

Local Briefs

What's On at the Venetian Theater

Friday and Saturday
September 7 and 8
Karl Dane and George K. Arthur in "Detectives"

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday
September 9-10-11
Colleen Moore in "Happiness Ahead"

Wednesday and Thursday
September 12-13
Estelle Taylor and Antonio Moreno in "The Whip Woman"

Coming—Sun., Mon., Tues.
September 16-17-18
"Four Sons"

Mrs. Roy Heineck of near Laurel was a Hillsboro visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Barnes were visitors at Government camp Wednesday.

Neil Stangel returned last Thursday night from a two weeks' trip to San Francisco.

Tommy Connell, Lester Batchelar and Richard Rice were week-end visitors at Rockaway.

O. Phelps and Harry Hill returned Monday from a three days' trip to Port Townsend, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. William Albers were Saturday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Domelson.

Mrs. C. E. Wells and family spent the week-end and Labor day at the Wells cottage at Pacific City.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Thompson and family and Miss Floy Taggart were week-end visitors at Ocean-side.

Mr. and Mrs. George Selfridge and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lawrence made the Mount Hood loop trip Sunday and Monday.

The Christian Missionary society met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. E. C. Brown. Mrs. J. H. Garrett was the leader.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Whitmore and son, Claud, spent Saturday at Tualatin, guests of Mrs. Whitmore's brother, William Sargent.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Person and children, John and Jean, spent Saturday and Sunday at the Arah Wana hotel on the Mount Hood loop.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wells, who have been living at Sheridan, have gone to Redmond, where Mr. Wells has charge of the telephone plant.

Mrs. J. E. Linden, Mrs. James Rasmussen, Mrs. W. Reiser and Mrs. Ed. Boos of Forest Grove were guests Friday afternoon of Mrs. J. J. Stangel.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Morgan were Mount Hood visitors over the week-end. They were accompanied on the loop trip by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Deaville of Gresham.

There will be a fellowship and home-coming meeting at the Christian church Sunday, with a basket dinner at noon. This will be an all-day meeting and all members are expected to attend.

Mrs. A. E. Owen and Mrs. Jack Taylor and children of McMinnville were Hillsboro visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Owen was a guest of Mrs. H. E. McCaskie and Mrs. Taylor visited Mrs. W. E. Ogilbee.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Batchelar, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Fuller and Miss Lela Fuller were week-end visitors at Long Beach, Wash., making the loop trip by way of Astoria and returning via Centralia.

Mrs. Reatha Fowler Miller and her sister, Mrs. Nora Michael, of Portland, were guests Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Weathered. The ladies spent their girlhood days in this vicinity.

Dr. E. H. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Seth-Miller were Eugene visitors Sunday and visited the airport there to see the big tri-motor Fokker plane which stopped there on its way from Los Angeles to Portland.

Miss Tennessee Weathered, who has been attending the University of Colorado summer session, returned home last Thursday evening. On the return trip she stopped off at Colorado Springs and Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Florence Dodge, librarian, returned the last of the week from a month's visit with her brother, John Ewing, and family, at Ontario, Cal. She also visited at Los Angeles and Pasadena, and made the trip over into Mexico.

Elmo Bradford of Portland was a guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Weathered and family. Mr. Bradford, who is an officer in the fire department, is enjoying his vacation and will make a trip to Canada. He formerly resided in Hillsboro.

John Johansen, who has been with the West Coast Life Insurance company, has severed his connections with that company and has taken a position with the Northwestern Mutual of Milwaukee. His office will be with Charles Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brown and Mrs. Emma Maynard of near Manning were Hillsboro visitors Wednesday, returning from Reedville, where they visited Mr. Brown's sister, Mrs. T. E. Cornelius, who was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland Wednesday afternoon.

Misses Dulcinea Brown and Martha James attended the Christian Endeavor conference at Turner over the week-end and Labor day. Miss Affie Reagan of Eugene, who also attended, returned home with the young ladies, and is visiting this week with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. S. M. Reagan.

A party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Spiesschart Sunday evening at North Plains. The evening was spent in music, games and dancing. Those present were the Misses Mary, Louise and Martha Spiesschart, Sylvia, Magdalene and Rosalia Duyck, Lena Delplanche, Thelma Frettrels, Clara Crop, and Viola and Rena Hartel, and the Messrs. Wilfred and George Spiesschart, John Delplanche, James and Ernest Vanderzanden, William and Benjamin Crop, Clarence Duyck, Raymond Hertel and Bruce Van Colen.

Mrs. May I. Smith spent several days this week at Caldwell, Idaho, where she attended the wedding of Henry Martins to Miss Mary Swartz of that city. Mr. Martins was employed at the Hillsboro Pharmacy for several years and has many friends here. Mrs. Smith is also visiting at Sunnyside, Wash., this week, with her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Imbrie.

Week-end guests at the Rockaway beach were Mr. and Mrs. Grace A. Wood were Mr. and Mrs. John M. Lewis and the Misses Dorothy and Nellie Lewis, and Carlton Hande, all of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Wood, Miss Irene Connell and Glade Follis. Mrs. Wood returned with them Monday night to her home here after spending the summer at Rockaway.

Miss Katherine Seff of New York was a guest a few days the last of the week of Miss Eva Weathered. On Saturday Miss Seff, accompanied by Miss Weathered, left for a visit with Seattle friends and with Lieutenant and Mrs. Harry Harding at Bremerton. Miss Seff will make the trip to Alaska from there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wismer spent the week-end at Rockaway. Harold Wismer, who has been running a fish and chip stand at Rockaway, has closed up his place and will arrive home this week for a short visit before going to Seattle to enter the University of Washington.

Mrs. Myrtle Wilson, who has been at Sand Point, Idaho, for some time, and who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Mullin, at Wheeler, was a Hillsboro visitor Wednesday, enroute to Oregon City, where she will make her home. Mrs. Wilson formerly resided here.

C. H. Nosler and daughter, Miss Alice, Lyle Nosler of Portland, and Elwood Johnson and son, Merle, made a trip Sunday over the Willson river road, and found it pretty hard "going." Mrs. Nosler and Mr. Johnson accompanied them as far as Balm Grove.

Miss DeEtte Johnston, daughter of Ernest Johnston of North Plains, left last week for Los Angeles to reside with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Reeves. She will attend high school there this coming term.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Russell of Schefflin, Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Gram of Woodburn, and Mr. and Mrs. James Gram and family of Portland held a picnic at Balm Grove on Labor day.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Barnes and son returned last week from Monmouth. They were accompanied by Miss Bernice Stiles of Monmouth who will teach at Astoria this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Long and son, Irwin, were vacationists at Newport over the week-end. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Carol Long and Miss Widdell of Salem.

Edwin Rounds and Miss Elizabeth Chaney, students of Willamette university, conducted the services at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening, instead of Dr. George Pratt.

Curley Smith of Hillsboro and Herman Miller of Portland went over on the Big Nestucca over the week-end on a fishing trip. Smith says the fishing is not so good.

Ed Cornelius and Emil Fischer of near North Plains were in the city on business Tuesday. Mr. Cornelius is making plans to hold a public sale September 22.

Miss Alberta Lalande, who has been visiting with her sister, Miss Clara Lalande, and friends, for several weeks, left Friday for her home in Nampa, Idaho.

Deputy Sheriff Virgil Weckert and County Clerk Ed Luce made a flying trip to Tillamook Tuesday night on legal business with Judge George Bagley.

R. L. Robinson, old time resident of Farmington, was in Hillsboro Saturday meeting his many friends. Mr. Robinson has been ill for several months.

Mrs. O. H. Stowell of Buxton was a county seat caller Saturday. She said that there were a number of fires around Seefeld.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bennett returned Tuesday from Laurel where they have been visiting with their son, Nile.

Dr. R. E. Close of Portland, superintendent of the state anti-saloon league, was in Hillsboro Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Vincent and Mrs. Reed Walworth are spending the week at Rockaway and Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Lauterman of Salem visited with Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Lockhart Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker were week-end visitors at Government camp.

M. Reeves of the Farmington district was in the city on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Doughty were Beaverton visitors Sunday.

J. C. Rogers of Orenco was a Hillsboro visitor Saturday.

Ed Mallog spent the week-end with his sister at Everett, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Steinke left Saturday for a week's vacation at Rockaway.

Miss Louise Nunn of Salem was a guest at the Methodist parsonage last week.

Fred Pritzlaff of near Gales City was a Hillsboro business visitor on Wednesday.

Walter Nickoff of near Linnton was a Hillsboro business visitor on Wednesday.

Mrs. C. E. Shaver and son of Orenco were Hillsboro business visitors Wednesday.

Miss Maxine Henrichs of Moro is a guest this week at the home of her aunt, Mrs. A. H. Busch.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Huff attended a surprise party for the master of the Grange at Tigar Labor day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Newman of McMinnville were callers at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage Sunday.

Mrs. L. T. McPheeters and Mrs. E. L. Moore returned the last of the week from a few weeks' vacation at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Foord and son, Alton, were week-end visitors at Rockaway, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Newell Olson.

Max Chambers, Jack Connell and Roy Thwaite were visitors over the Labor day week-end at the Chambers cottage at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Blasing spent Sunday picnicking above Cherry Grove. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Riggs.

Miss Eldiva Pool, a graduate of Pacific university, leaves today for Muddy Creek, near Baker, where she will teach school.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Munson and Mrs. Viola Sundberg and children were vacationists at Yachats over the week-end and Labor day.

Mrs. Edwin Bowman, who underwent a minor operation the last of the week at the Jones hospital, is at home and convalescing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas of Portland and Ira Ingram spent the week-end with Mrs. Thomas' sons, Harold and Tom Ireland, and families.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society met at the home of the Misses May and Margaret Cook for their annual election of officers Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Carlile and Harold Carlile made the McKenzie highway trip Labor day. Harold saw Clifford Dunsmoor, formerly of this city.

William Aldinger returned home last week from a two months' visit with relatives in Iowa. He was called back there on account of the death of his sister.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Kramer spent the week-end on a camping trip near Vernonia. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ingram of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Crawford were week-end and Labor day visitors at Ocean-side. They were accompanied by Mrs. Crawford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hillis, and Charles Hillis of Portland, and Wilma and Bonnie Jean King of Stockton, Cal.

James Wier and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Vale of Los Angeles were guests Tuesday at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Payne and Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Gardner. Mr. Wier and Mrs. Vale are uncle and cousin of Mrs. Payne and Mrs. Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McCaskie and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bossert and son, Billie, and Miss Edna McCaskie, of Beverly Hills, California, spent the week-end and Labor day at Mount Rainier National park. The Californians left for their home this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Aldinger and family of Oak Grove, Cal., are guests of Mr. Aldinger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Aldinger. Mrs. Sophia Scheuman, of Oakland, Cal., is also a guest at the Aldinger home, and will spend the winter here. She is a sister of Mrs. Aldinger.

Ben Layton of near Mountaineale was a Hillsboro visitor Wednesday. Mr. Layton has just returned from a three weeks' stay at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, where he was treated for an injury to his eye caused by being struck in the eye by a slab while working at the Frank Greener shingle mill above Mountaineale.

George R. Tompkins, aged 26 years, died at his home in Long Beach, Cal., August 26, following an operation for mastoid. He is survived by his widow and a son, George Erwin, aged two years. Mrs. Tompkins was formerly Linda Lee Erwin of Hillsboro and moved to California about four years ago with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Erwin, all well known here. Howard Erwin, an employe of the C. C. store, left immediately for Long Beach upon receipt of a telegram announcing the death of his brother-in-law. Mrs. Robert Kimbro, formerly of Hillsboro, but now of Portland, is an aunt of Mrs. Tompkins.

Mrs. Marie Wagner of LaCrosse, Wisconsin, and her daughter, Miss Louise Wagner, of Washington, D. C., left for home last Thursday evening, after a week's visit with Mrs. Wagner's cousin, Mrs. F. T. Spicker, and family. The visitors were on their return trip after visiting relatives at Hollywood, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Hanson and daughter, Gertrude, of Moro, were week-end guests of Mrs. Hansen's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brown. On Sunday the hosts and their guests went to Meacham and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morgan at their summer home.

Howard Hughes of East Oak street started for California Saturday, accompanied by George Follis. They drove through and expect to be away ten days or more. Mr. Hughes expects to visit several large chicken farms while in the south, and will go as far as San Francisco.

Mrs. Minerva Bradley returned Saturday from a visit at the Tillamook beaches, and with her granddaughter, Mrs. Pete Lindberg, and family at Garibaldi. Mrs. Bradley was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Crandall and family of Hysham, Montana, who are visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Batchelar and daughter, Margaret, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kellington and daughter, Joyce, made the Newport loop trip over the week-end and Labor day and visited the Tillamook beaches.

Miss Mabel Masterson is at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Masterson, after having completed the course for laboratory technicians given by the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Graftmiller, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. M. Kerr, for the past month, left Saturday evening for her home at Spokane, Wash.

Miss Agnes Maltman of the local Gas & Coke company left Saturday for a two weeks' vacation, which she expects to spend with her parents in Portland and in taking several trips.

Donald Batchelar returned Monday night from a few days' visit with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heater, at Vancouver, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hanson and son, Alona were Hillsboro visitors Saturday, enroute to the sale of dairy cows at Fred Sewell's place.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Spicker visited in Canby Monday and Tuesday with Mrs. Spicker's brother, William Frahl, who is ill.

Mrs. S. Butterfield and son, Clifford Johnson, of Portland, were Hillsboro visitors Tuesday, calling on the McKinnays.

Mrs. Ruth Blair of Portland was a guest the first of the week of Mrs. C. F. McFadden, returning home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Hartwick of Banks were Hillsboro visitors last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ogilbee were Seaside visitors over Sunday and Labor day.

Mrs. A. Stoller and son, Wilbur, of Cedar Mill, were Hillsboro visitors Friday.

A. Bongift of near Sherwood was a Hillsboro business visitor Friday.

Mrs. M. E. O'Brien and son, Robert, are visiting friends in Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bunke and children of Pumpkin Ridge were Hillsboro visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Wright of Portland were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. George McGrath.

Mr. and Mrs. Orange Phelps and sons, Orange and Vincent, left Wednesday for a few days' vacation at Rockaway.

Mrs. L. Meyer of Newberg, Misses Emmer and Mattie Cox, Carlos Johnson and Ben Shires spent the week-end at Ocean-side.

Misses Elaine Caldwell, Madeline Shattuck, Leona and Jean Rogers were Rockaway visitors over the week-end and Labor day.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. West, formerly of Hillsboro, were in the city Friday on their way back to Cotopaxi, Colorado, from Mohler.

Commissioner and Mrs. J. M. Hiatt returned to their duties at the court house Tuesday after a short vacation at Ocean-side.

Miss Josephine Hughes and Dwight Hammond visited in Eugene Sunday. They also saw the airplane crash at Gresham Labor day.

E. J. McAlear and son, Lowell, and R. B. Denney and A. M. Janssen leave tomorrow on a week's hunting trip at Tiller near Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wahlgren of Astoria were week-end guests of Mr. Wahlgren's parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Wahlgren and Miss Agnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Purdy and family left Monday for their home in Brawley, Cal., after a week's visit with Mrs. Purdy's brother, B. M. Goodman, and family.

Miss Ruth McGrath returned on Tuesday from a month's visit with relatives in Los Angeles, Cal. Miss McGrath will attend Oregon State college at Corvallis this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Everest and daughter, Miss Birdella, and Miss Edith Soderwall of Portland were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wohler. Mrs. Wohler is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everest.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Dilberger of San Francisco arrived here Friday for a visit with friends here and at Laurel, where Mr. Dilberger formerly lived. Mr. Dilberger's father ran the postoffice and store at Laurel in the nineties.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Powell of Monmouth visited last week with Mr. Powell's aunt, Mrs. M. A. Powell, and cousin, Mrs. L. A. Long, and family. Mr. Powell is the president of the bank at Monmouth, and is also interested in walnut growing, coming down to attend the Western Nut Growers' association tour of Washington county.

Invitations have been received in this city to the wedding of one of the popular teachers in the grade schools last year, Miss Edna Mae Drake, which will take place at Myrtle Point, September 24, in the Methodist church. Miss Drake will wed Mr. Oliver French Clarke of that community, a Stanford student who has recently returned from a visit in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Reiter left Friday for their home in Pittsburg, Pa., after a visit of a few weeks at the home of their son, C. G. Reiter. They returned by way of California. (Other Locals on Page 14)

Erma Taylor Sparks To Arrange Classes

Erma Taylor Sparks, mus. B., wishes to announce that she will be in Hillsboro at Mrs. W. C. Theda's home, 1335 Third street, Monday afternoon, September 10, to arrange for piano lessons.

Mrs. Sparks is a graduate in piano and pipe organ of Oberlin Conservatory of Music, one of the two best schools in the United States. She is also a pupil of such masters as Frances L. York, and the world-famous pianist, Joseph Lhevinne. Mrs. Sparks has had 14 years teaching experience, 12 of which have been in colleges. Her graduates are now holding important positions in colleges and high schools throughout the county. She is an accredited teacher of music. 28

Dance at Laurel

There will be a dance at the Laurel Community hall Saturday night, September 15th. Everybody invited. 28-29

Dr. Luzader, eyesight specialist, has returned from his vacation and will be in his office at the Pharmacy on Saturday, September 1, and each Saturday thereafter. "Have your eyes examined." 28f

HARDWOOD FLOOR LAYING — SANDING

All floors refinished—Floors polished—Electric floor polisher for rent

A. H. Blasing
Phone 2233 1045 12th St.

The ladies of the Methodist church will have a dinner in the church basement next Wednesday from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock in the evening. Adults, 50 cents a plate; children under 12 years, 25 cents a plate. Everybody invited.

Lodene Beauty Shop—Marcelling, shampooing and facials; hair cutting, 35 cents.—Mrs. Bessie Skeels, 1442 Third street; phone 1571. 27f

Bailey's home-made ice cream is the best in town; 50 cents a quart. Special prices on quantity lots. Perfection Bakery. 26-28

If you want to obtain a 50-hour pilot license at a reasonable price, write, call or see Dr. E. H. Smith. 28

Dinners, 20c to 35c. The best tasting food. Perfection Bakery Coffee Shop. 26-28

Buy your bread and pastry at the Perfection Bakery. Save your cash register receipts, they have a value. 26-28

Better let Andy fix your watch. He knows how.—J. L. Anderson, Jeweler, 1211 Main street. 16-17

Dressmaking—1408 Main street; telephone 241. 28-1f

Why not have us prevent tomorrow's possible eye defects by caring for them wisely today? We insure your glasses against breakage and examine your eyes without extra charge. Dr. Thompson may be consulted at the Washington Hotel, Tuesday, September 11. 27-28

Learn to Fly!

In a New 1928
Air King Plane

We will take only a limited number of students. Charles Langmack, licensed pilot, instructor.

Passengers taken any place any time
Telephone 872 for information

Hillsboro Air Port
East of Hillsboro on Orenco Market Road

The Hillsboro Transfer

Now located at 1246 Lincoln Street — Telephone 542

gives the following service

Daily Trips to Portland at 10:30 A. M.
Grain Hauling — $2.00 per ton
Moving and Transfer Work
Furniture and Other Storage at Reasonable Rates

W. L. JONES E. A. KASPERSON

Washington County Fair

HILLSBORO - OREGON

September 20-21-22

Live Stock and Industrial Exhibits
Boys' and Girls' Club Work Exhibits
Grange Exhibits
Free Rodeo and Wild West Show every afternoon
Free Vaudeville and semi old time dance in the Auditorium Thursday evening
Free Vaudeville every night
Dancing every evening
Oregon State Championship Horse Shoe Pitching contest
First Annual Kennel Club show
Bands! Music!
Merry-go-round and a Ferris Wheel
Shows and Attractions

MAMMOTH DISPLAY OF FIREWORKS SATURDAY NIGHT

Go to the
DELTA DRUG STORE

For School Books and School Supplies
Sheaffer Pens and Skrip

AUCTION SALE

On the J. J. Wismer farm near Bethany, Oregon, and about five miles north of Beaverton—

On Monday, September 17, 1928
AT TEN O'CLOCK A. M.

Ten head of high grade Holstein cows, most of them fresh at date of sale, balance to freshen within a few weeks thereafter; three 1-year-old heifers. This is an exceptionally fine herd of cows. Come and look them over before purchasing elsewhere. Record of each cow will be given at date of sale. One gentle horse.

IMPLEMENTS—Mower, hay rake, 2-horse disc; 16-inch steel beam plow; farm wagon; harrow; concrete water trough; blacksmith outfit; four 10- and two 5-gallon milk cans; road cart; some hay; 180 feet hay rope; and all small tools usually found on a farm.

FREE LUNCH AT NOON

TERMS OF SALE—Up to $20.00 cash, over $20.00, six months' time on approved note bearing 8 per cent interest.

HEINRICH ZURFLUH, Owner
H. A. KURATLI, Auctioneer J. J. WISMER, Clerk

The New Gruen QUADRON

In these newest Gruen Strap Watches the entire case space is utilized by an improved rectangular movement which allows greater size and strength of parts.

Thus, real masculine ruggedness is made a feature of these smart Quadrons—in price ranging from $50 to $135.

J. L. Anderson
Jeweler
1211 Main Street