Junior High Beats Grove

Grade School Pupils Out Due to Much Illness

There have been many absences in the schools recently caused by colds and measles. From the Junior high, Helen Cyrus, Lorrean May, Billy Cyrus, Jack Estep were absent with the measles. Leola Price, George Tsugawa, Evelyn Patton and Lucille Rasmussen were absent with colds. Everett Eberly just returned to the 8B class after an absence of two weeks. Cloyce Bump underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Jones hospital recently, and is recuperating at home. At the David Hill school Eugene Field of the 3A class was out with measles and Betty Sparks of the 2A class had chickenpox.

Third grade at Peter Boscow had two new members: Rosemary Ripa from Boise, Idaho, and DeLorena from Pocatello, Idaho. Beverly Jones from Pond, Cal., is a new student in the 4A at David Hill. Judith Steele at Junior high moved to Portland. Laura Lee England from Miss Hood's room at the David Hill school moved to California.

New officers at Peter Boscow 3A are: Ernest Seymon, president; Billie Showers, vice-president; Ilene Huenegardner, secretary; Dale Rounson, sergeant-at-arms; Jacqueline Hunt, health officer. New officers in the David Hill 3A and 4A are: Robert Weil, president; Glen Stalaker, secretary; Evelyn Logan, treasurer; Elmer Williams, sergeant-at-arms.

The 3A class at Peter Boscow enjoyed a Christmas party Friday before Christmas. On the same day the class celebrated doll day by each girl bringing her doll to school.

The 5A of Peter Boscow has been studying the New England textile industry. In connection with this work they decided to weave woolen mats for Christmas gifts. Many attractive and useful mats were made by the children.

Junior high 7B is preparing a play to be given at the next auditorium period.

Mrs. Mooberry and Mrs. Kruckek and Superintendent Norder attended the annual O. S. T. A. convention in Portland. Several teachers, who were out of the state for the holidays, were unable to attend.

Boys and girls in the eighth grade of the Junior high, who have earned their high school penmanship certificates, organized a new club last week. Name has not been selected. The purpose of the club is to gather stories of the pioneer days in Oregon from old settlers who live in this vicinity and then to re-write them, so that others may enjoy them. Officers are: George Tsugawa, president; Ann Peters, vice-president; Lucille Rasmussen, secretary-treasurer; Teddy Gardner, reporter; Mrs. Margaret Simon, advisor; Miss Georgiana Brown, assistant-advisor.

Boys and girls of Junior high, who own bicycles, have organized a bicycle patrol. Each member will act as a traffic officer, enforcing the safety rules of the school for pedestrians and bicycle riders. This organization was formed through the suggestion of the Automobile Accident Prevention association of Oregon. Officers are: Teddy Gardner, president; Marion Kuecher, vice-president; Don Hammar, secretary; David Wiley and Francis Brown, judges; Albert Giffels, John Christensen, Loren Bronleewe, Delbert Crews, Billy Corwin and Glen Powers, patrol officers.

December 21, Junior high basketball team, in a hard fought game, won over Forest Grove. The second team took an easy victory from Forest Grove's second team, 13 to 9. Bud Hines of the second team has won a place on the first team. The first team consists of Louie Graft, George Tsugawa, Loren Bronleewe, Bill Grogan, Elmer Rollins. The second team: Bud Hines, Akira Tsugawa, Jack Williamson, Bud Knapp, Teddy Gardner, Jack Butler and Francis Brown. On Friday the same team won a landslide victory over Gaston with a score of 36 to 2.
