

Farmington Couple Married 55 Years

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hoffman, of near Farmington, celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary Sunday at their home, surrounded by their children and grandchildren. The celebration was an all-day affair, with a bounteous family dinner.

Mr. Hoffman is a native of Vienna, Austria, and Mrs. Hoffman is a native of Kentucky. They were married in Kentucky, and have lived in Oregon about 40 years, 22 years at Tigard, and the remainder of the time at their present home.

Those present at the anniversary celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman, Captain and Mrs. G. Nelson of Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hoffman and daughter, Marcell, of Tualatin; Captain and Mrs. F. M. Ring and daughter, Katherine, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffman and sons, John and Hugh, of Hillsdale; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hoffman and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hoffman and daughter, Betty, of Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman received many beautiful and useful presents.

Legion to Install Next Tuesday Eve

William H. Dierdorff will be installed as commander of Hillsboro post of the American Legion Tuesday night by District Committee Charles D. Jones.

Pillar Gateway to City Is Considered

A committee to arrange for suitable entrance pillars to the city has been appointed from the chamber of commerce. W. C. Christensen and Morris Well, members of the committee, will this week visit other cities in the valley to secure ideas. It is also planned to have decorative direction pillars on Baseline street directing the way to the business district. Bert C. Huntington last week stated that he would be willing to start "the ball a-rolling" with a $5 contribution.

Miss Helen Powers Weds Rhea Taylor of Banks

A pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday afternoon, September 29, at 4 o'clock, at the Tualatin Plains Presbyterian church, when Miss Helen Jean Powers became the bride of Mr. Oliver Rhea Taylor, of Banks.

New One Is Found On Highway Sunday

The writer has heard of the old saying, "Pick up your bed and walk," but a new one was encountered on the highway Sunday between 12 and 1 p. m., when a life-sized house came rolling down the road on a truck and trailer. The porch was carried on a truck that followed.

Inquiry brought out the fact that the Washington County Rod and Gun club was moving its club house from the old grounds near Cornelius to the site at the Hillsboro Airport, recently given the club by Dr. E. H. Smith.

Rev. A. Carrick of Portland Offering

The church was beautifully decorated with Oregon grape, ferns and dahlias.

The bride was dressed in Nile green georgette and carried a bouquet of Ophelia and Cecil Brunner roses.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Powers of Leisville, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Taylor of Banks.

More Interest In Created in Guard

Six fast and strenuous boxing bouts were staged under the auspices of the headquarters company, second battalion, here Tuesday evening. The bouts were: George Bagley vs. Vance Norton; Ray Miller vs. Jack Kamma; Ed Reiser vs. Wilbur Dillon; Charles Hoag vs. Brick Glascoe; Raymond Wilson vs. Young Welch, and Lester Wahner vs. Ray Miskimins.

Weather Man Keeps Faith With Ducks

The duck hunting season started Monday, and the Weather Man added his bit by making the weather "good for ducks." A number of local sportsmen went on hunting trips the opening day. The duck season ends January 1.

Local Girls Pledged To Sororities at "U"

Miss Ethel Linklater and Miss Dorothy Tongue have pledged to sororities at the University of Oregon. Miss Linklater went to Alpha Phi and Miss Tongue to Kappa Alpha Theta.

Opinion Held That Loos Within Rights

F. W. Loos was legally within his rights in attempting to escape from the city jail the night of September 22, according to officials, who say that no one but an agent of the sheriff could hold the man under custody. Night Officer W. W. Weaver, it is said, was not acting for the sheriff and although he was knocked out when Loos escaped, it comes under the heading of "just too bad."

Arrested on Booze Charge After Wreck

Roy Walters of Gaston was arrested at Aloha Thursday night by Deputy Sheriff Fred Schendel and Hawley Buck following an automobile accident. Walters was charged with driving while intoxicated.

Henry Snyder, Franklin Heater and Kenneth Hardin were taken in custody at Sherwood Saturday night by Constable Haynes. They were charged with delinquency and bound over to the grand jury.

League Bowling to Start Next Monday

The bowling season will open next Monday night with either four or six teams in the city league. All bowlers interested are requested to be at the alleys at 8 p. m. today.

Clover Seed Price Advances in Week

Corvallis, Oct. 4.—Red clover seed prices advanced last week according to the weekly market review of the O. A. C. extension service. Hay and grain prices were generally steady to firm. Butter production is increasing and the storage shortage is reduced. The wool markets are easier abroad.

Police Believe Long Search Is at End

With the arrest of C. E. Biley, alleged spurious check writer, in Wenatchee, Wash., police are of the opinion that a four-year search has ended for a bad check writer, who has operated on the merchants of many cities in the northwest, including Hillsboro and Forest Grove.

Loren Schulmerich Fraternity Pledge

Loren Schulmerich, a graduate of Hillsboro high school, was this week pledged to the O. S. C. chapter of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. Schulmerich, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schulmerich, entered the State college as a freshman this year.

Taken at Timber

Ernest Ynda was arrested at Timber yesterday on a larceny charge.

Local Happenings

Alfred Guerber of Cedar Mills was a Hillsboro business visitor today. Mrs. Grace Wood was hostess for the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at her home. Miss May Cook was the leader, and about 20 members were present.

Mrs. Edna Kramer, who is a Past Noble Grand of Idaho, was last evening initiated into the Past Noble Grands' club of the Rebekah lodge. The club met at the home of Mrs. Alberta Hargrave, and 19 members were present. The next meeting will be the first Wednesday of November.

Frank Weisenback and son, William, were Hillsboro business callers today. Mr. Behrs and family just moved here from Fergus Falls, Minn., where he farmed 640 acres and operated a dairy ranch. He has chickens and cows on his farm here.

Mrs. William Sohler Complimented

A shower was given for Mrs. William Sohler, a recent bride, at the home of Mrs. Mary Sohler, who recently moved to Hillsboro from Voorbest. The guests were Mesdames B. A. Uppenkamp, Frank Waibel, Lionberger, Mary Ryan, Anna Sohler, A. Sahlfeld, F. L. Pranger, and G.
