Variety Is Spice of Newest Offerings

THIS WEEK THERE'S A CHIC MORNING FROCK, A SUIT THAT'S NAUTICAL BUT

NICE, AND A TOT'S DAINTY DRESS

THE week's models offer something for the tot, for her sister or mother, and for the young girl who'd like to loll around in something breezy and attractive.

An easily made dress of batiste with perky bows and soft shirring, such as No. 286, makes a cute child that much cuter. It is charming in nainsook, dotted swiss, or printed lawn; and comes in sizes 6 months to 4 years. Size 2 requires 1 % yards of 35-inch fabric plus 1 1/2 yards of 1 1/2-

A scalloped capelet and bright buttons lend style to the colorfal morning frock, No. 260. This vivacious dress is easy to model in gingham or Name..... percale. It is designed for sizes 34 to 44. Size 38 calls for 4 % yards of 35-inch fabric plus % yard contrast, or 4 % yards in monotone.

King Neptune will bow in admiration to the less dressed in the trim nautical suit of white and blue linen, No. 195. Seersucker or pongee is the material for this navy ensemble; and the designs come in sizes 14 to 20, and 32 to 42. Size 18 needs 4 yards of 35-inch fabric plus % yard contrast, and 3 % yards of braid.

State Insurance Commissioner A. H. Averill urges Oregon residents to beware of the insurance agent who wants to replace old policies with new. Reliable life insurance companies do not sanction paradisc according to Averill, who brands the practice as not only unethical but a menace to the interests of the policyholder.

B. L. Eddy of Roseburg has started mandamus proceedings in the Marion county circuit court in an effort to compel Secretary of State Stadelman to place his name on the November ballot as a candidate for circuit judge in the second district. Acting upon the advice of Attorney General VanWinkle the secretary of state has ruled that Eddy, lowest of the four candidates in the primary election, was thereby eliminated from the general election contest. Eddy contends that he is still in the race as an opponent of Carl Wimberly, also of Roseburg, for one of the three judgeships in his district.
