Vote Friday!
 Vote! Vote intelligently and as your best judgment dictates. Good citizenship dictates that every citizen of Oregon who is physically able go to the polls Friday, should go and cast a ballot in the primary election.
 There are matters of serious import to be acted upon by the electorate of the state. Measures must be considered that effect the daily lives of all and they cannot be acted upon lightly. National, state and local officials are to be elected, and the candidates should be considered on the basis of ability, demonstrated in the past and the present, and also on their records. Study men and measures and then vote for the man, who in your judgment is the man that can best represent you.

If a person does not exercise his or her right of suffrage in this duty of citizenship they have little ground to stand upon when they criticize laws and officials. Too few people take this question seriously enough. Vote!

Qualified
 R. Frank Peters, who would succeed George R. Bagley as circuit judge for Washington and Tillamook counties, is a man of unsurpassed character. A gentleman in every sense of the word, sincere beyond the least question, thoroughly honest and fair in every respect, and a keen student. Mr. Peters is qualified as few men are for this position of trust and honor.

Music Inspirational
 National Music Week in Hillsboro was a very successful affair and a credit to the city. We extend congratulations to Mrs. Vesey Gardner, chairman, and her co-workers from the different women's organizations for their part in making the week one which brought pleasure to the citizens of Hillsboro. "An Evening with American Composers" given at the Baptist church, and "The Maid in Yellow," an operetta given by pupils of Mrs. Mooberry and Miss Eva McCormick of the Peter Boscow school, were especially outstanding. The full value of the week cannot be determined, but it was an inspiration to all who heard the programs presented. May the appreciation of the best in music culture become more general.

Demands for Relief Presented by Group
 Investigations of the list submitted last Thursday.
 The group first met with R. W. Weil, chairman of the county relief committee, and then sent a committee of eight members to confer with Donald T. Templeton, county judge, and W. J. Mills, manager of the SERA in Washington county. Grievances presented by the delegation included alleged inadequacy of medical and dental care provided for relief cases, inequalities in the distribution of relief rations and inability to obtain funds for rent, lights and water.
 Names of a score or more of persons needing either medical or dental attention were submitted to Judge Templeton, who promised that all cases would be investigated and those needing care would be aided by the county. The judge also declared that the county did not have money to pay water bills and that the federal government had not given Washington county any allotment for these purposes.
 Mills then asked that the group give the recently reorganized SERA and relief offices a chance to get into action, promising that all complaints would be investigated.
 He also stated that points for distributing government surplus commodities had been established at Forest Grove, Hillsboro, Aloha, Beaverton, Tigard and Sherwood so that those on the relief rolls might receive their rations and commodities in or near their own communities.
 Following the meeting with Mills and Templeton, emergency requisitions were issued where necessary and case workers started personal investigations of those on the relief rolls. Some undeserving cases now receiving relief will be eliminated and inequalities will be corrected, relief officials stated.
 Government surplus commodities received in Washington county so far this month include 520 sacks of flour, 1149 pounds of butter and 2400 pounds of smoked pork.

Weil and Mrs. Marie Seifridge, both driving cars, stated that they had narrowly avoided striking the man while returning from Portland. Mrs. Alf O. Johnson called the county hospital to report a man walking down the middle of the road. Mrs. Johnson was a passenger in Mrs. Weil's car and after arriving home called the hospital.

Ed Schulmerich Answers Debate Challenge Letter
 Replying to the challenge of Peter Zimmerman, senator from the non-existent joint district of Yamhill and Washington counties, for a public debate on the state bank bill, Ed Schulmerich of Hillsboro, republican candidate for the nomination for state senator from this county, branded the challenge as "cheap politics" and "not worthy of consideration."
 Zimmerman last week hurled a challenge to the local banker to debate the state bank issue, declaring that Schulmerich had opposed the measure on a number of occasions. He also declared that Schulmerich had made "personal lying attacks upon" Zimmerman in denouncing the bill.
 The text of the letter to the Argus by Schulmerich in answer to Zimmerman's challenge was as follows:
 "Editor of Hillsboro Argus, Hillsboro, Oregon.—I notice in your issue of May 10th that Pete Zimmerman is resorting to some of his past political tactics—challenging me to a joint debate on the question of the state going into the banking business—charging me of being opposed to same and having so expressed myself. This is false but Pete will resort to anything. Anyone can fashion his motives to make such a charge just before the primary election is cheap politics and anybody that resorts to such methods is not worthy of consideration.
 "This question was asked me but once in public, my answer was that if they could guarantee me that it would not be made a political football for Pete and his ilk I had no objections. My idea of banking is security first and I have always adhered to this principle so that my obligations have been met in full. How about you, Pete?—Edward Schulmerich."

Cannery Affected by Portland Strike
 Effects of the longshoremen's strike in Portland is being felt at the local Box-Maling cannery through the shutting up of outgoing shipments and the inability to obtain the sugar supply from incoming boats. Necessary sugar to continue operation of the cannery at full capacity is being routed in by rail.
 Employment at the cannery reached its peak Tuesday night with approximately 156 men and 304 women on the payroll. The heavy strawberry crop which has resulted in a line-up of growers' trucks each afternoon about a block long, has necessitated a material increase in employment.
