

Many Parties Are Held at Hazeldale

Hazeldale, Oct. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Lewis entertained with a birthday party Sunday afternoon for their daughter, Winnie. The guests included Mrs. Tom Miller, Misses Virginia, Margaret, Ruth and Jean Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Doughty and Sam Doughty.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Leonette entertained a large group of friends last Saturday evening to surprise their son, Louie, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in dancing. About 60 guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mills entertained about 20 friends on Saturday evening for their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Morgan, of California. The evening was spent with music and dancing.

Ed Dezell and family, who have lived in the neighborhood for the last five years, moved on Tuesday to Mosier. Mr. Dezell will be superintendent of a large ranch.

Mrs. Robert Cameron, Mrs. J. C. Smith, Mrs. Margaret Gare and Miss Jean Smith spent Saturday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Young had as their guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Baker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Baker and family, and Mrs. Cartwright of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Griffiths had as guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. A. Reinke and son, Ellyn, of Portland, and Mr. Reusser of Cooper Mountain.

Miss Florence Reusser, who is a nurse at the Emanuel hospital, and Mrs. Gertrude Foster of Portland, spent the week-end at the Reusser home.

George Inlay and Oscar Hagg of Reedville attended the state fair at Salem on Friday.

Al and Joe Rigert returned to their home on Saturday from Hood River, where they have been picking apples. Joe Rigert was the champion picker, averaging 200 boxes per day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Douglas had as their guests Sunday Mrs. W. H. Weichlan, Waville and Bobby Weichlan, Mr. and Mrs. Hansen, all of Portland, and Mrs. George Jack and family of Beaverton.

William Meinel of Grass Valley is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Meinel.

Mr. and Mrs. Veri Salee and family spent Sunday visiting friends and relatives in the neighborhood. Alfred Meinel and family and Miss Edith Leopold spent Saturday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cumlin and family of Portland visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Miller Sunday.

Beaverton Hi Beats Grant High School

Beaverton, Oct. 4.—Beaverton high school defeated Grant high by a score of 31 to 0 at a football game Friday.

Mrs. Addie Young, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Young, returned to her home at Bend Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gordon were Beaverton visitors Friday.

Mrs. Swopia and Mrs. Myers of Portland and Mrs. Fredricson of The Dalles are visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Fredricson.

Miss Crete Gray arrived home Friday from Long Beach, Cal., where she has been visiting relatives. She left Sunday to enter the University of Oregon at Eugene.

Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Ingalls moved to Oswego Thursday. Rev. Ingalls was pastor of the Methodist

Success in Club Work Bears Fruit

One of the finest Hampshire rams exhibited at the state fair was purchased last week by Robert Davis, sheep club member, to head his flock. Young Davis has made an outstanding success in club work, and has won enough premium money in the last two years, together with sales, to make the purchase.

church. He is recovering slowly from a paralytic stroke.

Guy Carr, L. R. Dean and Francis Livermore, Jr., are China pheasant hunting in Malheur county.

Mrs. Lucinda Davis celebrated her 85th birthday anniversary Sunday.

Mrs. W. A. Smith is a patient at the Emanuel hospital in Portland.

Mrs. M. J. Evans and Miss Lillian Evans returned Sunday evening from Lake Lytle, where they have been spending the past month.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Jacobs of Portland and Mrs. Mark Smith of Ashland were luncheon and dinner guests of Mrs. N. W. Graham Friday.

Rev. Bert Waddington is the new minister who has been assigned to the Beaverton Methodist church.

The Beaverton grange is planning its annual dahlia show for October 13.

The Matrons of Portland and vicinity entertained their husbands and Patrons and their wives Saturday night at a card party at Friendship chapter O. E. S. Mrs. Barbara Gorham and Walter Harris of Beaverton attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Allyn of Seefeld, visited with Mrs. Allyn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Nelson, last week-end. Mrs. Allyn teaches school at Seefeld.

A. M. Janssen and R. B. Denney went to Astoria on business and later to the state fair Friday.

The Rebekahs will give a dinner at the Odd Fellows' hall, October 27th.

Mrs. J. E. Davis, who has been in the medical hospital the past two weeks, is very much improved.

Sunday School to Be Reorganized

Chehalem Mountain, Oct. 4.—Sunday school will be reorganized next Sunday at the Buck Heaven school house after an intermission of three months.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Davis of The Dalles were house guests last week at the Ira G. McCormick home. Mrs. McCormick boarded with Mrs. Davis, who was then Mrs. B. W. Brown, 22 years ago, and taught school at Bake Oven near Shaniko.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wohlschlegel and family visited the state fair Friday.

Mrs. L. I. Hult of Newberg spent several days here last week visiting at the home of her brothers, W. F. and E. C. Wohlschlegel, and sister, Mrs. L. T. Finegan.

Mrs. F. E. Hoffman and children, Gloria and Meribel, and Mrs. E. P. Smith, visited Mr. Hoffman at the apple orchard district near Hood River Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Finegan and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wohlschlegel and family visited Mrs. Wohlschlegel's relatives in and near Aurora Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. McInnis, the Misses Alice McInnis and Monica McCormick, Buford Deford, Hodson McCormick and Mr. and Mrs. Ira McCormick picnicked at the latter's place at Whitford Sunday.

Mrs. Clara Wohlschlegel is at home again with her daughter, Mrs. L. T. Finegan, after spending the summer with another daughter, Mrs. L. I. Hult, at Newberg.

Mrs. Walker, One Of Oldest Twins, Is Old Resident

Mrs. Rachel F. Walker, who with her brother, Henry R. Coffey, won a prize for being the oldest set of twins present at the county fair, has lived near Beaverton for many years. She lives in the same house to which she came as the bride of Robert H. Walker 57 years ago.

Mrs. Walker and her brother, the youngest of eleven children, were born July 8, 1848, in Pettis county, Missouri, children of Colonel A. M. and Mary Bradford Coffey.

Mr. Walker was struck and killed by the Oregon Electric in 1916. Mrs. Walker has two children living and they make their home with her. They are Will B. Walker, who has been confined to his bed for nearly 20 years, and Mrs. Lauretta G. Olds. Mr. Olds, Mr. Coffey and their only sister, Miss Mary Coffey, who has been confined to her bed for eight years and is past 91 years, live with them.

Mr. Coffey came west five years ago and he has a son and daughter, who live in Portland.

Mrs. Walker is a remarkable woman for her age. She is up bright and early every morning and sees to all the farm business.

Blooming Society Organized 25 Years

Blooming, Oct. 4.—After the regular meeting of the St. Peters Lutheran Ladies' society at the parsonage last Thursday, the ladies were entertained with a luncheon which was given in compliment to the 25th anniversary of the organization. In outlining the activities of the society Bertha Irmier, who was the first treasurer, said that Mrs. Stuebe was elected president when the society was first organized in 1903, and that she filled that position for 22 years. In recognition of her work, Mrs. Stuebe was presented with a bouquet of Ophelia roses. Rev. L. Stuebe preached the anniversary sermon in the afternoon. Mesdames William Hergert, Henry Reese, Rudolph Meier, Fred Kraemer, Oscar Pfahl, Albert Kraemer, John Kamma, and R. R. Moeller were hostesses for the luncheon.

given in the church basement. The room was decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. There are 32 members, and the following charter members were present: Mesdames Stuebe, Hulsmann, Demmin, Muhl, H. Haase, F. Haase, F. Meyer, Liebnow and G. Meier. A literary program was given in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kraemer and daughter, Mildred, accompanied by Henry Kamma, were Portland visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles White of Vernonia were guests at the Frank Pugh home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Voelker and children motored to Portland Sunday.

A charivari was held Thursday night for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Demmin, who were recently married in Washington, and at the same time a surprise party was given in honor of the birthday of John Stark.

Farm Advertising Advertising of city department stores, of "blue bull" tobacco or something of the sort on farm buildings has always made me wonder if the space is valuable to someone else if it isn't more valuable to advertise the business located there. In other words, isn't it more worth while to advertise the farm or some of its products than to lend that space to someone else? Just the other day we read of a farmer who had a good sized sign on his building advertising, "The Aims of This Farm—Good crops, proper storage, profitable livestock, a stable market, life as well as a living."

Venetian Theater COMING!

Sunday - Monday Tuesday October 14-15-16

Perhaps you can improve on that for your own farm. A farm can be named as well as a business, and that name advertised. Many farms do not have so much as a name on a mail box. I know because I've tried to locate a number of our members that way, and couldn't—Ohio Farm Bureau News.

Aggressiveness is the twin brother of achievement.

She: "Are you sure that you love me?" He: "Love you, girlie? Why, when we were in the porch last evening your dog bit a piece out of my leg and I never noticed it until I got home!"

Argus Classified Ads get results.

VENETIAN THEATER Sun., Mon., Tues. — October 7-8-9 MATINEE SUNDAY—2 P. M. Matinee Prices, 10c-25c Night Prices, 10c-35c You'll Want to Recall FORGOTTEN FACES CLIVE BROWN MARY BISHAM WILLIAM POWELL and BACLANOVA Faces from the past. What do they mean to you? Do they bode good or ill? "Forgotten Faces," the story of a woman whose sins found her out. a Paramount Picture MENACING faces out of the past. Faces that recall old sins. Faces that spell retribution. A woman finds Forgotten Faces foil her fearful plots. Old Faces for New Thrills! Also Comedy and Latest Pathe News

McCormick-Deering Grain Drills Seed Well Today for Tomorrow's Crop A McCORMICK-DEERING grain drill is assurance of getting the best possible yield that soil and moisture conditions will permit. For each individual requirement there is a size and type of McCormick-Deering drill, quality built, and so carefully designed that it does good work under all conditions. McCormick-Deering drills are known by the service they give. Thousands upon thousands of satisfied users, who know the value of a sturdy, compact, and convenient grain drill, vouch for McCormick-Deering as the drill that starts the seed right. Since the first McCormick-Deering grain drill was placed on the market, improvements and refinements have been made until today the line is recognized by farmers in all parts of the world as a standard of quality. Everything humanly possible has been done to make McCormick-Deering drills as near mechanically perfect as possible. No opportunity to improve their design and construction has been overlooked—truly, McCormick-Deering drills are built right. Ask us to show these drills to you. Hillsboro Feed Company Telephone 271 1004 Main Street

VENETIAN THEATER Hillsboro, Oregon Friday and Saturday - This Week Matinee Saturday - 2 P. M. Matinee and Night, 10c and 25c ATTEND THE MATINEE! RICHARD DIX "Warming Up" DIX continues to bat 1000! "The Quarterback," "Sporting Goods," "Easy Come, Easy Go"—he hasn't muffed once! He delivers a fast one in this ideal mixture of romance and baseball. A Paramount Picture And Look Who Is Here! Andy Gump in "Battle Scared Hero." Also Pathe News

Venetian Wednesday, Thursday and Friday OCTOBER 10 - 11 - 12 3 - Days Only - 3 DON'T FAIL TO SEE IT! HISTORY'S MOST SUBLIME DRAMA Supreme in theme—gigantic in execution—a reverent and supremely beautiful treatment of the world's greatest tragedy—the crucifixion of Christ— Pathe presents CECIL B. DEMILLE'S KING OF KINGS Adapted by JEANIE MACPHERSON The motion picture achievement of the century—a screen masterpiece that will live forever in the hearts of mankind. Admission to This Picture—Children, 15c; Adults, 50c