Other officers elected were: Curtis Tigrard, overseer; Mrs. F. Isaac, lecturer; Mrs. Grace Isaac, secretary; C. Christensen, treasurer; Flora C. Leedy, chaplain; Mr. Pointer, steward; H. Tideman, gatekeeper; Mrs. Smith, Ceres; Bernice Daniels, Flora; Miss Margaret Summers, Pomona; Metzentine, assistant steward, and Dorothy Tigrard, lady assistant steward. Bazaar, Dinner Held Annual bazaar and dinner of the Ladies Aid society of the Evangelical church were held at the Grange hall Friday evening. The bazaar opened in the afternoon at 2 o'clock with displays of fancy work, shawls, candy and other goods. Members of the society held a potluck dinner with each member giving something to another designated member. The dinner, served in the evening, was the direction of Mrs. H. W. McDonald, was attended by approximately 150 persons. A free program after the dinner was given in the grange auditorium.

Consider Budget Monday
Voters of school district 23 will be called upon Monday evening to decide whether the budget prepared for next year will be adopted or whether there will be some reductions. Amount to be raised by district tax is $7,229 which is about $6,000 less than last year, due to the payments of school bonds and interest having been completed. Personal service heads the list of proposed expenditures with $9,510. Total estimated expenditures is set for $13,128.33.

Relief Plans Made
Advisory group of the Tigrard relief committee discussed plans Saturday night for dispensing relief this year and to plan ways of obtaining money to carry on the work. Reports of the amount of county road work that will help the unemployed in this district were made, but the prospects were not very bright. Ten members of the district are now engaged in road work, but will soon be finished upon completion of the road job on the highway just south of here. There are approximately 100 families in this district who need help. P. E. Lewis, member of last year's committee, stressed the idea of having each organization be responsible for a number of families, thus there will be close contact. The advisory group will act as a clearing house for the different organizations in the community. The high school student body will put on a program to help the relief work as they share the big undertaking. K. S. Tonta, P. E. Lewis and Curtis Tigrard are in charge of getting a community program for early in December. The second meeting of the advisory committee meetings. Organizations present were Rebekahs, Odd Fellows, Methodist church, Evangelical church, Grange, Lions club.

Business Needs Gas

Just as our motor car needs more gas when we encounter rough roads, so does business require more stimulation to pull itself through the mire of depression.

And this presents to advertising its biggest opportunity . . . for it is the special function of advertising to stimulate new wants and desires and to inspire buying.—Gilbert T. Hodges
