

Business on Uphill Grade Around Aloha

ALOHA—Activities are numerous around Aloha these days. With the Huntington building under construction, the renovating of the old feed store in preparation for the Imray & Sons store and the addition to the Aloha bakery, it looks like the depression is over in this community. Several new families have moved in, some buying property and others renting. Ten new pupils have enrolled in the school and it is reported that another new business will soon start in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Schmidt spent Sunday at the George Lewellen home at Aloha.

Imray Store to Open
J. B. Imray & Sons expect to open their feed and seed store at Aloha some time this week. The warehouse rooms are being whitewashed and the building is being put in shape. The finishing touches to the office by painting it in an attractive green.

Page Has Fire Loss
Frank Page lost his chicken house and several dozen chickens by fire March 7. The fire broke out about midnight and it is supposed to have started from defective wiring. He also lost some garden tools which were stored in the chicken house. The building was partly insured.

Mrs. George Fish of Portland spent several days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matt King. Miss Bertha Scott is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Milan Pizer.

Archie Nault has returned from a business trip to Seattle.

Mrs. M. Stonebraker of Waldport visited Mr. and Mrs. Ted Nault March 7.

Mrs. C. R. Riley is visiting friends and relatives in Eugene.

Several Aloha-Huber students took part in the declamation semi-final contest at Beaverton high today.

Aloha-Huber Parent-Teacher association met March 13. An interesting program was given.

E. C. McElroy of the S. P. & S. railroad is enjoying his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Kinnaman and son, Charles, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ott of Forest Grove visited at the Joe Buttz home at Linnton Sunday.

Live at Huber
Mr. and Mrs. Willard Erickson, who were married last week, are now living at Huber. Mrs. Erickson was formerly Miss Martha Baucom.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt King were Sunday guests of Mrs. George Fish in Portland. In the afternoon they went to the Charles Ott home near Vancouver.

Home for Vacation
Harold LeRoy Price, who has been attending the University of Oregon, is home during the spring vacation.

Birthday Celebrated
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Edkins entertained a party of young people from Portland Monday evening. The party was in honor of the birthday of Eugene Oleen of Portland.

Howard Ewer and family started around the Mt. Hood loop Sunday, but had to turn back on account of snow.

Dance Popular
A large crowd attended the old time dance at the Grange hall Saturday night.

Mrs. John Coward has moved into her home on Union avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. Bruce of Dallas spent March 7 at the Joe Bush home.

Benefit Play Set Helvetia For March 24

HELVETIA—Four-act play "Haw versus Hum" will be presented March 24 at the Helvetia hall by the Boy Scouts Helvetia band will play the opening number at 8:15 p. m. Among the features on the program will be a talk on Alaska by Rev. Henry Young. Donations for lunch will be appreciated. Proceeds will be used to purchase material to finish the Boy Scouts cabin on Jackson creek.

Work at School
CWA crew started work at the school Monday morning. Members of the school board, the teacher and a few others raised the school and the men are digging a basement. The board will furnish a horse to haul out the dirt as the work must be finished by May 1. School was closed Monday while the building was being raised, but will continue as usual while the basement is being built.

Hold Meetings
Helvetia crew well represented at the Evangelical meeting at Mason Hill Sunday night. The house was crowded. Meetings will continue until Sunday, at 8 p. m. except Saturday.

Many fishermen from this vicinity have returned with a big catch of smelt from the Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McIntyre and daughter, Joy, of Leisville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davidson Sunday. Other guests were Mrs. Lizzie Ritter, Mrs. Anna Davidson and sons Lewis and James P.

E. Steiner, who was hurt while working for Elmer Guerber in the dairy barn, is improving.

Irene Ritter Hurt
Irene Ritter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ritter, was badly bruised Sunday when she fell from a hay loft in their barn.

Pete Jossy Injured
Pete Jossy is suffering from fractured ribs sustained when rock fell on him, while working at Jackson quarry.

Mr. and Mrs. L. McCuen and family from Longview, Wash., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Tschabold. Chris Christensen spent the week-end at Aberdeen, Wash., visiting his brother, George Christensen.

Girl Scout troop went hiking Sunday in the woods by Jackson Falls. Scout leader and committee have received an invitation to attend the Girl Scout conference at Canby, April 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Connell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gueber and family were guests at the L. E. Wilkes home in Hillsboro Sunday. The party was in honor of the birthday of Dr. Lewis Wilkes, of La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. John Puhols went to Waldport on a fishing trip over the week-end.

Native Daughter of County Dies Monday

Funeral services for Mrs. Ida Elizabeth Finigan, 53, who died at her Laurel home Monday, were conducted Wednesday at 2 p. m. from the Mt. Olive church. Laurel interment was at the Mt. Olive cemetery. Rev. Elery Parrish of Newberg officiated.

Mrs. Finigan was born at Helvetia September 4, 1880, and at the age of 9 moved with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wolschlegel, to a farm south of Scholls on Chehalis Mountain. She was married to L. T. Finigan November 9, 1898, and had continuously resided in the Buck Heaven district.

Deceased is survived by the widower and four daughters: Mrs. Tom Shuck, Hillsboro; Mrs. Otto Ornduff, Chehalis Mountain; Mrs. Oscar Hagg, Redview, and Miss Wanda Finigan at home. Her mother, Mrs. Clara Wolschlegel, and the following brothers and sisters also survive: Mrs. L. I. Hull, Newberg; W. F. E. C. Carl and Fred Wolschlegel, all of Chehalis Mountain; John Wolschlegel, Portland, and Harry Wolschlegel.

Fortieth Year for Church Celebrated

LAUREL RIDGE—Middleton Baptist church celebrated its fortieth anniversary with a home-coming Sunday. Many former members and friends were present. Rev. Tommie of Newberg was the speaker. Members of the Sunday school gave a play, "The Good Samaritan." A basket dinner was served at the home of Mrs. Mary Jewett at noon.

Mrs. Eunice Roesser has returned to her home in Detroit after visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Peters. She also visited with her sister, Mrs. Pluke of Metzger.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Roberts and Harley Stephens visited friends in Sherwood last week.

New Family Here
Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Nystrom and family visited Mr. and Mrs. George Austin near Newberg. The Austin family moved from Salt Lake City, Utah, last week to the second oldest farm in the Willamette valley. The house was built of hand-hewn lumber in 1894 by Mr. Austin's grandfather.

Have Birthday Party
Mrs. Edy was hostess at a birthday party March 8. The honored people were Mr. Edy and Scott Haynes.

Mrs. Grace Jack and sons of Tigar visited at the John Strickler home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Aebischer and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hester Sunday in Portland.

Harley Stephens injured his arm while playing on a horizontal bar last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aebischer and Danny spent Sunday afternoon at the Robert Pomeroy home at Kinross.

The Johnson brothers are building a chicken house for W. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aebischer and son, Danny, and Arthur attended the dedication of the new league annex and bell at the Scholls church Sunday.

Escapes Cold
Mrs. Jake Weber has returned to her home here after a few weeks' stay with relatives and friends in Illinois. The weather was so cold and disagreeable that Mrs. Weber did not stay for the re-opening of the world fair in Chicago as she had planned.

W. E. Nelson spent Thursday at the Clarence Nelson home at Mountain Home.

Dale Semple has employment in grain elevator at Vancouver, Wash.

Dorothy Cappon is out of school with influenza.

Mrs. A. Stephens is at the home of her sister, Miss Grace

Benefit Play Set Helvetia For March 24

HELVETIA—Four-act play "Haw versus Hum" will be presented March 24 at the Helvetia hall by the Boy Scouts Helvetia band will play the opening number at 8:15 p. m. Among the features on the program will be a talk on Alaska by Rev. Henry Young. Donations for lunch will be appreciated. Proceeds will be used to purchase material to finish the Boy Scouts cabin on Jackson creek.

Work at School
CWA crew started work at the school Monday morning. Members of the school board, the teacher and a few others raised the school and the men are digging a basement. The board will furnish a horse to haul out the dirt as the work must be finished by May 1. School was closed Monday while the building was being raised, but will continue as usual while the basement is being built.

Hold Meetings
Helvetia crew well represented at the Evangelical meeting at Mason Hill Sunday night. The house was crowded. Meetings will continue until Sunday, at 8 p. m. except Saturday.

Many fishermen from this vicinity have returned with a big catch of smelt from the Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McIntyre and daughter, Joy, of Leisville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davidson Sunday. Other guests were Mrs. Lizzie Ritter, Mrs. Anna Davidson and sons Lewis and James P.

E. Steiner, who was hurt while working for Elmer Guerber in the dairy barn, is improving.

Irene Ritter Hurt
Irene Ritter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ritter, was badly bruised Sunday when she fell from a hay loft in their barn.

Pete Jossy Injured
Pete Jossy is suffering from fractured ribs sustained when rock fell on him, while working at Jackson quarry.

Mr. and Mrs. L. McCuen and family from Longview, Wash., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Tschabold. Chris Christensen spent the week-end at Aberdeen, Wash., visiting his brother, George Christensen.

Girl Scout troop went hiking Sunday in the woods by Jackson Falls. Scout leader and committee have received an invitation to attend the Girl Scout conference at Canby, April 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Connell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gueber and family were guests at the L. E. Wilkes home in Hillsboro Sunday. The party was in honor of the birthday of Dr. Lewis Wilkes, of La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. John Puhols went to Waldport on a fishing trip over the week-end.

Benefit Play Set Helvetia For March 24

HELVETIA—Four-act play "Haw versus Hum" will be presented March 24 at the Helvetia hall by the Boy Scouts Helvetia band will play the opening number at 8:15 p. m. Among the features on the program will be a talk on Alaska by Rev. Henry Young. Donations for lunch will be appreciated. Proceeds will be used to purchase material to finish the Boy Scouts cabin on Jackson creek.

Work at School
CWA crew started work at the school Monday morning. Members of the school board, the teacher and a few others raised the school and the men are digging a basement. The board will furnish a horse to haul out the dirt as the work must be finished by May 1. School was closed Monday while the building was being raised, but will continue as usual while the basement is being built.

Hold Meetings
Helvetia crew well represented at the Evangelical meeting at Mason Hill Sunday night. The house was crowded. Meetings will continue until Sunday, at 8 p. m. except Saturday.

Many fishermen from this vicinity have returned with a big catch of smelt from the Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McIntyre and daughter, Joy, of Leisville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davidson Sunday. Other guests were Mrs. Lizzie Ritter, Mrs. Anna Davidson and sons Lewis and James P.

E. Steiner, who was hurt while working for Elmer Guerber in the dairy barn, is improving.

Irene Ritter Hurt
Irene Ritter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ritter, was badly bruised Sunday when she fell from a hay loft in their barn.

Pete Jossy Injured
Pete Jossy is suffering from fractured ribs sustained when rock fell on him, while working at Jackson quarry.

Mr. and Mrs. L. McCuen and family from Longview, Wash., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Tschabold. Chris Christensen spent the week-end at Aberdeen, Wash., visiting his brother, George Christensen.

Girl Scout troop went hiking Sunday in the woods by Jackson Falls. Scout leader and committee have received an invitation to attend the Girl Scout conference at Canby, April 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Connell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gueber and family were guests at the L. E. Wilkes home in Hillsboro Sunday. The party was in honor of the birthday of Dr. Lewis Wilkes, of La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. John Puhols went to Waldport on a fishing trip over the week-end.

Benefit Play Set Helvetia For March 24

HELVETIA—Four-act play "Haw versus Hum" will be presented March 24 at the Helvetia hall by the Boy Scouts Helvetia band will play the opening number at 8:15 p. m. Among the features on the program will be a talk on Alaska by Rev. Henry Young. Donations for lunch will be appreciated. Proceeds will be used to purchase material to finish the Boy Scouts cabin on Jackson creek.

Work at School
CWA crew started work at the school Monday morning. Members of the school board, the teacher and a few others raised the school and the men are digging a basement. The board will furnish a horse to haul out the dirt as the work must be finished by May 1. School was closed Monday while the building was being raised, but will continue as usual while the basement is being built.

Hold Meetings
Helvetia crew well represented at the Evangelical meeting at Mason Hill Sunday night. The house was crowded. Meetings will continue until Sunday, at 8 p. m. except Saturday.

Many fishermen from this vicinity have returned with a big catch of smelt from the Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McIntyre and daughter, Joy, of Leisville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davidson Sunday. Other guests were Mrs. Lizzie Ritter, Mrs. Anna Davidson and sons Lewis and James P.

E. Steiner, who was hurt while working for Elmer Guerber in the dairy barn, is improving.

Irene Ritter Hurt
Irene Ritter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ritter, was badly bruised Sunday when she fell from a hay loft in their barn.

Pete Jossy Injured
Pete Jossy is suffering from fractured ribs sustained when rock fell on him, while working at Jackson quarry.

Mr. and Mrs. L. McCuen and family from Longview, Wash., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Tschabold. Chris Christensen spent the week-end at Aberdeen, Wash., visiting his brother, George Christensen.

Girl Scout troop went hiking Sunday in the woods by Jackson Falls. Scout leader and committee have received an invitation to attend the Girl Scout conference at Canby, April 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Connell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gueber and family were guests at the L. E. Wilkes home in Hillsboro Sunday. The party was in honor of the birthday of Dr. Lewis Wilkes, of La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. John Puhols went to Waldport on a fishing trip over the week-end.

Benefit Play Set Helvetia For March 24

HELVETIA—Four-act play "Haw versus Hum" will be presented March 24 at the Helvetia hall by the Boy Scouts Helvetia band will play the opening number at 8:15 p. m. Among the features on the program will be a talk on Alaska by Rev. Henry Young. Donations for lunch will be appreciated. Proceeds will be used to purchase material to finish the Boy Scouts cabin on Jackson creek.

Work at School
CWA crew started work at the school Monday morning. Members of the school board, the teacher and a few others raised the school and the men are digging a basement. The board will furnish a horse to haul out the dirt as the work must be finished by May 1. School was closed Monday while the building was being raised, but will continue as usual while the basement is being built.

Hold Meetings
Helvetia crew well represented at the Evangelical meeting at Mason Hill Sunday night. The house was crowded. Meetings will continue until Sunday, at 8 p. m. except Saturday.

Many fishermen from this vicinity have returned with a big catch of smelt from the Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McIntyre and daughter, Joy, of Leisville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davidson Sunday. Other guests were Mrs. Lizzie Ritter, Mrs. Anna Davidson and sons Lewis and James P.

E. Steiner, who was hurt while working for Elmer Guerber in the dairy barn, is improving.

Irene Ritter Hurt
Irene Ritter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ritter, was badly bruised Sunday when she fell from a hay loft in their barn.

Pete Jossy Injured
Pete Jossy is suffering from fractured ribs sustained when rock fell on him, while working at Jackson quarry.

Mr. and Mrs. L. McCuen and family from Longview, Wash., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Tschabold. Chris Christensen spent the week-end at Aberdeen, Wash., visiting his brother, George Christensen.

Girl Scout troop went hiking Sunday in the woods by Jackson Falls. Scout leader and committee have received an invitation to attend the Girl Scout conference at Canby, April 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Connell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gueber and family were guests at the L. E. Wilkes home in Hillsboro Sunday. The party was in honor of the birthday of Dr. Lewis Wilkes, of La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. John Puhols went to Waldport on a fishing trip over the week-end.

Orengo Committee Plans for Easter

ORENGO—Newly appointed music committee of the community church is busy directing rehearsals of the spring musical numbers to be used in the observance of Easter week, March 23 to April 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Layson and family of Portland visited his brother-in-law, C. P. Beck, of the Orengo Grocery store Sunday. Mr. Layson is considering purchasing a new home in Orengo. He is with the W. P. Fuller Co. of Portland.

Sunday guests at the Glen A. Robson home were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johansen and daughter, Irene, and their two nephews, Harold and Gerald Ness. Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Grammer, Marjory and Bobby, Mrs. Ward Keyser and son Warren, all of Portland.

Woman's Circle at the manse Wednesday elected the following officers: Mrs. McCulloch, president; Mrs. G. A. Robson, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. B. A. Mitchell, vice-president.

Miss Ortila Puleifer of Beaverton spent Sunday with Lucille Quinlan.

Mr. Ted Edwards and little son, Bobby, of St. Johns visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Rose, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Woodward entertained with a dinner party Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. J. Bulstad, Jean and Shirley Bulstad and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor of Portland. Mr. Taylor, Mrs. Dignan and Kenneth Woodward.

Mrs. J. P. Rogers visited in Portland Monday. She is visiting with her brother, Russell Doucet, and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John James and Miss Anna James of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hunter Sunday.

Mrs. A. M. Bobbitt and daughter, Marianne, Mrs. L. Johnston and Mrs. M. J. McEntee attended the cooking school at Forest Grove March 7-8-9.

Mrs. Walter Baumgardner of Redview visited at the J. C. Stark home one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kienz of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Berling Sunday.

Mrs. Bobbitt Honored
Friends and relatives of Mrs. A. M. Bobbitt from Forest Grove gave a surprise for her last Tuesday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Grant Bailey, Mesdames George Ortman, Elmer Purdin, Brokaw, Ervin Bailey and daughter, Marilyn, Herbert Kappel, Charles VanDoren, and Robert T. Johnston of Orengo.

Mrs. Alex Allen of near Buxton spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Lee Randall, and family last week.

Move to Sewell Place
Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Persons moved from Pumpkin Ridge where they have been living for the past year to the Jim Sewell place the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Coupe and

Cedar Mill Couple Married 27 Years

BETHANY-CEDAR MILLS—Mrs. Frank Farmer and Mrs. Jack Satchel gave a surprise party complimentary to the parents of Mrs. Sam Walters on their twenty-seventh wedding anniversary Saturday night. Eight tables of "300" were in place. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Sam Walters, James Walters, L. Stark of Beaverton, B. Stark of Portland, J. Beaverton, Mrs. B. B. Reeves, Elmer Reeves, Hubert May, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farmer, Miss Irene Hart of Portland, Charlie Walters, and Miss Phyllis White.

Mrs. Mary Saunders visited her sister, Mrs. Sam Kuntz, of Portland Monday.

Arvid Sandstrom, who is working at the camp, was home for the week-end.

Given Surprise
Mr. and Mrs. John Meurer were surprised by a group of friends on their birthday March 7. Present were Messrs. and Mesdames Phil Thorne, Arthur Schulz, J. Pointner, El Krueske, Weighman, Wiseman, Mrs. M. J. McEntee, Mrs. Sam Walters, Robert Graves, and Henry Johnson, Mrs. Sheldon, and the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. John Meurer.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Reeves entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. Katterman and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Littler on their birthday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farmer of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. J. Satchel of Beaverton visited Sunday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Walters.

Jack Weiss is working at Deep River. He left a week ago.

Miss Helen Fairley and Miss Gertrude James Walters, Sam Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Walters.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hickey, Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Wallace and Mrs. Weeks of Portland, and Miss Dorothy Boy were Sunday guests of M. C. Larsen and family.

Cedar Mill Grange held a card party and old time dance Saturday night. High scores were won by Mrs. R. Graves and L. G. Boie of Cedar Mills, and second by Mrs. Florence Rowe and George Albersburg of Portland.

Mrs. Arvid Sandstrom attended a card party at the Lina club in Portland Thursday evening. Present were Mrs. Frank Taylor, Carl Larsen, Charlie Walters, Ella Rose Mason, Claude Sherwood, Lorna Beck, Elaine Courts, Marjorie Foreman, Harry Mason, Walter Schwarzenbach, Margaret McCarthy, Pearl Pringle, and Gerhard Matzer.

Sherwood Honored
Friends of Mrs. R. M. Sherwood dropped in to help her celebrate her birthday Wednesday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Taylor and daughter Lois, Mrs. Wendt, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Huppe, Mrs. Howland, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Sherwood, R. M. Sherwood and Claude and Glen Sherwood and Cecil Snodgrass.

Maurice Dean spent the past week-end at Willamette university. Dean was business manager for the Willamette University Philharmonic choir on its trip to the Chicago fair last summer. He returned Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jones and children of Aloha accompanied the Harold Elford family on a picnic to Laurel Saturday.

Mrs. M. Moore, accompanied by her daughter Mayvern of near Government Camp, spent a few

Honor Roll Witch Hazel School Given

WITCH HAZEL—Pupils of the upper grades, who are on the honor roll for the past six weeks' period, are: Jimmie Abbott, Doris Wiley, Norma Anderson, Ivan Beck, Elia Rose Mason, Claude Sherwood, Lorna Beck, Elaine Courts, Marjorie Foreman, Harry Mason, Walter Schwarzenbach, Margaret McCarthy, Pearl Pringle, and Gerhard Matzer.

Sherwood Honored
Friends of Mrs. R. M. Sherwood dropped in to help her celebrate her birthday Wednesday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Taylor and daughter Lois, Mrs. Wendt, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Huppe, Mrs. Howland, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Sherwood, R. M. Sherwood and Claude and Glen Sherwood and Cecil Snodgrass.

Maurice Dean spent the past week-end at Willamette university. Dean was business manager for the Willamette University Philharmonic choir on its trip to the Chicago fair last summer. He returned Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jones and children of Aloha accompanied the Harold Elford family on a picnic to Laurel Saturday.

Mrs. M. Moore, accompanied by her daughter Mayvern of near Government Camp, spent a few

Benefit Play Set Helvetia For March 24

HELVETIA—Four-act play "Haw versus Hum" will be presented March 24 at the Helvetia hall by the Boy Scouts Helvetia band will play the opening number at 8:15 p. m. Among the features on the program will be a talk on Alaska by Rev. Henry Young. Donations for lunch will be appreciated. Proceeds will be used to purchase material to finish the Boy Scouts cabin on Jackson creek.

Work at School
CWA crew started work at the school Monday morning. Members of the school board, the teacher and a few others raised the school and the men are digging a basement. The board will furnish a horse to haul out the dirt as the work must be finished by May 1. School was closed Monday while the building was being raised, but will continue as usual while the basement is being built.

Hold Meetings
Helvetia crew well represented at the Evangelical meeting at Mason Hill Sunday night. The house was crowded. Meetings will continue until Sunday, at 8 p. m. except Saturday.

Many fishermen from this vicinity have returned with a big catch of smelt from the Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McIntyre and daughter, Joy, of Leisville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davidson Sunday. Other guests were Mrs. Lizzie Ritter, Mrs. Anna Davidson and sons Lewis and James P.

E. Steiner, who was hurt while working for Elmer Guerber in the dairy barn, is improving.

Irene Ritter Hurt
Irene Ritter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ritter, was badly bruised Sunday when she fell from a hay loft in their barn.

Pete Jossy Injured
Pete Jossy is suffering from fractured ribs sustained when rock fell on him, while working at Jackson quarry.

Mr. and Mrs. L. McCuen and family from Longview, Wash., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Tschabold. Chris Christensen spent the week-end at Aberdeen, Wash., visiting his brother, George Christensen.

Girl Scout troop went hiking Sunday in the woods by Jackson Falls. Scout leader and committee have received an invitation to attend the Girl Scout conference at Canby, April 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Connell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gueber and family were guests at the L. E. Wilkes home in Hillsboro Sunday. The party was in honor of the birthday of Dr. Lewis Wilkes, of La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. John Puhols went to Waldport on a fishing trip over the week-end.

Benefit Play Set Helvetia For March 24

HELVETIA—Four-act play "Haw versus Hum" will be presented March 24 at the Helvetia hall by the Boy Scouts Helvetia band will play the opening number at 8:15 p. m. Among the features on the program will be a talk on Alaska by Rev. Henry Young. Donations for lunch will be appreciated. Proceeds will be used to purchase material to finish the Boy Scouts cabin on Jackson creek.

Work at School
CWA crew started work at the school Monday morning. Members of the school board, the teacher and a few others raised the school and the men are digging a basement. The board will furnish a horse to haul out the dirt as the work must be finished by May 1. School was closed Monday while the building was being raised, but will continue as usual while the basement is being built.

Hold Meetings
Helvetia crew well represented at the Evangelical meeting at Mason Hill Sunday night. The house was crowded. Meetings will continue until Sunday, at 8 p. m. except Saturday.

Many fishermen from this vicinity have returned with a big catch of smelt from the Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McIntyre and daughter, Joy, of Leisville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davidson Sunday. Other guests were Mrs. Lizzie Ritter, Mrs. Anna Davidson and sons Lewis and James P.

E. Steiner, who was hurt while working for Elmer Guerber in the dairy barn, is improving.

Irene Ritter Hurt
Irene Ritter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ritter, was badly bruised Sunday when she fell from a hay loft in their barn.

Pete Jossy Injured
Pete Jossy is suffering from fractured ribs sustained when rock fell on him, while working at Jackson quarry.

Mr. and Mrs. L. McCuen and family from Longview, Wash., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Tschabold. Chris Christensen spent the week-end at Aberdeen, Wash., visiting his brother, George Christensen.

Girl Scout troop went hiking Sunday in the woods by Jackson Falls. Scout leader and committee have received an invitation to attend the Girl Scout conference at Canby, April 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Connell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gueber and family were guests at the L. E. Wilkes home in Hillsboro Sunday. The party was in honor of the birthday of Dr. Lewis Wilkes, of La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. John Puhols went to Waldport on a fishing trip over the week-end.

Benefit Play Set Helvetia For March 24

HELVETIA—Four-act play "Haw versus Hum" will be presented March 24 at the Helvetia hall by the Boy Scouts Helvetia band will play the opening number at 8:15 p. m. Among the features on the program will be a talk on Alaska by Rev. Henry Young. Donations for lunch will be appreciated. Proceeds will be used to purchase material to finish the Boy Scouts cabin on Jackson creek.

Work at School
CWA crew started work at the school Monday morning. Members of the school board, the teacher and a few others raised the school and the men are digging a basement. The board will furnish a horse to haul out the dirt as the work must be finished by May 1. School was closed Monday while the building was being raised, but will continue as usual while the basement is being built.

Hold Meetings
Helvetia crew well represented at the Evangelical meeting at Mason Hill Sunday night. The house was crowded. Meetings will continue until Sunday, at 8 p. m. except Saturday.

Many fishermen from this vicinity have returned with a big catch of smelt from the Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McIntyre and daughter, Joy, of Leisville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davidson Sunday. Other guests were Mrs. Lizzie Ritter, Mrs. Anna Davidson and sons Lewis and James P.

E. Steiner, who was hurt while working for Elmer Guerber in the dairy barn, is improving.

Irene Ritter Hurt
Irene Ritter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ritter, was badly bruised Sunday when she fell from a hay loft in their barn.

Pete Jossy Injured
Pete Jossy is suffering from fractured ribs sustained when rock fell on him, while working at Jackson quarry.

Mr. and Mrs. L. McCuen and family from Longview, Wash., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Tschabold. Chris Christensen spent the week-end at Aberdeen, Wash., visiting his brother, George Christensen.

Girl Scout troop went hiking Sunday in the woods by Jackson Falls. Scout leader and committee have received an invitation to attend the Girl Scout conference at Canby, April 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Connell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gueber and family were guests at the L. E. Wilkes home in Hillsboro Sunday. The party was in honor of the birthday of Dr. Lewis Wilkes, of La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. John Puhols went to Waldport on a fishing trip over the week-end.

Benefit Play Set Helvetia For March 24

HELVETIA—Four-act play "Haw versus Hum" will be presented March 24 at the Helvetia hall by the Boy Scouts Helvetia band will play the opening number at 8:15 p. m. Among the features on the program will be a talk on Alaska by Rev. Henry Young. Donations for lunch will be appreciated. Proceeds will be used to purchase material to finish the Boy Scouts cabin on Jackson creek.

Work at School
CWA crew started work at the school Monday morning. Members of the school board, the teacher and a few others raised the school and the men are digging a basement. The board will furnish a horse to haul out the dirt as the work must be finished by May 1. School was closed Monday while the building was being raised, but will continue as usual while the basement is being built.

Hold Meetings
Helvetia crew well represented at the Evangelical meeting at Mason Hill Sunday night. The house was crowded. Meetings will continue until Sunday, at 8 p. m. except Saturday.

Many fishermen from this vicinity have returned with a big catch of smelt from the Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McIntyre and daughter, Joy, of Leisville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davidson Sunday. Other guests were Mrs. Lizzie Ritter, Mrs. Anna Davidson and sons Lewis and James P.

E. Steiner, who was hurt while working for Elmer Guerber in the dairy barn, is improving.

Irene Ritter Hurt
Irene Ritter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ritter, was badly bruised Sunday when she fell from a hay loft in their barn.

Pete Jossy Injured
Pete Jossy is suffering from fractured ribs sustained when rock fell on him, while working at Jackson quarry.

Mr. and Mrs. L. McCuen and family from Longview, Wash., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Tschabold. Chris Christensen spent the week-end at Aberdeen, Wash., visiting his brother, George Christensen.

Girl Scout troop went hiking Sunday in the woods by Jackson Falls. Scout leader and committee have received an invitation to attend the Girl Scout conference at Canby, April 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Connell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gueber and family were guests at the L. E. Wilkes home in Hillsboro Sunday. The party was in honor of the birthday of Dr. Lewis Wilkes, of La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. John Puhols went to Waldport on a fishing trip over the week-end.

Benefit Play Set Helvetia For March 24

HELVETIA—Four-act play "Haw versus Hum" will be presented March 24 at the Helvetia hall by the Boy Scouts Helvetia band will play the opening number at 8:15 p. m. Among the features on the program will be a talk on Alaska by Rev. Henry Young. Donations for lunch will be appreciated. Proceeds will be used to purchase material to finish the Boy Scouts cabin on Jackson creek.

Work at School
CWA crew started work at the school Monday morning. Members of the school board, the teacher and a few others raised the school and the men are digging a basement. The board will furnish a horse to haul out the dirt as the work must be finished by May 1. School was closed Monday while the building was being raised, but will continue as usual while the basement is being built.

Hold Meetings
Helvetia crew well represented at the Evangelical meeting at Mason Hill Sunday night. The house was crowded. Meetings will continue until Sunday, at 8 p. m. except Saturday.

Many fishermen from this vicinity have returned with a big catch of smelt from the Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McIntyre and daughter, Joy, of Leisville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davidson Sunday. Other guests were Mrs. Lizzie Ritter, Mrs. Anna Davidson and sons Lewis and James P.

E. Steiner, who was hurt while working for Elmer Guerber in the dairy barn, is improving.

Irene Ritter Hurt
Irene Ritter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ritter, was badly bruised Sunday when she fell from a hay loft in their barn.

Pete Jossy Injured
Pete Jossy is suffering from fractured ribs sustained when rock fell on him, while working at Jackson quarry.

Mr. and Mrs. L. McCuen and family from Longview, Wash., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Tschabold. Chris Christensen spent the week-end at Aberdeen, Wash., visiting his brother, George Christensen.

Girl Scout troop went hiking Sunday in the woods by Jackson Falls. Scout leader and committee have received an invitation to attend the Girl Scout conference at Canby, April 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Connell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gueber and family were guests at the L. E. Wilkes home in Hillsboro Sunday. The party was in honor of the birthday of Dr. Lewis Wilkes, of La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. John Puhols went to Waldport on a fishing trip over the week-end.

Benefit Play Set Helvetia For March 24

HELVETIA—Four-act play "Haw versus Hum" will be presented March 24 at the Helvetia hall by the Boy Scouts Helvetia band will play the opening number at 8:15 p. m. Among the features on the program will be a talk on Alaska by Rev. Henry Young. Donations for lunch will be appreciated. Proceeds will be used to purchase material to finish the Boy Scouts cabin on Jackson creek.

Work at School
CWA crew started work at the school Monday morning. Members of the school board, the teacher and a few others raised the school and the men are digging a basement. The board will furnish a horse to haul out the dirt as the work must be finished by May 1. School was closed Monday while the building was being raised, but will continue as usual while the basement is being built.

Hold Meetings
Helvetia crew well represented at the Evangelical meeting at Mason Hill Sunday night. The house was crowded. Meetings will continue until Sunday, at 8 p. m. except Saturday.

Many fishermen from this vicinity have returned with a big catch of smelt from the Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McIntyre and daughter, Joy, of Leisville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davidson Sunday. Other guests were Mrs. Lizzie Ritter, Mrs. Anna Davidson and sons Lewis and James P.

E. Steiner, who was hurt while working for Elmer Guerber in the dairy barn, is improving.

Irene Ritter Hurt
Irene Ritter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ritter, was badly bruised Sunday when she fell from a hay loft in their barn.

Pete Jossy Injured
Pete Jossy is suffering from fractured ribs sustained when rock fell on him, while working at Jackson quarry.

Mr. and Mrs. L. McCuen and family from Longview, Wash., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Tschabold. Chris Christensen spent the week-end at Aberdeen, Wash., visiting his brother, George Christensen.

Girl Scout troop went hiking Sunday in the woods by Jackson Falls. Scout leader and committee have received an invitation to attend the Girl Scout conference at Canby, April 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Connell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gueber and family were guests at the L. E. Wilkes home in Hillsboro Sunday. The party was in honor of the birthday of Dr. Lewis Wilkes, of La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. John Puhols went to Waldport on a fishing trip over the week-end.

Benefit Play Set Helvetia For March 24

HELVETIA—Four-act play "Haw versus Hum" will be presented March 24 at the Helvetia hall by the Boy Scouts Helvetia band will play the opening number at 8:15 p. m. Among the features on the program will be a talk on Alaska by Rev. Henry Young. Donations for lunch will be appreciated. Proceeds will be used to purchase material to finish the Boy Scouts cabin on Jackson creek.

Work at School
CWA crew started work at the school Monday morning. Members of the school board, the teacher and a few others raised the school and the men are digging a basement. The board will furnish a horse to haul out the dirt as the work must be finished by May 1. School was closed Monday while the building was being raised, but will continue as usual while the basement is being built.

Hold Meetings
Helvetia crew well represented at the Evangelical meeting at Mason Hill Sunday night. The house was crowded. Meetings will continue until Sunday, at 8 p. m. except Saturday.

Many fishermen from this vicinity have returned with a big catch of smelt from the Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McIntyre and daughter, Joy, of Leisville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davidson Sunday. Other guests were Mrs. Lizzie Ritter, Mrs. Anna Davidson and sons Lewis and James P.

E. Steiner, who was hurt while working for Elmer Guerber in the dairy barn, is improving.

Irene Ritter Hurt
Irene Ritter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ritter, was badly bruised Sunday when she fell from a hay loft in their barn.

Pete Jossy Injured
Pete Jossy is suffering from fractured ribs sustained when rock fell on him, while working