NEWSPAPER advertising is a speedometer as well as bar-ter of business. It tells how ng. Many business men will not pend money for advertising un-il they see some definite signs of life in business. That ar and how fast trade is movlife in business. Just now thentic buying signs appear on the horizon, and as a result merchants in most sections of the country are doing more advertising. There can be no better indications of business growth, and these live merchants—the ones who are advertising—are going to make it grow still more rapidly in the them want what you have to sell, and no way has yet been ound that will do that as quickly and as economically—as news-paper advertising. The pen-dulum will swing back quicker for the fellow who advertises than it will for the one who holds off until business gets to booming again. — Moundridge (Kan.) Journal,
