

Kinton Grange Plans Election

Ladies' Aid Sponsoring a Benefit Dinner Soon

(By Mrs. E. L. Cox)

KINTON—Kinton Grange met Saturday in all day session, with put-luck dinner at noon. Third and fourth degrees were given a new member during the business session, this making 41 members in all. Lecturer, Alice Fluke, had prepared an interesting program for lecture hour consisting of songs and question box and a vaudeville act by Mrs. H. H. Stannard, Mrs. F. J. Sewell and Mrs. Ada Qualls of Hillsboro, who were guests. Officers will be elected November 3.

W. L. VanHorn has been employed at Bonneville dam during the past couple of weeks or so, and expects to be there for awhile. He was home for the week-end.

Following have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pomeroy during the past week: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mills of Yamhill; Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Beck and son Stanley and Thomas of Portland.

Frank C. Fluke was in Portland during last week while he was employed at the Washington county booth at the international stock show at Portland.

Plan Dinner

Most of the members of the Ladies' Aid society were present at the meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lily M. Bierly. Plans were made to hold a chicken and noodle dinner with other good things to eat, served cafeteria style from 6 to 8 p. m. on October 26 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Faix, Tile Flat road, about one half mile north of school house.

Many from here have attended the annual international stock show in Portland.

Mrs. Della St. Pierre and Mrs. Ethel McCormick of Hillsboro were guests of Mrs. Lily Bierly Thursday afternoon. Mrs. O. H. Peterson and Mrs. Albert Scott of Bend road were also guests.

S. H. Pomeroy, Mrs. Madge Pomeroy and her three daughters were guests of Mrs. Pomeroy's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sparks, in Portland Saturday.

Mrs. Ethel McCormick and daughters and son of Hillsboro visited Saturday with her mother, Mrs. Lily M. Bierly. Miss Grace McCormick, who is attending state normal at Monmouth, was down for the week-end. Mrs. Bierly accompanied them to Hillsboro on their return to spend the week-end.

Mrs. Vernon Leachman and son of Portland spent a few days last week with her mother Mrs. Louise VanKleeck.

Some of the young folk in the community went to Garden Home Friday evening to charivari Mr. and Mrs. Dan Blackburn (Elva Miller of Kinton) and her sister, Mrs. Vernon Leachman of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Faix.

A number from here are employed picking walnuts in the numerous orchards in Scholls.

Mr. and Mrs. George Snider were called to Clatskanie by the illness of her brother, Grant Dawson, who resides there. Mrs. Fred West of Portland, their daughter, was at the Snider home while they were away.

Miss Mableanna Gembella spent last week with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Aldred Richards, of near Dosh Station.

Mrs. Gladys Aten was quite ill at her home on Pleasant Valley road last week, but is very much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Wilson and daughter of Banks visited Mr. Wil-

Timber Group Has Election

Miss Dean Bride of Harvey Wilson at Vancouver

(By Miss Julia A. Morse)

TIMBER—County officers of the Parent-Teachers' association met with members of the Timber P. T. A. and Sunset ladies to re-organize a parent-teacher adult education club. Mrs. Allen Knight of Forest Grove, county president of the P. T. A., conducted the meeting, giving a talk on aims of P. T. A. work and outlining a program for the Timber Education club. Officers were elected as follows: Mrs. Charles G. Stanton, president; Mrs. David Castle, vice-president; Mrs. M. F. Webster, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. W. G. Pearson, program chairman. Mrs. Alf Johannessen of Glenwood talked on "How to Conduct a Study Club."

Edwin Hallom spent the past week visiting with her mother in Portland.

Portland visitors from Timber Saturday included Mrs. John Richmond, Mrs. Boyd Wright and two children, Walter and Bettie Jean. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gilmore and daughter Claudette, who spent the week-end in Portland visiting friends, and J. R. Willis and Percy McCampbell.

Miss Dorothy Dean, daughter of Mrs. B. H. Tiltonson of Timber, and Harvey Wilson of Gales Creek were married October 8 at Vancouver, Wash., with Mr. and Mrs. Tiltonson and Everett Dean of Vancouver acting as witnesses. They returned home Saturday evening bringing with them as their guests, Everett Dean, Bernie Miller and Herbert Miller, all of Vancouver. The bride was accompanied with a hearty charivari on their return. The young couple will make their home in Timber.

David and Robert Lindsay of Beaverton visited Mr. and Mrs. John Richmond last Friday. David Lindsay was formerly with the Snider Bros. Shingle Co. as bookkeeper.

I. Snider of Carlton was a business visitor in Timber Saturday. Miles Davies of Vancouver, Wash., visited here Sunday. He was formerly employed at the Timber Mercantile store.

E. G. Pearson was a business visitor in Hillsboro last Monday and Wednesday.

John C. Haskins was injured at Sunset Camp last week when the "skyline" broke, wrapping itself around him. Two ribs were broken and one rib penetrated his lung. He was taken to the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland.

Mrs. W. W. McDonald spent part of last week visiting friends in Roseburg and Eugene.

R. E. Barker and son George of Portland have purchased the Westmiller mill and have started repair work on the dam and buildings. It is understood that Barker were the builders of the mill.

Mrs. Edwin Hallom is visiting friends in Tum Tum, Wash., this week.

The CCC camp at Westmiller gave a club dance at the Timber hall last Thursday night. A good crowd attended and it is hoped that good crowds will continue. A very good orchestra has been organized from the camp musicians and furnishes the music.

Miss Margaret McCampbell of Portland, a former resident of Timber, was a visitor here last week.

Mrs. Ben T. Hart and sister, Mrs. Margaret Fink, attended the stock show this week. While they were in Portland the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Nelson.

Timber Group Has Election

Miss Dean Bride of Harvey Wilson at Vancouver

(By Miss Julia A. Morse)

TIMBER—County officers of the Parent-Teachers' association met with members of the Timber P. T. A. and Sunset ladies to re-organize a parent-teacher adult education club. Mrs. Allen Knight of Forest Grove, county president of the P. T. A., conducted the meeting, giving a talk on aims of P. T. A. work and outlining a program for the Timber Education club. Officers were elected as follows: Mrs. Charles G. Stanton, president; Mrs. David Castle, vice-president; Mrs. M. F. Webster, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. W. G. Pearson, program chairman. Mrs. Alf Johannessen of Glenwood talked on "How to Conduct a Study Club."

Edwin Hallom spent the past week visiting with her mother in Portland.

Portland visitors from Timber Saturday included Mrs. John Richmond, Mrs. Boyd Wright and two children, Walter and Bettie Jean. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gilmore and daughter Claudette, who spent the week-end in Portland visiting friends, and J. R. Willis and Percy McCampbell.

Miss Dorothy Dean, daughter of Mrs. B. H. Tiltonson of Timber, and Harvey Wilson of Gales Creek were married October 8 at Vancouver, Wash., with Mr. and Mrs. Tiltonson and Everett Dean of Vancouver acting as witnesses. They returned home Saturday evening bringing with them as their guests, Everett Dean, Bernie Miller and Herbert Miller, all of Vancouver. The bride was accompanied with a hearty charivari on their return. The young couple will make their home in Timber.

David and Robert Lindsay of Beaverton visited Mr. and Mrs. John Richmond last Friday. David Lindsay was formerly with the Snider Bros. Shingle Co. as bookkeeper.

I. Snider of Carlton was a business visitor in Timber Saturday. Miles Davies of Vancouver, Wash., visited here Sunday. He was formerly employed at the Timber Mercantile store.

E. G. Pearson was a business visitor in Hillsboro last Monday and Wednesday.

John C. Haskins was injured at Sunset Camp last week when the "skyline" broke, wrapping itself around him. Two ribs were broken and one rib penetrated his lung. He was taken to the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland.

Mrs. W. W. McDonald spent part of last week visiting friends in Roseburg and Eugene.

R. E. Barker and son George of Portland have purchased the Westmiller mill and have started repair work on the dam and buildings. It is understood that Barker were the builders of the mill.

Mrs. Edwin Hallom is visiting friends in Tum Tum, Wash., this week.

The CCC camp at Westmiller gave a club dance at the Timber hall last Thursday night. A good crowd attended and it is hoped that good crowds will continue. A very good orchestra has been organized from the camp musicians and furnishes the music.

Miss Margaret McCampbell of Portland, a former resident of Timber, was a visitor here last week.

Mrs. Ben T. Hart and sister, Mrs. Margaret Fink, attended the stock show this week. While they were in Portland the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Nelson.

Program Saturday at Pleasant View

By Mrs. Fred McCormick

CHEHALM MOUNTAIN—Mrs. Glen Miller, Mrs. George Maynard and Mrs. Wayne Jones have been appointed by Mrs. Ray Ego, president of the Pleasant View community club to serve at the seven o'clock pot luck supper at the school house Saturday evening.

Ray Ego and Mrs. William Rodgers, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lacey Ornduff and family of Oregon City visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ego of Carlton visited his brother, Ray Ego, and sister, Mrs. William Rodgers, Sunday.

Infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jones was seriously ill last week and under the care of a Newberg doctor. He was improving at this writing.

Mrs. Anna Deal is making her home with Ira G. McCormick and family and attending Newberg union high.

Mr. Ego and E. G. Heaton are doing the team work for an SERA project on what was the Twig place. A crew of men from Hillsboro worked the team Saturday afternoon out saw logs and cordwood. This week the crew is from Aloha, next week the men will come from Beaverton.

Mrs. Margaret Neill is staying with Mrs. Leo Buserie at St. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lawrence of Clackamas visited the Fielder Wood and John Davis families Sunday. They brought a wheel chair for Mr. Davis, who has been unable to walk since he fell last April 13 and had a fire.

Mrs. John Harvey of Blaine, Wash., Mrs. Tom Harvey of Bellingham, Wash., and daughter, Mrs. Henry C. Jones, visited Sunday and arrived on the mountain Saturday for a two weeks' visit at the Jerome Buzan and M. M. Harvey homes.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Otto and family visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Kumrow, at Portland Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Otto and son were guests Sunday of Mr. Otto's sister, Mrs. Mary Willers, at Hillsboro.

The Misses Reva and Enola Barlow, daughters of Mrs. W. F. Wohlshiegl, arrived at San Francisco October 2 for an indefinite stay. They went by boat and experienced two slight earthquakes the day they arrived according to letters received from them.

Guests at the Clayton Whitmore home Sunday and Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Savage of Wainiac and her sister, Bonita Morgan, of Chehalis Center.

Herbert Reynolds of Newberg was guest at the W. I. Jones home Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hill and Ben Thull left Saturday morning for a week's trip in Eastern Oregon. They will look over some farms near Mitchell, with the idea of buying, if they find what they want, and will also hunt deer in the Ochoco national forest.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill and family of Hillsboro visited Monday at the Hill home. Mrs. Kurt Jacky of North Plains is staying here during the absence of her mother, Mrs. Arthur Hill.

Mrs. Ernest Guntler entertained with a dinner Sunday for Mrs. Viola Reetz, Miss Mary Reetz and the Alvin Reetz family of Corvallis and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ego and Miss Penelope Ego of Mountain Home. Covers were laid for 15.

Mrs. Ira G. McCormick visited Mrs. Claud Stevens at Newberg Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Finigan and daughter and son and Angus Baker of Portland were week-end guests at the Finigan home.

L. T. Finigan and daughter Miss Wanda visited at the home of Mrs. Oscar Haag at Reedville Saturday afternoon and were entertained at the Carl Wohlshiegl home at Scholls Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike McKern and children of Fernwood, Pierce Gugin of Pendleton and Miss Ann Ornduff of Portland visited at the Rufus Ornduff home Sunday. Miss Ornduff spent Saturday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ornduff.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McInnis and family of Reedville, Frank Painter and J. A. Thomson of Portland were guests Sunday.

Program Saturday at Pleasant View

By Mrs. Fred McCormick

CHEHALM MOUNTAIN—Mrs. Glen Miller, Mrs. George Maynard and Mrs. Wayne Jones have been appointed by Mrs. Ray Ego, president of the Pleasant View community club to serve at the seven o'clock pot luck supper at the school house Saturday evening.

Ray Ego and Mrs. William Rodgers, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lacey Ornduff and family of Oregon City visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ego of Carlton visited his brother, Ray Ego, and sister, Mrs. William Rodgers, Sunday.

Infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jones was seriously ill last week and under the care of a Newberg doctor. He was improving at this writing.

Mrs. Anna Deal is making her home with Ira G. McCormick and family and attending Newberg union high.

Mr. Ego and E. G. Heaton are doing the team work for an SERA project on what was the Twig place. A crew of men from Hillsboro worked the team Saturday afternoon out saw logs and cordwood. This week the crew is from Aloha, next week the men will come from Beaverton.

Mrs. Margaret Neill is staying with Mrs. Leo Buserie at St. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lawrence of Clackamas visited the Fielder Wood and John Davis families Sunday. They brought a wheel chair for Mr. Davis, who has been unable to walk since he fell last April 13 and had a fire.

Mrs. John Harvey of Blaine, Wash., Mrs. Tom Harvey of Bellingham, Wash., and daughter, Mrs. Henry C. Jones, visited Sunday and arrived on the mountain Saturday for a two weeks' visit at the Jerome Buzan and M. M. Harvey homes.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Otto and family visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Kumrow, at Portland Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Otto and son were guests Sunday of Mr. Otto's sister, Mrs. Mary Willers, at Hillsboro.

The Misses Reva and Enola Barlow, daughters of Mrs. W. F. Wohlshiegl, arrived at San Francisco October 2 for an indefinite stay. They went by boat and experienced two slight earthquakes the day they arrived according to letters received from them.

Guests at the Clayton Whitmore home Sunday and Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Savage of Wainiac and her sister, Bonita Morgan, of Chehalis Center.

Herbert Reynolds of Newberg was guest at the W. I. Jones home Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hill and Ben Thull left Saturday morning for a week's trip in Eastern Oregon. They will look over some farms near Mitchell, with the idea of buying, if they find what they want, and will also hunt deer in the Ochoco national forest.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill and family of Hillsboro visited Monday at the Hill home. Mrs. Kurt Jacky of North Plains is staying here during the absence of her mother, Mrs. Arthur Hill.

Mrs. Ernest Guntler entertained with a dinner Sunday for Mrs. Viola Reetz, Miss Mary Reetz and the Alvin Reetz family of Corvallis and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ego and Miss Penelope Ego of Mountain Home. Covers were laid for 15.

Mrs. Ira G. McCormick visited Mrs. Claud Stevens at Newberg Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Finigan and daughter and son and Angus Baker of Portland were week-end guests at the Finigan home.

L. T. Finigan and daughter Miss Wanda visited at the home of Mrs. Oscar Haag at Reedville Saturday afternoon and were entertained at the Carl Wohlshiegl home at Scholls Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike McKern and children of Fernwood, Pierce Gugin of Pendleton and Miss Ann Ornduff of Portland visited at the Rufus Ornduff home Sunday. Miss Ornduff spent Saturday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ornduff.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McInnis and family of Reedville, Frank Painter and J. A. Thomson of Portland were guests Sunday.

Program Saturday at Pleasant View

By Mrs. Fred McCormick

CHEHALM MOUNTAIN—Mrs. Glen Miller, Mrs. George Maynard and Mrs. Wayne Jones have been appointed by Mrs. Ray Ego, president of the Pleasant View community club to serve at the seven o'clock pot luck supper at the school house Saturday evening.

Ray Ego and Mrs. William Rodgers, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lacey Ornduff and family of Oregon City visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ego of Carlton visited his brother, Ray Ego, and sister, Mrs. William Rodgers, Sunday.

Infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jones was seriously ill last week and under the care of a Newberg doctor. He was improving at this writing.

Mrs. Anna Deal is making her home with Ira G. McCormick and family and attending Newberg union high.

Mr. Ego and E. G. Heaton are doing the team work for an SERA project on what was the Twig place. A crew of men from Hillsboro worked the team Saturday afternoon out saw logs and cordwood. This week the crew is from Aloha, next week the men will come from Beaverton.

Mrs. Margaret Neill is staying with Mrs. Leo Buserie at St. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lawrence of Clackamas visited the Fielder Wood and John Davis families Sunday. They brought a wheel chair for Mr. Davis, who has been unable to walk since he fell last April 13 and had a fire.

Mrs. John Harvey of Blaine, Wash., Mrs. Tom Harvey of Bellingham, Wash., and daughter, Mrs. Henry C. Jones, visited Sunday and arrived on the mountain Saturday for a two weeks' visit at the Jerome Buzan and M. M. Harvey homes.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Otto and family visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Kumrow, at Portland Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Otto and son were guests Sunday of Mr. Otto's sister, Mrs. Mary Willers, at Hillsboro.

The Misses Reva and Enola Barlow, daughters of Mrs. W. F. Wohlshiegl, arrived at San Francisco October 2 for an indefinite stay. They went by boat and experienced two slight earthquakes the day they arrived according to letters received from them.

Guests at the Clayton Whitmore home Sunday and Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Savage of Wainiac and her sister, Bonita Morgan, of Chehalis Center.

Herbert Reynolds of Newberg was guest at the W. I. Jones home Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hill and Ben Thull left Saturday morning for a week's trip in Eastern Oregon. They will look over some farms near Mitchell, with the idea of buying, if they find what they want, and will also hunt deer in the Ochoco national forest.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill and family of Hillsboro visited Monday at the Hill home. Mrs. Kurt Jacky of North Plains is staying here during the absence of her mother, Mrs. Arthur Hill.

Mrs. Ernest Guntler entertained with a dinner Sunday for Mrs. Viola Reetz, Miss Mary Reetz and the Alvin Reetz family of Corvallis and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ego and Miss Penelope Ego of Mountain Home. Covers were laid for 15.

Mrs. Ira G. McCormick visited Mrs. Claud Stevens at Newberg Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Finigan and daughter and son and Angus Baker of Portland were week-end guests at the Finigan home.

L. T. Finigan and daughter Miss Wanda visited at the home of Mrs. Oscar Haag at Reedville Saturday afternoon and were entertained at the Carl Wohlshiegl home at Scholls Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike McKern and children of Fernwood, Pierce Gugin of Pendleton and Miss Ann Ornduff of Portland visited at the Rufus Ornduff home Sunday. Miss Ornduff spent Saturday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ornduff.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McInnis and family of Reedville, Frank Painter and J. A. Thomson of Portland were guests Sunday.

Program Saturday at Pleasant View

By Mrs. Fred McCormick

CHEHALM MOUNTAIN—Mrs. Glen Miller, Mrs. George Maynard and Mrs. Wayne Jones have been appointed by Mrs. Ray Ego, president of the Pleasant View community club to serve at the seven o'clock pot luck supper at the school house Saturday evening.

Ray Ego and Mrs. William Rodgers, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lacey Ornduff and family of Oregon City visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ego of Carlton visited his brother, Ray Ego, and sister, Mrs. William Rodgers, Sunday.

Infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jones was seriously ill last week and under the care of a Newberg doctor. He was improving at this writing.

Mrs. Anna Deal is making her home with Ira G. McCormick and family and attending Newberg union high.

Mr. Ego and E. G. Heaton are doing the team work for an SERA project on what was the Twig place. A crew of men from Hillsboro worked the team Saturday afternoon out saw logs and cordwood. This week the crew is from Aloha, next week the men will come from Beaverton.

Mrs. Margaret Neill is staying with Mrs. Leo Buserie at St. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lawrence of Clackamas visited the Fielder Wood and John Davis families Sunday. They brought a wheel chair for Mr. Davis, who has been unable to walk since he fell last April 13 and had a fire.

Mrs. John Harvey of Blaine, Wash., Mrs. Tom Harvey of Bellingham, Wash., and daughter, Mrs. Henry C. Jones, visited Sunday and arrived on the mountain Saturday for a two weeks' visit at the Jerome Buzan and M. M. Harvey homes.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Otto and family visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Kumrow, at Portland Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Otto and son were guests Sunday of Mr. Otto's sister, Mrs. Mary Willers, at Hillsboro.

The Misses Reva and Enola Barlow, daughters of Mrs. W. F. Wohlshiegl, arrived at San Francisco October 2 for an indefinite stay. They went by boat and experienced two slight earthquakes the day they arrived according to letters received from them.

Guests at the Clayton Whitmore home Sunday and Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Savage of Wainiac and her sister, Bonita Morgan, of Chehalis Center.

Herbert Reynolds of Newberg was guest at the W. I. Jones home Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hill and Ben Thull left Saturday morning for a week's trip in Eastern Oregon. They will look over some farms near Mitchell, with the idea of buying, if they find what they want, and will also hunt deer in the Ochoco national forest.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill and family of Hillsboro visited Monday at the Hill home. Mrs. Kurt Jacky of North Plains is staying here during the absence of her mother, Mrs. Arthur Hill.

Mrs. Ernest Guntler entertained with a dinner Sunday for Mrs. Viola Reetz, Miss Mary Reetz and the Alvin Reetz family of Corvallis and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ego and Miss Penelope Ego of Mountain Home. Covers were laid for 15.

Mrs. Ira G. McCormick visited Mrs. Claud Stevens at Newberg Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Finigan and daughter and son and Angus Baker of Portland were week-end guests at the Finigan home.

L. T. Finigan and daughter Miss Wanda visited at the home of Mrs. Oscar Haag at Reedville Saturday afternoon and were entertained at the Carl Wohlshiegl home at Scholls Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike McKern and children of Fernwood, Pierce Gugin of Pendleton and Miss Ann Ornduff of Portland visited at the Rufus Ornduff home Sunday. Miss Ornduff spent Saturday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ornduff.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McInnis and family of Reedville, Frank Painter and J. A. Thomson of Portland were guests Sunday.

H. D. KERKMAN

Republican Candidate for County Commissioner

The continuation of an economical, efficient and conservative management of County affairs is my pledge to the people of Washington County.

An examination of my record as County Commissioner reveals a constant, continuous service to the taxpayers which has resulted in:

1. Lower County Taxes.
2. A business administration.
3. Better roads for less money.

(Paid Ad.)

RADIO SERVICE

LET US REPAIR YOUR SET ALL MAKES GUARANTEED REASONABLE RATES

FOR BEST RECEPTION BUY NEW NATIONAL RADIO TUBES

Douglass Radio Service

Selfridge Bros. Phone 21X PHILCO DEALERS

Hiteon Club Sewes for Two Hospitals

(By Mrs. Zell G. Strubbs)

HITEON—Hiteon club met October 3 at the home of Mrs. Bessie Summers with Mrs. Gladys Meyer as joint hostess. Fourteen members and one visitor were present and all were busy with "recollections of childhood with pictures."

Sewing for Alberta Kerr nursery home and scrap books for Doerbencher were worked on. An invitation to attend open house at Pacific University October 12 was accepted. Mrs. Isabel Warrens was present and explained the county C. W. A. sewing and showed the work being done. Next meeting October 17, will be at the home of Mrs. Sarah VanKleeck, when a comfort will be made for the county loan closet.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles VanKleeck and Mr. and Mrs. Clay Dorland spent several days visiting relatives near Roseburg.

Following were Sunday guests at the William F. Campbell home: Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Cook of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Cook and family of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cook of Portland.

Morris Ferris left Friday for Detroit to enter the CCC training camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Metzentine and Myrna Marie, who have been at the H. Metzentine home, returned to Hillsboro Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Davies and family are moving to their place near the George Davies farm.

Why the GREATER SUNDAY OREGONIAN only can give you Complete • Dominant NEWS COVERAGE

This newspaper alone is privileged to publish the Sunday reports of the world's leading press services; maintains the largest staff of reporters of any Oregon newspaper; and receives Northwest news from 250 correspondents.

Exclusive Press Services

Associated Press Sunday Wire

North American Newspaper Alliance

Chicago Tribune Leased Wire

NEW RATES

The price of the daily Oregonian, without Sunday, has been reduced to 45c per month, by carrier. The price of the Sunday and daily Oregonian is now 85c per month, delivered by carrier. (For detailed rates see editorial page.)

Order from your local Oregonian dealer:

LEE CLARK
1145 Jackson St. Phone 1052 Hillsboro, Oregon

Hillsboro Firemen Called to Aloha

(By H. C. Stuard)

ALOHA—Hillsboro fire department was called early Monday morning to extinguish a chimney fire at the Huber store.

Mrs. Hattie Titseff of Hood River is visiting for a few days at the S. J. Fetters home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. W. Abbott spent Sunday at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holt of Hillsboro were Sunday visitors at the Matt King home.

Leonard Farlow of the Aloha Pharmacy has rented the Laskelo house on Wheeler avenue and expects to move his family here Sunday.

Miss Hilda Ashford and Glenn Lee are visiting at the home of an old schoolmate of Miss Ashford's at Oceanview.

Aloha Grange will open its fall term of dancing Saturday night with a big barn dance. A four-piece orchestra will furnish the music.

Home Burns

The Claypool home on the Farmington road was burned to the ground last week. The point on the A. H. Wright home next door was badly scorched and firemen had a hard fight in saving the house.

Mrs. Edward Drexler of Garrison, N. D., mother of Mrs. J. Peters of Aloha and Mrs. G. Fiddler of Portland, sister of Mrs. Peters, arrived Monday by bus from North Dakota. Mrs. Drexler expects to remain in Oregon throughout the winter. It is her first visit to Oregon and she thinks the scenery and weather grand as there was two inches of snow on the ground and freezing temperature when she left.

Leaves on Trip

Mrs. Emma Bush left October 3 for an extended visit with relatives which will take her to North and South Dakota, Iowa and Nebraska. She expects to be gone at least two months. She was the recipient of several gifts from the Daughters of Union Veterans, of which she is a past president, at the meeting Monday.

Nine Boy Scouts from the local troop enjoyed a two-day outing in their cabin near Sherman's mill.

Rev. Ralph Wescarver of Hillsboro was in Aloha Thursday calling on several of his friends.

Grace Ford and her father, T. G. Ford, spent the week-end in Portland visiting relatives.

While on his way home to Corvallis from Brewster, Wash., Leonard Swanson visited his sister, Mrs. Edward Johnson, at Hillsboro.

Lecture hour at Aloha Grange Thursday evening was turned over to the lecturer of Gale Grange of Forest Grove, who presented a very interesting program. There were also many visitors present from Forest Grove.

Move to Beaverton

C. W. Brown, who has resided here for the past five years, has moved his family to Beaverton.

The house on Blanton street, formerly owned by the Harry Edkins family, has been rented to W. Erickson, who will occupy it October 15.

Hillsboro Firemen Called to Aloha

(By H. C. Stuard)

ALOHA—Hillsboro fire department was called early Monday morning to extinguish a chimney fire at the Huber store.

Mrs. Hattie Titseff of Hood River is visiting for a few days at the S. J. Fetters home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. W. Abbott spent Sunday at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holt of Hillsboro were Sunday visitors at the Matt King home.

Leonard Farlow of the Aloha Pharmacy has rented the Laskelo house on Wheeler avenue and expects to move his family here Sunday.

Miss Hilda Ashford and Glenn Lee are visiting at the home of an old schoolmate of Miss Ashford's at Oceanview.

Aloha Grange will open its fall term of dancing Saturday night with a big barn dance. A four-piece orchestra will furnish the music.

Home Burns

The Claypool home on the Farmington road was burned to the ground last week. The point on the A. H. Wright home next door was badly scorched and firemen had a hard fight in saving the house.

Mrs. Edward Drexler of Garrison, N. D., mother of Mrs. J. Peters of Aloha and Mrs. G. Fiddler of Portland, sister of Mrs. Peters, arrived Monday by bus from North Dakota. Mrs. Drexler expects to remain in Oregon throughout the winter. It is her first visit to Oregon and she thinks the scenery and weather grand as there was two inches of snow on the ground and freezing temperature when she left.

Leaves on Trip

Mrs. Emma Bush left October 3 for an extended visit with relatives which will take her to North and South Dakota, Iowa and Nebraska. She expects to be gone at least two months. She was the recipient of several gifts from the Daughters of Union Veterans, of which she is a past president, at the meeting Monday.

Nine Boy Scouts from the local troop enjoyed a two-day outing in their cabin near Sherman's mill.

Rev. Ralph Wescarver of Hillsboro was in Aloha Thursday calling on several of his friends.

Grace Ford and her father, T. G. Ford, spent the week-end in Portland visiting relatives.

While on his way home to Corvallis from Brewster, Wash., Leonard Swanson visited his sister, Mrs. Edward Johnson, at Hillsboro.

Lecture hour at Aloha Grange Thursday evening was turned over to the lecturer of Gale Grange of Forest Grove, who presented a very interesting program. There were also many visitors present from Forest Grove.

Move to Beaverton

C. W. Brown, who has resided here for the past five years, has moved his family to Beaverton.

The house on Blanton street, formerly owned by the Harry Edkins family, has been rented to W. Erickson, who will occupy it October 15.

Hillsboro Firemen Called to Aloha

(By H. C. Stuard)

ALOHA—Hillsboro fire department was called early Monday morning to extinguish a chimney fire at the Huber store.

Mrs. Hattie Titseff of Hood River is visiting for a few days at the S. J. Fetters home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. W. Abbott spent Sunday at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holt of Hillsboro were Sunday visitors at the Matt King home.

Leonard Farlow of the Aloha Pharmacy has rented the Laskelo house on Wheeler avenue and expects to move his family here Sunday.

Miss Hilda Ashford and Glenn Lee are visiting at the home of an old schoolmate of Miss Ashford's at Oceanview.

Aloha Grange will open its fall term of dancing Saturday night with a big barn dance. A four-piece orchestra will furnish the music.

Home Burns

The Claypool home on the Farmington road was burned to the ground last week. The point on the A. H. Wright home next door was badly scorched and firemen had a hard fight in saving the house.

Mrs. Edward Drexler of Garrison, N. D., mother of Mrs. J. Peters of Aloha and Mrs. G. Fiddler of Portland, sister of Mrs. Peters, arrived Monday by bus from North Dakota. Mrs. Drexler expects to remain in Oregon throughout the winter. It is her first visit to Oregon and she thinks the scenery and weather grand as there was two inches of snow on the ground and freezing temperature when she left.

Leaves on Trip

Mrs. Emma Bush left October 3 for an extended visit with relatives which will take her to North and South Dakota, Iowa and Nebraska. She expects to be gone at least two months. She was the recipient of several gifts from the Daughters of Union Veterans, of which she is a past president, at the meeting Monday.

Nine Boy Scouts from the local troop enjoyed a two-day outing in their cabin near Sherman's mill.

Rev. Ralph Wescarver of Hillsboro was in Aloha Thursday calling on several of his friends.

Grace Ford and her father, T. G. Ford, spent the week-end in Portland visiting relatives.

While on his way home to Corvallis from Brewster, Wash., Leonard Swanson visited his sister, Mrs. Edward Johnson, at Hillsboro.

Lecture hour at Aloha Grange Thursday evening was turned over to the lecturer of Gale Grange of Forest Grove, who presented a very interesting program. There were also many visitors present from Forest Grove.

Move to Beaverton

C. W. Brown, who has resided here for the past five years, has moved his family to Beaverton.

The house on Blanton street, formerly owned by the Harry Edkins family, has been rented to W. Erickson, who will occupy it October 15.

Hillsboro Firemen Called to Aloha

(By H. C. Stuard)

ALOHA—Hillsboro fire department was called early Monday morning to extinguish a chimney fire at the Huber store.

Mrs. Hattie Titseff of Hood River is visiting for a few days at the S. J. Fetters home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. W. Abbott spent Sunday at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holt of Hillsboro were Sunday visitors at the Matt King home.

Leonard Farlow of the Aloha Pharmacy has rented the Laskelo house on Wheeler avenue and expects to move his family here Sunday.

Miss Hilda Ashford and Glenn Lee are visiting at the home of an old schoolmate of Miss Ashford's at Oceanview.

Aloha Grange will open its fall term of dancing Saturday night with a big barn dance. A four-piece orchestra will furnish the music.

Home Burns

The Claypool home on the Farmington road was burned to the ground last week. The point on the A. H. Wright home next door was badly scorched and firemen had a hard fight in saving the house.

Mrs. Edward Drexler of Garrison, N. D., mother of Mrs. J. Peters of Aloha and Mrs. G. Fiddler of Portland, sister of Mrs. Peters, arrived Monday by bus from North Dakota. Mrs. Drexler expects to remain in Oregon throughout the winter. It is her first visit to Oregon and she thinks the scenery and weather grand as there was two inches of snow on the ground and freezing temperature when she left.

Leaves on Trip

Mrs. Emma Bush left October 3 for an extended visit with relatives which will take her to North and South Dakota, Iowa and Nebraska. She expects to be gone at least two months. She was the recipient of several gifts from the Daughters of Union Veterans, of which she is a past president, at the meeting Monday.

Nine Boy Scouts from the local troop enjoyed a two-day outing in their cabin near Sherman's mill.

Rev. Ralph Wescarver of Hillsboro was in Aloha Thursday calling on several of his friends.

Grace Ford and her father, T. G. Ford, spent the week-end in Portland visiting relatives.

While on his way home to Corvallis from Brewster, Wash., Leonard Swanson visited his sister, Mrs. Edward Johnson, at Hillsboro.

Lecture hour at Aloha Grange Thursday evening was turned over to the lecturer of Gale Grange of Forest Grove, who presented a very interesting program. There were also many visitors present from Forest Grove.

Move to Beaverton

C. W. Brown, who has resided here for the past five years, has moved his family to Beaverton.

The house on Blanton street, formerly owned by the Harry Edkins family, has been rented to W. Erickson, who will occupy it October 15.

Hillsboro Firemen Called to Aloha

(By H. C. Stuard)

ALOHA—Hillsboro fire department was called early Monday morning to extinguish a chimney fire at the Huber store.

Mrs. Hattie Titseff of Hood River is visiting for a few days at the S. J. Fetters home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. W. Abbott spent Sunday at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holt of Hillsboro were Sunday visitors at the Matt King home.

Leonard Farlow of the Aloha Pharmacy has rented the Laskelo house on Wheeler avenue and expects to move his family here Sunday.

Miss Hilda Ashford and Glenn Lee are visiting at the home of an old schoolmate of Miss Ashford's at Oceanview.

Aloha Grange will open its fall term of dancing Saturday night with a big barn dance. A four-piece orchestra will furnish the music.

Home Burns

The Claypool home on the Farmington road was burned to the ground last week. The point on the A. H. Wright home next door was badly scorched and firemen had a hard fight in saving the house.

Mrs. Edward Drexler of Garrison, N. D., mother of Mrs. J. Peters of Aloha and Mrs. G. Fiddler of Portland, sister of Mrs. Peters, arrived Monday by bus from North Dakota. Mrs. Drexler expects to remain in Oregon throughout the winter. It is her first visit to Oregon and she thinks the scenery and weather grand as there was two inches of snow on the ground and freezing temperature when she left.

Leaves on Trip

Mrs. Emma Bush left October 3 for an extended visit with relatives which will take her to North and South Dakota, Iowa and Nebraska. She expects to be gone at least two months. She was the recipient of several gifts from the Daughters of Union Veterans, of which she is a past president, at the meeting Monday.

Nine Boy Scouts from the local troop enjoyed a two-day outing in their cabin near Sherman's mill.

Rev. Ralph Wescarver of Hillsboro was in Aloha Thursday calling on several of his friends.

Grace Ford and her father, T. G. Ford, spent the week-end in Portland visiting relatives.

While on his way home to Corvallis from Brewster, Wash., Leonard Swanson visited his sister, Mrs. Edward Johnson, at Hillsboro.

Lecture hour at Aloha Grange Thursday evening was turned over to the lecturer of Gale Grange of Forest Grove, who presented a very interesting program. There were also many visitors present from Forest Grove.

Move to Beaverton

C. W. Brown, who has resided here for the past five years, has moved his family to Beaverton.

The house on Blanton street, formerly owned by the Harry Edkins family, has been rented to W. Erickson, who will occupy it October 15.

Hillsboro Firemen Called to Aloha

(By H. C. Stuard)

ALOHA—Hillsboro fire department was called early Monday morning to extinguish a chimney fire at the Huber store.

Mrs. Hattie Titseff of Hood River is visiting for a few days at the S. J. Fetters home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. W. Abbott spent Sunday at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holt of Hillsboro were Sunday visitors at the Matt King home.

Leonard Farlow of the Aloha Pharmacy has rented the Laskelo house on Wheeler avenue and expects to move his family here Sunday.

Miss Hilda Ashford and Glenn Lee are visiting at