Has Birthday Party.—Mrs. Harold Aebischer entertained pupils of first, second and third grades and a few neighbor children at a party Tuesday afternoon, honoring her daughter Veria on her seventh birthday anniversary.

Plan Christmas Program.—Laurel Ridge pupils under the direction of Miss Helen Asbahr, teacher, put on a program November 28 for parents and friends. The pupils are planning to sponsor a community Christmas program such as they had last year. School was not in session Friday after Thanksgiving.

Johnson District Has Quiet Holiday

Has Quiet Holiday

JOHNSON DISTRICT.—Thanksgiving was spent quietly in most of the homes in this community, many of the residents having only the families present and others spending the day with relatives or friends in other sections.

One large gathering was held, however, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bunnell, where relatives of Mrs. Bunnell gathered for a reunion. A large Thanksgiving dinner was held at noon, and the remainder of the time was spent in visiting. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Edmonds of Beaverton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Edmonds Jr. of Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Olson of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Edmonds and two children of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lewton of Forest Grove, Miss Clara Lewton of Olympia, David Edmonds of Portland and the host and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bunnell, and three daughters Yvonne, Virginia and Nadine.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O'Connor spent the day with relatives at Aloha, where other members of the family gathered for a reunion.

Blooming Farm Union.—Annual election of Blooming local Farmers' Union, will be held Wednesday evening, December 12, at 8:30 at Bunning's hall in Cornelius. Other matters of importance will be discussed.

MRS. WALTER BAILEY.—FOREST GROVE.—Mrs. Walter Bailey, 30, died at the Portland Sanitarium Sunday and funeral services were conducted at the Forest Grove Undertaking company chapel Wednesday afternoon. Elder Beecher of Gaston officiated. Interment was in Forest View cemetery.

Blanch May Blair was born in Minneapolis, Minn., August 20, 1904, and was married to Walter Bailey at Kelso, Wash., in September, 1933. Deceased is survived by the widow and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Blair of Forest Grove. Three brothers also survive: Raymond E. Blair, Minneapolis, Minn.; Reginald C. Blair, Astoria, and Ernest Blair, McMinnville.

to officials and employees of the state in departments and institutions located in and adjacent to the state department. The report does not include payments made to employees of the highway department other than those in the Salem office, or to faculty members and employees of the state's institutions of higher education or to employees located in the city of Portland.

The assessed value of all property on the 1934 tax rolls in Oregon totals only $943,504,405.62, according to figures compiled by the state tax commission. This represents a reduction of more than $15,000,000 from the 1933 tax rolls and of $181,500,000 from the tax rolls of 1930 when the state's assessed value reached a peak of $1,125,000,000. Of the total valuation $775,854,451 is listed on local rolls by the county assessors and $167,649,954.62 represents the appraised value of utility properties as fixed by the state tax commission. Only seven counties reported an increase in local assessments. They are Malheur, Harney, Coos, Douglas, Jefferson, Lincoln and Wasco. Assessed values in the other 29 counties are below those of 1933.

State officials fail to see any good purpose to be served by the proposed change in the primary election date from May to September. Admitting that it would relieve candidates of a considerable strain and voters of the annoyance incident to a prolonged campaign it is pointed out that there are many obstacles in the way of the proposed change. For one thing a September primary would preclude the election of delegates to the national convention which are held in June and it would also prevent a preferential vote on the candidates for president and vice-president. Oregon's primary elections have been held on the third Friday in May since 1914 by reason of an act passed by the legislature of 1913. Prior to that time the

"Wagon Wheels" is Family Picture

Legion of Decency committee of Hillsboro Christian Council has issued these recommendations on the pictures to be shown at the Venetian during the following week:

"Wagon Wheels" has been recommended on all motion picture endorsement lists as being a picture of the family type. The Chicago list of the Roman Catholic church lists it as "very good." Good for children to see.

"Merry Widow" is recommended only for mature audiences, as is "Cleopatra." Both are especially unfit for small children.

A lady had just purchased a postage stamp at a station. "Must I stick it on myself?" she asked.

"Positively not, madam," replied the postal clerk. "It will accomplish more if you stick it on the envelope."—Ex.
