A Merry Christmas To All

A Merry Christmas To All

VOLUME XXXV

HILLSBORO, OREGON, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1928.

Reiter Named City Manager Bend, Oregon

Success Here Notable :

Former County Surveyor And Resident Engineer to Leave Last Of Next Week

C. G. Reiter, who has served as city manager since the adoption of the business form of government in 1923, has been appointed the first city manager of Bend and will leave next week to assume his new duties. The new position means an advance ment and a salary increase for Mr Reiter.

More Responsibility

The city manager form of government was adopted by the people of Bend at a recent election and Mr. from a group of applicants. His suc-cess in starting the work here gained him much favorable comment throughout the state. His record as business administrator had been That their invi to a business administration was the resutl of a large favorable vote and elect a mayor from their own num-ber. The commission selects the city local trade area. of the recorder, city attorney, trea-surer, fire chief and police chief. In other words the city manager is in every sense responsible for the proper functioning of the govern-vitation way to Portland was constructed. Loan association, Rollins gara He is a veteran of the World war Hillsboro Radio & Electric company

Methodist Episcopal church at Los Angeles and the same amount to the University of Southern California.

The heirs are a son, L. R. Carpenter of Forest Grove, and two daughter The heirs are a son, L. R. Carpenter of Forest Grove, and two daughters, Mrs. Anna M. Biles of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Cora M. Lewis of Lane county.

Hickox Takes Job As Prison Guard

Henry Hickox, who has been jailer at the county jail during the admin-istration of Sheriff J. E. Reeves, has been appointed a guard at the state prison at Salem and took up his work today. Mr. Hickox formerly lived at Dilley. His family will follow later.
Mr. Hickox has passed every test pertaining to finger print work.

Correspondents and adver- * sers are urged to please have 4 their copy in a day early next * week and the following week * on account of a day out for & Christmas and New Year. The & Advancement Made By Hillsboro's First Manager

Advancement Made By Hillsboro's First Manager

Argus office, along with other Hillsboro business houses, will be closed on both those days and the work has to be done earlier in order to make the mails Thursday at the regular

> Community correspondence * > should be in the Argus office * > by Monday evening and all * others having news or advertisting are asked to have the copy > in as early as possible. As > soon as you hear a news item > phone 261 and ask for Mrs.
> McKinney, the local editor.

Stores To Stay Open Evenings

stores is becoming greater with each Reiter was their choice for manager succeeding day, according to local considered of the highest. The change the Argus to the Christmas buyer to a business administration was the result of a large favorable vote and Mr. Reiter takes office under favor-Bend has three commissioners who Saturday and Monday evenings as county nurse, is not expected again an accommodation to people in the this year.

The Hillsboro Christmas trade invitation and Christmas greeting i ssued by the following firms through Mr. Reiter, a graduate of Pennsylvania State College, has been a resident of Hillsboro for more than 16 years, having served as Washington county surveyor two terms and as resident engineer for the state bloke. as resident engineer for the state company, West Coast Telephone highway commission when the high-company, Washington Savings & Washington Savings & ociation, Rollins garage, and was active in American Legion Hillsboro Ice & Coal company, H. fairs.

There is only one application so tion, MacKenzie Motor company, Imtion, MacKenzie Motor company, Imperial Feed & Grain company, Imgerial Feed & Grain company, Firand that has been made by George McGee, former county surveyor, who is at present staying at the home of his father-in-law, Frank Chalmers of near Schefflin.

Large Estate Left

By Accident Victim

The estate of Mrs. Emily A. Carpenter, who was fatally injured in an automobile accident a few weeks ago, has been admitted to probate and its valued at $40,000. She left $1,000 in her will to the St. Vincent Methodist Episcopal church at Los Angeles and the same amount to the Apple Inn., Abendron, Contral Service, Garage, Oregon Monument, Co. C. Store, J. L. Anderson, Central Service, and the same amount of the same amount to the same a

Pioneer Woman Hurt

Mrs. Mary Elliott, 91, queen of the Trail-to-Rail celebration in Eugene two years ago, fell on the street a block from the home of her son, L. Eliott, First street, last Thursday and suffered a fracture of the right hip and wrist. She celebrated her ninety-first birthday November 18 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alice Redmond.

Grange Busy Bees Elect

New Educational Movement, Says Dobbs; Coffee Club Will Be Federation Host Relief Corps Play

The new movement in education is to take care of the individual rather than the collective group, declared Dr. John F. Dobbs, president of Pacific University in an address before the Coffee club here Friday afternoon. He said the school heads were beginning to realize that the individual needed knowledge rather than credits.

Children in the first three grades is to take care of the individual rather than the collective group, declared chairman. The committee for the card party December 27 includes Mrs. Fred Caldwell, Mrs. L. P. Stranhan, Mrs. T. C. Reynolds, Mrs. Florence Ewing Dodge, Mrs. J. K. Weber and Mrs. Al Pugh.

The Coffee club will be the host for the county federation here at the Congregational church January Children in the first three grades is believed to have interfered materially.

To Celebrate Saturday For New Building

Affair In Conjunction With Annual Budget Meet

Expect Many Visitors

Budget Total Well Within the Six Per Cent Limitation For Coming Year

The annual county budget meet-ing will be held in the circuit court section and they are full of ideas room at 10 a.m. Saturday and a for the Christmas shopper. dedication and inspection of the new court house will be held in conjunc tion, according to present plans of Many Pass In

The many visitors from all sec-tions of the county will be shown through the new structure during the day. Plans call for the serving Caristmas trade in the Hillsboro of light refreshments to the visitors

No Contest Likely succeeding day, according to local The total amount of the budget to merchants, who are looking forward be voted on is $371,753.36, as comto Friday, Saturday and Monday as pared with $363,132.84 for last year. The six per cent limitation would spection for this year. That their invitation issued through have allowed an increase of $20,000. is not so great per acre this year. The budget committee includes J. A. which is due to the early frost and week. The stores will remain open such as occurred last year over the growers manager and the municipal judge.

The city manager in turn has the personal selection and appointment of the recorder, city attorney, treasurer, fire chief and police chief.

Surrer, fire chief and police chief. eral government under a farm aid The appropriation of this small amount for a full time man is considered a good business move as well as a good investment.

Joy Reigns At Yuletide Feed

Joy reigned supreme!

solos. An orchestra composed of the following chamber of commerce In Fall Last Week members furnished music, Harold Kellington, Earl Donelson, Fred Sewell, Thomas Shuck and Charles Walker.

A unanimous vote of thanks was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Moore. Presents were given by the following business institutions: Hillsboro Radio and Electric Shop, K. A. Price Musical and Electrical Co., Portland Electric Power Co., Lester Ireland & Co., Shute Savings Bank, Harold Kellington Jewelry Store, J. L. Anderson Jewelry Store, T. C. Reynolds, Emmott's Market, Franks Mrs. Lillian Brock was elected president of the Women's Relief Corps at the last meeting, instead of Mrs. Rogers, as reported last week. Mrs. Rogers was elected senior vice president. Installation of officers will be held on January 4.

Individual Given More

Grange Busy Bees Elect

The Grange Busy Bees elected officers at their last meeting for the coming year. Mrs. E. G. Cox was elected senior vice president and the other officers are Mrs. R. H. McAninch, vice president; Mrs. Jack Hess, secretary, and Mrs. R. Hornecker, treasurer.

Individual Given More

Attention Under

New Educational Movement, Save Dobbes.

Is Well Received

individual needed knowledge rather than credits.

Children in the first three grades at the north school put on a program. Their teachers are Miss Reed, Miss Ruth Jones and Mrs. Lester Mooberry. Robert Peters led the club in the flag salute. Oradell Prickett told of the work of the Camp Fire Girls.

All the reports on the Red Cross drive were not in, according to Mrs. T. C. Reynolds, chairman. She said, however, that Mrs. L. Shinaberger alone sold $114.30 in memberships.

Mrs. Charles Lamkin was appointed art chairman and Mrs. Shinaberger, Mrs. Charles Lamkin was appointed art chairman and Mrs. Shinaberger, Mrs. Charles Lamkin was appointed art chairman and Mrs. Shinaberger, Mrs. Charles Lamkin was appointed art chairman and Mrs. Shinaberger, Mrs. A goodly number were present, but illness is believed to have interfered materially.

Mrs. H. H. Stannard directed the play and the various members of the cast acted their parts well. Members of the cast acted their parts well. Members of the cast were Miss Mildred McLeod, Thomas Caldwell, Art Miltenberger, Mrs. Stannard, Miss Fanny Konigan, William Dierdorff J. J. Stangel and Miss Retta Merdiay neon at the Den of Sweets by the following officers: Mrs. C. H. Emmott, Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Sam Bentley, Mrs. Shinaberger, Mrs. A H. Blassing and Mrs. C. E. Wells.

Judges Having Difficult Time Choosing Winner

So many Hillsboro stores have eautiful Christmas advertising windows that the judging committee is having much difficulty in selecting the winner of the Argus prize. Fur-ther time for the selection has been asked with the result that the winner will not be announced until next

Not only are the windows far superior to previous years, but the inside of the stores are tastefully decorated in tune with the season. The Venetian theater has erectd a large Christmas tree on the marquee and it is ready for lights. The lobby of the theater has an attractive Christmas decoration.

The attractive windows may be found in every part of the business

Test Of Spuds

Washington county seed potatoes has completed the county field i growers passing all field require ments, Mr. Smith stated. The following is a list of Wash-assed both field inspections for certified and standard grades of seed potatoes for this year: Certified Burbank growers, Conrad Dick, Hillsboro, Rt. 4; Fred H. Meyer, Hillsboro, Rt. 3; L. E. Furrow, Hills-boro; E. L. Seiffert, Hillsboro, Rt. 2; L. M. Miller, Hillsboro, Rt. 2; Victor Boleen, Hillsboro, Rt. 5; E. H. Smith Hillsboro, Nutroes Orehards liam Waibel, Hillsboro, Rt. 5; E. H. Smith, Hillsboro; Nutmere Orchards, (Rowell Brothers) Hillsboro, Rt. 2; David Beaudoin, Tigard, Rt. 1; Charles Schmidtlin, Vernonia; Earl Thompson (Smith-Hughes), Dilley; S. T. Walters, Portland, Rt. 2; E. Stalder, Portland, Rt. 2; B. D. Graf, Portland, Rt. 3; H. R. Findley, Portland, Rt. 2; Anton Evers, Forest Grove; Glen Epler, Forest Grove; Glen Epler, Forest Grove; Vallis, C. H. Hood, Lou Boyd and Grove; Glen Epler, Forest Grove; Vallis, C. H. Hood. Lou Boyd and Robert Warrens, Forest Grove; H. J. Valentine, Beaverton, Rt. 3; Roy J. H. Wilson withdrew his plea of regular Monday noon luncheons. The regular Monday noon luncheons. The presents were given in appreciation of their co-operation.

President R. W. Weil acted as toastmaster and each member responded with a few brief words for the good of the order. Edgar Kamna and Fred Tramblay sang vocal soles. An orchestra composed of thrup, Ranks, Rt. 2.

Standard Burbank growers are H. J. Valentine, Beaverton, Rt. 2; Joe Furrer, Portland, Rt. 2; W. J. Thompson, Rt. 2; C. L. Johnson, Sherwood, and John Mulloy, Laurel. Netted Gems—Certified: H. R. Findley & Sons, Portland, Rt. 2.

British Queen-certified: E. E. Norshand Burbank growers are H. J. Valentine, Beaverton, Rt. 3; Frank Muhly, Cornelius, Rt. 2; W. J. Thompson, Rt. 2; C. L. Johnson, Sherwood, and John Mulloy, Laurel. Standard Burbank growers are H. J. Valentine, Beaverton, Rt. 3; Frank Muhly, Cornelius, Rt. 2; W. J. Thompson, Rt. 2; W. J. British Queen-certified: E. E. Norshand Burbank growers are H. J. Valentine, Beaverton, Rt. 3; Frank Muhly, Cornelius, Rt. 2; W. J. Thompson, Rt. 2; W. J. British Queen-certified: E. E. Norshand Burbank growers are H. J. Valentine, Beaverton, Rt. 3; Frank Muhly, Cornelius, Rt. 2; W. J. Thompson, Rt. 2; C. L. Johnson, Sherwood, and John Mulloy, Laurel. Netted Gems—Certified: H. R. Findley & Sons, Portland, Rt. 2.

thrup, Banks, Rt. 3. Pride of Multnomah: N. G. Johnston, Cornelius, Rt. 2.

Four Arrests Made

The night patrol on the state high-way from McMinnville to the Multpersons for violations over the week-end. Officer Frank McMahon took George Archer near the Durham | past and has not received anything from the market road fund. County Engineer Charles D. Jones

Two family cows, $65 and $75.—John Eckhardt, west end of Jackson street. 42-44p

"Sold Cows Immediately"

"I put the for sale ad in for three issues and the day after the paper came out for the first time I sold the cows," stated Mr. Eckhardt. "I had sveral more calls after they were sold."

The advertisement, a three-line ad, cost 30c on the first insertion and 25c for each ad-ditional issue. Mr. Eckhardt was refunded 50c. Get the classified habit in the Argus, it pays good dividends. If you have something to sell let the Argus sell it for you. "Read the ads-It pays!"

Millsbord Argus

To All the People of Washington county and to our subscribers, the publishers of the Argus extend a wish for a happy and Merry Christmas.

Receiver For Local Laundry Is Appointed

W. C. Christensen was Saturday appointed by Judge George R. Bagley in circuit court to serve as receiver of the Mungers' Laundry company pending the suit of the Commercial National bank against the laundry for the foreclosure of a linquency of a minor and after re-ceiving a $1,000 fine and a year in the county jail was paroled for $500 and costs of $150.

taken in a meeting of county judges and commissioners in Portland the first of the week. Judge E. J. Ward and Commissioners Frank W. Liver-more and J. M. Hiatt were present.

receive its share of the money paid at the Argus office. way from McMinnville to the Mult-nomah county line, recently inaugu-rated by Secretary of State Hal Hoss, resulted in the arrest of four road on a liquor possession charge.

Wayne Steiner, Kenneth Hodson and Arley Freichel, all minors, were taken by Lt. Joe McMahon near Metzger on a larceny charge. Sheriff J. E. Reeves said Monday that they had admitted taking the tires.

County Engineer Charles D. Jones attended the meeting of county engineers Tuesday. He is secretary of a joint committee of six judges and six engineers and chairman of the engineers' committe. Sheriff-elect J. W. Connell attended the sheriffs' convention in Portland today.

Forest Grove Man Talks At Meeting

Grove pastor, in an address before the Hillsboro Rotary club Thursday. The program was put on by the Forest Grove club and Louis Busch was chairman.

The foundation principles of business today are as follows: (1) turn the other cheek, (2) faith is substance, (3) bear ye one another's burdens, and (4) let him who would be greatest be convented for the prefet of the prefet o be greatest be servant or "he profits most who serves best."

Sam Walker, old time fiddler, accompanied by Charles Walker on the piano entertained with several old time numbers. Mr. Walker has been selected as one of 12 fiddlers by Henry Ford for a try-out at Chicago early in January. Three of the 12 will be selected for a tour of the country at $25 per day.

F. Robertson, Hillsboro, route 2, was cut slightly about the face by flying glass when his car struck a car parked on the highway in the fog near Forest Grove early Wednesday. E. D. Woodberry of Portland, driver of the other car, said that he was out of his car cleaning the ice off the windshield.

the Star coupster parked while he went to a show and the next time he heard of the car it was parked in a plowed field on the Wilkins place of the car had been reported to Sheriff J. E. Reeves Sunday. The car had been purchased from Lester Morgan at Scholls and was registered in his name.

Santa Will Have Treat For All!

Santa Claus, who sent word last week that he would be in Hillsboro with the good little boys and girls of the county Saturday, will give a bag of candy to every one of his little visitors through the cour-tesy of the Hillsboro chamber of commerce.

The distinguished northland visitor will make his headquarters under the large decorated Christmas tree in the court yard and he will be there with a good word for the kiddies from 1 to 3 p. m.

Santa is looking forward to his visit with the children of Washington county, so all boys and girls will want to be there.

Receive Goods

Orders were given in the following cases: Stella Armentrout vs.
D. R. Chenev; W. J. McCready et al vs. Joe Steringer et al; William E. Haase et ux vs. John C. Long et ux.
The grand jury Tuesday reported in three true bills and then was al-ing as chairman of the work for the work for the long list of homes which will look to the Christmas charity fund for their Christmas cheer, according to Mrs. Harvey Batchelar who is acting as chairman of the work for the Willis Ireland 60 was also a member of the Pythian Sisters lodge (then Rathbone Sisters), when it was first instituted in Hillsboro and was also a member of the Coffee club when it was first organized. On account of ill health she had not taken an active part in affairs outside of her home for several years.

street all day Thursday, Friday and until Saturday noon. It is hoped County Clerk E. C. Luce attended that the contributions will be more the state meeting of county clerks the first of the week. On a Night Patrol the first of the week.

The judges and commissioners agreed that Multnomah county should to be left with Mrs. E. C. McKinney

Present Pageant At Church Sunday Eve

triotism and religion will be presented at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening. A chorus of 35 members, directed by Mrs. H. H. Stannard, will present in costume the Donelson & Sewell chapel. Final services will be at the Portland Crematorium.

Miss Florence Contris was born at Mt. Eaton, Ohio, June 4, 1876, and

Of The Rotarians A temporary stage has been erected for the event. The public is cordially invited to attend this religious The church might take some lessons from modern business in the opinion of Rev. M. A. Marcy, Forest feature presented in story and song.

Three Persons Called During Past Few Days

Mrs. T. S. Weatherred Taken After Long Illness

Mrs. Frank Kane Dead

Willis Ireland Dies Following Operation in Portland; Three Well Known

Three persons, residents of Hillsboro and the county for many years, were taken by death this week. Mrs. T. S. Weatherred of Hillsboro died Monday evening, Mrs. Frank Kane of near Cornelius was taken Tuesday evening and Willis Ireland, formerly of Hillsboro and later of Portland, died Tuesday morning. All three were well known here and prom-

Funeral Today

Mrs. Thomas Sumpter Weather-red, 72, a resident of Hillsboro for 48 years, died at the family home here Monday evening after an illness of several weeks. Funeral services will be held this afternoon (Thursday) at 2 p. m. from the Donelson and Sewell chapel and interment will be in the Odd Fellows cemetery. Rev. Villers of the White Temple in Portland will officiate.

Miss Emilie Frances Taylor was born July 8, 1856, the daughter of Samuel Charlton and Mary Hodges Taylor of Summer county, Tennessee. Her early education was received at Miss Launderdale's school for girls at Castalian Springs, Tenn.

on May 16, 1880, she married Sumpter Weatherred and they left the same day for Oregon. They lived for two years near the Tualatin Plains Presbyterian church, moving then to Hillsboro where they have resided ever since. She is surmoving then to Hillsboro where they have resided ever since. She is survived by her husband and four daughters, Florence, wife of Frank H. Sholes of Cornelius; Lucy, wife of Lieutenant Commander Harding, Bremerton, Wash.; Tennessee and Eva, at home, and a grandson, Thomas Sholes. A son, Robert, died in 1912. Two brothers, James W. Taylor, Gallatin, Tennessee, and Wilson W. Taylor, Cloverdale, also sur-W. Taylor, Cloverdale, also sur-

For The Needy

When a young girl she became a member of the Hopewell Baptist church at Castalian Springs. She was a member of the Pythian Sisters when

The grand jury Tuesday reported in three true bills and then was allowed to retire till January 10.

County Officials

At State Meetings

The continuance of the market road plan with the millage tax as now exists was favored in a vote taken in a meeting of county judges to Mrs. Harvey Batchelar who is acting as chairman of the work for the Needlecraft club. All organizations in the city are co-operating.

Packages are being prepared for delivery Saturday afternoon by the committee in charge, and all emergency cases are being cared for as soon as possible, Mrs. Batchelar who is acting as chairman of the work for the Needlecraft club. All organizations in the city are co-operating.

Packages are being prepared for delivery Saturday afternoon by the committee in charge, and all emergency cases are being cared for as soon as possible, Mrs. Batchelar pointed out. With the use of the Boy Scouts every one on the list will be called on.

Contributions in the form of clothing for the side of her home for several years.

Willis Ireland, 60, ex-county recorder and banker here, died Tuesday morning at Finley's chapel in Portland and interment was at the Tualatin Plains church cemetery under the auspices of Tuality lodge of Masons here.

Ireland Former Official

Mr. Ireland was the son of Robert and No.

and Susanna Ireland, pioneers clothing, fruits, vegetables, and gro-ceries will be received at the Vet-erans' hall on Main street near First corder for four years and afterward was president of the Commercial bank in Hillsboro. In 1917 he moved to Portland and for a number of years was connected with the Bank of East Portland. Recently he was engaged in the insurance business. On January 10, 1911, at Hillsboro, he was married to Miss Elizabeth Milne, who survives him. He was a member of Tuality lodge of Masons.

Funeral Friday Mrs. Frank T. Kane, 52, died at A pageant portraying the birth of Christ and teaching a lesson in patriotism and religion will be pre-

Miss Florence Contris was born at Mt. Eaton, Ohio, June 4, 1876, and H. Stannard, will present in costume scenes from the Christmas story and the Biblical characters including the wise men, King Herod and other principal historical characters. A number of duets and solos have been arranged, and the grand finale will center around the American flag.

A temporary stage has been are for the christian Science church. ber of the Christian Science church. Mrs. Kane is survived by the widower, her mother, Mrs. Mary Contris of Cleveland, Ohio, and a sister.

Machine Stolen In Portland Found Here

To have a car stolen in Portland and then find it within a few miles of where you live was the exper-Cars Crash In Fog ience of S. J. Russell of Hillsboro Saturday evening. Mr. Russell left the Star coupster parked while he