

Local Grange Groups Given State Honors

LAUREL RIDGE—Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Strickler attended state grange convention at Roseburg last week. Mrs. Strickler is Pomona Grange lecturer of Washington county and received a prize awarded by the state lecturer, Mrs. McCall, for having sent in reports from all but one of the fourteen granges in the county. Morrow and Clackamas counties were also honored the same way, ranking first and second. Green Mountain Grange received a large silk flag for having made the second largest gain in membership the past six months. Delegates from this vicinity at the state grange were L. J. Francis of Winona Grange, Mr. and Mrs. Charles VanKleeck of Tigard Grange, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeitner of Scholls Grange, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Streiff of Kinton Grange, and Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Strickler of Sherwood Grange.

Leroy Mills, the youngest master, delivered for Mrs. Strickler at state grange favoring the state fair being returned to old date and old order of being an agricultural fair instead of a carnival and state racing contest.

The Washington county banquet Thursday evening was attended by about thirty, twenty-one of whom were delegates, only one being without representation. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeitner were honored by the presentation of a nicely framed picture, for their new home.

As master of Sherwood Grange, Mrs. Strickler received a golden shield award for Mrs. Annie V. Hayes, a fifty-year member of the grange, and the local grange expects soon to make the presentation in a suitable manner.
