

Cornelius M. E. Plans Pageant

Lutheran Bazaar Attracts Considerable Interest

(By Miss Dorothy Cooke) Sunday morning a Thanksgiving pageant entitled "The Garden of Thanksgiving" will be given at the M. E. Church at 10 o'clock. Displays of handicraft and cooking were at the Lutheran bazaar and tea Saturday afternoon in Bunting's hall and a large group of friends attended. Mrs. G. Feldman is in charge of the program. Rev. George Koehler led in prayer and gave a talk thanking the people and especially the large groups from different denominations. Mrs. A. Bunting gave a toast of welcome and announced the receiver of the quilt. Mrs. C. Rooter, singing of several songs was enjoyed along with a splendid program which included the following numbers: play, "Just One," the cast including Alice, Marie, Margie, Hildegarde, Violet, Hennie, Wilma, Hannelman and Betty Huisman; dialogue, "My Sick Doll," Joyce Lee, Feldman and Ronald Tanner; duet, "God is Good," Betty Huisman and Joyce Lee; Feldman; reading, "Doll Bath," Irene Hennie; playlet, "Poor Women's Week," Wilma Hannelman and Betty Huisman; trio, "Tell Me the Story of Jesus," Mrs. H. Schmale, Mrs. H. Hoffman and Mrs. H. Jacobsen.

Orengo People Organize Class

Honor Roll for School for Six Weeks Announced

(By Mrs. Hugh Burdette) ORENGO—A class in adult education organized under SERA is being conducted by Mrs. M. D. Whitford. Instruction in business, English and public speaking, classes held on Monday and Thursday evenings at 7:30 in the Mitchell building. A Thanksgiving service will be conducted at the church next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The president's proclamation will be read, and there will be special Thanksgiving music. Honor Roll Given Pupils on the honor roll in Austin School were: receiving a grade no lower than "two" for the six weeks ending October 19 were Ariene Bernards, Barbara Burdette, Virginia Robson, Ernest Lovden, Elva Bradley, Bernice Ensky, Robert Anderson, Helen Wilfert, and Norman Bradley. Those being neither present nor tardy were Donald Baughman, Ira Rogers, Junior Curfing, Barbara Burdette, Dorothy Parks, Helen Wilfert, Lee and Joy Hoogue. Honor roll in Miss McKinnis' primary department included pupils receiving all ones were Nancy Pitman and William Lass. Those receiving "ones" and "twos" are Dorothy Webb, Lorene Sabeld, Robert Duncan, Arthur Anderson, Daniel Bolla, and Valerie Parks. Those neither present nor tardy were Sherwood Wilfert, Stephen McIntee, Daniel Bell, Louise Parks and Dorothy Webb. Birthdays Observed Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Scheidt gave a birthday party in honor of their little daughter Lorene's seventh birthday, on Monday afternoon, November 19. The following little girls were present: Mary Jane McIntee, Louise Parks, Grace Karns, Betty Lou Peery, Camille Goodman, Valerie Stewart and Louise Scheidt. The afternoon was spent in playing games. Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Woodward and son Kenneth spent Armistice day in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Robinson and Miss Estelle Leaverton of Forest Grove were guests of Mrs. S. L. Gayle Sunday. Mrs. Mary Beach returned home with them for an extended visit. Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Woodward, Kenneth Woodward and Bob McKeown spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Kenyon of Portland. Mrs. Robert Crook has been quite ill the past week. Benefit Saturday A basketball benefit dance will be held in the school gymnasium Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Merle Persons and baby of Hillsboro spent Monday at the George Persons home. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gilmore of Portland spent a few days last week with Mrs. Gilmore's parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McDougall were visitors in Hillsboro last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Kiesel of Portland spent the week-end at the home of Mr. Kiesel's sister, Mrs. George McKinnis, and family. Mrs. J. T. Richmond has been confined to her home with a severe cold for several days. James Mitchell spent the week-end at his home in Portland. J. P. Bodley is spending this week in Portland at his home. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Marchel and daughter Cecilia spent Sunday in Forest Grove. Percy McCampbell spent the week-end at his home in Portland. Mrs. S. D. Willis drove to Corvallis Thursday, returning with Mr. Willis, who has been employed there by the S. P. Mr. and Mrs. George Riggle of Buxton spent Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Burchell Tallman. Mrs. Riggle will remain for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Townsend of Sunset Camp had as their Sunday guests, Mr. and Mrs. M. Barrett of Westminister, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fisher of Sunset camp and Mr. and Mrs. B. Britton of Vernonia.

Westimber C.C.C. Planning Dance

(By Lois Richmond) The next dance given by the CCC unit at Westimber will be held in Timber November 27. The program has been changed from Thursday to Tuesday nights. Mrs. A. C. Pearson was a business visitor in Hillsboro last Tuesday. A cuvert was put across the highway in front of the schoolhouse to carry off the excess water that flooded the school grounds and highway in wet weather last week. Mr. and Mrs. H. Narver and Mrs. Narver's sister, Mrs. M. F. Weiler, Sunday. Dick Goss of Portland visited his father, H. Goss, Thursday. Miss Ann Ornduff, Miss G. Oehlmann and Miss Louise Kalich, nurses at the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, spent last Monday and Tuesday at the home of Miss Kalich's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kalich. Miss Juanita Nelson spent the week-end with her parents in Month. Miss La Velle Berg spent the week-end at her home in Skamokawa, Wash. Mrs. Mae Tallman is working at the Hart Confectionery for a few days. Miss Irene Richmond spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Esley at Enright. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gilmore of Portland spent a few days last week with Mrs. Gilmore's parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gilmore. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McDougall were visitors in Hillsboro last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Kiesel of Portland spent the week-end at the home of Mr. Kiesel's sister, Mrs. George McKinnis, and family. Mrs. J. T. Richmond has been confined to her home with a severe cold for several days. James Mitchell spent the week-end at his home in Portland. J. P. Bodley is spending this week in Portland at his home. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Marchel and daughter Cecilia spent Sunday in Forest Grove. Percy McCampbell spent the week-end at his home in Portland. Mrs. S. D. Willis drove to Corvallis Thursday, returning with Mr. Willis, who has been employed there by the S. P. Mr. and Mrs. George Riggle of Buxton spent Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Burchell Tallman. Mrs. Riggle will remain for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Townsend of Sunset Camp had as their Sunday guests, Mr. and Mrs. M. Barrett of Westminister, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fisher of Sunset camp and Mr. and Mrs. B. Britton of Vernonia.

Washington Man Visits at Thatcher

(By Mrs. Lois Wright) THATCHER—A. Sills of Nook-sack, Wash., is here visiting his son Leon Sills. He expects to go on to California to visit his daughter before returning home. Mr. Walter Wright spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Place, of Banks, Emory Place and Tillie Knorr of Banks brought them home and spent the evening with them. Mr. and Mrs. Barber of Cornelius are shingling their house and barn where Rex Oberman lives. Margaret Andrews of Gales Creek spent Friday evening with Donna Mae Morrow. Ed King is clearing up some land for Mr. Alexander. Lou Wright and son Wilbur spent Sunday with Fred Hanev near Strassel.

Mason Hill Has Thieves Around

MASON HILL—For the second time this fall, cord wood has been stolen from Christensen Brothers, and on last Friday evening a large ham and a truck tire were taken from one of the buildings at the W. S. French wood camp. Mrs. C. H. Gonyo enjoyed a Sunday and Monday visit from her son, J. S. Cannon, who is employed at Bonneville. John Kinsey is spending a 30-day furlough from the U. S. Navy visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles Wood, and other relatives. Joyce Solberger, Betty Johnson and Noreen Johnson were overnight guests of their teacher, Miss Madelyn Shattuck, at her home in Hillsboro Thursday.

Washington Man Visits at Thatcher

(By Mrs. Lois Wright) THATCHER—A. Sills of Nook-sack, Wash., is here visiting his son Leon Sills. He expects to go on to California to visit his daughter before returning home. Mr. Walter Wright spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Place, of Banks, Emory Place and Tillie Knorr of Banks brought them home and spent the evening with them. Mr. and Mrs. Barber of Cornelius are shingling their house and barn where Rex Oberman lives. Margaret Andrews of Gales Creek spent Friday evening with Donna Mae Morrow. Ed King is clearing up some land for Mr. Alexander. Lou Wright and son Wilbur spent Sunday with Fred Hanev near Strassel.

Mason Hill Has Thieves Around

MASON HILL—For the second time this fall, cord wood has been stolen from Christensen Brothers, and on last Friday evening a large ham and a truck tire were taken from one of the buildings at the W. S. French wood camp. Mrs. C. H. Gonyo enjoyed a Sunday and Monday visit from her son, J. S. Cannon, who is employed at Bonneville. John Kinsey is spending a 30-day furlough from the U. S. Navy visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles Wood, and other relatives. Joyce Solberger, Betty Johnson and Noreen Johnson were overnight guests of their teacher, Miss Madelyn Shattuck, at her home in Hillsboro Thursday.

Washington Man Visits at Thatcher

(By Mrs. Lois Wright) THATCHER—A. Sills of Nook-sack, Wash., is here visiting his son Leon Sills. He expects to go on to California to visit his daughter before returning home. Mr. Walter Wright spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Place, of Banks, Emory Place and Tillie Knorr of Banks brought them home and spent the evening with them. Mr. and Mrs. Barber of Cornelius are shingling their house and barn where Rex Oberman lives. Margaret Andrews of Gales Creek spent Friday evening with Donna Mae Morrow. Ed King is clearing up some land for Mr. Alexander. Lou Wright and son Wilbur spent Sunday with Fred Hanev near Strassel.

Mason Hill Has Thieves Around

MASON HILL—For the second time this fall, cord wood has been stolen from Christensen Brothers, and on last Friday evening a large ham and a truck tire were taken from one of the buildings at the W. S. French wood camp. Mrs. C. H. Gonyo enjoyed a Sunday and Monday visit from her son, J. S. Cannon, who is employed at Bonneville. John Kinsey is spending a 30-day furlough from the U. S. Navy visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles Wood, and other relatives. Joyce Solberger, Betty Johnson and Noreen Johnson were overnight guests of their teacher, Miss Madelyn Shattuck, at her home in Hillsboro Thursday.

Orengo People Organize Class

Honor Roll for School for Six Weeks Announced

(By Mrs. Hugh Burdette) ORENGO—A class in adult education organized under SERA is being conducted by Mrs. M. D. Whitford. Instruction in business, English and public speaking, classes held on Monday and Thursday evenings at 7:30 in the Mitchell building. A Thanksgiving service will be conducted at the church next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The president's proclamation will be read, and there will be special Thanksgiving music. Honor Roll Given Pupils on the honor roll in Austin School were: receiving a grade no lower than "two" for the six weeks ending October 19 were Ariene Bernards, Barbara Burdette, Virginia Robson, Ernest Lovden, Elva Bradley, Bernice Ensky, Robert Anderson, Helen Wilfert, and Norman Bradley. Those being neither present nor tardy were Donald Baughman, Ira Rogers, Junior Curfing, Barbara Burdette, Dorothy Parks, Helen Wilfert, Lee and Joy Hoogue. Honor roll in Miss McKinnis' primary department included pupils receiving all ones were Nancy Pitman and William Lass. Those receiving "ones" and "twos" are Dorothy Webb, Lorene Sabeld, Robert Duncan, Arthur Anderson, Daniel Bolla, and Valerie Parks. Those neither present nor tardy were Sherwood Wilfert, Stephen McIntee, Daniel Bell, Louise Parks and Dorothy Webb. Birthdays Observed Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Scheidt gave a birthday party in honor of their little daughter Lorene's seventh birthday, on Monday afternoon, November 19. The following little girls were present: Mary Jane McIntee, Louise Parks, Grace Karns, Betty Lou Peery, Camille Goodman, Valerie Stewart and Louise Scheidt. The afternoon was spent in playing games. Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Woodward and son Kenneth spent Armistice day in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Robinson and Miss Estelle Leaverton of Forest Grove were guests of Mrs. S. L. Gayle Sunday. Mrs. Mary Beach returned home with them for an extended visit. Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Woodward, Kenneth Woodward and Bob McKeown spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Kenyon of Portland. Mrs. Robert Crook has been quite ill the past week. Benefit Saturday A basketball benefit dance will be held in the school gymnasium Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Merle Persons and baby of Hillsboro spent Monday at the George Persons home. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gilmore of Portland spent a few days last week with Mrs. Gilmore's parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McDougall were visitors in Hillsboro last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Kiesel of Portland spent the week-end at the home of Mr. Kiesel's sister, Mrs. George McKinnis, and family. Mrs. J. T. Richmond has been confined to her home with a severe cold for several days. James Mitchell spent the week-end at his home in Portland. J. P. Bodley is spending this week in Portland at his home. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Marchel and daughter Cecilia spent Sunday in Forest Grove. Percy McCampbell spent the week-end at his home in Portland. Mrs. S. D. Willis drove to Corvallis Thursday, returning with Mr. Willis, who has been employed there by the S. P. Mr. and Mrs. George Riggle of Buxton spent Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Burchell Tallman. Mrs. Riggle will remain for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Townsend of Sunset Camp had as their Sunday guests, Mr. and Mrs. M. Barrett of Westminister, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fisher of Sunset camp and Mr. and Mrs. B. Britton of Vernonia.

Washington Man Visits at Thatcher

(By Mrs. Lois Wright) THATCHER—A. Sills of Nook-sack, Wash., is here visiting his son Leon Sills. He expects to go on to California to visit his daughter before returning home. Mr. Walter Wright spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Place, of Banks, Emory Place and Tillie Knorr of Banks brought them home and spent the evening with them. Mr. and Mrs. Barber of Cornelius are shingling their house and barn where Rex Oberman lives. Margaret Andrews of Gales Creek spent Friday evening with Donna Mae Morrow. Ed King is clearing up some land for Mr. Alexander. Lou Wright and son Wilbur spent Sunday with Fred Hanev near Strassel.

Mason Hill Has Thieves Around

MASON HILL—For the second time this fall, cord wood has been stolen from Christensen Brothers, and on last Friday evening a large ham and a truck tire were taken from one of the buildings at the W. S. French wood camp. Mrs. C. H. Gonyo enjoyed a Sunday and Monday visit from her son, J. S. Cannon, who is employed at Bonneville. John Kinsey is spending a 30-day furlough from the U. S. Navy visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles Wood, and other relatives. Joyce Solberger, Betty Johnson and Noreen Johnson were overnight guests of their teacher, Miss Madelyn Shattuck, at her home in Hillsboro Thursday.

Washington Man Visits at Thatcher

(By Mrs. Lois Wright) THATCHER—A. Sills of Nook-sack, Wash., is here visiting his son Leon Sills. He expects to go on to California to visit his daughter before returning home. Mr. Walter Wright spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Place, of Banks, Emory Place and Tillie Knorr of Banks brought them home and spent the evening with them. Mr. and Mrs. Barber of Cornelius are shingling their house and barn where Rex Oberman lives. Margaret Andrews of Gales Creek spent Friday evening with Donna Mae Morrow. Ed King is clearing up some land for Mr. Alexander. Lou Wright and son Wilbur spent Sunday with Fred Hanev near Strassel.

Mason Hill Has Thieves Around

MASON HILL—For the second time this fall, cord wood has been stolen from Christensen Brothers, and on last Friday evening a large ham and a truck tire were taken from one of the buildings at the W. S. French wood camp. Mrs. C. H. Gonyo enjoyed a Sunday and Monday visit from her son, J. S. Cannon, who is employed at Bonneville. John Kinsey is spending a 30-day furlough from the U. S. Navy visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles Wood, and other relatives. Joyce Solberger, Betty Johnson and Noreen Johnson were overnight guests of their teacher, Miss Madelyn Shattuck, at her home in Hillsboro Thursday.

Washington Man Visits at Thatcher

(By Mrs. Lois Wright) THATCHER—A. Sills of Nook-sack, Wash., is here visiting his son Leon Sills. He expects to go on to California to visit his daughter before returning home. Mr. Walter Wright spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Place, of Banks, Emory Place and Tillie Knorr of Banks brought them home and spent the evening with them. Mr. and Mrs. Barber of Cornelius are shingling their house and barn where Rex Oberman lives. Margaret Andrews of Gales Creek spent Friday evening with Donna Mae Morrow. Ed King is clearing up some land for Mr. Alexander. Lou Wright and son Wilbur spent Sunday with Fred Hanev near Strassel.

Mason Hill Has Thieves Around

MASON HILL—For the second time this fall, cord wood has been stolen from Christensen Brothers, and on last Friday evening a large ham and a truck tire were taken from one of the buildings at the W. S. French wood camp. Mrs. C. H. Gonyo enjoyed a Sunday and Monday visit from her son, J. S. Cannon, who is employed at Bonneville. John Kinsey is spending a 30-day furlough from the U. S. Navy visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles Wood, and other relatives. Joyce Solberger, Betty Johnson and Noreen Johnson were overnight guests of their teacher, Miss Madelyn Shattuck, at her home in Hillsboro Thursday.

Washington Man Visits at Thatcher

(By Mrs. Lois Wright) THATCHER—A. Sills of Nook-sack, Wash., is here visiting his son Leon Sills. He expects to go on to California to visit his daughter before returning home. Mr. Walter Wright spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Place, of Banks, Emory Place and Tillie Knorr of Banks brought them home and spent the evening with them. Mr. and Mrs. Barber of Cornelius are shingling their house and barn where Rex Oberman lives. Margaret Andrews of Gales Creek spent Friday evening with Donna Mae Morrow. Ed King is clearing up some land for Mr. Alexander. Lou Wright and son Wilbur spent Sunday with Fred Hanev near Strassel.

Orengo People Organize Class

Honor Roll for School for Six Weeks Announced

(By Mrs. Hugh Burdette) ORENGO—A class in adult education organized under SERA is being conducted by Mrs. M. D. Whitford. Instruction in business, English and public speaking, classes held on Monday and Thursday evenings at 7:30 in the Mitchell building. A Thanksgiving service will be conducted at the church next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The president's proclamation will be read, and there will be special Thanksgiving music. Honor Roll Given Pupils on the honor roll in Austin School were: receiving a grade no lower than "two" for the six weeks ending October 19 were Ariene Bernards, Barbara Burdette, Virginia Robson, Ernest Lovden, Elva Bradley, Bernice Ensky, Robert Anderson, Helen Wilfert, and Norman Bradley. Those being neither present nor tardy were Donald Baughman, Ira Rogers, Junior Curfing, Barbara Burdette, Dorothy Parks, Helen Wilfert, Lee and Joy Hoogue. Honor roll in Miss McKinnis' primary department included pupils receiving all ones were Nancy Pitman and William Lass. Those receiving "ones" and "twos" are Dorothy Webb, Lorene Sabeld, Robert Duncan, Arthur Anderson, Daniel Bolla, and Valerie Parks. Those neither present nor tardy were Sherwood Wilfert, Stephen McIntee, Daniel Bell, Louise Parks and Dorothy Webb. Birthdays Observed Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Scheidt gave a birthday party in honor of their little daughter Lorene's seventh birthday, on Monday afternoon, November 19. The following little girls were present: Mary Jane McIntee, Louise Parks, Grace Karns, Betty Lou Peery, Camille Goodman, Valerie Stewart and Louise Scheidt. The afternoon was spent in playing games. Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Woodward and son Kenneth spent Armistice day in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Robinson and Miss Estelle Leaverton of Forest Grove were guests of Mrs. S. L. Gayle Sunday. Mrs. Mary Beach returned home with them for an extended visit. Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Woodward, Kenneth Woodward and Bob McKeown spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Kenyon of Portland. Mrs. Robert Crook has been quite ill the past week. Benefit Saturday A basketball benefit dance will be held in the school gymnasium Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Merle Persons and baby of Hillsboro spent Monday at the George Persons home. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gilmore of Portland spent a few days last week with Mrs. Gilmore's parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McDougall were visitors in Hillsboro last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Kiesel of Portland spent the week-end at the home of Mr. Kiesel's sister, Mrs. George McKinnis, and family. Mrs. J. T. Richmond has been confined to her home with a severe cold for several days. James Mitchell spent the week-end at his home in Portland. J. P. Bodley is spending this week in Portland at his home. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Marchel and daughter Cecilia spent Sunday in Forest Grove. Percy McCampbell spent the week-end at his home in Portland. Mrs. S. D. Willis drove to Corvallis Thursday, returning with Mr. Willis, who has been employed there by the S. P. Mr. and Mrs. George Riggle of Buxton spent Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Burchell Tallman. Mrs. Riggle will remain for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Townsend of Sunset Camp had as their Sunday guests, Mr. and Mrs. M. Barrett of Westminister, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fisher of Sunset camp and Mr. and Mrs. B. Britton of Vernonia.

Washington Man Visits at Thatcher

(By Mrs. Lois Wright) THATCHER—A. Sills of Nook-sack, Wash., is here visiting his son Leon Sills. He expects to go on to California to visit his daughter before returning home. Mr. Walter Wright spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Place, of Banks, Emory Place and Tillie Knorr of Banks brought them home and spent the evening with them. Mr. and Mrs. Barber of Cornelius are shingling their house and barn where Rex Oberman lives. Margaret Andrews of Gales Creek spent Friday evening with Donna Mae Morrow. Ed King is clearing up some land for Mr. Alexander. Lou Wright and son Wilbur spent Sunday with Fred Hanev near Strassel.

Mason Hill Has Thieves Around

MASON HILL—For the second time this fall, cord wood has been stolen from Christensen Brothers, and on last Friday evening a large ham and a truck tire were taken from one of the buildings at the W. S. French wood camp. Mrs. C. H. Gonyo enjoyed a Sunday and Monday visit from her son, J. S. Cannon, who is employed at Bonneville. John Kinsey is spending a 30-day furlough from the U. S. Navy visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles Wood, and other relatives. Joyce Solberger, Betty Johnson and Noreen Johnson were overnight guests of their teacher, Miss Madelyn Shattuck, at her home in Hillsboro Thursday.

Washington Man Visits at Thatcher

(By Mrs. Lois Wright) THATCHER—A. Sills of Nook-sack, Wash., is here visiting his son Leon Sills. He expects to go on to California to visit his daughter before returning home. Mr. Walter Wright spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Place, of Banks, Emory Place and Tillie Knorr of Banks brought them home and spent the evening with them. Mr. and Mrs. Barber of Cornelius are shingling their house and barn where Rex Oberman lives. Margaret Andrews of Gales Creek spent Friday evening with Donna Mae Morrow. Ed King is clearing up some land for Mr. Alexander. Lou Wright and son Wilbur spent Sunday with Fred Hanev near Strassel.

Mason Hill Has Thieves Around

MASON HILL—For the second time this fall, cord wood has been stolen from Christensen Brothers, and on last Friday evening a large ham and a truck tire were taken from one of the buildings at the W. S. French wood camp. Mrs. C. H. Gonyo enjoyed a Sunday and Monday visit from her son, J. S. Cannon, who is employed at Bonneville. John Kinsey is spending a 30-day furlough from the U. S. Navy visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles Wood, and other relatives. Joyce Solberger, Betty Johnson and Noreen Johnson were overnight guests of their teacher, Miss Madelyn Shattuck, at her home in Hillsboro Thursday.

Washington Man Visits at Thatcher

(By Mrs. Lois Wright) THATCHER—A. Sills of Nook-sack, Wash., is here visiting his son Leon Sills. He expects to go on to California to visit his daughter before returning home. Mr. Walter Wright spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Place, of Banks, Emory Place and Tillie Knorr of Banks brought them home and spent the evening with them. Mr. and Mrs. Barber of Cornelius are shingling their house and barn where Rex Oberman lives. Margaret Andrews of Gales Creek spent Friday evening with Donna Mae Morrow. Ed King is clearing up some land for Mr. Alexander. Lou Wright and son Wilbur spent Sunday with Fred Hanev near Strassel.

Mason Hill Has Thieves Around

MASON HILL—For the second time this fall, cord wood has been stolen from Christensen Brothers, and on last Friday evening a large ham and a truck tire were taken from one of the buildings at the W. S. French wood camp. Mrs. C. H. Gonyo enjoyed a Sunday and Monday visit from her son, J. S. Cannon, who is employed at Bonneville. John Kinsey is spending a 30-day furlough from the U. S. Navy visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles Wood, and other relatives. Joyce Solberger, Betty Johnson and Noreen Johnson were overnight guests of their teacher, Miss Madelyn Shattuck, at her home in Hillsboro Thursday.

Washington Man Visits at Thatcher

(By Mrs. Lois Wright) THATCHER—A. Sills of Nook-sack, Wash., is here visiting his son Leon Sills. He expects to go on to California to visit his daughter before returning home. Mr. Walter Wright spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Place, of Banks, Emory Place and Tillie Knorr of Banks brought them home and spent the evening with them. Mr. and Mrs. Barber of Cornelius are shingling their house and barn where Rex Oberman lives. Margaret Andrews of Gales Creek spent Friday evening with Donna Mae Morrow. Ed King is clearing up some land for Mr. Alexander. Lou Wright and son Wilbur spent Sunday with Fred Hanev near Strassel.

Kinton Group Plans Jubilee

Turning On of Electricity Celebration Occasion

(By Mrs. E. L. Cox) KINTON—Ladies' Aid society is sponsoring a "jubilee" at the church at 8 p. m. Friday when the newly installed electric lights will be turned on for the first time. A musical and literary program will be given. Rev. Carl Heimlinger of Portland will speak. He was formerly a district superintendent of the Oregon and Washington district for the Evangelical church. Many here have been ill with intestinal flu. Everyone is enjoying the new electric lights, and the electricians, who have been doing the wiring, finished their work during the past week. Grange hall and church lights were turned on the last of the week. There are still very few homes which are not yet finished. Birthdays Celebrated Miss Rosemary Aten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Aten, observed her eleventh birthday at the home of her parents Friday evening. Some of her young friends were entertained at a birthday dinner. Miss Aten received numerous gifts. Mrs. Lily M. Bierly spent a couple of days last week with her daughter, Mrs. Ethel McCormick, who is spending the winter in Hillsboro. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cox were surprised Friday evening when Mr. and Mrs. George A. Brewster of Rockland, Maine, came and remained until Saturday. When they continued on their journey which took them to Yakima, Wash., where they will spend the winter with their sons, who reside there. The Brewsters are making the trip in their car and came through the Southern states to California. When they arrived in Kinton their mileage was well over 5,000 miles since leaving Maine in October. This is their first trip to the west and they were very favorably impressed with the looks of the surrounding country. Mrs. Lydia Obrist and five sons of Graham visited her mother, Mrs. and Mrs. August Dallmann, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pomeroy and three daughters and S. H. Pomeroy spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. and Mrs. John Steelman, of Molalla. The following have been guests during the past week of Mr. and Mrs. August H. Dallmann: Oscar Dallmann, their son, and grand-daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Marks, all of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Aten and daughter Miss Rosemary and son Jack spent Sunday afternoon with a friend in Portland, who is ill.

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

(Continued from page 1) minority of reckless and irresponsible motor vehicle operators to whom are chargeable the mounting toll of life and injuries to persons and property," according to Ray Conway, secretary to the interim committee. "The committee concluded that it was manifestly unnecessary and unfair to compel the overwhelming majority of motorists to carry insurance to protect the community against the damage caused by the small minority."

Capitol News Letter

</