Trucking Business

Sold By F. Gaunt

Aloha-Huber, January 10.—Frank Gaunt has sold his trucks and transfer line to Mr. Myer, who lives here. Mr. Gaunt and A. Jensen of Reedville have purchased a fish and game farm at Mountandale and plan to take possession January 15. Mr. Gaunt will move his family there later in the year. Mr. Myer, who purchased the transfer, formerly drove for Valley Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Sophas Bonlock entertained friends from Washington Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mason and daughter, Wilma, were dinner guests of Portland friends Saturday evening.

Mrs. Andrew Denholm of Stacy avenue was a Portland visitor Friday of last week.

Frances and Zora Marvin were Portland visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hayes and daughter, Elizabeth, were Portland visitors Saturday.

Once upon a time there was a man who was sure he could not have made a lot more money if he had gone into some other business.

Fire Damages Roof, Rain Creates More

Orengo, January 10.—Charles O. Walker's residence caught on fire one night last week and a large hole was burned in the roof before it was extinguished. The rain that poured in through the opening before the roof could be repaired did more damage than the fire.

The Westminster circle of young ladies met Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Lois Hill.

Miss Clara Goodman oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Goodman, and Frank Hathaway were married January 3. The bride has resided here for several years and is a graduate of the Hillsboro high school. The bridegroom formerly resided on the Baseline road south of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Hathaway will make their home in Portland.

Otto R. Kallender of New York City is here visiting his aunt, Mrs. Kolick, and family. He expects to make an extended visit and is assisting his cousin, Alvin, with his willowcraft work.

Mrs. Brits of Portland, a cousin of the late Ira W. Handley, was a guest of Mrs. Handley and family Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kidd entertained at New Year's dinner their daughters, Misses Marjorie and Laura, Miss Terrell of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. David Rich.

June Garvin and George and Sarah Feris are out of school on account of illness.

A surprise party was given Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hamel in honor of Miss Eva Mamel's 20th birthday.

Mr. Riggins of Hillsboro was here several days last week looking after his property, which is occupied by Mrs. Hattie Freeland and her mother.

Miss Lesley Gipson was taken sick before Christmas and was removed to the Jones hospital in Hillsboro New Year's day. She is improving slowly.

Paul Pratt, who was home on a furlough from the navy, left Saturday for San Diego to join his ship, the Idaho.

Hillsboro Team Is Defeated By Laurel

Laurel, January 10.—The local basketball team won from the Hillsboro town team last Friday by a score of 32 to 34. The Hillsboro team included Bill Jook, Art Morgan, Ed McCourt, Luke Stangel, Ted Hornecker and Jack Rushlow. The local team will play a team from Mountain Home here next Friday evening. The Mountain Home team is sponsored by Harry Schmeltzer.

"Yassuh," responded Brother Jones. "Ah's a spen'thrif, and' ah throws mah money 'round reckless like."

"Ve'y well. We will join in prayer fo' Brother Jones—jes' aften de collection plate have been passed."

Now is the time to commence planning building activities and also time to make inside alterations, lay hardwood floors, fix up cupboards and closets, do necessary inside painting, remodel upstairs and attic.

As materials for such work we would recommend "Sterling" plaster wall-board, wood veneers, mouldings, "Peerless" built-in-furniture, Fuller paints, varnishes and kalsomines. Pool-Gardner Lumber company is headquarters. "Remodel" is to be a big word during 1929.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ruff, who live on West Jackson street, have bought a new Chevrolet sedan, and found it necessary to build a building suitable for the occasion. Of course, Pool-Gardner Lbr. Co. were called upon to participate in the functions.

Will Jack, Third street, found it necessary to put up a building to protect his car from the elements and again the quality of the material and service of Pool-Gardner

Lbr. Co. were recognized and called into use.
