Bazaar December 1
 The Sunshine club, meeting at the home of Mrs. J. C. Wenger November 14, made final arrangements for the annual bazaar and program to be held in the North Plains K. P. hall December 1.

Leave Farm
 Mr. and Mrs. E. Sinantel have leased the E. P. Cornelius farm. The Sinantels come from South Dakota and think that Oregon surely has plenty of rain.

North Plains Parent-Teacher association will meet Tuesday at 3 p. m. in the primary room at the school. The topic for this meeting is "Health." Mr. Chamberlain of the state hygiene society will be the speaker and will show pictures illustrating his talk. Everybody come. This meeting should be of special interest to parents of school children.

Parents-Teacher study club held an interesting meeting November 13 with Mrs. Clara Troutman leader. The topic was "Children in a Changing Civilization." The club will meet again December 11 for child study. The following meetings will take up home economics. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cypher attended the funeral of Mrs. Cypher's cousin, Ralph Russell, at Madalla Friday. Mr. Russell accidentally shot himself.

The Past Chiefs' club spent Tuesday quilting at the home of Mrs. W. E. Mays and enjoyed a pot luck dinner. Mrs. Emil Miller and Mrs. A. F. Christensen were guests of Mrs. Ernest Nelson in Hillsboro Saturday.

Program Planned
 Ladies of the P. T. A. met at the home of Mrs. Henry Cypher Monday evening to start work on the program to be given December 14 at the K. of P. hall. Proceeds will be used on the tennis court.

Pension Program to Be Explained

 L. Ross of Hillsboro, state representative. He declared that his election resulted from public approval of his platform and stated that he would work for its realization. He also commended the work of the county court during recent trying years.

Newly elected county officers including Mrs. Maud Boscow of Hillsboro, county treasurer; F. J. Sewell of Hillsboro, county coroner; J. W. Barney of Hillsboro, county surveyor, and H. D. Kerkman of Schefflin, county commissioner, attended and spoke briefly. They all pledged themselves to give the best possible service to the county. Kerkman and Barney commented on the co-operation given them by the local chamber of commerce in recent years.

J. H. Garrett, mayor-elect, and Councilmen-elect L. C. Kramien and J. O. Robb were present as successful Hillsboro city candidates. Kramien pledged himself to work for the city, to oppose the spread of radical tendencies and to seek cheap electric power from Bonneville for the city. Robb declared that he had no definite program, but would work for municipal betterment. Garrett declared he would do his best to give the city a good administration.

R. Frank Peters of Hillsboro, new circuit judge in this district, expressed his appreciation for the Hillsboro vote given him and declared that he would give his best.

FOR QUIET NERVES
 Do you get jittery? Fretful when working? Restless when you should be relaxing? Drink milk. And if you have difficulty in sleeping nights a glass of warm milk at bedtime is a mighty soothing sedative that will quickly usher you into slumberland.
