Norma Kreitz, Florence Gordon, Edna Short, Kathleen McAlear, Ordell Prickett, Mary Yantli, Mary Helen Himes, Louise Frank, Winona Turner, and Mrs. C. H. Nosler.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gross and family and house guests, Mr. Gross's mother, sister and brothers, made a trip to Yakima, Wash., Sunday to visit relatives. The visitors, Mrs. Gross Sr., Miss Hazel, Ralph and Harold, left Tuesday for their home in San Jose, California.

It is reported that the most successful season of strawberries and raspberries has been harvested in the Buxton section this year. The growing of berries in that section is rather a late thing and the growers are well pleased with the results.

Mrs. Albert Spiering returned Tuesday from Portland, where she has been for the past week with her husband, who was operated on at St. Vincent's hospital. Their son, Raymond, suffered a broken jaw in a baseball game in Portland.

A large congregation greeted the participants in the sacred concert given last Sunday night in the Methodist church by the junior bible class, assisted by Miss Wilcox and Mrs. V. Gardner. James Forsythe was presiding officer.

Victor McFarland of McMinnville and Alfred Morgan made a fishing trip to the Trask river the last of the week. Alf returned with a good supply of the speckled beauties, and remembered his friends with some of them.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Powell of Portland, Mrs. Fred Jaubush and daughter, Theobell, of Fortuna, California; and Mr. and Mrs. George Clisby of Corvallis were guests at the C. M. Powell home on First avenue Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Haroldson of Minot, North Dakota, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McCaskie. The visitors were taken on a motor trip to the Columbia River highway and Mt. Hood.

C. E. Shorey and daughter, Miss Eliza, left Monday for Shipperd's Springs for a few weeks' vacation. Miss Bernice Wahner is taking Miss Shorey's place in the county agent's office during her absence.

Mrs. E. M. Ries and daughter, Barbara, of Memphis, Tenn., are guests of Mrs. Ries' sister, Mrs. B. M. Goodman, and family, and of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cunningham, of Huber.

Mrs. E. R. Bailey and children left Monday for a vacation at Rockaway. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bailey of Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Trambly and their house guests, Mrs. A. Vandermeer and son, returned Thursday from a week at Cannon Beach.

Mrs. Joe Baker and her sister, Miss Anna Crop, were Hillsboro visitors the last of the week from their home in Mountandale.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Connell left the last of the week to spend the summer at their cottage at Rockaway.

The fish brought in by Charles Sandy of Seefeld last week has been pronounced to be a Ray Star fish.

Mrs. Vesta Combs and daughter, Mina, left Saturday for a week's vacation at Seaside.

Frank Fluke of Metzger was a Hillsboro caller last Thursday.

Mrs. Ada Qualls of near Roy is reported as very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Cozlett and family were Seaside visitors over Sunday.

Mrs. M. P. Cady and family spent the week-end at their beach cottage at Rockaway.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Abel and daughter, Dorothy, are spending a week at Seaside.

Miss Beth Whitcomb, who is employed at Well's, is away on a week's vacation.

Miss Mildred McPherson is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ralph Clem, in Vernonia this week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mills is away on her vacation in Washington. Mrs. Mills is employed at Well's.

T. H. Gremgard and daughter, Eunice, are back again at Well's, after spending a week at Netarts.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Johnson and family returned Sunday from a few days' visit at their summer home at Meacham.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Kramer made the Mt. Hood loop trip Sunday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ingram of Portland.

Mrs. S. E. Hyre, Mrs. Julia Anderson and Mrs. Nellie Startzell were Sunday guests of Dr. and Mrs. Peak at Gresham.

Mrs. E. M. Barnes and daughter, Roberta, left Sunday for Longview, Wash., where they are visiting Mrs. Barnes' brother, Mr. Bottorf, and family.

Mrs. J. E. Harris and son, Richard, and daughter, Lucille, of Beatrice, Neb., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Harris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stansell.

Mrs. Cora May Newgard and daughter of Klamath Falls are guests for a few days at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Greer and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hare. Mrs. Newgard is a niece of Mr. Greer.

Miss Alma Schulerich returned Tuesday from Corvallis and is assisting in the Hare, McAlear & Peters law office during the absence of Miss Marcella Richards, who is having a two weeks' vacation, which she is spending in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Johnson, Mrs. Fritz Abendroth, and Mrs. Johnson's father, David Harwood, attended the funeral Saturday of Alonzo Welch at Vancouver, Wash. Mr. Welch, a relative of theirs, was killed in an auto accident near Stevenson, Wash.

Mrs. Arthur Rollins and two children arrived last week from Phoenix, Arizona, and will spend the summer with Mrs. Rollins' mother, Mrs. J. C. Bechen, and family, of near Orengo. Mrs. Rollins and children made the trip from Los Angeles by boat, stopping off at San Francisco to visit with Miss Esther Bechen.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Trambly and their house guests, Mrs. A. Vandermeer and son, returned Thursday from a week at Cannon Beach.

Mrs. Joe Baker and her sister, Miss Anna Crop, were Hillsboro visitors the last of the week from their home in Mountandale.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Connell left the last of the week to spend the summer at their cottage at Rockaway.

The fish brought in by Charles Sandy of Seefeld last week has been pronounced to be a Ray Star fish.

Mrs. Vesta Combs and daughter, Mina, left Saturday for a week's vacation at Seaside.

Frank Fluke of Metzger was a Hillsboro caller last Thursday.

Mrs. Ada Qualls of near Roy is reported as very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Cozlett and family were Seaside visitors over Sunday.

Mrs. M. P. Cady and family spent the week-end at their beach cottage at Rockaway.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Abel and daughter, Dorothy, are spending a week at Seaside.

Miss Beth Whitcomb, who is employed at Well's, is away on a week's vacation.

Miss Mildred McPherson is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ralph Clem, in Vernonia this week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mills is away on her vacation in Washington. Mrs. Mills is employed at Well's.

T. H. Gremgard and daughter, Eunice, are back again at Well's, after spending a week at Netarts.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Johnson and family returned Sunday from a few days' visit at their summer home at Meacham.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Kramer made the Mt. Hood loop trip Sunday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ingram of Portland.

Mrs. S. E. Hyre, Mrs. Julia Anderson and Mrs. Nellie Startzell were Sunday guests of Dr. and Mrs. Peak at Gresham.

Mrs. E. M. Barnes and daughter, Roberta, left Sunday for Longview, Wash., where they are visiting Mrs. Barnes' brother, Mr. Bottorf, and family.

Mrs. J. E. Harris and son, Richard, and daughter, Lucille, of Beatrice, Neb., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Harris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stansell.

Mrs. Cora May Newgard and daughter of Klamath Falls are guests for a few days at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Greer and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hare. Mrs. Newgard is a niece of Mr. Greer.

Miss Alma Schulerich returned Tuesday from Corvallis and is assisting in the Hare, McAlear & Peters law office during the absence of Miss Marcella Richards, who is having a two weeks' vacation, which she is spending in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Johnson, Mrs. Fritz Abendroth, and Mrs. Johnson's father, David Harwood, attended the funeral Saturday of Alonzo Welch at Vancouver, Wash. Mr. Welch, a relative of theirs, was killed in an auto accident near Stevenson, Wash.

Mrs. Arthur Rollins and two children arrived last week from Phoenix, Arizona, and will spend the summer with Mrs. Rollins' mother, Mrs. J. C. Bechen, and family, of near Orengo. Mrs. Rollins and children made the trip from Los Angeles by boat, stopping off at San Francisco to visit with Miss Esther Bechen.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Trambly and their house guests, Mrs. A. Vandermeer and son, returned Thursday from a week at Cannon Beach.

Mrs. Joe Baker and her sister, Miss Anna Crop, were Hillsboro visitors the last of the week from their home in Mountandale.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Weil and family are spending a couple of weeks at Liberty Lake, guests of Mr. Weil's sister, Mrs. M. M. Cohen, of Spokane. Mr. Weil writes that the bass fishing is fine but that so far the big ones have got away.

Mrs. John Hay and Mrs. Josephine Patterson of Seattle were guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Imbrie of near Orengo. They left Wednesday morning for Cannon Beach for a few weeks' vacation.