

Jamboree Draws Big Crowd Tuesday Night

A large crowd attended the third annual Jamboree given by the Business and Professional Women's club Tuesday night at the Knights of Pythias hall.

Mrs. Maud Stannard and Mrs. Maize Caldwell were in charge of the program and Mrs. Zola Morgan was mistress of ceremonies.

The program included a one-act play, "Tenements of New York," by Mrs. L. Hall and Mrs. Stannard, with a theme song, "Sidewalks of New York," Miss Kitty Caldwell accompanied. A one-act comedy, "Time and Tide," was presented by Misses Elaine Caldwell, Gloria Coulter, Gertrude Needham and Mrs. Stannard. Mrs. Caldwell sang the theme song, "Sailing, Sailing," with guitar accompaniment. Barbara Moore gave a tap dance. Betty Joan Kramer played a piano selection. Mary Caldwell sang several solos, and a dance of the "Gay Nineties" was interpreted by Helen Wick. A costume burlesque drill, "Fishing We Will Go," was presented by members of the Royal Neighbors. Mesdames W. F. Lerner, Ed Wortman, Scott Wolfe, Claude Cook, R. B. Frost, Fred Ennis, J. Johanson, A. Butterworth, Bert Culbertson and H. H. Stannard. Mrs. Fred Sewell was piano accompanist and Mrs. Lyman Howe was accompanist for some club songs.

"Know Your Hillsboro Merchants," was a special advertising stunt and received the co-operation of 51 retail merchants. This is a program of education in home buying, and the club wishes to thank the business firms for their hearty co-operation. A prize was given for the one guessing the correct number of merchants contributing to this feature.

Several booths added to the gaiety of the occasion. Refreshments were served in the club room during the program, the Halloween motif being carried out in decorations and menu.

Mrs. Dunbar to Speak at North Plains Tuesday

November meeting of the Washington County Public Health association will be held at 8 p. m. Tuesday in the school house at North Plains.

Mrs. Harry Morgan, second vice-president and program chairman of the Washington county health association, will introduce the speaker of the evening, Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, executive secretary of the Oregon Tuberculosis association, who will speak on tuberculosis and the developments in its control and care in Oregon.

Program arrangements are being made by Mrs. Moyer, president of the North Plains P. T. A., and Mrs. Julius Schoenberg, chairman of the local health committee.

Health chairmen from the various localities in Washington county will report on the membership and the progress made in the new A-1 health rating for schools.

Musical numbers will be furnished by the local P. T. A. The general public is invited.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The St. Alexander's Young People's club of Cornelius met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doohar on Thursday evening for the purpose of electing new officers. The result of the election was: Mrs. Marguerite Doohar, president; Mayme Susbauer, vice-president; Lena Deiplanche, secretary; Robert VanLom, treasurer; Minnie Wyfels, reporter; Leo Susbauer, sergeant-at-arms; Martha Spiesschaert, chairman of social committee; Earl Chafferty, initiation chairman.

Eight new members were voted into the club.

The club will begin its activities on the evening of November 7 when a card party will be given in the city hall at Cornelius.

After the meeting additional refreshments were served and games were enjoyed.

Miss Emmott Bride of John D. Hare

With an unpretentious ceremony last Thursday evening, nuptial rites were read for Miss J. Joyce Emmott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Emmott, and John D. Hare, son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Hare, as they took their marriage vows. The bride, given away by her father, was dressed in blue velvet, and carried a bridal bouquet of pink roses, buds and fern. She was attended by Miss Winabeth McDowell, who also wore a velvet gown, and wore a corsage of pink roses.

The bridegroom was attended by Arthur D. Potwin, a chum of Mr. Hare's at the University of Oregon. Pastor Henry S. Haller of Pilgrim House officiated at the ceremony, which was held at the home of the bride's parents on East Oak street. Before the ceremony Russell G. Morgan sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Oscar Reed Miller of Portland, a cousin of the bride, who also played the wedding march.

At the conclusion of the wedding rites, Mrs. Henrietta Morgan and Mrs. A. E. Madden poured at the reception to the members of the immediate families who attended. Mrs. Bayfield Pooley assisted at the table, and Mrs. Herbert O'Brien and Miss Evelyn Pooley, cousins of the bride, served. The home was tastefully decorated with white candelabras and lighted candelabra.

Mrs. Hare wore a brown traveling suit with corsage of gardenias, as the newlyweds left for a short honeymoon in Southern Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Hare are now at home at their residence about one mile north of Hillsboro.

Walker; Miss Minerva Fuller sang a group of songs, accompanied by Mrs. Lora Reed of Hillsboro; and Robert Bitter of Baker City lodge No. 25 made a short speech.

Dancing followed the program. Next meeting of the association will be held at Banks.

Patterson New Council Head

J. Robert Patterson, Hillsboro high school senior and prominent athlete, was elected president of the Hillsboro Christian Council for the term of 1934-35, at the council meeting Tuesday evening at Pilgrim House. Patterson is vice-president of Delta chapter of the council.

Miss Helen Nelson was elected council secretary. Pastor Henry S. Haller will again serve as adviser.

Besides routine business, council planned to get a full attendance of all the chapters at the peace service at the Methodist church, November 11. Attendance at a peace observance is an annual affair of the council. Chapter members, who are of the Roman Catholic faith, will attend the 7 o'clock Mass together tomorrow morning in observance of All Souls' Day.

Hallowe'en celebration began last Friday, with the progressive party of Omega boys' chapter, and will end with the pot luck supper of Gamma girls' chapter Monday evening. Open house was observed yesterday evening at Pilgrim House for all members of chapters of our local Annual Viking dinner-dance on board the Empire Queen. Howards' chapter will install their new president next week. Bluebell chapter of Flower Guilds Junior Council added the following new names to the council membership: Mona Butts, Alice Banner, Dorothy Cooper, Florence Crittenden, Dolores Cady, Betty Ann Dorland, Dorine Poelker, Ruth Foelker, Violet Lundin, Helen Laver, Donna Louise, Mrs. Marian Menter, Meek, Genevieve Naughton, Agnes Patterson, Frieda Sturm, Amanda Frances Showers, Beverly Weill, Fern Weintz and Lola Kerns. Both the Rose chapter and Junior Guild held social affairs during the week.

Miss Heintz Weds Friday Evening

Miss Georgia Heintz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Heintz of Cornelius, and Rufus Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fox of Hillsboro, Wash., were united in marriage Friday evening at the home of the bride's parents. Dr. O. H. Holmes of Forest Grove officiated.

The bride wore a blue street dress and her sister, Miss Irene Heintz, was her only attendant. Claude Morley, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man. The bridesmaids were Autumn leaves and orange and rust-colored chrysanthemums formed a background for the ceremony. Members of the family, friends and neighbors of the bride and groom were present.

Mr. Fox is a graduate of Pacific University and is now teaching and coaching athletics at Lafayette high school. Mrs. Fox is a graduate of Hillsboro union high school. They will make their home at Lafayette.

Memorial Service Held at Roy Saturday

ROY—A beautiful wedding ceremony was celebrated at the St. Francis church Saturday morning when Miss Letha Colbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Friday, became the bride of Bernard Vanderzanden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vanderzanden. Rev. F. J. Springs officiated.

The bride wore a long white satin dress and a veil. She carried an arm bouquet of chrysanthemums. The bride was attended by Miss Edna Susbauer, who wore an ankle length dress made of yellow silk crepe, with a wreath of white and arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Charles Vanderzanden acted as best man for his brother.

After the ceremony, a dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents.

The young couple will make their home on the Davis place in Verboort, where they were charivariated Saturday night.

Memory of Pastor Will Be Honored

Flowers from the altar of the chapel of Pilgrim House will be taken on Sunday morning after the chapel service of worship and placed on the grave of "Father" John Smith Griffin in the Hillsboro cemetery. Father Griffin was the first independent Congregational clergyman to hold services west of the Rocky Mountains, services having been held in his home about one mile north of Hillsboro in 1841.

The occasion for the flowers will be the celebration of the anniversary of the establishing of Pilgrim House. The morning worship will be choral, with Elwood Coslett as soloist.

The anniversary celebration will begin this evening, with the observance of All Saints' Day. The Rev. Ralph H. Wiscarver, vicar of All Saints' Episcopal church, will preach the sermon.
