

"Bashful Mr. Bobbs" Was Great Success

Laurel, March 21.—The drama, "Bashful Mr. Bobbs," which was presented at the hall Friday evening by a cast from Hillwood, was a great success socially and financially.

Pupils neither absent nor tardy during the month ending March 15 were Billy Kleier, Viola Stoller, Leo Spiering, Earl Tows, Billy McNay, Earl Fields, Lorraine Demmin, Frances Fields, Norma Crawford, Melvin Jackson, Ruth Abbott, Lillie Brown, Helen Rutschman, Earl Demmin, Ina Stevens, Ruth Mills, Viola Demmin, Florence Evans and Harold Haase.

Announcements have been received of the arrival on February 29 of a son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moyer of Portland. The Moyer are well known in the Laurel and Buxton communities.

A business and social meeting for the purpose of organizing a Christian Endeavor society will be held at the Amos Watkins home Friday evening, March 22. A pot-luck supper will be served. Everyone interested is cordially invited.

Sunday dinner guests at the F. L. Brown home were Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hoffman and daughter, Betty, of Farmington; Mr. and Mrs. John Will, Jr., and daughter, Marjorie; Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schmidt, and Miss Marie Schmidt.

The girls' sewing club held its regular meeting last Thursday afternoon at the school house. Lunch was served and a feature of the entertainment was an Easter egg hunt. Annie Schmidt, club leader, succeeded in winning the prize of an Easter basket.

Miss Doris Lohr, teacher of the Meyers school, has been engaged to teach there the coming year. Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Dillberger of San Francisco visited here Saturday with the E. C. Mulloy and F. L. Brown families. Fred lived in this neighborhood as a boy when his father was the Laurel merchant.

(Too late for last week.) Sunday dinner guests at the Henry Haase home were Mr. and Mrs. John Haase and two children of Firdale, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Stevens, Mrs. Amelia Hogrefe, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Schmidt, Gertrude Muhlly, Walter Schmidt and Elbert Stevens.

The play apparatus, consisting of two swings, two teeters and a set of rings, was installed on the school grounds of district No. 80 by the Parent-Teachers' association at its meeting March 1.

Albert Rosevear is confined to his bed with a nervous illness. He is a senior in high school and had driven the Laurel bus to the Union high school in Hillsboro all winter.

Sunday dinner guests at the John Will, Jr., home were Mr. and Mrs. John Mainland and Miss Jean Mainland of Beaverton, Mr. and Mrs. John Will, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Amos Watkins and children, John, Jean and Teddy; Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Stoller and children, Viola, Bernice and James, and Dan Chambers and Charlie Schmidt.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Looney and daughter, Ronnie, of Salem, were visitors at the McNay home over the week-end. They attended the entertainment at the hall Friday evening. Mrs. Looney and Mrs. McNay are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hoover and Gene, Jr., of Portland were Sunday visitors of Mrs. Hoover's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cally Whitmore.

Celebrate Arbor Day

Arbor Day was celebrated at the North grade school last Friday by an appropriate program. Three silver birch trees were planted and christened the Emily Young, Margaret Mooberry and Herbert Hoover trees. The first two were named for the donors and the Herbert Hoover tree was donated by the rest of the teachers. The program included selections by the children of the different rooms.

The pupils of Miss Konigan's room spent their $10 prize money for a clock.

Honor students at the end of

VENETIAN

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday

March 24-25-26

SOON

You can see the Picture Magnificent!

CARL LAEMMLES Super Production

THE MAN WHO LAUGHS

VICTOR HUGO'S Immortal Classic

starring CONRAD VEIDT and MARY PHILBIN

The Impassioned Call of the Flesh Subdued by LOVE Sublime!

A PAULLENI Production

'Sold Everything' Advertising Pays

"All my classified advertisements in the Argus have paid me well," said F. J. Chalmers of Roy, when he came into our office to have some ads cancelled. Mr. Chalmers sold $195 worth of livestock as a result of three advertisements in the Argus, which cost him only $1.80. The sale included two cows at $250, team of mules $125, five sheep $73, and a sow $30 and a pup for $7.50.

The first six weeks' period were: Hazel Blades, 8th grade; Mabel Strom, 7th grade; DeLaurice Bump, 6th grade; Holcomb Himes, Lowell Chase, Wayne Goetter, Fred Tesch, Christine Robb and Evelyn Wuldrige, 5th grade; Anna Mulkes, 4th grade; Bobby Reamy, Johnny Webb, Lois Heff, Esther Robb, Tosh Tsugawa and Ann Weik, 3rd grade; Shirley Martin, Richard Groff, Edna Schulmerich, Loren Bronleeve, Theodore Gardner, Delbert Crews, Mildred Stasek, Doris McWhorter, Frank Vuylsteke, Dorothy Bell and George Tsugawa, 2nd grade.

The work done on the South Grade hall grounds has made a great improvement. Two teachers from the Tillamook schools visited at the North Grade school Monday.

The picture contest being held at the South Grade school is in full swing and many pupils from all the grades have earned certificates. Special programs of "living pictures" will be given Thursday and Friday nights at the Methodist church. Funds raised will be spent for pictures for the school.

The club girls of Division II, under the leadership of Miss Retta Meredith, served tea to the teachers Tuesday of last week. Those taking part were Violet Gray, Velma Himes, Dorothy Cox, Margaret Newton, Maybelle Sanders, Wilma Webb, Montalee Hodges, Mildred Donelson, Dolores Theda, Margaret Johnson and Verna Rowan.

The boys' camp cooking club, under the leadership of Miss Herpan, went on a field trip north of town last Saturday. A cooking lesson was given over the camp fire, after which a game of baseball was played.

The Red H club gave a skating party at Cornelius last Thursday. Miss Meredith and Mr. and Mrs. Barnes chaperoned the party.

Local Briefs

Mrs. Dora Nelson of Portland is spending the week with Hillsboro friends.

H. E. McKinney of Portland was a guest Sunday at the McKinney home.

Miss Eleanor Mailing of Dunthorpe was a guest Sunday of Miss Patty Lomax.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hagle were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Cowdin of Portland.

John Anderson returned to his business here Thursday after a few days' trip to San Francisco.

Miss Edna Riggs of Portland was a guest Sunday of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Emmott, and other relatives.

Wayne Emmott, a student of U. of O., arrived home the last of the week to spend the spring vacation with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Roy of Aloha were in attendance Thursday afternoon at the funeral of Mr. Roy's uncle, Jack Roy.

Mrs. Fred Ennis, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. P. Evans, of Portland, for several weeks, returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ennis of Roy were Hillsboro visitors Thursday afternoon, attending the funeral of Mr. Ennis' uncle, Andrew Jack Roy.

Mr. and Mrs. William Masterson of McFitt have been having their home remodeled and painted. C. H. Himes is doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lomax and two children of Portland and Mr. Welch of Astoria were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Lomax. Alfred Lomax is a nephew of the local man.

Mrs. R. E. Wiley and little daughter, Katherine, left Sunday for a two weeks' visit with Mrs. Wiley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Perrine, in Seattle.

Orville A. Compton of Portland has been transferred from a Portland store to the local Skaggs-Safeway store and took up his duties the last of the week.

The coffee club will give a card party next Thursday night, March 28, at the chamber of commerce rooms. Bridge and "500" will be played. Everybody invited.

Miss Alice Nosler of this city will have a part in the operetta presented by the Madrigal and Glee clubs of Oregon State college on March 29 at the Masonic Temple in Portland. Professor Paul Petri, well known here, is the director, and received great praise for the presentation of the operetta at Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen E. Pugh attended the funeral Tuesday of Mr. Pugh's grandmother, Mrs. Katherine Pugh, in Salem. Mrs. Pugh was 89 years of age and celebrated her birthday last month at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Pugh in this city. She died at the home of her son, W. D. Pugh, in Salem, while out picking violets. Three sons survive her.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Smith spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Cull. Mr. Smith is general manager of the Crown Willamette paper mills located at Camas, Wash. Mr. Smith says that enlargement expenditures for the next year of the Crown Willamette company at Camas will run close to $5,000,000.

Mrs. E. G. Miller of Molalla and son, Edward G. Miller, of Portland, were guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Nosler. Mr. Miller, who has been automobile editor of the Oregonian until recently, left Tuesday for Europe, where he goes in the interest of his profession. Mrs. Miller is a sister of Mrs. Nosler.

Mrs. Glen Jones of Heppner returned home the last of the week after a few weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Dooley, of near Banks. Mrs. Jones, Mrs. George Dooley and Mrs. Clay Dooley of Banks were guests Saturday of Miss Deborah Barrett of this city.

Mrs. M. E. Watson returned Monday morning from a three weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Lulu Warren, at Gridley, Cal. Mrs. Watson was accompanied home from Portland by her son, Stanley Watson, and family, who made a short visit here.

The card party given at the K. P. hall Saturday night by the Pythian Sisters' past chiefs' club was well attended. Prizes in bridge went to Mrs. Glen Payne and C. O. Roe, and in "500" to Mrs. A. Sandstrom and R. E. McNeil.

Mrs. Emma Endicott, who has been visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Tupper, this winter, left Sunday for her home in Stockton, Cal. She will visit relatives in Portland and Eugene en route home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor of Seaside are visiting relatives here and at Scholls this week. They came to Hillsboro to attend the funeral of A. J. Roy, a relative of Mr. Taylor.

The Auxiliary to the Legion will give a card party tonight at the veterans' hall. Bridge and "500" will be played. Everybody invited.

Girls Demonstrate Life Saving Work

Glenwood, March 21.—The Parent-Teachers' association met at the Jedmore school Friday evening. After the business meeting an interesting program was given, including a demonstration of life saving by Lucy Staples and the Campfire girls. A debate was held and reports on the Old World were given. The charter of the local Boy Scouts was presented at this meeting and the various merits of scouting were explained by scouts.

Mrs. Frank A. Shank and Mrs. Jane Miller attended the poultry clinic sponsored by the Farmers' Feed company at the chamber of commerce rooms in Forest Grove last Wednesday.

Georgia Johansen visited relatives in Forest Grove and Gales Creek Saturday and Sunday.

The Rev. R. D. Everett, Sunday school missionary, held meetings at the Jedmore school in this district and at the Strassel school last Sunday. A Sunday school will be held at the Jedmore school next Sunday at 11 a. m.

Mrs. Lizzie Northrup of Vernonia spent the week-end visiting friends and relatives here.

Girls Demonstrate Life Saving Work

The last issue of the Sunset magazine contained a page featuring western poets, and a poem by Mrs. A. H. Blessing was one of them. The title of the poem was "Procrastination."

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Watson of Edmonton, Canada, are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Watson. The men are en route to their old home in Chehalis, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schulmerich, Miss Wallie Webber and her brother, who recently came here from Germany, were down from Corvallis Friday night attending the Pythian Sisters' card party.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. C. Blaser were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Everest of Seapooose, and while there tried their luck at cat-fishing.

Mrs. Leona Rogers and Miss LaDele Otness arrived home Tuesday to spend the spring vacation.

March 22-23

WILLIAM KNIPP

William Knipp, 54, proprietor

MARY MUHLY

Mrs. Mary Muhlly, 85, resident of the Blooming district for 37 years, died early Tuesday morning at the home of her son, Fred Muhlly, near Blooming. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at the Blooming church.

Mrs. Muhlly is survived by the following sons and daughters: Fred, Blooming; Theodore, North Fork, Cal.; Paul, West Union, Iowa; William, Minneapolis, Minn.; Melchior, Albert, Canada; Mrs. Senecal, Minnesota; Mrs. Ford, Pearson, Wash.; Mrs. Holz, Canada; and Mrs. Meyers, Blooming.

Better Watch repairing.—"Kellington the Jeweler." 621f

Advertisement for HILLSBORO'S Spring Opening, featuring Radio Douglas and $500 in Gifts. Includes details about the event on Friday and Saturday, March 22-23.

Large advertisement for Philco All-Electric Radio. Features a detailed illustration of the Philco console and promotional text highlighting its features and availability at K. A. Price Music & Electric Co.

Advertisement for Miller Mercantile Company's Store Sale. Lists various items on sale, including muslin, silk dresses, morning frocks, men's suits, and blouses, with special Saturday prices.