

Local Briefs

What's On at the Venetian Theater

Friday and Saturday Jan. 25-26 Regional Drama in "The Night Bird"

Sunday-Monday-Tuesday January 27-28-29 Belle Bennett and Neil Hamilton in "Mother Machree"

Wednesday-Thursday January 30-31 Richard Barthelmess in "Out of the Ruins"

Coming "Trail of '98" Clara Bow in "Wings"

Mrs. Charles Matthes of Portland was calling on Hillsboro friends Monday.

Abe Youngen and daughter of near Helvetia were Hillsboro visitors Saturday.

Evangelistic services are being held at the Farmington church for two weeks.

Miss Leona Rogers, attending Normal school at Monmouth, spent the week-end with home folks.

George Kinnear, president of the Duplex Oil Burner company of Portland, was in the city Friday.

The Ladies' Aid of the Farmington church will meet with Mrs. Charles Roseman on Wednesday, Feb. 13.

John Nyberg, prominent Tualatin resident and road enthusiast, was a county seat business visitor Friday.

Miss Gladys Bentley arrived home Tuesday from a month's visit with relatives and friends in Los Angeles.

Harry Erickson of San Francisco arrived Friday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Erickson.

The Delphian club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Bailey, with Mrs. Thomas Connell as leader.

N. H. Schiedel, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, has recovered sufficiently to be able to be up again.

Richard H. Weeks, service man of the Burroughs Adding Machine company, spent a few days in Hillsboro this week.

Mrs. E. M. Hurd and son, Malcolm, of Portland were week-end guests of Mrs. Hurd's brother, Orange Phelps, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Zimmer of Blackduck, Minnesota, arrived here last week for an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. Sherman.

The monthly school of the Junior Bible class of the Methodist church will be held next Monday evening in the basement of the church.

Paul A. Kohne of Everett, Wash., left Sunday for home, after spending some time here in the interests of the West Coast Telephone company.

John Schaer of near North Plains was a Hillsboro visitor Saturday. Mr. Schaer has lived in this county for 52 years, and more than half that time at his present home.

While the Methodist church is being remodeled and decorated the Boy Scouts of which meet in the church Thursday evening, will meet in the high school hall instead.

Mrs. T. W. Williams and little son of San Diego, Cal., arrived last week for a few months' visit with Mrs. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Anderson of Farmington.

Ambrose Schmidlin and son, Charles, of Vernonia, and George Schmidlin were here Thursday afternoon, conferring with the county court on the market road question.

F. M. Dille of Cornelius was a Hillsboro visitor Monday. Mr. Dille and family, who have been living at Cornelius for about a year, formerly resided at Grand Forks, North Dakota.

Mrs. W. L. Wileox, Mrs. Milton Haas, and Rev. S. McMinis attended the mid-winter rally of the Willamette Baptist association at the Hinson Memorial church in Portland last Thursday.

Mrs. Roy Pearson entertained at tea Tuesday of last week in honor of Mrs. H. J. Duncan of Tillamook. Those present were Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. T. C. Darnell, Mrs. C. G. Duxbury, Mrs. C. D. Churchley, Lorraine Darnell, Nina Duxbury, Jimmy Duncan and the hostess.

Mrs. W. B. Fuller and daughter, Miss Leah, left Friday for Sacramento, Cal., for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Jones and family.

Mrs. Jones is a daughter of Mrs. Fuller. Miss Fuller will go south as far as Los Angeles, where she will visit the Losi family, formerly of this city.

Ray Emmott of Ontario was a Hillsboro visitor the first of the week, a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Emmott. Ray is in the stock business in eastern Oregon, and brought a load of cattle to the Portland market. Twenty cattle buyers from eastern Oregon came down with a big shipment.

The card party of the Auxiliary to the American Legion last Thursday night was well attended. Mrs. Harry Morgan and R. F. Peters won first prizes at bridge, and Mrs. J. L. Auld and W. O. Jacobs had the high scores at "500." After refreshments were served, dancing was enjoyed with Mrs. Myrth Hoffman at the piano.

Rev. A. J. Neufeld, pastor of the Methodist church at Woodburn, was a guest at the Washington hotel while assisting in the Willamette University campaign here Monday and Tuesday. Mr. Neufeld also visited Scholls in this interest. Rev. S. J. Sibley, pastor at Tigard, was also here Tuesday assisting in the above mentioned effort.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Waldorf of Marcus and Mrs. Margaret Stenard of Cooper, South Dakota, who have been visiting at the C. H. Gonyo home since Christmas, left Monday for Salem, where they will visit other relatives. From there they will make their return trip by way of California. They have driven 6,000 miles since in November.

The estate of Martin Huber has been admitted to probate.

L. G. Bole of Cedar Mills was a county seat caller Tuesday.

H. L. Hickox of Salem spent the week-end with his family here.

Winston Pool, who is attending O. S. C., was at home for the week-end.

Ben Sias of Eugene was a guest Sunday of his aunt, Mrs. E. P. Sias, at her home.

Mrs. H. R. Chantler has moved her candy kitchen in with Emott's Meat market.

E. C. Brown underwent a major operation at the Jones hospital Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Ivan Simon of Portland was a guest Tuesday of her mother, Mrs. T. A. McCourt.

George Lemmon of Toledo and J. T. Swift of Portland are visiting at the O. Coslett home.

Miss Helen Diemon, who is attending Pacific university, was a week-end guest of Miss Jessie Pool.

Miss Frances Schultz of Oregon City is a guest this week of her grandmother, Mrs. Thomas Gheen, and family.

Mrs. Emily Hawes returned to her home in Portland Tuesday, after a few days' visit with her sister, Mrs. Clara Garrett.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harms and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Morley attended Rebekah lodge meeting at Boring Monday evening.

Mrs. V. W. Gardner, Mrs. George McGrath and Miss Morrison are delegates to the Episcopal convention in Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brunson of Seaside spent a few days the first of the week with Brunson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Miller of Milwaukie and Mrs. Katie Trickey of Corbett were in Hillsboro Friday, attending the funeral of their relative, Thomas Gheen.

C. E. Wells returned Friday night from a 10-day trip to Stevenson, Wash., and Edmond, where he was looking after his interests in the telephone companies.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Garthofner entertained at dinner Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. George Lee of Wasco, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Pittenger and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hemming.

Miss Frances Sundberg, daughter of Mrs. Viola M. Sundberg, left Tuesday night to take a position as bookkeeper with the Evans Auto Loading company of Marshfield.

Earl Grabel, who has been in the Good Samaritan hospital suffering from an attack of influenza, is now convalescing at the home of his sister, Mrs. Victor Holmes, in Rose City.

John Walters of Cedar Mills was in the city on business Tuesday. Mr. Walters would like to see another highway branch off from the Canyon road and follow the base line.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Allison and two children of Denver, Colorado, were guests a few days last week of their cousins, Mrs. Charles Stone, Ray and Wilber Dillon, and families. The visitors left Friday for San Francisco.

Margaret Ellen Tallman, 4-year-old granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Crawford of Manning, died Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Tallman, in Portland. Funeral services were held Tuesday in Portland.

Mrs. V. W. Morrison entertained Tuesday evening with a dinner party at her home on East Alder street, Portland, given in honor of the birthday of her son, Jack Murton. The guests included Misses Lenora Bryant and Mildred McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Gardner and Ted Hornecker of Hillsboro and Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Layman of Portland.

Mrs. Edgar Rehse of near Farmington was agreeably surprised Friday evening when a large number of friends came in to help celebrate her birthday. The guests met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kamna Jr., and went to the Rehse home from there. The blowing of many auto horns was the first that Mr. and Mrs. Rehse knew of the party.

Surprised on 10th Anniversary Mr. and Mrs. James Peppard were agreeably surprised Saturday when a number of friends and relatives came in to help celebrate their 10th wedding anniversary. The evening was spent in playing cards, with a supper served by the guests at midnight. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Pittenger of Longview, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Karasiewicz, Mr. and Mrs. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace King, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Miller, all of Vancouver, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Witherrill and family of Capitol Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Walker and family, Mrs. Cora Strum and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Johnson and family, J. H. Peppard of Westminister, J. Peppard, Perry Walker, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Peppard and family.

Miss Rose Cave is covering the east-end of the county for the Washington Savings & Loan association and Ray Dillon has the west end.

Miss Laura and Rollin Deck of O. S. C., Corvallis, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Deck.

Stanford Cannon of Portland spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Della Gonyo, north of Hillsboro.

Mrs. Daisy H. Noe of Vale arrived Sunday for an indefinite stay while auditing the county books.

Mrs. Max Crandall and Mrs. George Woodworth visited friends in Portland last week.

Robert Youngen and two daughters of Helvetia were county seat callers Saturday.

Chris Aschanz and son, Fritz, of Mountaineer were Hillsboro visitors Saturday.

The Sunshine Girls of the Methodist church gave a miscellaneous shower Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McDowell in honor of Mrs. Irene Connell, bride-elect of Carlton Hande of Portland. Those present were Miss Connell, Mrs. Thomas Connell, Mrs. R. L. Tucker, Mrs. McDowell, and the Misses Rose Cave, Patty Lomax, Margaret Tucker, Ernestine Brown, Pauline Lockhart, Helene Mohr, Leona Regnier, Vera Snyder, and Winabeth McDowell.

Rev. Hardy of Silverton, Rev. J. E. Ebert of Banks, Rev. M. A. Marcy of Forest Grove, Rev. G. O. Oliver, president of Willamette university, Rev. Joe Patten of Dundee and Rev. Simpson Hamrick of Marquam were here Monday and Tuesday working with Rev. E. B. Lockhart on the Willamette university finance plan. They all attended the chamber of commerce luncheon Monday.

Mrs. S. E. Olson entertained a group of friends Friday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. H. J. Duncan of Tillamook, who was visiting here. Those present were Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. Roy Pearson, Mrs. C. G. Duxbury, Mrs. Tom Littler, Mrs. T. C. Darnell, Marjorie, Marian and Nina Duxbury, Len and Lorraine Darnell, John, Harry and Jimmie Duncan and the hostess.

The ladies of the Christian church held a silver tea Wednesday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. L. G. Selfridge. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. J. Loomer, Mrs. E. Brown, Mrs. Bessie James and Mrs. E. Webb. A program was given under the supervision of Mrs. Maud Powell and Mrs. L. Shinaberger. About 40 ladies were in attendance.

A surprise party was held Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cook in honor of Mr. Cook's birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ireland, Mr. and Mrs. Hallie Ireland, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Selfridge, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Cook, Lucile and Vernon Cook, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cook.

Miss Angie Harrington left Wednesday for Long Beach, Cal., to visit her sister, Mrs. Lester Ireland, and daughters, who are spending the winter there. Miss Harrington, who has been ill, has a leave of absence of six months from her duties in the post office.

Fred Gheen, who was called here on account of the illness of his father, left for his home in Gustine, Cal., Friday evening after the funeral. Mrs. Clark Brown of Ferndale, Wash., who was here during her father's illness, left Sunday evening for home.

H. L. and Ed Christensen returned Friday night from Arcata, Cal., where they were called on account of the death of their brother-in-law, Frank Hill. Mr. Hill was killed by a locomotive running over him while working for a sawmill company.

Mrs. A. L. Brock entertained Wednesday evening with a 6 o'clock dinner in honor of the birthday of her daughter, Arlene. Those present were Misses Marcella and Rita Rogers, Ida Lormor, Hazel Brown, Lucile Hervey, Esther Willers and Arlene Brock.

Miss Bonnie Davidson of Whittier, Cal., is a guest this week of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Davidson, and her brother, Neal Davidson. She is en route to eastern Oregon for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ralston and son, Billie, and Mrs. Emma Elliott and Lester Elliott of Portland were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Davidson. Mrs. Elliott is the grandmother of Mr. Davidson.

Alfred Wallin of the Grove Lumber company of Mountaineer is in Hillsboro Wednesday. Mr. Wallin reported that they had about two inches of snow at his place when he left.

Charles D. Jones attended a Legion convention at Silverton Wednesday night and one at Newberg today and evening. Mr. Jones is district committeeman of this district.

Miss Helen Stoltenberger of near North Plains, a high school student in this city, underwent an operation for appendicitis last Thursday afternoon at the Smith hospital.

H. J. Duncan of Tillamook spent the week-end with his parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Olson. His wife and children, who have been visiting here, returned home with him.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Jackson returned to their home at Eugene today after a few days' visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. W. C. Christensen, and family.

Mrs. Laura Olds of near Beaverton was a Hillsboro visitor Wednesday. She reports her mother, Mrs. R. H. Walker, as quite ill at their home.

Miss Rose Cave is covering the east-end of the county for the Washington Savings & Loan association and Ray Dillon has the west end.

Miss Laura and Rollin Deck of O. S. C., Corvallis, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Deck.

Stanford Cannon of Portland spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Della Gonyo, north of Hillsboro.

Mrs. Daisy H. Noe of Vale arrived Sunday for an indefinite stay while auditing the county books.

Mrs. Max Crandall and Mrs. George Woodworth visited friends in Portland last week.

Robert Youngen and two daughters of Helvetia were county seat callers Saturday.

Chris Aschanz and son, Fritz, of Mountaineer were Hillsboro visitors Saturday.

Miss Laura and Rollin Deck of O. S. C., Corvallis, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Deck.

Stanford Cannon of Portland spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Della Gonyo, north of Hillsboro.

Mrs. Daisy H. Noe of Vale arrived Sunday for an indefinite stay while auditing the county books.

Mrs. Max Crandall and Mrs. George Woodworth visited friends in Portland last week.

Robert Youngen and two daughters of Helvetia were county seat callers Saturday.

Fraternal

Pythians of Hillsboro Hold Joint Installation

Phoenix Lodge, K. of P., and Phoenicia Temple, Pythian Sisters, held joint installation of officers at the K. P. hall Monday night, with a good crowd in attendance.

Mrs. Vesta Combs was installing officer for the Pythian Sisters, assisted by Mrs. E. L. Moore as grand senior and Mrs. Pearl Brown as grand manager. Miss Marjorie Sewell was goddess of flowers and the little flower girls were Margaret Dierksen, Betty Morgan, Edna Ruth and Margaret Phillips, Dorothy Kuratli and June Gifford.

The officers installed were Mrs. Verne McKinney, most excellent chief; Mrs. T. C. Reynolds, excellent senior; Mrs. Frank Davis, excellent junior; Mrs. W. W. Phillips, manager; Mrs. John Kamna Jr., mistress of records and correspondence; Mrs. Alfred Morgan, mistress of finance; Mrs. R. W. Hatcher, guard; and Mrs. A. H. Busch, past chief.

S. E. Fayram was installing officer for the Knights, assisted by A. W. Havens, as grand prelate and J. D. Anderson as grand master-at-arms. The officer for the year are E. J. Sherman, chancellor commander; W. W. Phillips, vice chancellor; J. J. Wismer, prelate; W. C. Gifford, master of work; W. H. Dierdorf, keeper of records and seal; G. R. Chapman, master-at-arms; J. D. Anderson, master of finance; A. W. Havens, master of exchequer; S. E. Fayram, inner guard; J. W. Connell, outer guard; and Fred Sewell, trustee.

Mrs. A. H. Busch, the outgoing most excellent chief, presented orange bouquets to the members of the team, the outgoing mistress of records and correspondence, Mrs. Harry Morgan, the pianist, Mrs. Fred Sewell, and the trustees.

A short program followed installation ceremonies. Damon Greer Jr., gave a recitation, Mrs. Herman Frank sang several solos, with Mrs. Sewell accompanying; Henry Kuratli gave a reading, and the Pythian Sisters degree team put on a drill.

Royal Neighbors Installed Officers Friday Evening

The Royal Neighbors installed the officers for 1929 at the Grange hall Friday evening. Mrs. H. H. Stannard was the installing officer, assisted by Mrs. W. E. Lormor as ceremonial marshal, and Mrs. T. Qualls as musician.

Mrs. Fred Ennis was installed as oracle, and the other officers are Mrs. Victor Batchelar, past oracle; Mrs. H. E. Rea, vice oracle; Mrs. D. A. Kramer, chancellor; Mrs. J. M. Tillman, recorder; Mrs. Claud Cook, receiver; Florence Coslett, marshal; Ida Lormor, assistant marshal; Mrs. Haud Dickson, inner secretary; Mrs. Edwin Bowman, outer secretary; Mrs. Julius Corenson, 1-year manager; Mrs. L. F. Brown, 2-year manager; Mrs. Len Shattuck, 3-year manager; Mrs. W. E. Ogilvie, musician; Mrs. J. Nicodemus, flag bearer; Mrs. Edwin Bowman, Faith; Mrs. C. Duxbury, Courage; Lucile Cook, Modesty; Mrs. James Peppard, Unselfishness; Mrs. Elmer Peterson, Endurance; Mrs. Stannard, drill captain and press correspondent.

Mrs. Thomas Qualls sang a solo. Mrs. Batchelar was presented with a past officer's pin, and Mrs. Freda Frost was presented with a gift for faithfulness as marshal for four years.

The members decided to have a food sale on February 9, and also to have a silver tea on February 14 at the home of Mrs. W. F. Lormor. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. L. F. Brown, Mrs. Charles Douglass, Mrs. H. H. Stannard and Mrs. John Johansen.

Modern Woodmen Officers Installed Last Thursday

George Woodworth was the installing officer for the M. W. A. lodge at the installation ceremonies at the Grange hall last Thursday evening. J. M. Person was installed as counsel, G. H. Ireland as advisor, A. Wohler, banker; George T. McGrath, clerk; Waldo Ditter, escort; William Emrick, secretary; Theo Wilkes, catchman; F. L. Hewitt, 2-year manager; and W. E. Brown, 3-year manager.

A special meeting is planned for February 20, when there will be initiation and refreshments. It is expected that a Portland team will be in attendance and exemplify the initiatory work.

Two Important Meetings Scheduled Within Week

Rebekahs will meet in county convention next Wednesday at Forest Grove, when all Rebekah lodges of the county will be represented. A large number will attend from here. The Three Link association will meet at Gaston Friday night. Election of officers will be part of the order of business. Lodges from Gaston, Banks, Hillsboro and Beaverton will be in attendance.

Grand Chancellor, K. of P., Will Visit Here Monday

Stanton Rowell of Grants Pass, grand chancellor of Knights of Pythias for the domain of Oregon, will make an official visit to Phoenix lodge next Monday night. Other grand officers are expected to attend, and all members are urged to be present.

Rebekahs Have Special Meeting Next Tuesday

The Rebekahs will have a special meeting Tuesday night at the L. O. O. F. hall when Mrs. Louise Corozzi of Ashland, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, will make an official visit.

The social club of the Eastern Star met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. W. Barnes, and after the business session the time was enjoyed in playing bridge. Mrs. O. T. McWhorter receiving high score. Officers for this year were elected as follows: Mrs. Fred Tesch, president (re-elected); Mrs. R. E. Parsons, vice president; Mrs. C. E. Deichman, secretary (re-elected), and Mrs. O. T. McWhorter, treasurer.

The Social Circle of the Congregational church elected officers for the year at the meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. B. W. Barnes. Mrs. R. C. Vaughn was re-elected president; Mrs. H. A. Deck, vice president; Mrs. R. Walworth, secretary, and Miss Jessie Mackay treasurer. Mrs. Barnes was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. C. E. Lytle.

Some of the officers of the Eastern Star chapter attended the school of instruction for chapters of Portland and vicinity Friday night at Multnomah chapter. Those attending from here were Miss Lenora Bryant, Mrs. B. W. Barnes, Mrs. Thomas Gregg, Mrs. Donald Mezger, Mrs. R. E. Parsons, Mrs. Floyd Miller, Mrs. Fred Tesch and Jack Murton.

Mrs. R. E. Parsons of Orengo has been elected vice president of the Associate Mothers' club of O. E. S. of Portland and vicinity.

The new officers of Phoenicia Temple will hold office for the first time at the regular meeting Friday night, and members are requested to attend.

OUR Fresh Bread and Pastries

are baked the same day sold. Please place orders the day before to assure both of having goods.

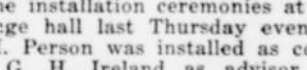

NOTICE

We have a supply of flour sacks at 90c a doz. Get them now, no orders taken. Take advantage of our daily specials.

Saturday, Jan. 26 only: Pecan Butter Rolls...15c

Perfection Bakery and Coffee Shop

"For Health Protection Use Perfection"

With the Advent of Colder Weather

Stock of all kinds, but especially Milk Cows and Laying Hens will require heavier feeds if profitable production is to be maintained.

IMPERIAL Brand mixed Feeds contain sufficient yellow Corn and other grains high in carbohydrates to make a well balanced ration. Oil Meals are used to supply the necessary Protein to maintain satisfactory production. Prices right now are probably as low as they will be for several months. This may be the right time to lay in a goodstock. We solicit an opportunity to figure with you on your feed requirements.

Hess Panacea fed to poultry and Hess Tonic to milk cows will tone up your stock and produce big returns.

Imperial Feed & Grain Company

"Quality Feeds For Every Feeding Purpose"

Hillsboro Phone 511 Hillsboro 731 Second St.

Hillsboro Garage 1125 Third St., Telephone 391

What's On at the Venetian Theater

Friday and Saturday Jan. 25-26 Regional Drama in "The Night Bird"

Sunday-Monday-Tuesday January 27-28-29 Belle Bennett and Neil Hamilton in "Mother Machree"

Wednesday-Thursday January 30-31 Richard Barthelmess in "Out of the Ruins"

Coming "Trail of '98" Clara Bow in "Wings"

Mrs. Charles Matthes of Portland was calling on Hillsboro friends Monday.

Abe Youngen and daughter of near Helvetia were Hillsboro visitors Saturday.

Evangelistic services are being held at the Farmington church for two weeks.

Miss Leona Rogers, attending Normal school at Monmouth, spent the week-end with home folks.

George Kinnear, president of the Duplex Oil Burner company of Portland, was in the city Friday.

The Ladies' Aid of the Farmington church will meet with Mrs. Charles Roseman on Wednesday, Feb. 13.

John Nyberg, prominent Tualatin resident and road enthusiast, was a county seat business visitor Friday.

Miss Gladys Bentley arrived home Tuesday from a month's visit with relatives and friends in Los Angeles.

Harry Erickson of San Francisco arrived Friday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Erickson.

The Delphian club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Bailey, with Mrs. Thomas Connell as leader.

N. H. Schiedel, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, has recovered sufficiently to be able to be up again.

Richard H. Weeks, service man of the Burroughs Adding Machine company, spent a few days in Hillsboro this week.

Mrs. E. M. Hurd and son, Malcolm, of Portland were week-end guests of Mrs. Hurd's brother, Orange Phelps, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Zimmer of Blackduck, Minnesota, arrived here last week for an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. Sherman.

The monthly school of the Junior Bible class of the Methodist church will be held next Monday evening in the basement of the church.

Paul A. Kohne of Everett, Wash., left Sunday for home, after spending some time here in the interests of the West Coast Telephone company.

John Schaer of near North Plains was a Hillsboro visitor Saturday. Mr. Schaer has lived in this county for 52 years, and more than half that time at his present home.

While the Methodist church is being remodeled and decorated the Boy Scouts of which meet in the church Thursday evening, will meet in the high school hall instead.

Mrs. T. W. Williams and little son of San Diego, Cal., arrived last week for a few months' visit with Mrs. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Anderson of Farmington.

Ambrose Schmidlin and son, Charles, of Vernonia, and George Schmidlin were here Thursday afternoon, conferring with the county court on the market road question.

F. M. Dille of Cornelius was a Hillsboro visitor Monday. Mr. Dille and family, who have been living at Cornelius for about a year, formerly resided at Grand Forks, North Dakota.

Mrs. W. L. Wileox, Mrs. Milton Haas, and Rev. S. McMinis attended the mid-winter rally of the Willamette Baptist association at the Hinson Memorial church in Portland last Thursday.

Mrs. Roy Pearson entertained at tea Tuesday of last week in honor of Mrs. H. J. Duncan of Tillamook. Those present were Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. T. C. Darnell, Mrs. C. G. Duxbury, Mrs. C. D. Churchley, Lorraine Darnell, Nina Duxbury, Jimmy Duncan and the hostess.

Mrs. W. B. Fuller and daughter, Miss Leah, left Friday for Sacramento, Cal., for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Jones and family.

Mrs. Jones is a daughter of Mrs. Fuller. Miss Fuller will go south as far as Los Angeles, where she will visit the Losi family, formerly of this city.

Ray Emmott of Ontario was a Hillsboro visitor the first of the week, a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Emmott. Ray is in the stock business in eastern Oregon, and brought a load of cattle to the Portland market. Twenty cattle buyers from eastern Oregon came down with a big shipment.

The card party of the Auxiliary to the American Legion last Thursday night was well attended. Mrs. Harry Morgan and R. F. Peters won first prizes at bridge, and Mrs. J. L. Auld and W. O. Jacobs had the high scores at "5