

Local Briefs

What's On at the Venetian Theater

Friday and Saturday
August 17 and 18
Reginald Denny in "Good Morning Judge"

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday
August 19—20—21
Clara Bow in "Ladies of the Mob"

Wednesday and Thursday
August 22 and 23
Bebe Daniels in "50-50 Girl"

Coming—Sun., Mon., Tues.
August 26—27—28
Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell in "Street Angel"

Roy Bowers of Raymond, Wash., is a guest of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Spiering.

Henry Rithaler Jr. of near Cornelius was a Hillsboro business visitor Monday.

Mrs. E. E. Russell and daughters are visiting relatives at The Dalles this week.

Mrs. A. H. Meyers and family of Conell station were Hillsboro business visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hammock have gone to Astacadero, California, where they will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tews and son left Sunday for a week at the Tillamook beaches.

Mrs. T. E. Bledsoe and Mrs. Magie Anderson of Hazeldele were in Hillsboro on business Saturday.

Mrs. L. T. McPheeters and Mrs. E. L. Moore left Wednesday for a few weeks' vacation at Seaside.

Mrs. John Narup, son Ferdinand, and daughters, Matilda and Melissa, of Banks, were Hillsboro visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo K. Crouch and children, Frances Jean and Donald, of Olympia, Wash., were guests Friday of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kelley.

Glenn Bell, while getting out of his car Friday at Aloha, stepped on a rock and fractured his left ankle. He is able to be about on crutches.

Mrs. J. W. Kelley and Miss Agnes Maltman were week-end visitors at Seaside, guests of relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Sturdevant and family, who have been living at Cornelius, have moved to Portland, and are domiciled at 766 Tibbet street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Emmott and daughter, Miss Joyce, and Miss Mildred Elder left Sunday for Newport and the Tillamook beaches. They will be gone a week.

Alfred Pieren, who lives eight miles north of Hillsboro, was a visitor here Saturday. Mr. Pieren has a peach orchard and he says they are exceptionally fine this year.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Luther and daughter, Edna, of Portland, were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Gillette. Mrs. Luther is a niece of Mr. Gillette.

Robert Crandall and daughter, Miss Ruth, of Los Angeles, Cal., left today for home after a week's visit with Mr. Crandall's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Crandall, and his brother, Max Crandall, and family.

Mrs. Frances Norton of Tonquin was a Hillsboro visitor Saturday. Mrs. Norton, who teaches in District 73 of that place, says that the school will open there on September 4.

Mrs. Frances Norton, who teaches at Tonquin, was in Hillsboro Saturday. She says that the schoolhouse has been repainted and resingled this summer and is ready for the opening of school on September 4.

Mrs. A. E. Maden, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scheurer, and her sister, Mrs. C. H. Emmott, and Portland relatives, left Sunday for her home in Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Maden expect to come to Oregon to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Phillips and grandson, Glen Pickens, returned the last of the week from a month's vacation at Harvieu. Mrs. A. K. Pickens spent the last week with her parents and son and returned home this week.

Mrs. Clyde Middleton and two children of Spokane, Wash., visited the last of the week with Mrs. James Wood, and are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morgan, and also of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brown. Mrs. Middleton is a sister of Mr. Morgan.

Miss Dorothy Sherman of Portland was visiting with Hillsboro friends Friday. Miss Sherman will enter Oregon State college at Gervallis this fall. Others of the 1928 graduating class of Hillsboro high school who expect to attend are the Misses Ruth Gilmore, Ruth Julien, Esther Brown and Vera Hensley.

Mrs. Arthur Jenkinson, formerly of Hillsboro, has been very successful in passing her examinations with honors in singing, voice production, history of music, theory and harmony at the London Royal Academy of Musicians of London, England. She is now L. R. A. M. licentiate of the Royal Academy of Music.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Koppelman of Chicago, Ill., are visiting with Mrs. Koppelman's aunt, Mrs. Peter Pyle, and her cousins, Mrs. John Johannsen and Tennis Pyle, and families. Mrs. Pyle had not seen her niece for 45 years. The visitors are being taken over the Columbia highway, the Mt. Hood loop, the beaches and other places during their visit, and are enjoying the country very much. They came by way of Denver and Salt Lake and will return via Seattle and St. Paul.

Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Kay of Carlton were Sunday visitors here.

Frank Creps of Banks was in the city on business Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Coslett and family were Sunday visitors at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harma and family left Wednesday morning for a vacation at Rockaway.

Judge and Mrs. E. J. Ward returned Sunday from a three weeks' stay at St. Martin's Springs, Wash.

Mrs. J. E. Butler and son, Marion, of Portland, were guests last week of their relatives, Mrs. Ann Sigler and Mrs. Lucy Sigler.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Eagon and Rev. E. B. Lockhart attended the Epworth League Institute at Falls City Sunday.

Mrs. Beatrice McCloud left for Portland Saturday, after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Clay Freeman.

Little Sally Gardner has been spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Stohler in Banks.

John Ryan is back on the route as city mail carrier after a vacation with his family at the Tillamook beaches.

Mrs. Emma Dierdorff and her sister, Mrs. J. B. Schaefer, of Linnton, who is visiting here, spent the week-end at Neskevin.

Miss Maud Truitt left Tuesday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Truitt at Auburn, Wash.

Rev. W. A. Gordon and family of Portland were guests the last of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gates, and from here went to Neskevin for a short vacation.

Miss Beatrice Lockhart left Wednesday for Neskevin for a week's vacation with sorority sisters of Beta Chi of the Willamette university.

Rev. and Mrs. S. McMinis and daughter, Miss Avoca, and Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Hulit and family went to the Mt. Hood section Tuesday to gather huckleberries.

County Agent O. T. McWhorter and family returned Monday from a five-day trip to Yakima, Wash., where they visited at the home of his parents.

Dr. William Robnett brought some fine specimens of pears to this office from his orchard in northwest Hillsboro. The variety is not known to the doctor.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hawes of Portland were guests Sunday of Mrs. Clara Gurnett and son, Tom, and went to Balm Grove for a picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Erickson of Vancouver, Wash., were week-end guests of Mrs. Erickson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kroeger, of this city.

F. L. Austin of San Diego, Cal., was a Hillsboro visitor Monday afternoon, calling on old friends. He was formerly in the insurance business in this city. Mr. Austin had just returned from a visit to his old home in the east.

John R. Bailey came down from Buxton, Wednesday to visit in the county seat with his many friends. He says the prune crop is exceptionally heavy on his farm. Mr. Bailey went out into Portland on Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Gardner returned today from a week's vacation which included a visit with Mrs. Gardner's brother, Wayne Vaught, and Miss Irene Taylor in Bend. From there they went to Crater Lake, and coming back by way of the McKenzie Pass, visited at Newport for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Berdan of Wenatchee, Wash., than Berdan and son, Orwell, of Crockett, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Downer, Mrs. F. W. Sinclair, Mrs. J. R. Hargrave and sons, James, William and Frank; Mrs. Alvin Bachelar, and Mrs. Ray Sinclair made a trip up the Columbia highway and the Mt. Hood loop trip last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Franklin, daughter, Mabel, and son, Porter, of Julesburg, Colorado, were guests from Friday to Monday at the home of their friends and former neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Pool and family. The two families spent Saturday in McMinville, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hilemans, former Colorado friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Engeldinger and children attended a reunion of the Engeldinger and Wells families Sunday at Island park east of Cannon. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wells and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Hoffman, and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schultz of Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. James Wells of Jennings Lodge, Arthur Hoffman of West Linn, Mr. and Mrs. George Engeldinger, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Engeldinger and Miss Anna Engeldinger of Portland.

Mrs. T. H. Tullock and son, Tommy, of Kahlots, Wash., arrived this week for a few weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Tilton. Mrs. Tullock is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tilton and had not visited here for ten years. She sees great improvement in Hillsboro since her last visit. The Tullocks are living on an 800-acre wheat ranch, and just harvested 4,000 bushels of grain.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Bell of Corvallis were week-end guests of Mrs. Bell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brown. Their daughter, Miss Barbara, who had been spending the week here, returned home with them. On Sunday they held a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Dean at Witch Hazel, 19 being present. Mrs. Dean is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brown.

D. Erich Lucas and family of Seattle were Hillsboro visitors over Sunday. Mr. Lucas is assistant vice-president of the National Bank of Commerce, now a member of the Marine Bancorporation of Seattle. Their correspondent bank here is the Shute Savings bank, and Mr. Lucas was paying a visit to the officers.

The Skaggs-Safeway people enjoyed a picnic Sunday at Mt. Rose park on the Columbia highway. Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. John Golee and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stanton and family, James and Clifford Cramer, Charles Ross, Harry Stanton and Thurston Gremgard.

Oliver Johnston of North Plains was a Hillsboro business visitor on Monday. Mr. Johnston says the crops are turning out much better than expected, especially the fall grain. Oats are going 50 bushels to the acre and wheat from 40 to 50 bushels.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Long of Portland are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son Wednesday morning at the Emanuel hospital. The new arrival is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Long of this city.

The I. O. O. F. fraternity will hold a picnic Sunday at Sellwood park in Portland and all Odd Fellows and Rebekahs are invited to attend. It is expected that many local people will attend the picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johannsen Jr., and son, and Kenneth and George Johannsen, are vacationing at Seaside, while John is attending the West Coast Insurance company convention at Gearhart.

Mrs. Lloyd Tupper and son, Robert, went to Seaside Saturday and will spend the rest of the month with Mrs. Tupper's mother, Mrs. John Jeffcott, of Portland, at her beach cottage.

Miss Margaret Long of the advertising department of the Telegram is enjoying a week's vacation at the home of her sister, Mrs. Gale Wells at Sheridan.

Miss Agnes Maltman and Miss Mildred McLeod attended a house party in Portland Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George McFall.

Miss Thelma Drake of Portland, a student of Oregon State college, was a guest of Miss Laura Deck over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles Cheatham and Miss Evelyn Parks of Portland visited Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kelley.

S. A. Sanford of Roseburg, appraiser for the Spokane Federal Land bank, is in the city for a few days.

J. C. Rogers of near Laurel was a Hillsboro visitor Wednesday. He was accompanied by his daughter of Portland.

J. D. Buchanan of Portland has taken a position with Frank's market.

Mrs. S. L. Long of Eugene is visiting her son, Percy Long, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Covington spent the week-end at Seaside.

Dr. W. J. Thompson of Salem transacted business here Monday.

Mrs. McKeever of Portland was a guest of Miss Dulcinea Brown for several days last week.

Miss Margaret Hines of Forest Grove is a guest this week of Miss Catherine Stangel.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wharton of near Helvetia were in Hillsboro on Wednesday.

B. M. Goodman and brother, Earl, of Portland, spent the week-end on the Wilson river on a fishing expedition.

The ladies of the Methodist church will have an ice cream social next Wednesday night in the basement of the M. E. church. Everybody welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wilkes returned Sunday night from a few days' visit at Longview, Wash., with Mr. Wilkes' nephew, Bert Wilkes, and family.

Mrs. C. A. Lamkin, who was operated upon a few weeks ago at the St. Vincent's hospital, following a sudden illness, was brought home Tuesday and is improving nicely.

Miss Belle Taggart, who is vacationing at Netarts with her mother, Mrs. G. N. Taggart, has been ill with pleurisy, but is reported as improving.

George Alexander of Salem was a Hillsboro visitor Friday, coming after his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Corwin, who had been visiting here for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stangel and daughter, Catherine, and the Ed Boos family of Forest Grove, enjoyed a picnic at Battle Ground lake in Washington Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Davis and Mrs. Earl Donelson were week-end visitors at Sand Lake and were accompanied home by Robert Davis, who had been at the Boy Scout camp for a month.

Wendell Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brown, who has been with the Woolworth company in Portland for some time, was transferred to Medford, where he will be with the same company.

Miss Deborah Barrett returned Saturday from a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. George Dooley, at Banks. She also visited her sister, Mrs. Amanda Purdin, at Forest Grove, who had just returned from Yakima, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Carlile and son, Harold, returned Monday evening from a two weeks' visit to Coquille, Marshfield and other Coos Bay points. They met several former Hillsboro people while visiting at those places.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brock and daughter, Arlene, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. Brock's brother, C. L. Brock, and family, at Vernonia. While there they attended the Odd Fellows' picnic on Sunday.

Fred Sewell returned Monday from a five-day trip to Medford with the Artisan band of Portland, of which he is a member. The band played for the Artisans' Pacific Coast Conclave, which was held in that city. Representatives were in attendance from California, Oregon and Washington. Mr. Sewell says he saw the best drill work, put on by a ladies' team from Portland, that he ever witnessed.

Mrs. Wayne Patterson was hostess at luncheon Friday and Saturday of last week. The guests at Friday's luncheon were Mrs. G. A. Patterson, Mrs. Ralph Marshall, Vance, Wehrung and Keith Patterson of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Patterson and children. At Saturday's luncheon those present were Mrs. A. E. Osmund, Mrs. Alfred Osmund, and the Misses Cora and Stella Osmund of Portland, Mrs. Fred Rood and daughters, Gladys, Marjorie and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson and children.

Miss Ruth and Edward Linklater will leave Friday morning for San Francisco, after a week's visit with their mother, Mrs. Zula Linklater, and family. They visited a few days with their brother, Francis, and wife, at Aberdeen, Wash., before coming to Hillsboro. Miss Ruth is with the American Express company and Edward is a chemist with the National Lead company in the southern city. Mrs. Linklater and her family spent the week-end at their summer home above Meacham.

Mrs. Gina Rushold of Minneapolis, Minnesota, Mrs. A. E. Osmund and Alfred Osmund of Portland, and George Bradford of Berkeley, Cal., were guests the last of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Linklater.

Home-made ice cream, 50 cents a quart.—Perfection Bakery. 17-1f

We couldn't make it all — so we made the Best. — Bailey's Ice Cream. 23-24

Fred Rood. Mrs. Rushold is an aunt and Mrs. Osmund is the mother of Mrs. Rood.

(Other Locals on page four)

Perfection Bakery open on Sundays. 17-1f

We couldn't make it all — so we made the Best. — Bailey's Ice Cream. 23-24

Better let Andy fix your watch. He knows how.—J. L. Anderson, Jeweler, 1211 Main street. 16-1f

Why not have us prevent tomorrow's possible eye defects by caring for them wisely today? We insure your glasses against breakage and examine your eyes without extra charge. Dr. Glutch may be consulted at the Washington Hotel, Wednesday, August 29. 25-26

Dance at Laurel

There will be a dance at the Laurel Community hall Saturday night, August 18. Everybody invited. 24-25

Balm

Admission will do you no harm.

Where wood, stoves and swimming is free, and the water is warm, and 10c

BALM GROVE

For a Real Good Time—

23-24

Believe Me!

If you want your car repaired right take it where I took mine last time. They sure did a good job, at the

City Service Station

LES RIGGS, Prop. Third and Washington

KNOW THE FACTS

before you make ANY INVESTMENT

Your money is protected here by selected First Mortgages—Under strict State Supervision

Your Savings Earn 7% With Safety

SAFE RELIABLE

Washington Savings & Loan Assn.

J. M. PERSON, Mgr. Hillsboro, Oregon

Shute Bank Bldg.

ANNOUNCEMENT

THE HILLSBORO TRANSFER has been purchased from Jacob Vannett by

E. A. KASPERSON of Portland, and WESLEY JONES of Aloha—

and we will do all kinds of local or long distance hauling. We make trips to Portland each day. If you are in need of a Transfer just call us. We will be prompt and efficient.

Hillsboro Transfer Company

Telephone 542 1246 Lincoln Street

VENETIAN—Sun., Mon., Tues.

August 19—20—21

LADIES OF THE MOB

RICHARD ARLEN
A Paramount Picture

Super Service Station

For Real Service Try C. W. WHITE MOTOR COMPANY'S

Car Washing and Greasing

We have a hydraulic hoist to raise your car and check all loose or worn parts while washing and greasing.

Try Our Latest Type Electric Vulcanizer

FIRESTONE TIRES AND TUBES

Used Cars of All Kinds, as well as

STUDEBAKER-ERSKINE CARS

Ask about Free Premiums

Diamond Solitaire

An exquisite Diamond Solitaire, perfectly cut, and of fiery blue white brilliance. The 18K Solid Gold Mounting is hand carved in the new design, and at unusually low prices.

J. L. Anderson
JEWELER
Telephone 991-Y
1211 Main Street

Special on Sewing Machines

$5 $8 $10

All in fine condition

All Steel Cultivator $1.75

Only one at this price!

The Whatnot
1321 Main Street

Feeds - - Grain Hay - Straw

Whether you are buying or selling, we solicit the opportunity to figure with you.

QUALITY FEEDS —for— Every Feeding Purpose

IT WILL PAY YOU TO GET OUR PRICES!

Imperial Feed & Grain Co.

QUALITY FEEDS
Telephone 511 745 Second Street