Slow, Orderly Growth Has Advantages Over "Boom" Says Hare

"A typical homespun Willam-ette valley mossback's impres-sions of California."

Ex-Senator William G. Hare gave this title to his talk on his recent California trip at the forum luncheon of the Hillsboro Chamber of Commerce Monday noon. His remarks were so spiced with humor that many pronounced it one of the most interesting meetings ever held.

"Rain Lulls to Sleep"
Mr. Hare said the Californian Declamation fellow almost julied to sleep by the patter of the rain on his roof. The Californian's idea, he said, was to get people to sunny California and keep them there. He spoke in favor of the good, steady growth enjoyed by Oregon as compared with the "boom type" in California.
