Mountain Home C.E. Meets Friday Night
(By Mabel B. Allison)

MOUNTAIN HOME—Mountain Home Christian endeavor members will hold a meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Allison Friday evening, December 14, at eight o'clock. This is the regular monthly meeting which was postponed one week because of conflicting date with other community activities.

Miss Helen Schmelzer is president of the organization. A large group of near neighbors gathered at the country home of Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Ferrill on the evening of December 4 for a "get acquainted" reception, taking refreshments with them Mrs. Ferrill, hearing of the plans, had arranged games and contests for the young folks and kindred with mechanical toys as prizes. The visiting ladies served refreshments.

The Y. M. P. class of the Mountain Home school plans to give a party on the second Friday evening of each month. Mrs. Carl Schultenbrant will entertain the group.

Dr. T. E. Ferrill of Portland put out 600 fibertrees last week on his farm here.

Scholl Berry Growers held a meeting Monday evening to hear a proposition from the Springbrook Canning company explained. Messrs. Caryle and George of the Springbrook association talked to the Scholls growers. No definite action was taken, it being decided that the Scholls growers will vote on the invitation to join Springbrook at the annual meeting the last Monday in January.

Chehalum Mountain Potato club held its third annual banquet at the home of the leader, John Schmelzer, Friday evening. James Allison acted as master of ceremonies and Miss Helen Schmelzer gave the address of welcome. The guests included the parents of club members and L. E. Francis, assistant county agent. After the banquet and speeches were completed the potatoes, grown by club members, on exhibition were judged as follows: George Allison Jr., 1st; James Allison, 2nd; Helen Schmelzer, 3rd; Raymond Hornerbrook, 4th; and Fritz Nystrom, 5th. Ervin Atrops acted as judge. Larkin Prince company contributed one of the prizes and John Schmelzer furnished the other prizes, consisting mainly of knives.

Mr. and Mrs. B. I. Lexas and children of Portland and Murie Thurston of Seattle were dinner guests of Mrs. Harry Saunders on December 2. Miss Thurston, who is a poet and short story writer, was a house guest of Mrs. Sandon several days last week.

Little Helen Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Hamilton, who has been suffering from a ruptured lung, is much improved.

Mrs. Alex Bruce is again able to be home after having been in a Newberg hospital on account of a head hemorrhage.

Mountain Home school children are busy selling Christmas seals and competing one with another for the honor of first place. Margaret Caldwell has sold the most to date.

Grade Schools Plan Programs

David Hill Wednesday Eve, Junior High Tuesday

David Hill school will present its Christmas program in the school auditorium Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. All parents and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Junior high will present its Christmas program on Tuesday evening in the Junior high auditorium at 8 o'clock. Everyone is invited to attend. Both of these programs are free.

The 5A class of the Peter Boscow school constructed a manger scene for the hall decoration to illustrate Christmas songs. This class is also having a cleanliness campaign in connection with health study. There are two new pictures in this room, "Venice" and "Autumn Glow."

Grace Millman of the third grade of the Peter Boscow school brought an orange measuring ten inches around that was grown near Dayton. The tree was about six feet high and had over seventy-five oranges this year.

Program Friday
The 8A2 class of the Junior high will present its program in the auditorium Friday. A play will be given, entitled "Raspberry Red." Anna Leider will offer an inter-pretive dance. A group of girls will sing "On Rainy Day."

Junior high school is getting ready for a Christmas program. Miss Moore is selecting the cast for this program. She has prepared a pantomime with musical accompaniment to precede a play.

The boys of the 8A class have been buying new furniture for their room. The class colors are crimson and gray. The 6B class chose the pansy for the class flower.

Grade School Principals' association of Washington county is to meet in the Junior high school auditorium next Thursday. The Treble Clef is planning to sing there.

The teachers were well represented at the meeting of the Parents-Teachers association at the David Hill school Tuesday evening.

Boys and girls, who have received their high school certificates in Mrs. Simon's penmanship classes, are Esther Robb, George Tagawa, Elmer Rollins, LaVon Bergren, Loren Bronleewe, Delbert Crews, Teddy Gardner, Evelyn Haworth, Ani Peters, Edna Sturm, Norma Hammer, and Evelyn Clark.

Several pupils of the Junior high school have been absent for more than a week, due to illness. These are Jean Buzs of the 6A, Jimmy Strouse of the 8A2, Katherine Wiley of the 7A, Frances Smith of the 6B, and Leon Banner of the 6B.

Mrs. Margaret Simon's step-father, Ed Allen, of Forest Grove has been seriously ill with pneumonia at the Emanuel hospital in Portland, but he is gradually improving. Miss Bernfeld, teacher in the nursery school, has been ill for several days.

While playing football Wednesday noon, Elmer Rollins of the 8A class sustained an injured rib. Friday noon Billy Cox of the 7B class got a piece of steel in his hand.

New pupils of the David Hill school are Dale and Ray Koster from South Dakota; Buddy Brace from Lyle, Wash.; Lois Sturdevant from Portland; Keith Caldwell of the 6A class recently moved to Vancouver, Wash.

Many classes have elected officers for the coming six weeks. The new ones at the Junior high school are:

Bazaar Success
The Christmas bazaar sponsored by the Woman's Working Circle of the Community church last Wednesday evening was well attended. The boys and girls of the public school, under the direction of Miss McKinnis, presented several numbers of the program. The lower grades played "Sleeping Beauty" and gave a clever chief drill. Lois Robson introduced her doll family. A very beautiful wishbone drill was given by the upper grade girls. Other numbers were a vocal duet by Mrs. Otto Loetidin and Mrs. Frank Warren, a piano solo by Miss Marybel Flint of Scholls, a reading by Mrs. Laurence Hill, and an instrumental number by P. J. Meihoff, assisted by his cousin.

A very enjoyable musical program of local talent was given in the school auditorium Sunday night, directed by Mrs. Otto Loetidin. Also an illustrated Bible talk by Mrs. Fae of Bethany.

W. E. Brown and family of Dilley moved into the John Brogren house Monday.
