

Tigard Body Praised for Food Action

TIGARD—Tigard Grange met June 8 at the grange hall. A proposed plan for beautification of a strip between the new and old highway just south of the public school was brought up and discussed. The strip belongs to the Cox estate. The local grange was commended by Max Gehlhar on its members for their interest in the beautification of the strip. The state market enforcement officer, represented cash buyer of farm produce under the new market law. Members were required to give the flower and something about their hillside state. Alternating delegates, Mr. and Mrs. Charles VanKleeck, are attending state grange at Roseburg.

Wins Scholarship
Dorothy Shaw, instructor at Tigard high school, has been awarded a summer scholarship in Carnegie Art center of the University of Oregon. She was one of 25 art teachers from the coast country to receive an award.

Visit I. O. O. F. Home
Over fifty members and friends of Charity lodge and Tigardville Rebekah lodge visited the I. O. O. F. home in Portland recently. The local lodges have furnished one of the rooms in the home. A program was put on by local members and friends with Marvin Gaarde chairman. The program included a program The Tigard Hawaiian orchestra played several numbers. Mrs. Alvina Place and Curtis Tigard were introduced as noble grand of the lodge. The "Tom Thumb" wedding which was presented in Tigard several months ago was re-enacted for visitors. Mrs. Marvin Gaarde sang a solo of the night. George Anderson, Patty Anderson and Bobby Hellman each gave a recitation.

Beaverton Wins
An eight-man golf team from Tigard was defeated by a similar team from Beaverton on the Forest Hills course 17 to 7. Play was closer than the score indicates. A good brand of golf was displayed by several members of the two teams. Malarkey of Beaverton was low with 76 and won three points from Rankin, who shot a 78. Ariss and Tigard both shot an 81. Following is lineup with points won: Hamilton 0, Masters 3, Rankin 0, Malarkey 3, McMichael 0, Lebrick 3, Ariss 1, Mapes 2, Vincent 5, Warren 2, Tigard 2, Carmichael 5, Davis 3, Adams 0, Schubring 0, Jannsen 3.

Federal Agent Speaks
J. D. Hamilton, Federal Market News service agent and supervisor of marketing agreement of the N. F. I. was the main speaker at the Tigard Lions club Monday evening. W. E. Upshaw was in charge of the program. Father Timothy Watson reported on the state convention which he attended as a delegate.

School Meet Monday
Notices have been posted of the election Monday of a director for a term of three years and a clerk for one year of school district No. 23. For the past two years, patting of the notes has been the start of a campaign that got intensely hot before the selections were made. So far, there has been no mention of opposition.

Berry picking in raspberry fields is now at its height and a number of tons of berries are being taken to the cannery in Portland daily. Growers are receiving 3c a pound in most cases which just covers cost of production. Loganberries are being moved by the one-pick-em method, with 25 cents a crate being charged in most patches.
