Banks People Injured; Mrs.

McFarlane Hostess

BANKS—First semester of school year ended Friday and pupils took their semester tests Thursday and Friday. An unusual test was enjoyed by the public speaking class. As the class had just finished a study of etiquette, their teacher, Miss Doris Bailey, arranged a banquet for them where the members of the class gave after dinner speeches and in other ways demonstrated the points of etiquette which they had learned. Members of the class donated the food for the four courses of the dinner.

Miss Alice Lane and Miss Hazel Paetsch spent the week-end in Portland.
