

Novelty Social At Kinton Draws Many

Kinton, Jan. 24.—There was a very good attendance at the "Novelty Basket Social" held at the grange hall last Friday evening. A group of vocal solos by Harris Hanson of Beaverton were much enjoyed and a one-act play entitled "A Dime Lunch" by members of the grange was well received. The baskets were auctioned off and an Angel food cake was sold at Dutch auction and brought over $11. A cafeteria lunch was served to those who did not purchase baskets. The affair netted the grange about $25.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wright and son William spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Wright's sister, Mrs. Blanche Palmer of Tualatin.

Christmas Card From Far Below The Equator

This is a reproduction of one of the most unusual, withal the most interesting, Christmas greeting cards received in San Francisco this season.

Emory B. Bronte, Hawaiian flight navigator and now head of the aviation department of the Associated Oil Company, was the recipient. Bringing a personal note of good cheer from the epoch-al Byrd Antarctic Expedition, the card carries the best wishes of the season from Joe Rucker, member of the party, to Bronte. The two are close friends, brought together through their mutual interest in aviation.

Bronte was delighted to receive the unique remembrance and treasures it among his most prized possessions.

Plan Meetings For Farmers Of Oregon

Farmers of 15 counties of Oregon will have opportunity late in February and early in March to assemble in the various county seats and take stock of the agricultural industry, compare results of the past, hear of latest developments in production and marketing, and consider authentic outlook reports for the future.

The occasions will be the annual county "farmers' weeks" which this year will replace the outlook conferences of a year ago. The program for the coming gatherings will contain the outlook conference features but in addition will include the latest in production methods and will provide means for reporting on county agent projects and other investigations of interest to that county.

The extension service of Oregon State college will provide specialists for the series of meetings. The state has been districted so that five counties are in each of three divisions. Each day in the farmers' week will be devoted to a single enterprise, such as dairy day, crops day, horticulture, livestock and poultry.

Dates for Jackson, Josephine, Coos, Douglas and Lane counties are February 18-22; Malheur, Baker, Union, Wallowa and Umatilla, February 25 to March 2; and Clatsop, Multnomah, Clackamas, Yamhill and Polk, March 4-8. Previous to these the Columbia Basin Wheat conference at Arlington February 11-13 will serve in a similar capacity for the wheat growing counties.

Fillings usually hold cake layers together better when the bottom crusts are turned together.

Said Ben Franklin:
"THE USED KEY IS ALWAYS BRIGHT."

Anything that is not used deteriorates. Money that is not planted will not grow—No matter if it is only a dollar a week, determine NOW to save. For dollars saved grow, and bring you more ultimately than the dollar spent brings immediately.
