Tigard Has Quiet Vote

TIGARD—In one of the quietest school elections in school district No. 23. C. A. Boyer as re-elected Girector for a term of three years and Miss Clara McDonald for a term of one year. practically without opposition. Only 175 votes were cast this year compared to the 400 and 500 votes in the two previous years, when the district was aligned on sides. For awhile it was thought that Boyer lived in Durham district but a visit to his place by O. B. Kraus, county school superinaendent, it was reported, decided the dispute. The line between Tigard and Durham districts goes through Boyer's place.
