Diamond Anne's Gossip

DIAMOND ANNE SAYS:
I crept upstairs,
My shoes in hand,
Just as the night took wing—
and I saw my mother just four steps above doing the same darn thing.
(Bell): "Joe, dear, I'd love to have that wrist watch."
(Bill): "But I can't afford to buy it, honey."
(Bell): "But if you could, you would, wouldn't you?"
(Bill): "I'm afraid not."
(Bell): "Why?"
(Bill): "It isn't good enough, sweetie, you should have a Gruen."
(Bell): "Oh, you darling!"
That's the way they feel about them. Anderson is the Hillsboro agent. We have open house Friday evening. Come and see the best and biggest stock ever in Hillsboro. No goods sold Friday evening.

Have Spring Home-Coming
The Women's Relief Corps and G. A. R. enjoyed a spring home-coming Friday at the Veterans' hall. A not-look dinner was served at noon to a large crowd and a program followed. Mrs. W. E. Ogilbee and Mrs. Stannard rendered a piano duet, Mrs. Victor Batchelar gave a reading and Miss May Cook gave a reading. A short business meeting followed, with initiation. Mrs. Anna Steinbaugh of Grants Pass, department president; Mrs. Orpha Carlie, department organizer, and Mrs. Mary Rogers, department patriotic instructor, were the grand officers present. Commander W. S. Tilton of the Hillsboro G. A. R. post and Commander Dappen of the Forest Grove post, were also present.

Have Chinese Program
Mrs. Fred Chase, assisted by Mrs. Stanley Hubbard, entertained the Kappa Tau club on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Chinese costumes were worn by the members and roll-call was answered by giving a Chinese superstition. The program included a song, "Hong Kong," by the club; piano duet, "Chinese Serenade," by Mrs. Earl Ogilbee and Mrs. H. H. Stannard; vocal duet, "China Boy," by Mrs. James Peppard and Mrs. Stanley Hubbard; reading of Chinese festivals and amusements by Mrs. L. F. Brown. Refreshments consisting of tea, rice and cake were served. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Earl Ogilbee Wednesday, March 27, and will be guest day.

FRATERNAL
ENCAMPMENT MEETING IS ATTENDED BY MANY
The entertainment given at the I. O. O. F. hall Monday night by the Encampment was attended by a large crowd and a splendid program was given.
William F. Hoffman of this city, a member of Minerva lodge No. 10 of Portland, was presented with a 25-year jewel, the presentation being made by Grand Patriarch Shannon.
