Grain Prospects At Kinton Good

Kinton.—The past week has been a very busy one with those who own grain fields and the binders have been kept on the move. In some fields there were two, while in adjoining fields the separator and crew were busy threshing out the golden grain. So far the grain yield has been unusually good and the grain bins promise to be well filled by the time it is all housed.

Miss Luella Dallmann, who has employment in Gresham with her sister, Mrs. August Christ, was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Dallmann, Friday and Saturday of last week.

Mrs. Julius Wedeking, Buster Wedeking, Mrs. Louise VanKleek and children, Miss Mable and Clifford, were transacting business at the county seat Tuesday.

Mrs. Eva Jackson, Gladys Beck and Birdie Archer of Salt Lake, Utah, spent last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Snider. Mrs. A. A. Jackson and daughter, Miss Ellen, of Portland were also recent visitors. Mr. and Mrs. Snider left Monday with their guests for a trip to the coast, taking in a number of the beaches, returning home Wednesday evening.

George Hoover has entered the employ of the Robinson mill near Scholls for the remainder of the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph VanKleek and L. B. VanKleek, all of Port-trip to their old home in Wibaux, Mont., where they will make about a month's visit with relatives.

Mrs. John Thornton (Miss Mable Danford) and daughter, also Mrs. Tom Miller and daughters, of Hazeldale were calling on old friends and neighbors last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Thornton has made her home in California for the past number of years. Mr. and Mrs. Thornton and family arrived in Oregon last week and are planning on locating here permanently if he is successful in securing work. The Danford family resided here a number of years ago, on what is now the Kirk Hoover place.

There was a large attendance at the union services held at the church Sunday evening, several churches being represented. A number from Mountain Home, Laurel, the local church and a large crowd of young people from St. Johns and Portland, also the Rev. J. E. Kron, who brought the message of the evening. A number of chorus numbers, quartets, duets and solos were enjoyed. It is expected that the next meeting of this kind will be held with the Laurel church Sunday evening, September 8.

Editorial Style Book Published At O. S. C.

Oregon State College, Corvallis, July 20.—A 63-page word and style book particularly for use of Oregon newspapers and their correspondents has just been issued by the college extension service for free distribution to those interested. It is compiled by C. J. McIntosh, professor of industrial editing, who was assisted by a committee of the Oregon Editorial association consisting of H. B. Swenson, Monmouth Herald; Horace E. Thomas, Portland Oregonian; Earl C. Brownlee, then of the Forest Grove News-Times, and Ralph R. Cronise, Albany Democrat-Herald.

While the style book is intended primarily for newspaper use, it contains much material on proper use of English, capitalization, punctuation, diction and similar branches of writing that is of value to the general public.

The bulletin is divided into 17 chapters, each of which contains the accepted Oregon newspaper practice on that particular subject, as well as examples of optional usage if any, and of incorrect
