

B. P. Club Pledges Buy Oregon Products

Realizing the truth of the slogan, "What Oregon Makes, Makes Oregon," Business and Professional Women's club members at their meeting Friday night, pledged themselves to buy nothing but Oregon products, not only during the week but whenever possible, and to ask other women's organizations to do likewise. They also voted a $5 contributing membership to the Red Cross and an organization membership to the County Health association. A shower was held for the county loan closet which netted $4 in cash besides some packages of useful articles.

The program, which was in charge of the membership committee, Miss Angie Harrington acting as chairman, included a talk on county health work by Miss Margaret Dixon, county nurse, spoken by Mrs. Ethel Brien of Portland, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Sewell, piano selections by Irene Engelinger, a reading by Kathleen McAlear, and singing of war-time songs.

A Thanksgiving dinner was served in the education committee. Misses Pearl Allen, Gertrude Needham, Hila Cornelius, and Mesdames Herman Schoen and Gordon Sahnow. The tables were decorated with wooden bowls of vegetables, golden colored candles in wooden holders, miniature turkeys, and nut cups representing sheaves of grain carried out the Thanksgiving motif.

Those celebrating November birthday anniversaries were Miss Helen Stevens and Mrs. Emma McKinney. They were presented with corsage bouquets, and the president, Mrs. McKinney, was presented with a lovely bracelet by the dinner committee. Miss Stevens also received a gift.

The next meeting will be the annual Christmas dinner and party.

Coffee Club is Sending Appeal for Xmas Toys

A last appeal for toys for underprivileged children was issued today by Mrs. Loren H. Milliman, chairman of the Christmas party committee of the Hillsboro Coffee club. Those who have outgrown or unused toys in their homes are requested by members of the club to telephone Mrs. Milliman or write to the committee of the Hillsboro Coffee club. Those who have outgrown or unused toys in their homes are requested by members of the club to telephone Mrs. Milliman or write to the committee of the Hillsboro Coffee club.

"We hope that Santa Claus, when he makes his personal visit at the Christmas party to be held in the chamber of commerce rooms December 22, will have a suitable toy for each child there," Mrs. Milliman said.

Old or broken toys will be repaired and repainted by boys under the direction of the Rev. Henry S. Haller and by girls under the direction of Mrs. Abendroth.

Plans for the party are taking shape, it was said. There will be games and entertainment for the children; a visit by Santa Claus and distribution of gifts. Children 12 years of age and younger from homes where a real Christmas celebration is impossible will be invited to the party.

In past years members of the Hillsboro Coffee club have had a party for themselves and have exchanged gifts, but this year officers decided that children would be their guests instead. It is in line with the enlarged social-welfare program of the club which has been sponsored by Mrs. Fred J. Sewell, president and directed by Mrs. Abendroth, department chairman.

Those who have toys to donate to the Christmas party are asked to telephone to Mrs. Abendroth, 3322, or to Mrs. Milliman, 1911, and someone will call for the presents for the youngsters.

Good Pictures to Be Boosted

Legion of Decency, inter-church movement to promote cleaner and better motion pictures, will be promoted in Hillsboro by the Hillsboro Christian council, according to plans made at council meeting Tuesday. The motion picture committee, which will include President Maurice Peerenboom of the Vikings, President Mack Grogan of the Delians, President Betty Mayes of the Gammans, as well as Council President Robert Patterson and Pastor Henry S. Haller, council advisor, will begin its co-operating with Manager Phelps of the local theatre at once.

Forty-one new members have been received into the clubs during last week alone. A theatre party was planned honoring the Hill football team during December.

Plans for Christmas activities were adopted, beginning with the ingathering of toys for the Coffee Club's Christmas party December 6.

Child Study Group to Meet

The child study group for school age children will meet at the David Hill school at 2:15 p. m. Tuesday. The program will include the following: "Are You Helping Your Child to Make Friends," by Samuel W. Hartwell, M. D., director child guidance clinic, Worcester, Mass.; discussion by Mrs. J. R. Watkinson and Harold Frost making high score at pinchle and Mrs. Lloyd Hilliker and J. Jensen, high at "500."

Give Thanks." A play, "The Perfect Man," was presented by the following cast: Mesdames W. E. Lerner, J. R. Peppard, E. M. Bowman, and Fred Heintz. Other numbers included singing by the club, "The End of a Perfect Day," and a playlet, "Smiles," by Mrs. H. H. Stannard.

"Cuddie" Dolls Displayed— Appearing simultaneously with the "Oregon Products" week is the announcement of a new business in Hillsboro. Mrs. A. Abis is manufacturing some very clever hand-made, hand-painted "Cuddie" dolls. They are dressed in the colors of the school letters, and the toys are successful. Mrs. Abis made quite a success of the business in Seattle.

Leaders in Seal Sale in Various Districts Named

Mrs. George Bauman, county seal sale chairman of the Washington County Public Health association, announces the following chairmen in the various districts of the county: Banks, Mrs. A. C. Walden; chairman, assisted by Mrs. Earl Wilson and Mr. Clyde Hopkins, principal of the grammar school; Forest Grove, Mrs. Omar Fendall, assisted by the members of the educational committee of the Women's club; Beaverton, Mrs. Eschey Marsh and Mrs. M. C. Kercher; Gaston, Mrs. M. T. Bates; Cornelius, Mrs. L. L. Berham; Sherwood, Mrs. J. E. Moriack; Tigard, Mrs. C. E. Gale; Hillsboro, Mrs. E. Wells and North Plains, Mrs. M. V. Jackson. This list is somewhat incomplete since some of the appointees have not yet been heard from.

A county-wide effort will be made to effect a quota of five cents per capita. Forty per cent of the proceeds of the sale of these Christmas seals will remain in the county of Oregon during that time, and past patrons Glen Payne, Rex Cornelius, Sherwood, Tigard and Banks met in Hillsboro on November 14 to arrange plans for a more intensive sale in their communities.

Library Fund Given Money

Through co-operation of other organizations with the Rotary club in securing good attendance at the library luncheon $5.10 was added to the book fund. Mrs. R. L. Smith, librarian, reports and expresses her gratitude.

Henry A. Wallace's "New Frontiers," in which he describes new frontiers of mind and spirit which America is beginning to penetrate and his ideas of the "New Deal" is recommended to library patrons this week. "Keeping Mentally Fit," by Joseph Jastrow will interest readers and help them to meet the demands of the times.

New books listed for younger readers are: "Bob Flame," by Don Yeager; a story of a forest ranger in Yellowstone park; "Heart of Skylo," by Otis Sperin; a story of the Oregon country; "Juan and Juanita," by Frances C. Baylor; "Londonberry Heir," by Rosemond Newton, adventures of four college girls; "Stone Knife Boy," Indian story by S. Malkus; "Windy Mountain," by T. A. Harper; "College on Horseback," by Esther G. Hall; "Katrinka Grows Up," by H. Has-kill and "Peter, Katrinka's Brother," by "Timber Trail," by Elizabeth Chapman; "Jane Hope," by Elizabeth J. Gray; and "Farmer Boy," by Laura I. Wilder.

Nursery School SERA Project

Another SERA project to be started in Hillsboro is a nursery school at the David Hill school. Miss Benefield of Corvallis and Miss Davis of Salem, junior past presidents of the school, and Mrs. SERA C. H. Noster, superintendent of the grade schools, will supervise the project which is being sponsored by the Parent-Teacher organization. From 20 to 25 children from two to four years of age will be cared for from 9 a. m. to 2:30 p. m. The SERA also furnishes a combination cook and laundress.

A meeting was held this morning at David Hill school with representatives from the P. T. A., Coffee club, Legion Auxiliary, Business and Professional Women's club, Service club, Needlecraft club, and also from the county relief office to perfect plans for the project. Cots, blankets, etc., must be furnished by the community. It is planned to open the school Monday with a few children.

Ministers Given Farewell

Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Elwell, who have accepted the pastorate of the Four-square church at Vancouver, Wash., were given farewell farewells at their home Friday evening. They were presented with an Indian robe by members of the congregation. About 75 persons were present. Rev. and Mrs. Elwell have been in Hillsboro a year and a half and made many friends while here.

Dramatic Program Given

Mrs. H. H. Stannard's junior dramatic art class gave a program at the Christian church Wednesday afternoon. "Home, the Spirit of Thanksgiving," being presented. The cast included Evelyn Haworth, Velma Abendroth, Phyllis Amacher, Ardis Ellingson and Vivian Bump.

O. E. S. Chapter Celebrates 40th Anniversary

Fashions of the past four decades were in full swing again at the fortieth anniversary celebration of Tualatin chapter, O. E. S. Tuesday evening at the Masonic hall. The work was exemplified by officers dressed in crowns of various periods, even the patron and associate patron wearing fancy vests, cutaway coats, derby hats and long mustaches.

Following the regular meeting, past matrons and patrons presented a tabeau showing pictures of the four ten-year periods since the institution of the chapter. R. Frank Peters gave an interesting resume of the history of the chapter during each period. Mrs. Helen Deichman was worthy matron during the first ten years, and the only charter member who was able to be present. Mrs. M. Cave is the only other living charter member who is still a member of the chapter.

Mesdames C. E. Wells, Glen Payne of Portland and R. E. Essler, representing Hillsboro, Jenny Lind and Anna Heald, respectively, sang "A Bird in a Gilded Cage." The second decade was pictured by Mrs. B. W. Barnes and Rex Parsons of Portland. Mrs. Barnes' sister, the late Mrs. Linklater, was matron in that period. Mrs. R. Frank Peters gave a hilarious skit, "In My Merry Oldsmobile." The third decade was represented by Mrs. V. W. Gardner dressed as a bride and her wedding party. Messdames R. Parsons, W. G. Hare, Robert Burlingame, and George McGrath. Mrs. Gardner sang "At Dawning" and dedicated it to Mrs. J. H. Murton, at whose wedding she had sung the same song. The fourth and last period was represented by R. Frank Peters who was worthy grand patron of Oregon during that time, and past patrons Glen Payne, Rex Cornelius, Sherwood, Tigard and Banks met in Hillsboro on November 14 to arrange plans for a more intensive sale in their communities.

A pot luck dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock at which about 200 members and visitors were present. Rex Davis of Salem, junior past grand patron, and Mrs. Davis, and many other 1934 matrons and patrons, as well as other visitors were present.

Fiftieth Wedding Date Observed

NORTH PLAINS—Mr. and Mrs. Herman Crocker entertained with dinner Friday honoring Mr. Crocker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crocker, on their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crocker were married in Hillsboro by the late Rev. Patterson of the Methodist church, November 16, 1884. Mrs. Crocker is 72 years of age and Mr. Crocker is 80. Mr. Crocker is a native of Iowa, coming to Oregon at the age of 9 years. Mrs. Crocker is a native of Oregon, having spent all her years near Mountaineer.

MRS. OSBORN HOSTESS FOR WRITERS' MEETING

Mrs. O. A. Osborn was the November hostess to the Tualatin Valley chapter of the League of Western Writers and on Tuesday evening entertained them at her home on Baseline road near the Masonic Home. Each member read an original poem on Thanksgiving. The club will put on a play during the winter, under the direction of Mrs. Osborn.

IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS

When families were judged by the equipment of their horse and carriage "keeping up with the Jones" was often carried to foolhardiness. Modern men and women know that it is wisest to live within their means, and to save regularly, so that the spend-thrift Jones will wish they could keep up with them in later years.
