YOUNG'S

Funeral Home

"Thoughtful, Sympathetic

OF THE KING

Service"

'Scholls Plans Event Sunday

Community Program at M.E. Church Sunday Evening

SCHOLLS—A community program will be given at the Scholls M. E. church Sunday evening. All organizations of the vicinity will contribute a number.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Flint, December 13, a girl, at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. She was named Elaine Rose.

Luther Miller returned Monday after a week's trip to the beach on a fishing trip.

a fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Phelps have moved to Portland for the winter months where he is employed as a special officer in the Railroad yards.

Lillian McNeal, Bob Giliepsie, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Flemming, Lilling at Laurel. special officer in the Railroad yards.

Lillian McNeal, Bob Giliepsie, Mr.
and Mrs. Kenneth Flemming, Lilian Haas, Leonard Parrott, Muriel and Dave Ludy, Gladys Chilade, Francis Swanson, Lunard Bish and Jean Cox of Portland were Sunday guests of Miss Grace Miller. The party went hunting mistletoe during the day.

Club Elects

Officers of the Townsend club elected at the meeting at Laurel by, president; Mrs. Hugh Kellogg, vice-president; Philip Liebenow, secretary-treasurer. F. W. Berger of Portland was speaker. Next meeting will be held at Scholls December 28. W. H. Kellogg was chairman of the meeting.

Fellows will be jointly installed at Tigard January 10. Eight members of Lincoln lodge of Scholls attended Tigard January 10. Eight members of Lincoln lodge of Scholls attended Tigard lodge Thursday evening when plans were made for the installation.

Groner Program Friday Groner school will hold a Christmas tree party and program Friday at the party and program friday Groner school will hold a Christmas tree party and program friday Groner school will hold a Christmas tree party and program friday Groner school will hold a Christmas tree party and program friday Groner school will hold a Christmas tree party and program friday Groner school will hold a Christmas tree party and program friday Groner school will hold a Christmas tree party and program friday Groner school will hold a Christmas tree party and program friday Groner school will hold a Christmas tree party and program friday Groner school will hold a Christmas tree party and program friday groner school will hold a Christmas tree party and program friday from the plant friday friday and program friday fri

Mrs. Clara Wohlschlegel is spend-

Mrs. Clara Wohlschlegel is spending the Christmas vacation with her son, Carl Wohlschlegel.

Mrs. George Lewellin spent several days last week at the Mrs. Della Finke home in Portland.

Mrs. H. T. Koeber was taken to the St. Vincent's hospital Monday for observation and treatment.

Miss Grace Miller was a Friday night guest at the Ernest Iseedy borne in Portland. ne in Portland.

Mrs. Ruth Christensen won the apron prize at the apron sale con-ducted by Mrs. Lucille Flint De-cember 12 at the Rebekah lodge meeting for the benefit of the I. O.

naceting for the benefit of the I. O.
O. F. home in Portland.
Neighbors gave Mr. and Mrs.
Loren Seward a farewell surprise party Sunday evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Russell, Mr. and Mrs. George Lewellin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kerr and Mr. and Mrs.
Ed Demmin and Bill Crane of Scholls. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Demmin and Hanna Werre of Tualatin Ed Demmin and Bill Crane of Scholls. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Demmin and Hanna Werre of Tualatin and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Dodge of near Hillsboro.

Next of the series of card parties will be held at the F. E. Rowell home Saturday, December 29.

Program Friday.

Program Friday
Midway school will have a tree and Christmas program Friday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock, when they will dismiss for a Christmas vacation. The program will consist of two plays, dancing, songs and reci-tations. Honor roll for school in-cludes Evelyn and Allen Boleen, Mac, Della and Viola Burke, Perfect Mae, Della and Viola Burke, Perfect attendance roll: Viola Burke, June Hatfield, Della Burke, Virgil Hatfield, Percy Robinson, Robert Whitten, Frances and Evelyn O'Dell Mae Burke, Alice Watson, Allen and Evelyn Boleen, Luella and Frederick Rathbone, Frances and Perarl Burke, Muriel Kellogg, Alma Erickson, Veryl Frost, Dorothy Tiffany, Arlene and Arleta O'Dell, Dorothy Whisnand, Donald and Helen Bolma.

Mrs. H. T. Hesse is spending the rst of this week with relatives in Portland. Henry Peters, Bob Baxter and Charles Haynes spent the week-end at Neskowin on a fishing trip.

Ed Demmin went to Portland Tuesday to visit his aunt, Mrs. Gusta Eisenhardt, who is ill at the Emanuel hospital.

LAUREL RIDGE—Young Married People's class of the Mountain Home Sunday school will hold a party every month. The first was December 14 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schalienbrand.

Home Burns
The house which was being remodeled by Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Hutchens at their new home near Dundee burned last Tuesday night. The Hutchens have rented a new house at the new location to which they moved Monday. They will removed Monday. They will removed Monday. They will remove a moved Monday. They will remove the monde of Mr. and Mrs. An

Mr. and Mrs. George Yacklay Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. George Yacklay Jr. and son Oliver of North Dakota Stark, Decembr 11, girl. Jr. and son Oliver of North Dakota
County Superintendent of Schools
O. B. Kraus visited the Laurel
Ridge school Friday afternoon.
Mrs. Millie Edwards nd Mrs.
Bertha Schmidt of Sherwood spent Wednesday and Thursday at the home of S. S. Stearns.
Mrs. Rollo Oberst and little

Loren Seward went to Clatskanie last Tuesday on a business trip.

Honor Roll Given

Perfect attendance at Mountainside school for past six weeks is as follows: Eddie Ardeel, Ruth Holcom, Robert Weaver, John McCool, Middleton spent Tuesday afternoon at the W. C. Edy home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Strickler and Mildred and Dickie, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Strong and Lois of Metzger, and Mrs. Grace Jack of Tigard were Sunday guests at the Henry six weeks were Eddie Ardeel, Shirley Carlson. Herbert Herd. Ruth.

Mrs. Anna Hansen, who spent the past month with her daughter. Mrs. F. M. Lillegard, returned to Portland to spend the winter with Mrs. T. N. Mueller.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wohlschlegel

Names Selected are "Fir of Handwork club" and "Fir of Ha left Thursday on a trip to Cali-fornia to spend Christmas and the holidays with friends and relatives. Jacktown Roll Given

Jacktown Roll Given
Jacktown school honor roll included Lucille Balocco, Dorothy and Robert Ficken, Orval and Berle
Thompson, Amy Godfrey, Virginia
Kiuptzer and Dale DeVare. This school will give a Christmas program Friday and will dismiss for a Four lodges of Rebekahs and Odd man of the meeting.

Twenty-five members of Truth Seeker class held a pot luck dinner at the church following Sunday school Sunday. Plans were dis-cussed for increasing the member-ship and for a number to be given Ferd Groner of Scholls. W. V. Dolph of Portland, L. J. Whitaker of Rex and W. H. Bentley of Dunguest at the Ernest beedy in Portland.

Ruth Christensen won the prize at the apron sale conby Mrs. Lucille Flint Device at the property of the

H. L. McCoal home Sunday. Club Elects
Miss Eva Carlson entertained six members of the girls club Saturday. Officers elected December 1 when and Mrs. N. A. Say of Corral Creek and Mrs. Harold

com, Robert Weaver, John McCool, Lois McCool, Aleen Hutchens and Shirley Carlson. Those receiving 100 per cent in spelling for the past six weeks were Eddie Ardeel, Shirley Carlson, Herbert Herd, Ruth, Erma and Helen Holcom, Aleen Hutchens, Guen Kertz, Wanda Lytsell, Lois and John McCool, Viva, Berteen and Billy McCann, Betty Swank and Maxine Woldrin. December 12 C. E. Barker called at the school and talked on his trip to the middle west.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer and Don Schmeltzer went to Eastern Oregon Monday to deliver by truck a stump puller to be used for pulling juniper stumps on the Schmeltzer farm near Terrebonne.

Grange Has Party Schmeltzer had charge of the tree.

Mountain Home church will hold a Christmas tree and program Sunday evening.

The T. R. Moore and Ed Seiffert.

day evening.

The T. R. Moore and Ed Seiffert families were Sunday guests at the W. W. Holingsworth home in Newberg.

Mrs. Anna Hansen, who spent the past month with her daughter,

Our classified columns may have

BY CHOMOMOMOMOMOMOMOMOMOMOMOMOMOMOMOMO

GREETINGS

SEASON'S

Queen Anne's Lace By Frances Parkinson Keyes

memory?" he inquired, with a slight

"Excellent," said Anne, with emhasis.

But Senator Lassiter did not seem all about the note to Miss Hop-

But Senator Lassiter did not seem to be daunted; and when a little later she told him that she thought perhaps she and Neal should be leaving, he informed her, with even more of a drawl, that they could not go until the guests of honor bad departed.

But Anne did not feel triumphant. She felt frightened. And when, at quarter before five on Wednesday, January seventh, she went down her front steps dressed in the sapphire velvet, she grew hot and cold bad departed.

after that you will be free to go, too; you will no doubt take advantage of your freedom; and I do not feel at all sure when I shall see you again."

"Neal and I have been asked to another dinner," said Anne. "In honor of the Hammels. The Standishes are giving it. I think it is most awfully kind of them to invite us. But what I started to say was—perhaps you will be there, and I might meet you then."

"I see," said Lassiter, suddenly grave. "Thank you. I shall be there."

Anne had the sudden, uncomantered just outside the entrance with composure.

"This is Mrs. Conrad, Senator Conrad's wife. I have an appointment to see Mrs. Shaw at five."

"Yes, Mrs. Conrad Mrs. Shaw is expecting you. Would you like to leave your wraps here?—Now if you will come with me into the Blue room Mrs. Shaw will be there in just a minute."

"How nice he is!" The tall figure had vanished and, relaxing a little, she looked about the circular apartment with its long draped windows giving glimpses of the garden gressing with a rapidity which was sufficiently rare to be remarkable even in that capacity where so many others have been tested and Anne had not intended to do degree of she approa white she approached the White House. When she first drove under its white-pillared porte-cochere to deposit her card and Neal's on the small silver salver extended to her by the man-servant in livery her fingers trembled so that she could hardly lay down the neatly folded bits of cardboard. The deference which doth "hedge in a king" and which—deny it though we may seems to many of us to hedge a President also, rose before her in its grandeur, terrifying her with its significance. Her sense of awe persisted all the afternoon; and when Mrs. Hammel told her she should follow up this ceremony of card leaving, after a little interval, with a note to Miss Hopkinson, Mrs. Shaw's secretary, requesting to be received by the President's wife, her reluctance to take this bold step was as evident in her face as it was in her voice.

WE DEAL IN REAL ESTATE

as it was in her voice.
"Why, Mrs. Hammel, I couldn't!
Surely I ought to wait for her to

Fire and Automobile Insurance KURATLI & WISMER make the suggestion, if such a sug-testion is ever to be made!"

"Certainly you ought not. Do you magine that Mrs. Shaw spends shining limousines advancing, a few gestion is ever to be made!"
"Certainly you ought not. Do you imagine that Mrs. Shaw spends imagine that Mrs. Shaw spends her leisure moments glancing is a noting through the cards that are showered upon her and deciding whom to favor with an invitation? She never sees those cards. She has no leisure moments. But Miss Hopkinson, the grim old dragon— and a pretty good sort, too, when you get to know her!—has you all neatly docketed and knows whether wou have done right by our Neil.

had departed.

"But they will go." he said, "exactly on the tick of ten-thirty. That is the law of the Medes and Persians. The worst of it is, that after that you will be free to go, ally dressed man who she ensured the said of the said. to the man who opened the door for her, and regarded the tall form-ally dressed man who she en-

Mr. Brinal Trank size meaning president, and the composition of the lat all sure when I shall sure that the sure with the sure sure with I shall sure that the sure that the sure with I shall sure that the sure that the sure with I shall sure that the sure that the sure with I shall sure that the sur turned and saw that the tall for-mally dressed figure was standing ed, subtly, in sophistication and distinction.

And she loved it. She was pro
Mrs. Conrad. I am so sorry. But I have proven beyond any possible anything of the sort. But she anquestion the fine adaptability of the fine American weman.

"Yes, of course! I am looking for-"Yes, of course! I am looking for-Nothing, perhaps, was more indicative of her advance in savoirfaire than the difference in the this; and during the next week her composure with which viewpoint did not change. The fol-sched the White House. lowing Thursday she was athrill

Parkinson Keyes

I Continued from last wees,
How I wish," he murmured, throwing his handsome head back a little and speaking through half closed lips "that just once, I could take a young and pretty woman out to dinner! But it is always my fate to have middle-aged, not to say elderly, ambassadresses at my man should indulge in airy persifigage with dowagers of rank!"

"Because they would resent it as a impertinence? or because they offer no inducement to levity and indiscretion?" asked Anne, who was beginning to enjoy herself again.

"Both my dear lady. You have no idea how virtuous I am when there is nothing about to tempt me. But in the presence of lovely young the properties of the process of the cabinet to the process of the cabinet that the prosence of the content of the process of the cabinet that any man should indulge in airy persifigate with dowagers of rank!"

"Because they would resent it as an impertinence? or because they offer no inducement to levity and not indiscretion?" asked Anne, who was beginning to enjoy herself again.

"Both my dear lady. You have no idea how virtuous I am when there is nothing about to tempt me. But in the presence of lovely young and specific processing the provided and knows whether one whether whether they our along home, Goldlocks, and get your note written. Goldlocks, and get your note write the she was in the seed the most—"

They went swiftly past a little from what to do and where to go so you will see the most—"

They went swiftly past a little from what to do and where to go so you will see the most—"

They went swiftly past a little from whit is many paneled cupboards or the wives of former Presidents of the wives of former Presidents of the wives of former Presidents of the wive seed for the wives of former Presidents of the wives of former Presidents of the wives of former Presidents of the wive of the wives of offer on the wive sample and prouped near the form the provide and the wive was tringle and the section of the wives of order the pour and there the w there is nothing about to tempt me.

But in the presence of lovely young matrons with perfect complexions and a gift of repartee I sometimes forget myself."

"But they, I suppose, always jog your memory?" said Anne demurely.

"Oh, no—not always. Sometimes they are forgetful, too—How's your memory?" he inquired, with a slight ing her after a long separation would have welcomed her in much the same manner—there.

"Single file, please."

The crisp voice of the aide standing at the door of the Red room.
Neal stopped behind Anne, as two ladies paused before an unresponsive President. Then she gave her sive President. Then she gave her large and Kenneth Minler of Prest and Kenneth Minler of Prest and Herbert Maurer the honored guest, Louise Maurer, and the host and hostess. Sunday visitors at the Frank Corey home were Mr. and Mrs. William Pieren and son Harold of President.

IHLE'S BETTER SHOES EXPERT FITTERS HILLSBORO'S EXCLUSIVE SHOE STORE

®®Y9Y9Y9Y9Y9Y9Y9Y9Y9Y9Y9Y9Y9Y9Y9Y9Y9

Mountaindale Program Set Bonita

Several Parties Held During Week; Birthdays Observed

Funeral services for Charles E. Wasem, 72, of Hillsboro route 3, who died here Friday, were conducted Mountaindale will present its were uristmas program to the public. MOUNTAINDALE-Sunday after-Christmas program to the public.

Christmas program to the public.

The program will commence at 2 o'clock. Thirty pupils are taking part in it. The public is urged to come.

A "500" card party was given Thursday evening at the Mountaindale school. The money will be used for the wiring of the school. Thirteen tables of cards were in play and $19 was taken in. Honors were won by George Meacham. Mrs. were won by George Meacham, Mrs. Raehl, Fred Schwander and Mrs. Lease of a 65-acre farm near Oregon City with option to buy Emma Schwander.

Mrs. Qualls Hostess
Mrs. P. A. Qualls entertained
Thursday afternoon for the Past Chief club of Friendship temple. It was the annual Christmas party
was the annual Christmas party
from the "unknown"

Mas brought assume urday by W. M. Robinson, follow the use of a classified advertisen in the Hillsboro Argus. The pass been leased to C. Christens Iowa.

The electric lights for the Mountaindale extension were turned on

A surprise birthday party was givcommerce, a hearty, jovial sort of person, leaned across the silken rope and shook hands with her as he passed. Mr. Goldenburg greetwas spent in playing games. Those was spent in playing games. Those present were Hulda Maurer and Chris Pieren of Portland, Mr. and he same manner—
But there was no time to stand
Lil, making happy comparisons, vetia, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Senski But there was no time to stand still, making happy comparisons. The instant that the Presidential party had disappeared Mrs. Lee whisked Neal and Anne away into the stately dining room, where they took their places in line with members of both houses and their wives who were already gathered where. Elaine and Elmer Schmidt of Heistenberg, with a state of the state of

Merry Christmas Folks

And may GOOD HEALTH, HAPPINESS and FORTUNE be by your side all through the coming year.

Sprouse-Reitz Co.,

A Friendly Welcome

Always Awaits You

at Our Store

or of Mr. Thompson Tuesday evening. Guests were Helen Hollenbeck and Sydney Connolly, and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and daughter

Rites Held Monday

Ad Brings Renter

BEST

Charles E. Wasem

WE wish to thank our patrons for the past year's patronage and insure quality work for the coming year.

-W. A. WAHNER

Hillsboro Shoe Hospital

COUNT. Save your cash slips.

And we again call your attention to our 5% DIS

Week-end Specials-No Discount on These Items S UGAR

COFFEE

VANILLA 65c 16-oz. bottle

PUMPKIN Fancy preferred stock 21/2 size.

SNOWDRIFT

PEAS

SALMON

2 tall cans SOAP Cream Oil.

CHIPS Crystal White

SUPER SUDS

FLOUR

One last chance to get a good hard wheat flour.

Get your Christmas Candy and Nuts here. There is nothing better for price and quality. You save

Wiley's New Deal Grocery

PHYSICIAN and SURGEON

A. O. PITMAN, M. D.

PHYSICIAN and SURGEON

X-Ray and Physio-Therapy

DR. D. E. WILEY, M. D.

Wells Building

TELEPHONES

GARBAGE COLLECTION

Garbage Collection

AND CANS

D. P. CORRIERI

Telephone 2325

RUBBER STAMPS

BUY YOUR

Physician and Surgeon

nercial National Bank Bldg

HILLSBORO BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL DIRECTORY

BEAUTY SHOPS

General Beauty Work Permanents and all kinds of beauty work. Telephone 1381X

Sanitary Beauty Shop All Kinds of Beauty Work PERMANENTS Telephone 1471 WEIL'S APARTMENTS

DENTISTS

Commercial Building Telephone 144 ings, Sunday by Appoints

INSURANCE SERVICE Shute Bank Building

RUBBER STAMPS

EVERYTHING TO WEAR

Hosiery, Shoes, Sweaters, Ties, Handkerchiefs, Etc.

A LARGE ASSORTMENT OF PREMIUMS NOW IN!

TO OUR FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS

EVE'S BEAUTY SHOP

Salcony Hillsboro Pharmacy

DR. RALPH DRESSER Dentist

INSURANCE

GEORGE T. McGRATH

HILLSBORO ARGUS

J.C. PENNEY GO.