Fire Endangers on Mountain

McCormick Slashing Gets Out of Control

(By Mrs. Ed McCormick)

CHIEHALEM MOUNTAIN—Fire in the slushing on the Ira G. McCormick place got beyond control Thursday night. Fourteen neighbors answered a call for help, several of whom stayed up all night. The fire was thought to be under control until five o'clock Friday evening, when it again broke out and endangered the J. E. Blazer and F. W. Mattern buildings. Eight men were working hard to save the property when the rain came. The McCormick family wish to thank their neighbors, who so willingly rendered assistance.

The young people of the Mountain Top church held a party at the Ernest Junber home Friday evening.

Homer Cady Jr. of Portland is making an indefinite stay at the home of his grandparents, Mrs. Rhoda Cady, Donald Cady another grandson, recently joined the U. S. army and has started for the Philippine Islands.

Charles Lieble, who enlisted in the army service at Vancouver, Wash., about a year ago, was one of six out of 141 who successfully passed an examination allowing him the privilege of a seven-months course at a U. S. army finance school at Washington, D. C. Charles visited at the home of his father, Mrs. Lieble, last week before leaving for Washington.

Schools here with their school houses in Yamhill county will be closed Thursday and Friday while teachers attend institute at McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jones and sons were guests of the Lee Lane family at Tillamook, Oct. 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira G. McCormick and Buford DeFord also visited the Lane family.

Merrill Hoffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hoffman, underwent a tonsil operation at the Dr. Wilson hospital in Newberg Friday.

Hodson McCormick spent Saturday night and Sunday in Portland and was a guest of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Allan H. Comber.

Miss Louise Lambrix, who works in Portland, spent her vacation last week at the home of her mother, Mrs. George Saxton.

Mrs. Clara Atterbury and her mother, Mrs. Fannie Robinson, of Hillsboro visited Mr. and Mrs. D. M. McInnis and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ira G. McCormick and W. R. Davis Thursday. Mrs. McInnis returned home with them and remained that night and the next day.

Mrs. L. L. Murray spent the week-end in Portland as a guest of Mrs. A. Shaw.

Miss Ann Deal accompanied by Roy Broderson of Ribbon Ridge went to Woodburn Sunday, where they visited Miss Thelma Lavier. L. T. Finigan and daughter Miss Wanda were entertained at the Ed Wohlschlegel home at Scholes Sunday.

A Bible study class for the high school age has been newly organized in connection with the preaching at the Mountain Top church Sunday evenings.

The wind storms Sunday put the telephone lines in the Pleasant View district out of commission.

Buford DeFord attended a dinner party Saturday evening given by

Benefit Supper Mountain Home

(By Mrs. B. Allison)

MOUNTAIN HOME—Mountain Home Ladies Aid was set forward a week to today (Thursday) in order to have more time for completing arrangements for the annual chicken pie supper. The supper will be November 9 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Schmeltzer.

Gibbs Dramatic club will hold "Open House" Friday evening at the community hall. Two short plays will be among the features of the program, which is free. Refreshments will be sold after the program, proceeds of which will go toward paying for more improvements in the hall.

Mountain Home school house has been undergoing some repair work. The south end of the building has been shingled and painted and the hall and cloak room have new floors. Elvin Lorenzen, William Peters and Don Schmeltzer did the work.

Harry Saunders of Portland spent the week-end at their farm home here. He returned to his work in Portland Sunday evening, making the trip in with his son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. B. I. Lekas, and family, who were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Saunders.
