

Grangers at Tigard Plan for a Picnic

(By Curtis Tiggart)
TIGARD—Orange members will hold their annual picnic Sunday in C. Tigard's grove, half a mile off the main highway in Tigardville. Dinner has been set for 1 o'clock. A complete set of sports and games will occupy the afternoon. E. R. Brown of Evening Star Grange will deliver the picnic address. Plans for the picnic at the county fair are nearing completion with chairmen of the different committees securing the necessary produce. Those assisting in arrangements are Mrs. C. Vanmeter, Mrs. C. Vanmeter, Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. J. D. Foley, Mrs. Floyd Nunnenkamp, Mrs. Charles Rahmig and C. Christensen. Settlement of property claim on the grange was the topic for roll-call at the meeting today.
 Lyle Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thomas, visited at home a short time last week. He is employed at a CCC camp near Wending. He reports that he enjoys the work, but has been on the injured list a short time.

Date Set
 "Double Six" was set September 21 by Tigardville Rebekah lodge at their meeting Tuesday evening. A portion of the program will be given over to the observance of the 33rd anniversary of the founding of Rebekah lodges September 20. All lodges in the county are being requested to observe the date. Next meeting of the lodge, August 28, has been designated as social night, with refreshments and a program. Members of the lodge have been busy with visitations to Beaverton, Sherwood, Multnomah and Scholls.
 Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Cole and family and Mrs. James North attended the funeral of Mrs. Freeman Gault at Sand Point, Idaho, last week. Mr. Gault is the nephew of Mrs. North.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Livengood have returned from a week's vacation at the beaches. They spent their time at Netarts and Newport. Mrs. Henry Hyrka is on her first vacation in 15 years, but she has chosen one that most people would not think would be a vacation. She is picking up produce in the fields of the large orchard near Amity and declares that she is having a wonderful time. One of the largest poultry ranches in this section is being operated by over 1000 eggs a day.
 Reports coming to Tigard from Lake Labish, where there are a large number of local people raising onions, are that the crop in the main will not be up to average in yield, but the quality of the onions will be better. The onions in a few fields that have not suffered from the effects of the onion maggot and one of them belongs to Clyde Leedy. Several small patches has started in several small patches with the main fields about ready. Weeding of the onions was relatively easy this year compared to many years. The soil that has not been turned up is yellow. When new ground is plowed, the soil will come up in yellow clumps which will turn black upon cultivation.
 Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson and family have returned from a week's vacation at Ed Wood's place.
 A successful card party and dance was staged at the St. Anthony auditorium Thursday evening. Odd Fellows' old-time dances have been keeping their usual good crowds during the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Schubring and family spent last week-end at Nelson.

Organize P. T. A.
 Organization of Tigard P. T. A. group was laid Friday at the Tigard public school, when Mrs. Joan Wood was elected president; Mrs. William Allingham, first vice-president; Mrs. E. B. Nedry, secretary, and Mrs. Coral Biederman, treasurer.
 Mrs. William Kietzer, state president, organized and installed the officers. Next meeting will be September 6 at 8 o'clock at the Tigard public school. All parents are invited.

Funeral Saturday

Newest Frocks Stress Cool Daintiness

THESE LATE MODELS, YOURS FOR THE MAKING, ENHANCE MILADY'S CHARM AND COMPLIMENT HER TASTE

EASILY made, worn, and tubbed—these are the merits of the dotted swiss frock illustrated in Pattern 277. Materials in which this slenderizing dress will appear to advantage are cotton voile and printed silk with organdie trimming. Designs are for sizes 36 to 52. Size 46 calls for 4 1/4 yards of 39-inch fabric, plus 1/4 yard contrast.
 Just right for fashionable warm weather functions is Pattern 263—in soft printed chiffon of pastel tones, with delightful ruffled collar. Printed voile or mull are very suitable materials. Designs come for sizes 14 to 20 and 22 to 42. Size 18 needs 3 1/2 yards of 39-inch fabric with one yard contrast and 3/4 yards of ribbon.
 Cool and distinctive is the chiffon frock, Pattern 268. Cape, soft sash and skirt panels bring definite charm to this costume.
 Besides chiffon, voile or crepe may be used to fashion this flattering model. Designs are available in sizes 36 to 52. Size 46 requires 5 1/4 yards of 39-inch fabric.
 Besides their attractiveness, the frocks described above will enable you to pass the hottest day comfortably. And, as chic and dainty as these creations make you appear, they are, as you will learn, exceptionally easy to make, each being the reward of a few hours with the needle.
