Mrs. Lucy Sigler returned Tuesday from a two weeks' visit at Seattle. She was accompanied home from Portland by her sister, Mrs. Sarah Hoopengardner, who is visiting this week at the home of Mrs. Anne Sigler and Mrs. Lucy Sigler.

The regular meeting of the Needlecraft was held last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harvey Hatchelar. After a short business session, refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. M. Carille.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Riley and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Davis, of Vancouver, Wash., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Hart. Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Johnson were also guests at the Hart home. Mr. and Mrs. Riley are uncle and aunt of Mrs. Johnson and Mr. Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Freeman of McCleod, California, left Wednesday morning for home, after a two weeks' vacation and visit with Mrs. Freeman's mother, Mrs. W. J. Stansell. Mrs. Stansell accompanied them on a trip to Hood River, where they visited Alvin Stansell and family, and a trip to Seattle, Wash.

A card from Mrs. John Blaser, formerly of Mountaineer, who left here recently in company with her husband and little daughter for Arizona, tells that they have arrived at Phoenix and find it as warm as June or July weather is here. They had a very nice trip and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Zybach at Long Beach, Cal., for a few days en route to Arizona. They expect to settle in Phoenix.

The Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church met at the church Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. L. F. Emmott and Mrs. Earl Naught as hostesses. After the business session, the enigmas were answered very interestingly. A dramatization, "With or Without," was given by Mrs. L. F. Emmott, Mrs. Jones, and the Misses Pauline Lockhart, Josephine Stuart and Leola Reinger. Announcement was made that the next annual convention of the Salem district will be held here on April 19.

Diamond Anne's Gossip

DIAMOND ANNE says: the luckiest man she knows is a Parachute manufacturer. — Not one of his customers has ever complained of one of his parachutes not opening.

You will not complain of the reflex brought about by a gift presented when the box is marked

Anderson Jeweler Hillsboro, Oregon

try it next time and be convinced.

Old Fashioned: "I want a bottle of iodine."

"Sorry but this is a drug store. Can't I interest you in a magazine, some nice leather goods, a few radio facts, or a toasted cheese sandwich?"

Edna Katrina, the 5 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richter, died at their home in Portland Monday of pneumonia, and the funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Kenworthy Undertaking chapel, with interment in the Riverview cemetery. Mr. Richter formerly resided here and is a member of the Hillsboro Post, American Legion.

Miss Anna Engeldinger, taking nurse's training at St. Joseph's hospital in Vancouver, Wash., was a week-end guest of her brother, Fred Engeldinger, and family, and on Sunday accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Fred Engeldinger and children to Oregon City, where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Freeman and Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Johnson went to Donald Saturday night, where the men attended a homecoming at the Masonic lodge. The ladies of the order were entertained at the home of Mrs. Earl Carver, worthy matron, during the early part of the evening and later joined the Masons at a banquet in the Temple hall.
