

Banks Community News

MRS. J. J. HUTCHENS, Correspondent

Ownership Change In Banks Market

Banks, Sept. 20. — The Banks market has been purchased by O. C. Brandes and his brothers-in-law, the two Hoffman brothers, and Mr. Hoffman, Sr., from Charles Kessler and Roy Stofford. Mr. Kessler and Mr. Stofford have been in the business here for about ten years. The new owners will also take over the slaughter house west of town. Mr. Kessler has not decided on any definite plans for the future, but Mr. Stofford expects to stay on the farm for the present.

Missionaries Occupy Pulpit of Church

Banks, Sept. 20. — Rev. C. L. Wood and wife, recently returned missionaries from India, who live at McMinnville now, filled the local pulpit here Sunday morning. They lectured on their work in India.

Attends Conference

Rev. J. Ebert preached his last sermon before Conference Sunday evening. He left Monday evening for Portland on his way to attend the state conference at Hood River.

Banks Locals

A club aluminum demonstration was given at the home of Mrs. W. L. Moore Friday evening. Eighteen ladies were present, and the prize was won by Mrs. Frank Sells.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Gardner of Hillsboro were visitors at the H. A. Stohler home in Banks Sunday evening.

Misses Agnes Swanson and Alberta Koozts, teachers in the local high school, and Miss Elsie Anderson, grade school teacher, were week-end visitors at their homes in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wahl and son, with Mrs. C. D. Miller, who is nursing at the J. M. Kessler home, drove to Portland Sunday to visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Armentrout and children visited Mrs. Armentrout's father, M. Hiatt, of Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kessler and family and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stofford and family drove to Bacona Sunday on a business and pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bunn and daughter, Beverly, of Portland spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Bunn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Atlee.

W. H. Lee and family of Portland visited Sunday at the McGraw home here and at the Ray Woodman home in Scofield.

Rosee Benefield and sisters of Vernonia visited their sister, Mrs. F. Rinck, of Banks.

D. B. Zuck of Yakima visited friends in Banks a few days last week.

Frank Grindle of Portland drove out Sunday and took his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Grindle, to Hillsboro to visit Mrs. Grindle's sister, Mrs. Minnie Sewell.

Mrs. Nancy Davis and Charles W. Pierce of Portland called on friends in Banks Thursday. Mr. Pierce formerly lived at Greenville, where his father was in partnership with W. L. Moore's father in the Greenville store. He says things have changed a lot in Banks since his last visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Carstens, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Winters, Misses Myrtle Moss and Elva Bledsoe were Portland visitors Saturday.

A. C. Conant made a business trip to Portland last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Smith of Timber spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Turner left Sunday for a trip to Tillamook, where they will spend a few days visiting friends and attending to business.

Dick Morrison, the truck driver for the Mosenke Lumber company, left Sunday for Klamath Falls, where he will drive a gravel truck. Fred Young will take his place here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nielson moved into the Fred Mills house on south Main street, which was recently vacated by Irvin Shipley's family.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Johnson and daughter, Fern, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Maller and family returned last Friday from a fishing trip to the Newport and Tillamook beaches.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Banks and son left Sunday for a week's visit at the home of Mrs. Bank's parents at Puyallup, Wash.

Mrs. William Moss, who has been ill, is improving.

The Market is having the old hardware store, that they used as a garage, reshingled this week.

A nine pound baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. McPeet Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. L. May and two children of Scofield have moved into the housekeeping rooms at the Banks hotel. The children have entered the public school. Mr. May is employed as high climber for the Standard Box company at Scofield.

Mrs. Olsen and son, Sterling, of Pumpkin Ridge, have moved into the hotel. Sterling has entered the Banks union high school.

Harley Davies returned home from where he has been working in southern Oregon and is now employed with the section gang.

Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Kines were Portland visitors a couple of days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wahl and son, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wilcox and daughter, Marjorie, and Mrs. Bernard Sellers and daughter, Janette, of Monmouth, enjoyed a social evening and taffy pull at the George Wilcox home above Fir Grove Friday evening.

J. M. Kessler went to Portland Sunday afternoon to attend church.

E. Thistle, who has been employed as truck driver for the Meyers Brothers Logging company, moved with his wife to Vernonia last week.

Mr. Thistle will drive the truck for the Vernonia Logging company.

Bernard Sellers of Monmouth spent the week-end with home folks in Banks. Mrs. Sellers and daughter, who have been visiting this week here, returned home with her husband Sunday.

Miss Eleanor Conant left Saturday for Hubbard, where she will teach school again this year.

Mrs. Eberly and daughters, Sylvia and Edith, drove to Hood River Sunday, where they are employed for the apple picking season.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Hutchens and family of Forest Grove called on relatives in Banks Sunday.

Mrs. J. J. Hutchens entertained at dinner last Thursday in honor of Mr. Hutchens' birthday. Those present besides the family were Mr. and Mrs. Eli Grindle and Mr. and Mrs. George McGraw.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Armentrout and Mr. and Mrs. Claud Morgan drove to Portland Sunday to visit Mrs. Armentrout's brother, W. H. Purdin, and family. Mr. and Mrs. W.

G. Walker of Canby were also visiting at the Purdin home.

Albert Yoder spent the week-end at his home at Hubbard.

Miss Winifred Harrett of Seaside who will teach in the Harrison school east of Banks, arrived Sunday evening and opened her school Monday morning.

Mrs. E. Wilson and children, Mrs. C. W. Moore and son, and Miss Lola Gilbert visited at the home of George Beirsdorf at Schefflin Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Langpap and two daughters, Dorothy and Anna, of Vernonia, were in Banks Saturday.

A. H. Wolford went to Portland Monday to serve on the federal grand jury.

Miss Hattie Sandy of Scofield is taking care of Mrs. C. W. McPeet and young son.

Fred Wolford, who is working for the Southern Pacific company in Cochrane, visited home folks Sunday.

Mrs. J. Beard, who is taking medical treatments in Portland, spent the week-end at home.

C. J. Bliel, Frank P. Glancy, William H. VanKoregaah, Richard K. Rasch, J. J. Leonard and Howard Dodge, who are surveying for the S. P. & S. railroad company, now at work between Banks and Vernonia, are stopping at the Banks hotel this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rinck drove to Portland Sunday to see their infant son, who is in the hospital there. They report a slight improvement in the baby's condition.

(Visit the Fair)

Attendance Is Large At Helvetia School

Helvetia, Sept. 20.—Fred Jossy of Phillips has the best crop of clover reported in this vicinity. Most of the farmers are busy hulling clover, but the crop is below normal, owing to the dry season.

There are 45 pupils attending school here, and six are going to Beaverton high school. Glen Zurcher drives the bus, which leaves the school house here at 7:30 a. m.

The Ladies' Aid society met at the home of Mrs. Adolph Badertscher last Wednesday. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Pete Grossen, October 10.

Rev. William Graf will conduct services at the Badertscher home Sunday afternoon. Everyone is welcome.

Mrs. Fred Bleuer is still at the St. Vincent's hospital, but is improving slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Dapp have returned from their trip to Seattle, where they visited friends. They also drove to the coast at Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Dapp motored to Yamhill Sunday and visited Mr. and Mrs. H. Helgeson.

The last meeting of the Sunshine club was held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Myers, on account of the illness of Mrs. Blake's son. The meeting on September 27, which will be a special business meeting, will be at the home of Mrs. Minnie Blake.

John Wenger is having his house on the farm remodeled and will be farming again soon.

Jasper Schmidt returned last week from his trip to Sutherlin, where he visited his sister, Mrs. Carrie Litzel.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Solberger and son, of Shady Brook, called at the Davidson home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Korn and family returned to Elma, Wash., on Friday.

Paul Schiwe of Portland was a guest at the Badertscher home Sunday. Mr. Schiwe is helping Abe Zahler with concrete work.

Peach season is over at Al Pieren's orchard, except a few trees of late Crowfords. Mr. Pieren had many calls for peaches after they were all sold.

Mrs. H. E. Schram returned to John Leton invited the Helvetia Banks Sunday after spending a youngsters to a watermelon feast week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sunday. This is an annual affair, and the children look forward to the J. M. Davidson.

Clarence Badertscher and Elmer event. Beeler returned from eastern Ore. Everybody will be going to the gon, where they had been harvest-county fair this week, according to reports.

Funeral Home

Sixth & Washington Phone 972 HILLSBORO OREGON

ANNOUNCEMENT

I have moved my Electric Shop to my residence at 848 Fifth Street, and am prepared to do your Electric Wiring and Repair Work.

Telephone us—We will be glad to deliver anything you want—TELEPHONE 1102.

HOW ARE YOU FIXED FOR LAMPS?

Hanel's Electric Shop

VENETIAN THEATRE

Hillsboro, Oregon

Friday and Saturday - This Week

Matinee Saturday - 2 P. M.

Matinee and Night, 10c and 25c

Twenty-seven Doughboys and One Fair Fraulein

She loved him. This would have been absolutely o. k. with Johnny, the favored one, but for a few irritating things, to wit: her father had been a German general whom he had captured. His sergeant was sweet on the girl himself. The authorities frowned on love affairs between doughboys and daughters of best families. Take these ingredients, shuffle them up, remember that Lya de Putti is the girl, and what have you? The cleverest, laughingest, wise-cracking comedy that ever flickered on the screen. Can you miss it? All together: NO!

A Comedy Riot Built Around the Army of Occupation!

BUCK PRIVATES

starring LYA DE PUTTI, MALCOLM MCGREGOR with ZASU PITTS, EDDIE GRIFFON

A MELVILLE BROWN PRODUCTION

A Universal Picture

AND LOOK!

A Gang Comedy and Pathe News

You Cannot "Overdraw"

There is one account with this bank that is impossible for you to "overdraw." You may draw in confidence and without limit on our personal interest in your financial problems. We invite your account with the desire to render you a service for above routine financial transactions.

Make this bank the silent partner in your business and personal progress.

VISIT THE FAIR!

The Commercial National Bank

Member Federal Reserve System
Resources More Than $1,000,000
Hillsboro, Oregon

Safety Deposit Boxes—$2.00 a Year and Up

Venetian

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday

September 23, 24, and 25

Sunday Matinee—10c and 25c Evening Prices—10c and 35c

Oh; Lady!

Throw out the laugh preservers! She is only a sailor's sweetheart but — which sailor?

A big scramble for Clara when "The Fleet's In!"

The sweetheart of the screen with the sailors on the scene captures the whole bloomin' Navy and a lot more in "The Fleet's In!"

CLARA BOW

"The Fleet's In!"

with JAMES HALL

A Paramount Picture

Also Comedy and Pathe News

EULA NEIDIEGH at the Organ

FAIR SPECIALS!

Used Cars

Gold Seal Buicks — Fords — Essex — Flints — Chevrolets — In fact we can give you nearly any make of car you want, and at a Real Bargain. All the prices are cut for Fair week.

GET YOUR CAR NOW!

EXTRA SPECIAL

1925 Flint Touring 1926 Ford Coupe

H. C. Peterson

Sales—BUICK—Service

1057 Third Street HILLSBORO