Nose Count In District Shows Loss And Gain

The complete Beaverton population, including St. Mary's School for Boys, which had 275, is 1134, as against 715 in 1920, according to a preliminary announcement from Forest Grove, Oregon City, supervisor of the census for this district. East Beaverton precinct had a total of 422, as compared with 202 in 1920. Eleven farms were enumerated in this area. A gain was made in the Cedar Mills precinct, where the count stood at 760 to 686 in 1920, with 159 farms in the area. A loss was shown at Laurel, where the 1920 count of 653 dropped to 650. Farms enumerated in the Laurel precinct totaled 152.

The population of Forest Grove election precinct No. 15, northwest of Forest Grove, is shown as 456, as compared with 445 in 1920. Four farms were enumerated. That of Mountain, No. 32, was enumerated as 312, as compared with 199 in 1920. There were 37 farms shown. The population of Hillsboro city ward No. 3, election precinct No. 25, is shown as 906. There are four farms. In Leisy election precinct, No. 28, 581 persons were enumerated, with 96 farms. These areas were shown separately in 1920.

H. T. Bruce, who took the census for Reedville and Grabel precincts, reports the following for those precincts: Reedville, 812, and 175 farms, and Grabel, 845, and 149 farms. Manning precinct shows an increase of 13 from 1920, when it was 300. Sixty-nine farms were enumerated in the area. Schools has 601, as compared with 514 in 1920, and the farm enumerations totaled 127. Verhoort had a loss in population from 456 in 1920 to 414. Farms enumerated totaled 69.

Special Kitchen Layout For Cooking Demonstrations And A Definite Color Scheme Will Interest Women Here

Something to eat that is new and different and yet economical is a problem that puzzles almost every homemaker. At the Hillsboro Argus cooking matinees to be held May 28 and 29, from 2 to 3:30 p. m., at the Venetian theater, on Main street, you will be given the answer to this problem. Elizabeth Reger, home service expert of the Portland Gas and Coke company, will be featured in a series of demonstrations covering various new ways to prepare the every-day dishes that lends to them an entirely new and appetizing interest. She will feature preparation of food by modern methods cooking with gas, demonstrating the saving of time, money, work and worry. She will be assisted by Elizabeth Cuthbert, home economics instructor of the girls' polytechnic school of Portland. Elizabeth Reger promises a special kitchen layout for her demonstrations, with a definite color scheme that is her favorite. The kitchen at the matinees will be placed on the stage so that every one will be able to see everything that goes on. The color scheme of the kitchen is to be in green and white and to be carried out in each detail. Most of the mixing bowls are green glass and the orange reamer is also green glass. Many

Coos Bay Man Talks Monday On Candidacy

Senator Hall Sees State As Large Business.

Favors Road To Sea

Beaverton Chamber Members To Meet With Local Group Monday Night.
Oregon is a business institution which needs a business man at the head of it, according to Senator Charles Hall of Marshfield, candidate for the republican nomination for governor, who talked at the forum luncheon Monday noon of the Hillsboro Chamber of Commerce. J. M. Pearson was chairman. The internal development of Oregon in the past 15 years has been remarkable, in the opinion of the speaker, who told of the strides made in carrying out the state's road program. Senator Hall said that he favored a short cut road from Portland to the sea. The extension of the road program is good business in that it opens up new wealth and opportunities, averred the senator. Nothing, in the opinion of the speaker, has done so much for the prosperity and happiness of Oregonians as has the highway system.

All unappropriated power sites in the state should be taken over by the state, declared the Coos Bay candidate in his discussion of the power question. The speaker declared that the governor is the state's hydro-electric commissioner and has authority to carry out a program for development.

Amateurs Will Vie In Contest Over Radio

The Hillsboro Chamber of Commerce has again been requested by the Oregonian radio service KGW to sponsor a contest conducted by the Atwater Kent foundation of Philadelphia to determine the best amateur singers, one boy and one girl between the ages of 18 and 25 years, who aspire to a musical career.

The contest is open to all amateur singers, including those who took part in the local audition last year. The winners will be eligible to sing in a state audition and if again successful they will advance to a district or semi-final audition to be held in San Francisco and broadcast over a Pacific coast radio network next fall. The winners in this contest would then be sent to New York to compete in the national elimination, which is broadcast by the National Broadcasting company.

Prizes in the national contest aggregate $25,000 in cash, plus extensive musical scholarships. The local contest will take place the last week in May, the exact date and place to be announced later.

Mrs. Vesey Gardner has again been named by the local chamber of commerce to act as chairman for the Hillsboro contest and asks that singers desiring to enter the local contest notify her at once.

"In Dreamland" To Be Shown At May Fete Friday

A queen's procession, a Maypole dance and songs, pantomime and stunts "In Dreamland" will make the May fete to be held by the children of the Hillsboro schools on the David Hill school grounds at 1:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. The program is being arranged by Miss Maxine Moore, with Miss Helen Pettilla in charge of the Maypole dance.

A spring song by the chorus is the opening number, which is followed by a procession of 18 girls carrying hoops and baskets. Through an arch formed by the hoops Queen Colleen McDowell, with her coach and her attendants, passes to her throne, where a herald helps her to alight.

Following the Maypole dance a woodland scene, "In Dreamland," is planned, with the Trelle Cief club singing an atmospheric song, "Shadows Over the Sea," and Claire Pedder, who calls the children in pantomime to Dreamland. A bicycle drill, in which the boys are dressed as jockeys, and a tumbling act, in which they simulate clowns, are two of the outstanding numbers. At the close of the acts the Moonlady, portrayed by Helen Emrick, comes down the staircase to be met by the Dream Peddler. The other characters cluster around them for the final chorus.

Lois Reed is the accompanist. She will be assisted by Marjorie Sewell, Robert Tongue and Elwood Coslett, violinists.

India Unrest Described At Rotary Meet

The nationalist movement in India was interestingly described before the Rotary club Thursday by the Rev. R. B. Porter, who was connected with the missionary work of the Methodist church in India for a number of years.

The foundation of the movement lays in three factors, according to Mr. Porter, which are a new national conscience, awakening economic sense and religion. The movement, he said, is pledged to non-violence.

Sentence Two To Long Time Salem Prison

Two penitentiary terms were meted out by Judge George R. Bagley in circuit court the last of the week, both following trials by juries which found them guilty of statutory offenses. ## Club Workers Given Honors For The Work

Opportunity Of Boys And Girls Cited By Speaker.

Presentations Made

List Of Prize Winners At Achievement Day Event Is Announced.

The work of boys' and girls' club members in Hillsboro was lauded at the achievement day program at the junior high school auditorium Friday afternoon. The program and exhibition was largely attended by parents and other interested persons.

Miss Helen Cowgill, state club leader from Oregon State college, said that club work gives the boys and girls of the entire United States an opportunity to make their own best better with their own hands.

She urged parents to give their children time to do the work and to give them materials and encouragement by parents and business people which had resulted in such fine club work here.

C. H. Nosler, superintendent of the grade schools, extended a welcome to the visitors and this was followed by club songs and yearbook health club exhibitions were given by the clubs led by Miss Helmi Penttila and Miss Hazel Blades. Demonstrations in how to make biscuits in table setting was given by Lucille Matterson and Evelyn Causey.

Presentations of awards to the winners in Well's sewing contest was made by Jake Weil, who praised the handwork of the girls and pledged the Well's Department store to further support of club work in every possible way.

In presenting the Argus summer session scholarship to Miss Hazel Blades, winner in canning at the county fair, Verne McKinney declared that the county fair was worth while for the encouragement given to boys and girls if nothing else.

Ballot Battle Looms; Office Seekers Ready

Election Interest Seems To Be At Low Ebb.

Name Local Officers

Coroner Must Be Selected; H. L. Corbett Seems To Have County Lead.

Just one week remains in the 1930 primary election battle and in a few days there will be quite a number of disappointed office seekers. Places to be filled locally are at a minimum, but due to their importance more interest should be aroused than there seems to be at present.

The office of county judge would be occupied by three persons, one being the present incumbent, E. J. Ward, whose home before taking office six years ago was in Gaston. Frank W. Livermore of Huber, present commissioner, seems to be leading in the pre-election dope, with George W. Lippert of Aloha coming in third. Livermore has served as commissioner eight years and was elected without any opposition on his second term.

The commissioner's job to be left vacant by Mr. Livermore is a much sought after post, there being five candidates. In order of filing they are as follows: N. P. Johnson of near Beaverton, John Nyberg of Tualatin, H. D. Kerkman of near North Plains, O. M. Taylor of Reedville and John Jackson of near Hillsboro. This race seems to be pretty much of a toss-up, with two or three being in the running.

Four men stand the three republican nominations for state representative and so one is going to be disappointed. The candidates are A. M. Jansson of Reedville, R. Frank Peters and L. E. Wilkes of Hillsboro and Max W. Thomsen of Forest Grove. Peters and Wilkes served in the last session, but there seems to be some feeling for a geographical distribution, which would not let in two men from Hillsboro.

Not a democrat got the race in time to get his name on the primary ballot. D. G. Lilly of near Forest Grove asks the democrats to write in his name for county judge and Robert E. Burns, Forest Grove mortician, has asked his fellow democrats to write in his name for county coroner.

Fred J. Sewell of Hillsboro, county coroner, asks the republicans to write in his name on the ballot. There was quite a mixup over this office and Mr. Sewell understood that his office was not before the electorate and he has been appointed to fill the office vacated by Glenn F. Bell when he left the county. The law states specifically that in case of a vacancy in the office of coroner the office is to be filled at the next regular election.

VITAMIN-A BUTTER-NATURE'S OWN FOOD

VITAMIN-D

Butterfat is unique among the food fats in that it contains, in addition to heat and energy, vitamin A, which promotes growth and health, and builds resistance to pulmonary infection, and vitamin D, which prevents rickets and promotes bone development—both indispensable to the growth and best health of the body. These vitamins are not present in other food fats in appreciable quantities. Butterfat is the most practical, economical and palatable year-round food source of these vitamins.
