

Hay Harvest Better Than Was Expected

(By Mrs. F. L. Brown)
LAUREL—Hay harvest will be completed this week with an abundant crop, contrary to earlier reports and the aphid scare. Perfect weather for curlew was greatly appreciated. Much of the hay is being baled. Arthur Hill and crew are doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Dunn accompanied Elbert Stevens to Oceanside to spend the week at the Stevens cottage.

Ervin Baker of Falls City is with his mother's uncle, F. L. Brown, for an indefinite time. Ervin is a senior in the Falls City high school, where he plays on the basketball and tennis teams.

Mrs. Clifton Bagley of Portland, Mrs. W. L. Stevens and Mrs. Emelie Hogrefe visited in Stevens at Vernonia Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stretch, Miss Clea Stretch and C. S. McNay, all of Newberg, were Friday evening guests at the home of the latter's son, B. G. McNay. W. H. McNay and family were callers to visit the elder Mr. McNay, who departed Monday for the east to visit relatives and the Century of Progress.

Sunday guests at the W. L. Stevens home were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dunn of Rupert, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Hult and Miss Cora Hult of Hillsboro and Walter Schmidt.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Brown attended the annual meeting of the Pioneer and Native Sons and Daughters' association in Shute park auditorium Sunday. Mr. Brown was re-elected vice-president of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Rogers (Molle Launer) and son Jack, of Ventura, Cal., were guests of her sister, Mrs. Cally Whitmore, and family from Wednesday until Monday. Hosts and guests took an automobile trip Sunday to Vernonia and through Longview, Wash. Mrs. Rogers had taught school in the Vernonia section over thirty years ago and she noted many changes all along the route.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Larsen and daughter, Audrey Nan, of Portland were Saturday night and Sunday guests of his mother, Mrs. A. Naderer.

Jean and Teddy Watkins spent from Thursday until Saturday at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Ernest Guenther, of Chehalis, Mount.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Whitmore and baby daughter were Sunday guests of Mrs. Whitmore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Koberstein of Gaston.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hood and children, Stewart and Robert, and Mrs. Hood's mother, Mrs. Robertson, all of Fairvale, were Sunday afternoon visitors at the Amos Watkins home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hoffman and daughter Betty of Beaver motored over Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Griffith's grandmother, Mrs. Emelie Grauer.

Jacob Shattuck was injured last week while hauling hay. When pulling back the hay fork the trip rope broke and he fell back off the load, spraining his arm and wrist and bruising his hip. He is able to be about, but cannot work.

Frances Fields, president of the Girl Reserves of the Hillsboro high school, left Tuesday for Seabeck, near Tacoma, to attend a ten-day conference of the club.

Beaverton Talks Up Swimming Tank
BEAVERTON—It was suggested at the annual school meeting of Beaverton that a swimming tank be constructed for the benefit of the school children. The material would be furnished by the school district and the government would pay for part of the labor. J. R. Talbert was re-elected director and Althea Haulenbeck district clerk at this meeting.

Mrs. Perkins President
Seventeenth annual reunion and picnic of the alumni of the Whitford school, district 18, was held Saturday. Frank Erickson, president of the association, acted as master of ceremonies for the program. Mrs. S. B. Lawrence gave the welcoming address. Short talks were given by a number of the alumni present.

Mrs. E. G. Perkins, daughter of Mrs. Denney and the late B. K. Denney, was elected president for the ensuing year. C. M. McKay was re-elected secretary.

A. M. Kennedy returned from the State Grange convention at Roseburg last week. He was delegate from Beaverton Grange.

Herbert Mason and Van Brown left Monday for Seattle, where they will attend the University of Washington summer school.

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Beaverton met with a large number of members present. The program for the evening which was sponsored by the Rebekahs.

Miss Cox Bride
Miss Lois Cox, a former resident of Beaverton, and Russell Norton of Portland were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cox, June 14. Following the ceremony they left for a short trip to Long Beach, Wash., and after their return will make their home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Boner entertained the following friends at dinner Tuesday: Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Gilmore and daughter, Mrs. M. C. McKercher and son, and Mrs. John Bogenschultz of Fargo, N. D.

BUTTER MILK AS A FOOD
It is interesting to note that a very large portion of the earth's people drink their milk in sour form. Many centuries ago the Arabs found that by souring their milk as rapidly as possible after milking it could be preserved in an edible form for a much longer time than if efforts were made to keep it sweet, so today we find the Arabs culturing their milk with a starter of sour milk immediately after it is drawn from the animal which produced it.

Most of us recognize buttermilk as a delicious and refreshing beverage but its unusual food value is often overlooked. When cream is churned, the greater part of the butterfat is removed, leaving the buttermilk which contains approximately the same proportion of milk solids not fat as does fresh milk. The same is true of the cultured buttermilk made from skim milk. This means then that buttermilk contains all the proteins and minerals which are normally present in milk, all the milk sugar, with the exception of a small quantity which has been converted into lactic acid, and all the vitamins with the exception of vitamin A, contained in the butterfat. These are all the body building elements of milk and are essential in all diets. In addition buttermilk has the advantage of its lactic content, recognized as valuable addition to the diet of those suffering from digestive trouble.

Buttermilk is an ideal hot weather food. Practically free from fat, high in essential body building elements, with a cool, refreshing tart flavor which makes it a desirable drink for hot weather.

Buttermilk is equally valuable in food preparation. It can be used in baking wherever sour milk is called for. Griddle cakes, waffles, ginger-breads made from buttermilk are all more or less well known and now here is something different and delicious too in the way of cream pies. This recipe for buttermilk pie was given to me by a chef, famous for his unusual dishes.

Buttermilk Pie
2 cups buttermilk
2 tsp. butter
grated rind of 1 lemon
4 eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. mace
2 tsp. cornstarch.

Heat the buttermilk, lemon rind and butter in a double boiler. Beat the egg yolks slightly, add sugar, cornstarch and seasoning, which have been mixed together. Add egg mixture slowly to the milk and cook together in boiler for 8 minutes. Beat up whites of eggs, using about 1/2 of them to fold lightly in the cooked mixture, just before pouring it into a baked pie shell. Use the rest of the whites for a meringue topping and brown.
