

CORNELIUS NEWS

DOROTHY COOKE, Correspondent

Cooke Home Scene Of Birthday Party

Cornelius.—Mrs. W. R. Cooke entertained Friday evening at her home in honor of the 12th birthday of her daughter, Margaret. The evening was spent in playing games. Those present were Helen Oliver, Grace DePrez, Marguerite Miles, Olive Wilson, Emma Lou Hendrick, Catherine Haskins, Lois Gary, June Henderson, Geneva Shay, Dorothy Cooke, the honor guest, and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Wright were surprised Friday evening at their home when a group of 35 friends called.

The Girl Scouts held their regular meeting Saturday afternoon at the city hall.

Boys of the Cornelius school defeated the Heywood nine, 22 to 9, on the local school diamond Friday afternoon.

Charles Bullock of Winnipeg, Canada, arrived Thursday evening from a tour of Nebraska and California. He visited Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wright and Mrs. Madge Wright and daughter, Virginia. He will return to Canada Monday.

Blanche Finegan spent the week-end in Beaverton visiting Helen Godfrey.

Miss Mary J. Carl of Portland spent the week-end at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. R. Cooke.

A. M. Wedell spent Friday evening with friends in Portland.

The Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Miles and family were Friday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wright.

Mildred Vuytsteke and Margaret Cooke were presented in a recital of the music pupils of Mrs. Olive Smith Bicknell of Forest Grove on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Alta Daniels, teacher of the Fern Hill school, spent the week-end in Portland with relatives and friends.

Henry Hoffman returned last Wednesday from California, where he had been for two weeks.

Mrs. Erwin Sahnow and daughter, Dolores, attended the meeting of the Ladies' Aid at the Lutheran church at Schefflin, at the home of Mrs. Hugo Sahnow, recently.

Mrs. Emma Schmalie spent the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Sam Moon, and family, and her son, Fred, and family of Garibaldi.

Mrs. Erwin Sahnow and Mrs. L. A. Jackson attended the matinee at Hillsboro Saturday.

Elizabeth Cooke spent Saturday afternoon and Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cooke. She is employed in Portland.

Julia Johnson and Hila Cornelius were Portland visitors Sunday.

Marie DePrez of Portland spent the week-end at the home of her mother, Mrs. G. DePrez.

Virginia Wight and cousin, Charles Bullock of Winnipeg, Canada, spent Saturday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Sahnow and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dell of St. Helens.

The state fire inspector visited the Cornelius school Friday. He recommended a fire chute and other improvements.

Mrs. Margaret Morrissey spent Saturday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barnes and son spent Sunday at Thatcher visiting Mrs. Barnes' mother, Mrs. William Haney, and family.

Mary Spiesscheart, who is employed in Portland, spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Spiesscheart.

Road Work Started In Kinton District

Kinton.—The heavy blasting heard last week in this community was on the Tile Flat road where the road crew was blasting stumps making ready to widen the road.

Mrs. August Dallmann, who has in St. Vincent's hospital for two weeks, returned to her home last Thursday.

The following have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pomeroy: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parrott and Mr. and Mrs. George Newell, all of Portland.

J. J. Van Kleek has been having a brooder house built at his ranch on Pleasant Valley road during the past week. Harry Richards was employed doing the work.

Mrs. C. W. Young has been quite ill at her home on Tile Flat road during the past week.

Warren Wilson has been reducing the number of cows in his herd during the past week by selling a number to a Portland party.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Thomas of Portland spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hall, Tile Flat.

Yuma Dallmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dallmann, was quite ill a few days last week but is able to attend her high school duties again.

Mr. and Mrs. George Snider and daughter Miss Eunice Ellen and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cox attended the play at the Scholls grange hall last Friday evening.

Albert Dallmann went to California last Thursday where he will be employed in electrical work, installing electric signs.

Mrs. Ben Kershaw of Portland arrived in town last Friday and spent the week end with some of her old neighbors and friends. The Kershaw family resided here for a number of years. Mrs. Kershaw returned to her home Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pomeroy and children spent Saturday with Mrs. Pomeroy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Sparks of Portland. Mrs. Harry Richards spent Saturday with relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cox were entertained Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Hesse of Scholls. A dinner was served in honor of the thirty-third wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wright and son, William, spent last Sunday afternoon with relatives and friends in Portland.

At the regular preaching service held Sunday morning special music was furnished by Mrs. Robert Pomeroy Mrs. Earl C. Bell and Mrs. Charles Thompson. Mrs. Ben Kershaw of Portland was present at the services of the day. Mrs. Kershaw was superintendent of the school for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Heeschen of Portland were guests last Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. W. VanHorn.

The pastor of the church, Rev. F. E. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cox and Everett Wright attended the union meeting held at the Shrine auditorium in Portland Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Cox spent the evening with old friends in St. Johns where they formerly resided.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Newman of Linton were calling on friends around town and Scholls, Sunday.

A special meeting of the local grange was held at the hall Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Vandermost spent the day Monday transacting business in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wilson were in attendance at the revival services held last week in the Nazarene church in Beaverton.

A number of the farmers around town have been busy during the past week getting their ground ready and putting in the early garden seeds while others already have early peas up and other early gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Heard and family of Hazeldale spent the week end with Mrs. Heard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Richards.

Charles W. Young has been appointed census enumerator for this district. The census will be taken in April.

County Connecting Road Being Worked

Laurel.—Road work is progressing rapidly this fine weather. The big "cat" is now working on the mountain on the new road which connects Washington and Yamhill counties. The horse grader is busy and some grubbing is being done, ready for further grading.

Sunday visitors at the Amos Watkins home were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Kibler and two daughters, all of Portland; Dr. Grace Stone and small son, Wallace, of Washington, D. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Guenther and their children of Chehalis mountain.

Sunday school was well attended last Sunday. There will be preaching services next Sunday, immediately following Sunday school.

Sunday dinner guests at the Adolph Schmidt home were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ward of Tigard, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Thompson of Portland and Miss Marie Schmidt and Lee Brown.

Sunday dinner guests at the S. E. Stoller home were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanauke and two children of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. John Will Sr. and Miss Jean Mainland of Beaverton.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Brown were Friday evening guests at the A. W. Walker home in Hillsboro. Miss Myrtle Walker of Walla Walla, Wash., was a guest of her parents. School district No. 80, Laurelvue, reports the following pupils on the honor roll for attendance: Willis George, James Moore, Frankie Schmidt, Gordon Heinecke, Arkie Rosevear, John Watkins, Blanche Bennett, Velma Rosevear, Wilbur Moore and Hazel George. Four new pupils entered Monday, Gerald Buchanan, Lyle and Millicent Dunsmore and Evelyn Beck.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Buchanan and son, Gerald, of Washington have arrived at the Sam Ornduff home, where Mrs. Buchanan will keep house for her father and Mr. Buchanan will help with the ranch work.

Sunday dinner guests at the John Will Jr. home were Mr. and Mrs. John Mulloy, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. L. Brown and the Misses Thelma Mulloy, Ina Stevens and Lillie Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. John Will Sr. of Beaverton spent most of last week in this neighborhood visiting at the homes of their children, John Jr., James and Mrs. S. E. Stoller.

The Misses Beatrice Brown and Irene Stevens are home from Monmouth for the spring vacation. Beatrice will not return for the spring term. Irene will go to Corvallis to do practice teaching after vacation.

Miss Helen Parr, who is teaching school at Dufur, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Parr.

Mrs. Rose Demmin and daughters, Viola and Lorraine, of Elmonica were Saturday night and Sunday visitors at the Roy Fields home.

Grange Birthday To Be Celebrated

Buxton.—Green Mountain Grange met at the Grange hall in Buxton last Saturday. The next meeting will be at Manning April 19, celebrating the memorial of Kelly, founder of the Grange, and also the birthday of Green Mountain Grange. All Granges in the county are invited to spend the day with us and join in the basket dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gillispie and Mrs. John Mills of Manning were present at Grange Saturday afternoon after an absence of several months. V. Ornduff and sons are making

4-H Clubs Formed At Orenco School

Orenco.—Six 4-H clubs were organized at the Orenco school Friday by William F. Cyrus, assistant county agent. Members were enrolled in three standard clubs, garden, rabbit, and camp cookery, and in three individual clubs, pigs, poultry, and calf. Willard Brown is leader of the rabbit club. The other leaders have not yet been selected.

Mrs. Sarah Hewett suffered a deep gash in her head when she fell on the basement stairs at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alex Allen, Saturday evening. She was badly shaken.

Dwight Goodman, who fractured his wrist at the St. John's Co-operative plant recently, returned home Tuesday to recuperate.

Orenco was defeated by North Plains on the local baseball diamond Sunday afternoon.

M. O. Boyer of Springfield was here last Thursday.

Bertha Buford went to Corvallis Friday evening to spend the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Buford.

Arnold Brandenburg went to Gresham last week, where he is employed by A. McGill and Son.

Mrs. Clara Goodman Hathaway, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at a Portland hospital, is able to be home.

Gilbert Grose, who recently moved to Portland, is ill. His daughter, Mrs. Dyer, has come from Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Marcy and their daughter, Mrs. Minnie Bates and daughter, Edna, visited at the Carlyle home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Johnson and children of San Diego were guests last week of Mrs. Johnson's sister, Mrs. Ruth Will.

Adam Bella has purchased the 40 acres, equipped with a large barn and several buildings, which was formerly occupied by the Willow Craft company.

Mrs. Willard Brown has been appointed registrar for Orenco and Cornell precincts. Anyone wishing to register before the primaries can do so at her home.

The Westminster circle met Monday afternoon at the home of Bertha Brandenburg, and elected Mildred Handley, president, Bertha Brandenburg, vice-president, Law-

County Connecting Road Being Worked

preparations to log off the Schmidt timber, between Scofield and Vernonia, between Scofield and Vernonia. Assistant County Agent W. F. Cyrus was in town last week in the interest of the 4-H club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols of Vernonia visited Mrs. O. H. Stowell last week.

Mabel Nelson is working in Beaverton.

Mrs. E. Rowton of Hillsboro spent Monday with Mrs. Jesse Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher spent Saturday in Portland.

Fred Sullivan of Portland spent Sunday in Buxton.

Mrs. Rucker and son spent Sunday with relatives in Washougal, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kelly spent Sunday at the home of Gus Green near Manning.

The Rev. Mr. Everett, Sunday school missionary, who is holding a revival meeting at Manning, preached a very interesting sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. There will be church services at 7:30 o'clock every Sunday night hereafter.

Ed Scofield has returned to his work near Belding.

The S. P. & S. bridge construction crew will begin work on one of their highest bridges soon. The work will take several months.

Frances Fisher entertained a number of her girl friends on her 11th birthday last Wednesday. Those present were Monica and Peggy Pongratz, Evelyn Rinck, Elsie Meyer, Helen Haanman, Wilma Crowther, Doris Whiteside and Rosetta Estep.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roth of Portland visited relatives here recently.

Mrs. Vida Powell visited Mrs. Sylvia Falconer of Banks Thursday. Mrs. Pearl Watson spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Merle Estep, of Hillsboro.

Corla LaSalle of Thatcher is cooking again at the Elwood Lumber company cookhouse. Margaret McCann is helping her.

Mrs. S. H. Stowell has returned from Vernonia, where she spent the last three weeks with her daughter. Anna Nelson and Minnie Ross shopped in Forest Grove Monday.

A large crowd attended the St. Patrick program and social at Manning Monday night. Maude Benefield purchased the quilt sold by the Manning Social club.

County Connecting Road Being Worked

preparations to log off the Schmidt timber, between Scofield and Vernonia, between Scofield and Vernonia. Assistant County Agent W. F. Cyrus was in town last week in the interest of the 4-H club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols of Vernonia visited Mrs. O. H. Stowell last week.

Mabel Nelson is working in Beaverton.

Mrs. E. Rowton of Hillsboro spent Monday with Mrs. Jesse Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher spent Saturday in Portland.

Fred Sullivan of Portland spent Sunday in Buxton.

Mrs. Rucker and son spent Sunday with relatives in Washougal, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kelly spent Sunday at the home of Gus Green near Manning.

The Rev. Mr. Everett, Sunday school missionary, who is holding a revival meeting at Manning, preached a very interesting sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. There will be church services at 7:30 o'clock every Sunday night hereafter.

Ed Scofield has returned to his work near Belding.

The S. P. & S. bridge construction crew will begin work on one of their highest bridges soon. The work will take several months.

Frances Fisher entertained a number of her girl friends on her 11th birthday last Wednesday. Those present were Monica and Peggy Pongratz, Evelyn Rinck, Elsie Meyer, Helen Haanman, Wilma Crowther, Doris Whiteside and Rosetta Estep.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roth of Portland visited relatives here recently.

Mrs. Vida Powell visited Mrs. Sylvia Falconer of Banks Thursday. Mrs. Pearl Watson spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Merle Estep, of Hillsboro.

Corla LaSalle of Thatcher is cooking again at the Elwood Lumber company cookhouse. Margaret McCann is helping her.

Mrs. S. H. Stowell has returned from Vernonia, where she spent the last three weeks with her daughter. Anna Nelson and Minnie Ross shopped in Forest Grove Monday.

A large crowd attended the St. Patrick program and social at Manning Monday night. Maude Benefield purchased the quilt sold by the Manning Social club.

County Connecting Road Being Worked

preparations to log off the Schmidt timber, between Scofield and Vernonia, between Scofield and Vernonia. Assistant County Agent W. F. Cyrus was in town last week in the interest of the 4-H club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols of Vernonia visited Mrs. O. H. Stowell last week.

Mabel Nelson is working in Beaverton.

Mrs. E. Rowton of Hillsboro spent Monday with Mrs. Jesse Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher spent Saturday in Portland.

Fred Sullivan of Portland spent Sunday in Buxton.

Mrs. Rucker and son spent Sunday with relatives in Washougal, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kelly spent Sunday at the home of Gus Green near Manning.

The Rev. Mr. Everett, Sunday school missionary, who is holding a revival meeting at Manning, preached a very interesting sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. There will be church services at 7:30 o'clock every Sunday night hereafter.

Ed Scofield has returned to his work near Belding.

The S. P. & S. bridge construction crew will begin work on one of their highest bridges soon. The work will take several months.

Frances Fisher entertained a number of her girl friends on her 11th birthday last Wednesday. Those present were Monica and Peggy Pongratz, Evelyn Rinck, Elsie Meyer, Helen Haanman, Wilma Crowther, Doris Whiteside and Rosetta Estep.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roth of Portland visited relatives here recently.

Mrs. Vida Powell visited Mrs. Sylvia Falconer of Banks Thursday. Mrs. Pearl Watson spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Merle Estep, of Hillsboro.

Corla LaSalle of Thatcher is cooking again at the Elwood Lumber company cookhouse. Margaret McCann is helping her.

Mrs. S. H. Stowell has returned from Vernonia, where she spent the last three weeks with her daughter. Anna Nelson and Minnie Ross shopped in Forest Grove Monday.

A large crowd attended the St. Patrick program and social at Manning Monday night. Maude Benefield purchased the quilt sold by the Manning Social club.

County Connecting Road Being Worked

preparations to log off the Schmidt timber, between Scofield and Vernonia, between Scofield and Vernonia. Assistant County Agent W. F. Cyrus was in town last week in the interest of the 4-H club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols of Vernonia visited Mrs. O. H. Stowell last week.

Mabel Nelson is working in Beaverton.

Mrs. E. Rowton of Hillsboro spent Monday with Mrs. Jesse Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher spent Saturday in Portland.

Fred Sullivan of Portland spent Sunday in Buxton.

Mrs. Rucker and son spent Sunday with relatives in Washougal, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kelly spent Sunday at the home of Gus Green near Manning.

The Rev. Mr. Everett, Sunday school missionary, who is holding a revival meeting at Manning, preached a very interesting sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. There will be church services at 7:30 o'clock every Sunday night hereafter.

Ed Scofield has returned to his work near Belding.

The S. P. & S. bridge construction crew will begin work on one of their highest bridges soon. The work will take several months.

Frances Fisher entertained a number of her girl friends on her 11th birthday last Wednesday. Those present were Monica and Peggy Pongratz, Evelyn Rinck, Elsie Meyer, Helen Haanman, Wilma Crowther, Doris Whiteside and Rosetta Estep.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roth of Portland visited relatives here recently.

Mrs. Vida Powell visited Mrs. Sylvia Falconer of Banks Thursday. Mrs. Pearl Watson spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Merle Estep, of Hillsboro.

Corla LaSalle of Thatcher is cooking again at the Elwood Lumber company cookhouse. Margaret McCann is helping her.

Mrs. S. H. Stowell has returned from Vernonia, where she spent the last three weeks with her daughter. Anna Nelson and Minnie Ross shopped in Forest Grove Monday.

A large crowd attended the St. Patrick program and social at Manning Monday night. Maude Benefield purchased the quilt sold by the Manning Social club.

County Connecting Road Being Worked

preparations to log off the Schmidt timber, between Scofield and Vernonia, between Scofield and Vernonia. Assistant County Agent W. F. Cyrus was in town last week in the interest of the 4-H club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols of Vernonia visited Mrs. O. H. Stowell last week.

Mabel Nelson is working in Beaverton.

Mrs. E. Rowton of Hillsboro spent Monday with Mrs. Jesse Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher spent Saturday in Portland.

Fred Sullivan of Portland spent Sunday in Buxton.

Mrs. Rucker and son spent Sunday with relatives in Washougal, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kelly spent Sunday at the home of Gus Green near Manning.

The Rev. Mr. Everett, Sunday school missionary, who is holding a revival meeting at Manning, preached a very interesting sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. There will be church services at 7:30 o'clock every Sunday night hereafter.

Ed Scofield has returned to his work near Belding.

The S. P. & S. bridge construction crew will begin work on one of their highest bridges soon. The work will take several months.

Frances Fisher entertained a number of her girl friends on her 11th birthday last Wednesday. Those present were Monica and Peggy Pongratz, Evelyn Rinck, Elsie Meyer, Helen Haanman, Wilma Crowther, Doris Whiteside and Rosetta Estep.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roth of Portland visited relatives here recently.

Mrs. Vida Powell visited Mrs. Sylvia Falconer of Banks Thursday. Mrs. Pearl Watson spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Merle Estep, of Hillsboro.

Corla LaSalle of Thatcher is cooking again at the Elwood Lumber company cookhouse. Margaret McCann is helping her.

Mrs. S. H. Stowell has returned from Vernonia, where she spent the last three weeks with her daughter. Anna Nelson and Minnie Ross shopped in Forest Grove Monday.

A large crowd attended the St. Patrick program and social at Manning Monday night. Maude Benefield purchased the quilt sold by the Manning Social club.

County Connecting Road Being Worked

preparations to log off the Schmidt timber, between Scofield and Vernonia, between Scofield and Vernonia. Assistant County Agent W. F. Cyrus was in town last week in the interest of the 4-H club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols of Vernonia visited Mrs. O. H. Stowell last week.

Mabel Nelson is working in Beaverton.

Mrs. E. Rowton of Hillsboro spent Monday with Mrs. Jesse Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher spent Saturday in Portland.

Fred Sullivan of Portland spent Sunday in Buxton.

Mrs. Rucker and son spent Sunday with relatives in Washougal, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kelly spent Sunday at the home of Gus Green near Manning.

The Rev. Mr. Everett, Sunday school missionary, who is holding a revival meeting at Manning, preached a very interesting sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. There will be church services at 7:30 o'clock every Sunday night hereafter.

Ed Scofield has returned to his work near Belding.

The S. P. & S. bridge construction crew will begin work on one of their highest bridges soon. The work will take several months.

Frances Fisher entertained a number of her girl friends on her 11th birthday last Wednesday. Those present were Monica and Peggy Pongratz, Evelyn Rinck, Elsie Meyer, Helen Haanman, Wilma Crowther, Doris Whiteside and Rosetta Estep.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roth of Portland visited relatives here recently.

Mrs. Vida Powell visited Mrs. Sylvia Falconer of Banks Thursday. Mrs. Pearl Watson spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Merle Estep, of Hillsboro.

Corla LaSalle of Thatcher is cooking again at the Elwood Lumber company cookhouse. Margaret McCann is helping her.

Mrs. S. H. Stowell has returned from Vernonia, where she spent the last three weeks with her daughter. Anna Nelson and Minnie Ross shopped in Forest Grove Monday.

A large crowd attended the St. Patrick program and social at Manning Monday night. Maude Benefield purchased the quilt sold by the Manning Social club.

County Connecting Road Being Worked

preparations to log off the Schmidt timber, between Scofield and Vernonia, between Scofield and Vernonia. Assistant County Agent W. F. Cyrus was in town last week in the interest of the 4-H club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols of Vernonia visited Mrs. O. H. Stowell last week.

Mabel Nelson is working in Beaverton.

Mrs. E. Rowton of Hillsboro spent Monday with Mrs. Jesse Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher spent Saturday in Portland.

Fred Sullivan of Portland spent Sunday in Buxton.

Mrs. Rucker and son spent Sunday with relatives in Washougal, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kelly spent Sunday at the home of Gus Green near Manning.

The Rev. Mr. Everett, Sunday school missionary, who is holding a revival meeting at Manning, preached a very interesting sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. There will be church services at 7:30 o'clock every Sunday night hereafter.

Ed Scofield has returned to his work near Belding.

The S. P. & S. bridge construction crew will begin work on one of their highest bridges soon. The work will take several months.

Frances Fisher entertained a number of her girl friends on her 11th birthday last Wednesday. Those present were Monica and Peggy Pongratz, Evelyn Rinck, Elsie Meyer, Helen Haanman, Wilma Crowther, Doris Whiteside and Rosetta Estep.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roth of Portland visited relatives here recently.

Mrs. Vida Powell visited Mrs. Sylvia Falconer of Banks Thursday. Mrs. Pearl Watson spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Merle Estep, of Hillsboro.

Corla LaSalle of Thatcher is cooking again at the Elwood Lumber company cookhouse. Margaret McCann is helping her.

Mrs. S. H. Stowell has returned from Vernonia, where she spent the last three weeks with her daughter. Anna Nelson and Minnie Ross shopped in Forest Grove Monday.

A large crowd attended the St. Patrick program and social at Manning Monday night. Maude Benefield purchased the quilt sold by the Manning Social club.

County Connecting Road Being Worked

preparations to log off the Schmidt timber, between Scofield and Vernonia, between Scofield and Vernonia. Assistant County Agent W. F. Cyrus was in town last week in the interest of the 4-H club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols of Vernonia visited Mrs. O. H. Stowell last week.

Mabel Nelson is working in Beaverton.

Mrs. E. Rowton of Hillsboro spent Monday with Mrs. Jesse Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher spent Saturday in Portland.

Fred Sullivan of Portland spent Sunday in Buxton.

Mrs. Rucker and son spent Sunday with relatives in Washougal, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kelly spent Sunday at the home of Gus Green near Manning.

The Rev. Mr. Everett, Sunday school missionary, who is holding a revival meeting at Manning, preached a very interesting sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. There will be church services at 7:30 o'clock every Sunday night hereafter.

Ed Scofield has returned to his work near Belding.

The S. P. & S. bridge construction crew will begin work on one of their highest bridges soon. The work will take several months.

Frances Fisher entertained a number of her girl friends on her 11th birthday last Wednesday. Those present were Monica and Peggy Pongratz, Evelyn Rinck, Elsie Meyer, Helen Haanman, Wilma Crowther, Doris Whiteside and Rosetta Estep.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roth of Portland visited relatives here recently.

Mrs. Vida Powell visited Mrs. Sylvia Falconer of Banks Thursday. Mrs. Pearl Watson spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Merle Estep, of Hillsboro.

Corla LaSalle of Thatcher is cooking again at the Elwood Lumber company cookhouse. Margaret McCann is helping her.

Mrs. S. H. Stowell has returned from Vernonia, where she spent the last three weeks with her daughter. Anna Nelson and Minnie Ross shopped in Forest Grove Monday.

A large crowd attended the St. Patrick program and social at Manning Monday night. Maude Benefield purchased the quilt sold by the Manning Social club.

County Connecting Road Being Worked

preparations to log off the Schmidt timber, between Scofield and Vernonia, between Scofield and Vernonia. Assistant County Agent W. F. Cyrus was in town last week in the interest of the 4-H club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols of Vernonia visited Mrs. O. H. Stowell last week.

Mabel Nelson is working in Beaverton.

Mrs. E. Rowton of Hillsboro spent Monday with Mrs. Jesse Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher spent Saturday in Portland.

Fred Sullivan of Portland spent Sunday in Buxton.

Mrs. Rucker and son spent Sunday with relatives in Washougal, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kelly spent Sunday at the home of Gus Green near Manning.

The Rev. Mr. Everett, Sunday school missionary, who is holding a revival meeting at Manning, preached a very interesting sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. There will be church services at 7:30 o'clock every Sunday night hereafter.

Ed Scofield has returned to his work near Belding.

The S. P. & S. bridge construction crew will begin work on one of their highest bridges soon. The work will take several months.

Frances Fisher entertained a number of her girl friends on her 11th birthday last Wednesday. Those present were Monica and Peggy Pongratz, Evelyn Rinck, Elsie Meyer, Helen Haanman, Wilma Crowther, Doris Whiteside and Rosetta Estep.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roth of Portland visited relatives here recently.

Mrs. Vida Powell visited Mrs. Sylvia Falconer of Banks Thursday. Mrs. Pearl Watson spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Merle Estep, of Hillsboro.

Corla LaSalle of Thatcher is cooking again at the Elwood Lumber company cookhouse. Margaret McCann is helping her.

Mrs. S. H. Stowell has returned from Vernonia, where she spent the last three weeks with her daughter. Anna Nelson and Minnie Ross shopped in Forest Grove Monday.

A large crowd attended the St. Patrick program and social at Manning Monday night. Maude Benefield purchased the quilt sold by the Manning Social club.

County Connecting Road Being Worked

preparations to log off the Schmidt timber, between Scofield and Vernonia, between Scofield and Vernonia. Assistant County Agent W. F. Cyrus was in town last week in the interest of the 4-H club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols of Vernonia visited Mrs. O. H. Stowell last week.

Mabel Nelson is working in Beaverton.

Mrs. E. Rowton of Hillsboro spent Monday with Mrs. Jesse Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher spent Saturday in Portland.

Fred Sullivan of Portland spent Sunday in Buxton.

Mrs. Rucker and son spent Sunday with relatives in Washougal, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kelly spent Sunday at the home of Gus Green near Manning.

The Rev. Mr. Everett, Sunday school missionary, who is holding a revival meeting at Manning, preached a very interesting sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. There will be church services at 7:30 o'clock every Sunday night hereafter.

Ed Scofield has returned to his work near Belding.

The S. P. & S. bridge construction crew will begin work on one of their highest bridges soon. The work will take several months.

Frances Fisher entertained a number of her girl friends on her 11th birthday last Wednesday. Those present were Monica and Peggy Pongratz, Evelyn Rinck, Elsie Meyer, Helen Haanman, Wilma Crowther, Doris Whiteside and Rosetta Estep.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roth of Portland visited relatives here recently.

Mrs. Vida Powell visited Mrs. Sylvia Falconer of Banks Thursday. Mrs. Pearl Watson spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Merle Estep, of Hillsboro.

Corla LaSalle of Thatcher is cooking again at the Elwood Lumber company cookhouse. Margaret McCann is helping her.

Mrs. S. H. Stowell has returned from Vernonia, where she spent the last three weeks with her daughter. Anna Nelson and Minnie Ross shopped in Forest Grove Monday.

A large crowd attended the St. Patrick program and social at Manning Monday night. Maude Benefield purchased the quilt sold by the Manning Social club.

County Connecting Road Being Worked

preparations to log off the Schmidt timber, between Scofield and Vernonia, between Scofield and Vernonia. Assistant County Agent W. F. Cyrus was in town last week in the interest of the 4-H club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols of Vernonia visited Mrs. O. H. Stowell last week.

Mabel Nelson is working in Beaverton.

Mrs. E. Rowton of Hillsboro spent Monday with Mrs. Jesse Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher spent Saturday in Portland.

Fred Sullivan of Portland spent Sunday in Buxton.

Mrs. Rucker and son spent Sunday with relatives in Washougal, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kelly spent Sunday at the home of Gus Green near Manning.

The Rev. Mr. Everett, Sunday school missionary, who is holding a revival meeting at Manning, preached a very interesting sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. There will be church services at 7:30 o'clock every Sunday night hereafter.

Ed Scofield has returned to his work near Belding.

The S. P. & S. bridge construction crew will begin work on one of their highest bridges soon. The work will take several months.

Frances Fisher entertained a number of her girl friends on her 11th birthday last Wednesday. Those present were Monica and Peggy Pongratz, Evelyn Rinck, Elsie Meyer, Helen Haanman, Wilma Crowther, Doris Whiteside and Rosetta Estep.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roth of Portland visited relatives here recently.

Mrs. Vida Powell visited Mrs. Sylvia Falconer of Banks Thursday. Mrs. Pearl Watson spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Merle Estep, of Hillsboro.

Corla LaSalle of Thatcher is cooking again at the Elwood Lumber company cookhouse. Margaret McCann is helping her.

Mrs. S. H. Stowell has returned from Vernonia, where she spent the last three weeks with her daughter. Anna Nelson and Minnie Ross shopped in Forest Grove Monday.

A large crowd attended the St. Patrick program and social at Manning Monday night. Maude Benefield purchased the quilt sold by the Manning Social club.

County Connecting Road Being Worked

preparations to log off the Schmidt timber, between Scofield and Vernonia, between Scofield and Vernonia. Assistant County Agent W. F. Cyrus was in town last week in the interest of the 4-H club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols of Vernonia visited Mrs. O. H. Stowell last week.

Mabel Nelson is working in Beaverton.

Mrs. E. Rowton of Hillsboro spent Monday with Mrs. Jesse Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher spent Saturday in Portland.

Fred Sullivan of Portland spent Sunday in Buxton.

Mrs. Rucker and son spent Sunday with relatives in Washougal, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kelly spent Sunday at the home of Gus Green near Manning.

The Rev. Mr. Everett, Sunday school missionary, who is holding a revival meeting at Manning, preached a very interesting sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. There will be church services at 7:30 o'clock every Sunday night hereafter.

Ed Scofield has returned to his work near Belding.

The S. P. & S. bridge construction crew will begin work on one of their highest bridges soon. The work will take several months.

Frances Fisher entertained a number of her girl friends on her 11th birthday last Wednesday. Those present were Monica and Peggy Pongratz, Evelyn Rinck, Elsie Meyer, Helen Haanman, Wilma Crowther, Doris Whiteside and Rosetta Estep.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roth of Portland visited relatives here recently.

Mrs. Vida Powell visited Mrs. Sylvia Falconer of Banks Thursday. Mrs. Pearl Watson spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Merle Estep, of Hillsboro.

Corla LaSalle of Thatcher is cooking again at the Elwood Lumber company cookhouse. Margaret McCann is helping her.

Mrs. S. H. Stowell has returned from Vernonia, where she spent the last three weeks with her daughter. Anna Nelson and Minnie Ross shopped in Forest Grove Monday.

A large crowd attended the St. Patrick program and social at Manning Monday night. Maude Benefield purchased the quilt sold by the Manning Social club.

County Connecting Road Being Worked

preparations to log off the Schmidt timber, between Scofield and Vernonia, between Scofield and Vernonia. Assistant County Agent W. F. Cyrus was in town last week in the interest of the 4-H club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols of Vernonia visited Mrs. O. H. Stowell last week.

Mabel Nelson is working in Beaverton.

Mrs. E. Rowton of Hillsboro spent Monday with Mrs. Jesse Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher spent Saturday in Portland.

Fred Sullivan of Portland spent Sunday in Buxton.

Mrs. Rucker and son spent Sunday with relatives in Washougal, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kelly spent Sunday at the home of Gus Green near Manning.

The Rev. Mr. Everett, Sunday school missionary, who is holding a revival meeting at Manning, preached a very interesting sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. There will be church services at 7:30 o'clock every Sunday night hereafter.

Ed Scofield has returned to his work near Belding.

The S. P. & S. bridge construction crew will begin work on one of their highest bridges soon. The work will take several months.

Frances Fisher entertained a number of her girl friends on her 11th birthday last Wednesday. Those present were Monica and Peggy Pongratz, Evelyn Rinck, Elsie Meyer, Helen Haanman, Wilma Crowther, Doris Whiteside and Rosetta Estep.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roth of Portland visited relatives here recently.

Mrs. Vida Powell visited Mrs. Sylvia Falconer of Banks Thursday. Mrs. Pearl Watson spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Merle Estep, of Hillsboro.

Corla LaSalle of Thatcher is cooking again at the Elwood Lumber company cookhouse. Margaret McCann is helping her.

Mrs. S. H. Stowell has returned from Vernonia, where she spent the last three weeks with her daughter. Anna Nelson and Minnie Ross shopped in Forest Grove Monday.

A large crowd attended the St. Patrick program and social at Manning Monday night. Maude Benefield purchased the quilt sold by the Manning Social club.

County Connecting Road Being Worked

preparations to log off the Schmidt timber, between Scofield and Vernonia, between Scofield and Vernonia. Assistant County Agent W. F. Cyrus was in town last week in the interest of the 4-H club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols of Vernonia visited Mrs. O. H. Stowell last week.

Mabel Nelson is working in Beaverton.

Mrs. E. Rowton of Hillsboro spent Monday with Mrs. Jesse Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher spent Saturday in Portland.

Fred Sullivan of Portland spent Sunday in Buxton.

Mrs. Rucker and son spent Sunday with relatives in Washougal, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kelly spent Sunday at the home of Gus Green near Manning.

The Rev. Mr. Everett, Sunday school missionary, who is holding a revival meeting at Manning, preached a very interesting sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. There will be church services at 7:30 o'clock every Sunday night hereafter.

Ed Scofield has returned to his work near Belding.

The S. P. & S. bridge construction crew will begin work on one of their highest bridges soon. The work will take several months.

Frances Fisher entertained a number of her girl friends on her 11th birthday last Wednesday. Those present were Monica and Peggy Pongratz, Evelyn Rinck, Elsie Meyer, Helen Haanman, Wilma Crowther, Doris Whiteside and Rosetta Estep.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roth of Portland visited relatives here recently.

Mrs. Vida Powell visited Mrs. Sylvia Falconer of Banks Thursday. Mrs. Pearl Watson spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Merle Estep, of Hillsboro.

Corla LaSalle of Thatcher is cooking again at the Elwood Lumber company cookhouse. Margaret McCann is helping her.

Mrs. S. H. Stowell has returned from Vernonia, where she spent the last three weeks with her daughter. Anna Nelson and Minnie Ross shopped in Forest Grove Monday.

A large crowd attended the St. Patrick program and social at Manning Monday night. Maude Benefield purchased the quilt sold by the Manning Social club.

County Connecting Road Being Worked

preparations to log off the Schmidt timber, between Scofield