

Local Briefs

What's On at the Venetian Theater

Friday and Saturday
September 21 and 22
Lia de Putti and Malcolm McGregor in "Buck Privates"

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday
September 23—24—25
Clara Bow in "The Fleet's In"

Wednesday and Thursday
September 26 and 27
Mary Astor in "Sailors' Wives"

Fred Grossen of near Bethany was a county seat visitor Friday.

Mrs. William Volz of Pumpkin Ridge was a Hillsboro visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Morrow of near Buxton were Hillsboro callers Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meek of Portland were Hillsboro visitors Friday, calling on friends and relatives.

Floyd Bentley arrived Sunday from Seattle for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bentley.

Mrs. L. G. Hudson of McMinnville spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. A. W. Walker, and family.

Mrs. L. J. Merrill left Sunday for a month's visit with her mother, Mrs. H. M. Pickell at Des Moines, Iowa.

Mrs. Eunice Montague of Portland was transacting business in Hillsboro Saturday and calling on friends.

Miss Dorothy Alexander of Salem is a guest this week of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Corwin.

John W. Brechbiel and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Owen and children were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McCaskie.

A. N. Bobbitt, manager of the H. C. Peterson Buick agency, underwent an operation for appendicitis last Thursday at the Smith hospital.

Mrs. Alfred Morgan and daughters, Anita and Betty, spent the week-end in Gresham, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Deaville and family.

Mrs. J. E. McConnell and J. E. McConnell, Jr., of Kelso, Wash., were slightly injured in an automobile accident near Sherwood last week.

Miss Lena Delplanche of Schefflin, former Argus correspondent, has taken a position as bookkeeper and stenographer at the Cornelius State bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gregg and family of Witch Hazel moved to Hillsboro last week and are now domiciled in the Corwin house at 1507 Baseline street.

Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Carter of Portland are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a son, September 12. Mr. and Mrs. Carter are well known here.

Mrs. T. H. Jarrisch, Mrs. Charles Vickner and son, Charles Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. George Griffey of Oswego were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Connell.

Fred W. Sharp and family, who have been at Baker for the past year or more, returned to Hillsboro Friday and have taken up their residence in their home in south Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander went to McMinnville Sunday to see the aster farm, and report it as a wonderful and colorful sight to see the many varieties of asters in bloom.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Grindle of Banks, F. E. Grindle and the Misses Alice and Helen McPherson of Portland were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sewell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Jackson (nee Maud Milne), who have been visiting in Los Angeles for some time, left Saturday for Mansfield, Ohio, to visit Mr. Jackson's relatives, according to word received by friends here.

Miss Benita Hay of Portland was calling on Hillsboro relatives and friends Sunday morning, and spent the day with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Imbrie near Orenco. Miss Hay is a nurse at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Miss Gertrude Meek, well known here, and who was operated upon several weeks ago for appendicitis at the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, was able to leave the hospital Tuesday and is at the home of a relative in Portland while convalescing.

William Finn of Albany, Wisconsin, arrived last Thursday evening for a few weeks' visit with his daughter, Miss Edna May Finn, of the Shute Savings bank. Miss Finn and her father were visitors at Newport over the week-end, making the loop trip.

J. W. Vandervelden was a Hillsboro visitor Thursday afternoon from Forest Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Vandervelden returned Wednesday from eastern Oregon, Idaho, Montana, and as far as St. Regis, Canada. Mr. Vandervelden was traveling in the interests of the metal cester made by the Vandervelden brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Julien, Miss Ruth and Robert Julien, returned last week from a two weeks' vacation trip through California. They went as far south as Long Beach and visited many places of interest, including the McKay Company Radio station at Clear Water. En route home they visited at San Francisco. Miss Ruth Julien will leave Sunday for Corvallis, where she will enter Oregon State college.

Thomas Caldwell returned Saturday from Clear Water national forest in Idaho, where he has been fighting fire since the first of August. He was located out from Orofino, and saw herds of elk, deer and other wild animals. Coming home he had to walk out 25 miles over a trail from which another fellow ahead of him became lost and wandered around for five hours. While in the forest he met a man by the name of William Good, who had formerly lived here, leaving about 27 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Paul spent the week-end this week of Mr. Paul's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. McMinis. They just returned from Redlands, Cal., where they visited about two months. William, Jr., is enjoying the week with his grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Paul returned to Corvallis, where Mr. Paul is a teacher in the mechanical engineering department at the state college.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Barr of Medford are guests this week of Mr. Barr's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barr. Mrs. Barr and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilmot, came down last week and visited friends at Forest Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot went on to Spokane, Wash., for a visit and will return here the first of the week.

Mrs. J. C. McCann has returned from a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Lee, of Odessa, Wash., where she went with her children, Earl, Ted and Miss Reaghen. Earl attended the electrical convention at Spokane. Mrs. McCann also visited with her sister, Mrs. Hylton, of Lyle, Wash., whom she had not visited for 25 years.

The Delphian club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. B. Tongue, with Mrs. Frank Peters as leader. This was the first meeting of the fall season, and the next meeting will be held October 1 at the home of Mrs. George McGrath, with Mrs. J. W. Bailey as leader.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McFadden left today for Salem, where they will reside in the future. Mr. McFadden, who has been employed at the state house for some time, spent his vacation here arranging for the moving of his household goods to that city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Busch and sons were week-end guests of Mrs. Busch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Thompson, at Moro, and attended the county fair at that place Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. John Zenor will return to her home at Winchester Bay Monday after a two week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kroeger.

The Pythian Sisters will hold a food sale Saturday, September 29, at the Emmott Market. Cooked and baked foods of all kinds will be on sale.

Mrs. Dora Nelson, Mrs. Henry Johnson and daughter, and Mrs. Pete Nelson of Portland were guests Monday of Mrs. W. E. McCort.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton D. Johnson, of Portland, were calling on Hillsboro friends Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson formerly resided here.

Mrs. S. E. Broderick of Minneapolis, Minn., has returned to her home after several weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Pratt.

Mrs. W. C. Pio of Vancouver, Wash., was a guest Friday of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sewell, and other relatives.

Dr. Lewa Wilkes of LaGrande was a week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wilkes, and sister, Miss Rhea.

Mrs. D. A. Kramer returned Sunday from a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glasser, of Weiser, Idaho.

A marriage license was granted in Vancouver Wednesday to Daniel Vandebey and Leota M. Salter, both of Gaston.

Mrs. J. P. Lengacher of Mountaineer was transacting business and calling on friends in Hillsboro Tuesday.

Peter Riedweg of South Tualatin was a Hillsboro caller yesterday.

Guests at the J. H. Kroeger home over the week-end were Mr. and J. P. Rhea returned last week from a four months' visit in Canada and eastern Oregon.

Edgar Frost, with the Southern Pacific near Eugene, was a guest Sunday of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Frost.

Mrs. B. E. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Erickson of Vancouver, Wash., and Miss Henrietta Kroeger of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Heaton spent Saturday in Newberg attending the Hoover Rally and visiting at the V. Vincent home.

Mrs. M. A. Longworth and Mrs. Elma Denby returned home Sunday evening from a visit with relatives near Oregon City.

J. M. Kessler of Banks and his house guests, Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Jensen, recently of Chicago, were Hillsboro visitors Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stryker of Salt Lake City, Utah, Mr. and Mrs. George Buri and Emil Buri of Portland were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Freeman.

Lorne Palmateer, former Hillsboro resident, was in the city Tuesday greeting old friends. Mr. Palmateer is now in the fox farming business in Pendleton.

Mrs. Leonard Brown and Mrs. Vesta Combs left Saturday for a two weeks' trip to California. They will visit friends in San Francisco and Eureka.

Mrs. E. J. Ward represented the Coffee club and the County Red Cross council at the Anti-Tuberculosis Institute at the Central library in Portland Saturday.

Mrs. Emma Bryant attended a board meeting of the State Parent-Teachers' association at the state headquarters at the Kramer building in Portland Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wells and children and Mr. and Mrs. O. Schultz and children of Oregon City were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Engledinger.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Burkhalter left this morning for Salem, where Mr. Burkhalter will be watchman for the new pavilion at the State Fair. He has held this position for several years.

The ladies of the Saint Matthews church will give a card party next Wednesday evening at the Saint Matthews hall. The committee in charge is Mrs. J. H. Etzel, Mrs. Frank Waibel and Mrs. C. C. DePrees. Everyone is invited.

Mrs. C. G. Reiter returned Tuesday from a few days' visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Case, in Tillamook. Mr. and Mrs. Case returned home with her, and will remain until after the county fair.

A brush fire was set in the road near the C. E. Meacham home north of town Wednesday afternoon, which necessitated the assistance of the fire department's chemical apparatus. The fire started just before it was under control.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Soehren of Sacramento, Cal., are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wilkes. Mr. Soehren is a brother of Mrs. Wilkes, and formerly lived near Banks. The visitors were accompanied here the first of the week by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Soehren of Dallas, where they had been visiting.

Mrs. Thomas Todd and son, Tommy, who have been visiting with Mrs. Todd's mother, Mrs. C. F. McFadden, left Wednesday for San Francisco, to join Mr. Todd, who has been there for some time. They will make their home in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Venable of Timber, and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Batchelor and son, Lester, were guests Sunday of Mrs. Russell Frost, and the party visited Jantzen beach in the afternoon.

Ted J. McDonald of near Hazel-dale, who lost his home by fire in July, leaves tomorrow for Aberdeen, Wash., for the winter. His family is already there. Mr. McDonald says he will return in the spring and build.

Mrs. A. VanPouche of near Farmington, who has been in the Smith hospital for some time, following an auto accident at Cornelius, has recovered sufficiently to be taken home and is convalescing slowly.

F. O. Eagon will leave Friday for Hood River, where he is a lay delegate at the Oregon Methodist State Conference in session there. D. M. Shannon will be a week-end visitor at the conference.

Mrs. D. M. French and Mrs. Constance Hodder, of Portland, and Mrs. Eugene Sherry of Boston, Massachusetts, were guests of Mrs. E. B. Lockhart the last of the week.

Miss Irene Adams of Portland is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. E. B. Lockhart, who is spending a few days at the Methodist conference at Hood River.

R. L. Tucker returned Tuesday from a few days' trip to Stanfield, eastern Oregon. Mr. Tucker says the crop conditions are very favorable in that section.

Miss Katherine Senn of New York returned Tuesday from a trip to Alaska, and is a guest of Miss Eva Weatherford.

Mrs. Edward Schulerich, who underwent a major operation at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland last week, is reported as improving.

Earle Bowman and Edward McCourt, who conducted a sandwich shop at Seaside this summer, returned home the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hall and children of Portland spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Hall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Shinaberger.

Mrs. L. Shinaberger leaves today for Wenatchee, Wash., for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. H. Greear Hutchinson, and family.

Philip Shea returned to his home at Midway Saturday from a nine months' visit with his sisters in Indiana and Illinois.

Mrs. Beatrice McCloud of Portland was a guest for a few days the last of the week of Mrs. Clay Freeman.

Mrs. A. H. Blasinger underwent an operation for removal of tonsils Monday at the Jones hospital.

Mrs. Fred Reed of Garden Home was a guest of Mrs. Verne McKinney last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. L. P. Tallman and Mrs. Tom Rollins are spending the week at Seaside and other beaches.

Dr. Smith's aeroplane, Air King, will be at the service of anyone during the fair. Free transportation or bus from fair grounds to airport. Plane piloted by licensed pilot. 30

Dance at Fairvale
Masquerade dance at Fairvale on Beaverton highway in Multnomah county, Saturday, September 22. Cash Prizes $25. 30

Dance at Laurel
There will be a dance at the Laurel Community hall Saturday night, September 29th. Everybody invited. 30-31

Dance at North Plains
There will be a dance at North Plains, Saturday night, September 22. Clark's orchestra. Tickets 75 cents. 30

Opening Dance
At Shadydale, between Forest Grove and Gaston, on highway, Saturday night, September 22. For music and entertainment, Gail Karns and his dance band. 30

HELP WANTED
Women and girls to work on pears and apples. Many workers earn $2.50 to $5.00 per day. Season will last until December 1st. Warm, comfortable work room, and cafeteria in connection. Prices reasonable. Telephone 2331. RAY-MALING CO., Inc., Hillsboro, Oregon. 29-1f

B. & P. Club Card Party
The Business and Professional Women's club will give a card party Thursday night, September 27, at the chamber of commerce rooms. Bridge and "500" will be played. Admission 25 cents. Everybody invited. 29-30

Dr. Luzader, eyesight specialist, has returned from his vacation and will be in his office at the Pharmacy on Saturday, September 1, and each Saturday thereafter. "Have your eyes examined." 29-1f

Learn to Fly!
In a New 1928 Air King Plane
We will take only a limited number of students. Charles Langmack, licensed pilot, instructor.
Passengers taken any place any time
Telephone 872 for information
Hillsboro Air Port
East of Hillsboro on Orenco Market Road

The Hillsboro Transfer
Now located at 1246 Lincoln Street — Telephone 542 gives the following service
Daily Trips to Portland at 10:30 A. M.
Grain Hauling — $2.00 per ton
Moving and Transfer Work
Furniture and Other Storage at Reasonable Rates
W. L. JONES E. A. KASPERSON

A Full Line of Chevrolet
Passenger Cars and Trucks
On Display at the County Fair Grounds This Week
R. J. Higdon Motor Company
"Chevrolet Corner"

Douglas Fir
Lumber Supply
LUMBER?
2691—Call Our Number—2691
A lady came into our store a few days ago and said: "Why, I didn't know you carry such a line of materials!"
WE DO!
Try the Lumber Store First
In Addition to All Kinds of Lumber—

Paints— Outside Fencing Cedar Posts
Wall Screen Wire Shingles
Floor Metal Lath Sand
Roof Ridge Roll Gravel
Varnishes Glass Cel-o-Glass Cement
Kalsomines Glazing Chimney Pipe
Enamels Doors Brick
Lacquers Windows Fire Clay
Shingle Stains Screen Doors Mantel Brick
Brushes' Hdwe. Adjustable Lime
Poultry Netting Screens Foundation
Barbed Wire Wood Gutter Blocks

Johns-Manville Shingles and Roofing, Oak Flooring
Two Trucks — Good Service
BE SURE AND SEE OUR BOOTH AT THE FAIR!
Pool-Gardner Lumber Company
Building Material Merchants
Baseline Street at S. P. Tracks — Telephone 2691

DIAMONDS RINGS

The gorgeous Blue White Diamonds are perfectly cut and beautifully shaped, and set in carved and figured 18-K Solid White Gold Mountings.

All At a Wonderful Saving

J. L. ANDERSON

JEWELER

1211 Main Street

Hillsboro, Oregon

COLD WEATHER!

Car hard to start?

Bring it in and let us tune it up. It may need only a few minor adjustments—but at times those same minor items can cause lots of trouble. Carburetor out of adjustment, timing a little off, defective wiring, too heavy oil—all cause trouble. Let us look your car over.

City Service Station

LES RIGGS, Prop. Third and Washington

DON'T MISS

the

Portland Electric Power Co.

Display

at the

Washington County Fair

Learn more of Electricity and its uses in the home and on the farm

A Complete Electrical Display