

County C. E. Session Beaverton This Week

TIGARD—Eyes of Washington County Christian Endeavors will be turned to Beaverton this week-end, October 19 to 21, as the result of the holding of the county C. E. convention at the Beaverton Christian church. Details of the convention have been worked out for several weeks and it is expected that the convention will be greater than ever.

Theme of the convention is "This Is the Message." Rev. Ross Guiley, Eugene field secretary of Oregon C. E. union, will speak Friday evening on "We Receive the Message" and on Sunday evening, "This Is the Message." Rev. Andrew Carriek will speak Saturday evening, "We Declare the Message."

Eastern Star Has Surprises

An evening of surprises, one of the most pleasant meetings of the year, was enjoyed by members and visitors of Tualatin chapter, O. E. S., Tuesday. The chapter was surprised by Mrs. George Kellison, matron; George Gray, patron; Mrs. Harriet Hammer, associate matron; and Mrs. George Gray of Silver Lake chapter, Tillamook, who drove over specially to attend chapter. Other visitors were present from Forest, Kellogg and Martha Washington chapters.

The initiatory work was beautifully exemplified by the following past matrons and past patrons: Jane Hare, W. M.; Alf Johnson, W. P.; Valia Goodman, A. M.; Rose Cave, secretary; Mrs. Burlingame, treasurer; Lena Peters, conductress; Clara Megarrel, A. C.; Ruth Gardner, chaplain; Florence Reynolds, organist; Hester Payne, Adah; Rose Parsons, Ruth; Minn Barnes, Esther; Bertha Deck, Martha; and Adah Moore, Deacons. Prizes were awarded and installation service is scheduled for Sunday evening. Who is going to get the C. E. achievement plaque that Tigard Mrs. holds? A big question that a number of societies would like to have answered.

The largest attendance at the Beaverton convention is expected as a result of the announcement by Miss Esther Strom, county booster, that registration is far ahead of that of last year. All C. E. members are urged to register for the convention whether one can attend or not. Miss Dorothy Howes of Forest Grove is president of the county union and Miss Mildred James of Hillsboro is secretary.

Patterson Talks Legislation for Women's Group

Legislation which will come before the voters at the general election on November 6 was discussed by Paul L. Patterson for members of the Hillsboro Coffee club at their meeting last Friday in the chamber of commerce.
