Christmas Program Is Well Attended

Scholls, December 27. — The Christmas program given at the church Sunday evening was well attended. Mrs. Ernst was in charge of the program and Mrs. Crowder was chairman of the decoration committee. A pageant, presenting the Christmas story, was presented with Mrs. Harold Christensen taking the part of Mary, the mother of Jesus. Donations for the poor were carried by the children of the Sunday school and placed by the manger of the Infant.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Haven have installed a new radio.

Mr. and Mrs. Murry of Silverton were guests at the Edward Wohlschlegel home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Bennett and Mrs. Nick Welsh of Blue Lake arrived at the Bennett home Monday morning to spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sigler spent the holidays with Mrs. Coleman and family.

Midway school closed Friday of last week for the holidays.

Mrs. F. E. Rowell returned to her home last week from the Portland Open Air sanitorium, where she has been for the past six weeks.

Mrs. Henry Jack is somewhat improved, according to last reports.

If wool garments are dried close to a fire, the steam formed will cause the material to shrink.

Pasturing crop land that has only fair drainage during the rainy months in Oregon may result in injury to the soil structure or it may develop a compact layer at the bottom of the furrow slice, known as the plow sole. If, says the experiment station, the depth of plowing is varied or increased one inch yearly for the two or three years that the land is in cultivation, packing of the ground in the plow sole may be avoided.
